

Piloting an Open Educational Resources Community

Stephanie Towery
Copyright Officer, University Libraries

Laura Waugh
Librarian, University Libraries

Jessica McClean
Librarian, University Libraries

Welcome

TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY

About Us

- Jessica McClean
 - Subject Librarian
- Stephanie Towery
 - Copyright Officer
- Laura Waugh
 - Digital Collections Librarian

University Libraries Scholarly Communications Team

- Schol Comm @TXST - <https://bit.ly/3epokr7>
- Subject Guides - <https://bit.ly/2HHfoRZ>

Overview

OER Community of Learning

Introduction to Open Educational Resources (OERs)

Breakout Rooms for Discussion

Group Discussion

Q&A

OER Community of Learning

- Purpose:
 - Develop campus-wide knowledge and understanding
 - Build community and foster multidisciplinary collaboration
- Structure:
 - Self-paced Canvas course – 5 modules
 - Synchronous sessions (e.g., workshops, webinars, discussions)
- First cohort will begin the course in Spring 2021.

Interested in participating?

<https://txstate.libwizard.com/f/alkekoerinterest>

Breakout Room Discussion

15 minutes

Please consider all three questions

What have you done to incorporate OER materials?

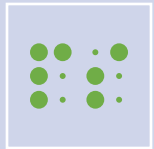

If you've looked at OER materials, why did you choose or not choose to use it?

In general, what has been holding you back from using or incorporating OER materials?

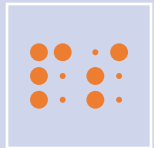

Breakout Room Note Documents

Breakout Room 1

Breakout Room 2

Breakout Room 3

Group Discussion

15 minutes

What have you done to incorporate OER materials?

If you've looked at OER materials, why did you choose or not choose to use it?

In general, what has been holding you back from using or incorporating OER materials?

Q&A