JIM: This is Jim.

SCOTT: Jim.

JIM: Who's this, Scott?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: What's going on down there, buddy?

SCOTT: I'm sorry it took so long, man.

JIM: That's okay. Tell me what's going on.

SCOTT: Okay. He, he's still in a lot of pain, you know. The kids don't want to come up unless he can come out. So, they're just sitting around him and they're praying and stuff.

JIM: Well, he can come out.

SCOTT: I know -- well, I mean, you know, because the pain he's in and agony and stuff.

JIM: If I can -- if we can get him to that ambulance, we'll take the pain away.

SCOTT: Right, right, I understand that.

JIM: And that, that's the solution.

SCOTT: Right. I, I know. Believe me, we're doing the best we can for him.

JIM: I know but we, we, we've got to get this moving. We've got to get this going because daylight is losing us.

SCOTT: I know, Jim.

JIM: David is losing his blood pressure.

SCOTT: Right.

JIM: He, he could be getting sicker. He gave his word to me --

SCOTT: Right.

JIM: That right after that tape was played, that he would come out.

SCOTT: Yes, he said that.

JIM: And it's been hours and hours.

SCOTT: I understand that, Jim.

JIM: Okay, Scott. I'm not mad but I just want him to come out.

SCOTT: I, I know. I'm sorry. I mean --

JIM: That's all -- don't -- where, where's David now?

SCOTT: He's still down the hallway there about, about 100 feet.

JIM: I want you, I want you -- I don't want you to --

SCOTT: I don't know exactly how far it is. It seems longer when you've got to limp and stuff.

JIM: I don't want you to leave the room, okay?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: But I want you to holler out and get someone there right now. Is there anybody else there now?

SCOTT: No, they're all over there with him.

JIM: Well, you holler and get someone to walk to you.

SCOTT: Okay.

JIM: Yeah. Are you -- is David still upstairs?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: On the landing?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: Okay. Don't leave the room. Holler out for somebody to come to you.

SCOTT: Okay. I'll --

JIM: Steve, hopefully, but just get somebody else in there, somebody that can hear you.

SCOTT: Yeah. What do you want me to tell them?

JIM: Well, just bring them to you and then I'll tell you.

SCOTT: Okay.

(Gap)
JIM: Scott?

(Gap)

JIM: Scott? Scott, I need you, come here.

(Gap)

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Scott?

STEVE: Steve here.

JIM: Oh, Steve.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Thanks.

STEVE: Okay. I just talked to him. He's been going through a lot of anguish and I mean it's something hard for me to describe but he wanted to tell me to tell you and the news media and everybody pass the word on that you should really be careful as to who you're dealing with. What the guy just went through, I've never seen anything like it before. But he wanted, he wanted me to remind you to read Psalm Chapter 2.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Don't forget -- okay. Read Psalm 2. Then he wanted me to read to you Revelation 18.

JIM: Okay, but --

STEVE: I understand and, you know, right now -- I mean I've never seen -- Jim, I've been on this earth for 43 years. I --

JIM: Steve, but what this is --

STEVE: Did you ever read the story of Christ when he hung on the cross after that Garden of Gethsemane experience where he actually -- perspirations of drops of blood because of the anguish?

JIM: Uh-huh.

STEVE: Can I just read Revelation 18 to you?

JIM: In, in just a minute, Steve, I will listen to it.

STEVE: Okay, thank you.

JIM: I give you my word but --

STEVE: Thank you.

JIM: -- what I'm worried about is --

STEVE: Well, see, because of what he's going through right now -- I know you don't understand. I know you don't believe it. But there is a Bible and there's a lot of words in that book.

JIM: Well, we believe it.

STEVE: And, you know, and the only reason -- in fact, everything's ready to go right now but all of a sudden, I mean, he started praying.
JIM: Okay.

STEVE: And, so, everybody -- this is the honest truth -- everybody's around here quiet. They're just waiting.

JIM: I believe and, and I'm sure that's the case. And I believe you, and you're being honest with me.

STEVE: Yes, I really -- I honestly am.

JIM: But now, look, he gave us his word --

STEVE: I know that.

JIM: -- that, that --

STEVE: I'm aware of that.

JIM: -- that after the message was played --

STEVE: Yes. And you know -- I know that like you do. And I could repeat that to you. I agree with you.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: But what if there is a higher power than you and I that speaks to an individual or says something -- read this or pray and -- I mean what do you do? That's the question.

JIM: Well, I don't think prayer is going to end just because --

STEVE: Well, no, that's -- but, but understand -- JIM: David comes to the ambulance.

STEVE: -- but this is why he said -- this is why he told me to tell you to read Psalm 2 on your own. Read that. And he also said, be aware of who you're dealing with.

JIM: Just remember that, that David told the world --

STEVE: I understand that.

JIM: -- on the radio --

STEVE: I understand that.

JIM: -- that he was coming out.

STEVE: Can I read -- can I read Revelation 18 to you?

JIM: Immediately.

STEVE: Thank you. I really appreciate it.

JIM: But I want -- wait, Steve.

STEVE: Yes.

JIM: Steve, I want him to come out.

STEVE: I, I understand that. I --

JIM: When does he plan to come out?

STEVE: Well, that's what he said -- well, can I do this first and then let, let me go back? Is that okay? I'm right here in the middle. Everything's ready. I mean --

JIM: This has been -- this has been four hours.

STEVE: I realize -- has it really been that long?

JIM: It's been a long time, you know --

STEVE: I don't think it's been quite -- it hasn't been that long.

JIM: Well, two hours, I'm sorry, two hours.

STEVE: Exactly.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Okay. Let me read this and then let, let me do the next thing. I'll be right here by the phone.

JIM: Okay. You just read me that and then we'll talk.

STEVE: Okay. Revelation 18. It says, and after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils and the hold of every foul spirit and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kinds of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, come out of her, my people, that you be not partakers of her sins and that you receive not of her plagues.

For her sins have reached unto heaven and God hath remembered her iniquities.

Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works, in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

How much she hath glorified herself and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her, for she saith in her heart, I sit as a queen and am no widow and shall see no sorrow.

Therefore, shall her plagues come in one day, death and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her shall bewail her and lament for her when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

Standing afar off for the fear of her torment saying, alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city, for in one hour is they judgment come.

And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buys their merchandise anymore.

The merchandise of gold and silver and precious stones, and of pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet and all thyine wood and all manner vessels of ivory and all manner vessels of most precious wood and of brass and iron and marble.

And cinnamon and odours and ointments and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and beasts and sheep and horses and chariots and slaves and souls of men.

And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find no more at all.

The merchants of these things which were made rich by her shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing.

And saying, alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls.
For in one hour so great riches is come to naught. And every shipmaster and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea stood afar off.

And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, what city is like unto this great city.

And they cast dust on their heads and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness, for in one hour is she made desolate.

Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

And a mighty angel took up a millstone like a great -- like a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, thus with violence shall the great city Babylon be thrown down and shall be found no more at all.

And the voices of harpers and musicians and of pipers and of trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee and no craftsman of whatsoever craft he would shall be found anymore in thee, and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.
And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee, for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all that were slain upon the earth.

That's the end of the chapter. Can -- let me, let me talk to him now, okay?

JIM: Steve, wait just a minute.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Now, I listened to you.

STEVE: Yes, you did.

JIM: For all that time.

STEVE: Right.

JIM: Okay. Now, it's your turn to listen to me.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay? Now, I want you to really listen --

STEVE: I'm listening.

JIM: -- and not, and not to say anything. I just want you to hear me out.

STEVE: All right.
JIM: Okay. We put our trust in you --
STEVE: Right.
JIM: -- and David --
STEVE: Right.
JIM: -- okay. David and I made an agreement, okay?
STEVE: Uh-huh.
JIM: He also made that agreement with --
STEVE: Right.
JIM: -- the world on the radio.
STEVE: Right.
JIM: Our agreement was that as soon as the tape was played everyone would walk out peacefully.
STEVE: Okay.
JIM: And we made the arrangements, and you gave me the solid guarantee.
STEVE: Okay.
JIM: Now, we've been extremely patient, waited for the prayers, waited for everything that you wanted to do.
STEVE: Okay.
JIM: David gave us his word. We have made commitments, okay?
STEVE: All right.
JIM: I now have the commanders concerned and they are losing trust and confidence on -- about the buses. They're -- about me. I've got commanders who do not trust in me. I said, look, this is going to happen. And they're starting to doubt me. And, you know, it's a problem if, if we have this go like that. I don't want that to happen. We've got an ambulance there. I know he's in pain. We're going to get him pain killer.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: We're going to take care of him. But I worked for you. I worked hard to do this. And Henry did and Gary did and a lot of people are on your side, are trying and trying deeply to help you, all of you. The, the, -- there's a lot of people, the public, the people that have been calling the radio stations. You wouldn't believe how many people love you and are concerned about you.

STEVE: I do believe that, Gary, I do.

JIM: It's true.

STEVE: I do believe it, I do.

JIM: I mean thee's thousands of calls.

Everybody is so concerned.

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JIM: Now, I have a problem with darkness, okay. It's a problem we can overcome and work through, but I've got to have some movement now, okay?

STEVE: Okay. Can I -- is that it? Can I -- should I --

JIM: Well, one more thing.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Do you understand what I'm saying?

STEVE: Yes, I do, completely.

JIM: Well, you go ahead now and send David out and, and the children, just like you promised you would.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Just like David promised he would.

STEVE: All right.

JIM: Will you?

STEVE: Here I go.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Okay.

(Gap)

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Yeah, Steve?

STEVE: He says his God says that he is to wait because that which was played on the air is given for everyone to hear --

JIM: Right.

STEVE: -- that they might be proven or not.
That's exactly what he said to me. Did you hear me?

   JIM:  Yeah, Steve, but --

   STEVE:  Is this being taped by any chance?

   JIM:  No.

   STEVE:  I wished it were.

   JIM:  Well, we can arrange that. But the problem is --

   STEVE:  No, I under -- everything you said, you said do I understand? And I do. I understand the predicament.

   JIM:  But that was not -- but that was not our agreement, Steve.

   STEVE:  I understand but --

   JIM:  David --

   STEVE:  But what he -- look, I know in this world you don't believe that there is a supernatural power that speaks audibly to a person.

   JIM:  No.

   STEVE:  If there is a God in this universe and there's the laws of man and there's the laws of God. And this God that has led him all his life says to him to wait, what do you do?

   JIM:  But, Steve, is David, is David a man of his word?

   STEVE:  He always has been.
JIM: What does trust mean to you?

STEVE: Exactly what it means -- exactly what it means to you. Honestly, Jim, I --

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: That's why I'm telling you I understand what you're saying.

JIM: Uh-huh.

STEVE: And as a human being, I want to do that also but if there's a God more powerful --

JIM: But --

STEVE: But wait, now, wait.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: That's why he told me to remind you to read Psalm -- write down Psalm 2. I mean you may not believe me. We're a bunch of nuts or whatever else. And I know all about the agreement, and I agree. But he said read Psalm 2 and --

JIM: Okay. Steve, --

STEVE: -- and read -- wait now -- read Revelation 18. And he's told me just now that his God has told him to wait, that all those that got to hear that on that station -- which you agreed with him, that was great -- that those who got to hear might be proven or not.

JIM: Steve -- okay, fine. Now, just -- STEVE: Okay. All right.

JIM: -- wait for a minute. I want you to listen.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay?

STEVE: Right.

JIM: A man is -- a man is his word, okay, a man is his word. And God's word is important, too. I mean we're talking about someone giving his word, man or God, someone gives the word. I, I have Psalm 2. And the last sentence in Psalm 2 talks about trust.

STEVE: That's right.

JIM: Doesn't it?

STEVE: Yes, it does.

JIM: Trust. Now, we're talking about trust.

STEVE: That's right.

JIM: And what's happened is we're not getting that. It's breaking down because there's no movement. Dave's message to us and to the world was one of trust and faith, okay. And we have got to move.

STEVE: Did, did you get to hear it? By the way, did you get to hear what he said on that?

JIM: I listened -- I listened to it.
STEVE: You did.

JIM: But the bottom line is, is he a man of his word? In other words, what are the people, the public going to feel now, the whole world. The message of David Koresh. Here is my message and after I play it, I will walk out. Now --

STEVE: You reminded me of looking at that last verse in Chapter 2 and it says, blessed are all they that put their trust not in man but in the person that the chapter speaks about.

JIM: Uh-huh. But, Steve, stop for one minute and think about all the positive things we have done together, --

STEVE: I agree.

JIM: -- you and me and David and Henry and Gary. Think of all these things we've done.

STEVE: I have. I am -- it's before my mind. It's something I, I'm aware of right now. But --

JIM: Well, I --

STEVE: -- the only reason I ever left Hawaii in the first place was because I wanted to know God, his will, put us -- and over man, over my own fallible weaknesses. I've wanted to know --

JIM: Right.
STEVE: Do you understand?

JIM: I do understand that.

STEVE: Okay. But that's the point. So, right now he said wait and there's going to be given a little --

JIM: How long, how long is he --

STEVE: Okay. Can I go back and ask?

JIM: Well, wait a minute --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- before you leave.

STEVE: Okay. Go ahead.

JIM: We, we have done everything, everything you've asked.

STEVE: I realize that.

JIM: I think --

STEVE: Do you want me to say that?

JIM: Well, I think I need to talk to him.

If he's not going out now, I need to talk to him.

STEVE: Just a minute, okay?

JIM: Uh-huh.

(Gap)

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Oh, okay.
STEVE: I'm back on here.

JIM: Is he coming?

STEVE: He's -- right now he's still in a state of quiet. He told me that when he's allowed, he will come to you and speak to you. And he says at this time he's not been. And he says, just read to him one text.

JIM: Okay. But, Steve, --

STEVE: I understand. I understand.

JIM: Every moment of delay now --

STEVE: I understand.

JIM: -- diminishes David's truth he spoke earlier. In the public's eyes, I'm telling you, in the public's eyes it, it's going down every minute because he, he said that and now it's not coming to fulfillment. I mean his, his statement of what would happen is not coming to fulfillment, just like he said it would. And the public is starting to doubt your message. And we are starting to feel that, you know, you don't trust us. Let, let's -- STEVE: No, we, we do. We do. I have not had a problem with that. I have not had a problem with that.

JIM: Look, we have got to stick together. I understand that David may be having some feelings and --inside himself and whether he's talking to the Almighty, whatever, that's not going to stop when you get medical care and it's not going to stop when you get to the ambulance. It's not going to stop ever if that's what's happening. Where, if he does get to the ambulance, he's going to have the public behind him with all this faith and outpouring of love and affection. And everybody wants to see this --

STEVE: I agree with what you're saying from you -- what you understand.

JIM: Right.

STEVE: But the whole point comes down to, you know, I've never met a person in my life -- I've met people that said they've been inspired, they hear voices, they've had visions, they've had dreams. I've never bought it. I've always been skeptical of that sort of thing. But because of his ability with the scriptures and all the rest --

JIM: Well, --

STEVE: He says right now he's to wait.

JIM: Well, you know, Steve, the news media, the worldwide news media.

STEVE: But you, you must admit, you know, if there's a God, he's over all things and if he's the one that has been leading in the man's life, he will do what he's got to do.

    JIM:  But God would never --

    STEVE:  And, and --

    JIM:  God would never break his word.

There's -- God would never break his word.

    STEVE:  You're right, God does keep his word.

    JIM:  And the news media -- the news media is outside and they're waiting to see the message. They're waiting to see if David --

    STEVE:  I agree.

    JIM:  -- spoke the truth --

    STEVE:  I agree.

    JIM:  -- and is he coming out.

    STEVE:  Okay. Can I read this one verse and let me -- let's pick up from there and you --

    JIM:  Okay, you go ahead.

    STEVE:  Okay, thanks. I have laid a snare for thee -- and remember, like it says, and we just read the Revelation 18 that talks about Babylon falls. Well, Jeremiah 50 and 51 is also a prophecy seen by Jeremiah which harmonize with the Revelation, the same picture.

    So, about this same Babylon, it says, I have laid a snare for thee. This is what God is --
Are you there? Jim?

JIM: Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Yeah, I'm listening.

STEVE: What happened?

JIM: Oh, I'm just listening. I just turned away and looked at the commander there.

STEVE: Oh, yeah, it clicked off or something.

JIM: Oh, no, I can hear you.

STEVE: Oh, you could?

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: Okay. Well, that's fine.

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: So, anyway, it says in Revelation we were reading about Babylon falling and at the same time in Jeremiah 50 and 51 it talks about the same thing as that John the Revelator saw.

And Babylon in the final days as shown in Revelation 13 is all the world. We're all in confusion. But God says, I've laid a snare for thee and you are also taken, O Babylon, and you wast not aware and you're -- you are found and have also caught because thou has striven against the Lord.

So, in the scriptures, in this last -- in this chapter of Jeremiah 50, it's talking about a snare being laid by God for Babylon and Babylon was taken unawares.

And we see this as being the final days. We see this as being all the world.

And he asked me to read that to you. So, I have done that.

JIM: Okay, Steve. Now, will you listen to me for a minute?

STEVE: Yes, I will.

JIM: Okay. Just listen and --

STEVE: All right.

JIM: -- think about the things that we have done for you.

STEVE: I have.

JIM: We have played the scripture message.

STEVE: Right.

JIM: Probably 30, 40, 50 times. We, we made an agreement that we'd play it once for every time two children come out. But we've actually, in effect, and you know this, we played it over and over and over again and --

STEVE: Right.

JIM: -- and the radio stations confirmed it. We played the hour-long message on the Christian Broadcast Network. We played an hour-long message on KRLD. And we, we kept every single part of our bargain. We, we moved the snipers back from the fence. We told you before a truck would come up. We've never, ever, ever broken our word.

STEVE: I believe that.

JIM: And, now, I feel, I feel really let down by you and David. I mean, I'm telling you, I had a lot of faith in you guys. I mean I'm around here bragging to these commanders that you guys are first rate and your word is your bond and --

STEVE: I understand.

JIM: And now, I mean, I just feel like, I mean, somebody has just devastated me because --

STEVE: Is there anyway you can put yourself into my position, though, if you came here in the first place because you believed in God and you saw something and had a conviction in the Bible and the man was led by a higher power --

JIM: I know, but, Steve, --

STEVE: But what, what would you do if that God, if he says --

JIM: I'd keep my word, though. I'd keep my word.

STEVE: But that same God is saying to him, wait. It's not that he's not going to do what he said, not at all. In fact, he's not said -- he's not recanted from that. His God said to him --- he prayed a long time and there was a voice that did -- said nothing else to him but, wait.

JIM: Well, --

STEVE: That's all that was said to him, was wait.

JIM: You know, that -- okay. Now, listen to me for a minute.

STEVE: All right.

JIM: Okay. That message that David gave us today, okay, he told me it came from inside him, okay.
And isn't that a message, too, a message that came from inside him to the world that said what he was going to do? Isn't that a message that he got?

STEVE: Well, --

JIM: Where did he get that message?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Then that message --

STEVE: But he's not stopped from doing that. We're dealing with an element of time.

JIM: Yeah, but he said immediately.

STEVE: He did say imm -- I didn't hear that.
JIM: He said immediately, yes. It is. That is the point. He said immediately, and that's what all the news reporters -- there's news reporters outside, worldwide, waiting for this to happen because it's such a great event. And it's not happening. I, I feel bad because I think the public is going to say, geez, this guy must be a fake, you know. He must not have -- be a, a religious, a charismatic man that he said he was. He said he'd come out, and he's not coming out. You, you know where I'm coming from, Steve?

STEVE: Yes, I do. I -- very, very --

JIM: I'm being --

STEVE: -- clearly. I understand, you know, from your perspective very clearly, I do.

JIM: I'm being honest, now.

STEVE: I know you are.

JIM: I'm being sincere.

STEVE: I know you are. I believe that you are.

JIM: I have concern for your safety. What we need now, okay, and what I need to show these commanders is a sign of your good faith and cooperation. I -- something's gotta -- you've got to show me something. You've got to tell me --
STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- something like a time, like if I give you a few more minutes, that then you'll come out. I mean I --

STEVE: Let me, let me, let me go talk to him then.

JIM: Okay. Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Hold on.

STEVE: Okay. I've been listening.

JIM: Okay. Is there anybody there you can holler at to come hold the phone for, for you?

STEVE: Scott's right here next to me.

JIM: All right.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: You give the phone to Scott.

STEVE: Okay, I'll do that.

JIM: All right. Now, I want you to tell David this, okay?

STEVE: Uh-huh, I will.

JIM: That Jim says he's been patient and everybody's been understanding, okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And we need a sign of his good faith and cooperation. And that sign --
STEVE: Yes.

JIM: -- can be, okay?

STEVE: Okay, I'm listening.

JIM: That sign can be his word to you that he's coming out in five or ten minutes.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. That's enough sign. I'm not asking for the world.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. You go there. David says, give me five or ten minutes. I've cleared this up with the Lord. I've cleared it up inside. I've cleared it up however he clears it up. And in ten -- whatever -- but a reasonable period of time now.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Within a few minutes.

STEVE: Got ya.

JIM: That he says he's coming out. I'll take that as a sign of good faith, okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: You leave Scott on the phone.

STEVE: Here he is, right here.

JIM: All right.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Now, Steve, I'm counting on you for all these people to help us and to help David.

SCOTT: Hello?

JIM: Scott?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: Okay. Hang on with me.

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: What's going on down there?

SCOTT: Huh?

JIM: What's going on?

SCOTT: It's just like Steve said, you know. He was told to wait. And I perfectly understand your situation, that you, you know, you have to do what you have to do. Like Steve said, it's not that he's not going to keep his word --

JIM: Okay.

SCOTT: -- but that God told him to wait.

JIM: But listen, there's another issue, okay?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: And that is that you and I both know God is a loving and caring being, right?

SCOTT: Oh, yeah.

JIM: Here you are suffering and you need medical attention.

SCOTT: Yeah.
JIM: Okay. God would support you to go out. David supports you to go out. You know what I mean? That is the only message that could come from a real God, right?

SCOTT: Well, --

JIM: I mean it could be to get you help and --

SCOTT: Right.

JIM: So you continue the faith and spread the word.

SCOTT: Yeah, I understand what you're saying. But, see, I've been in this thing for seven years.

JIM: Right.

SCOTT: And -- oh, hold it, here's Steve.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Steve.

STEVE: He said to me, why don't you fear God? He says, I can't go beyond what, what God has told me. He said, he gave me the seals, and that's what I have given to mankind. I have tried and, and that's been my whole mission in life. And he says, why doesn't he fear God?

JIM: No, you tell David that I do fear God.
STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. I have been a God-fearing man my whole life.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: But --

STEVE: But you understand what he's saying by saying -- meaning that he can't go against the same God that opened up all the book. He saw in color and seen exactly what the prophet saw about the last days, how it come down, that God had a snare for Babylon. That the world, even though they think they know God and they build their churches and so forth, our lifestyle doesn't show it. We don't know God, anybody. That's my own admittance. And God's, God's going to lay a snare for those that think they're religious, think they're this and that, when God has proved people.

JIM: Right.

STEVE: So, this is what he -- he loves you as a person.

JIM: I know that.

STEVE: I mean he's not -- you, I'm --

JIM: I believe you. I believe you.

STEVE: I hope you believe me when I say to you he's not playing a game with you.
JIM: No.

STEVE: I mean he was told to wait. He said, so the same God that showed him the seals and gave him the seals is the same one that said, wait. So, that's -- right at this moment, that's all he can do, right at this moment.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: And it's not like -- I mean --

JIM: That could change -- that could change in a minute, right?

STEVE: Exactly.

JIM: Okay. Now --

STEVE: But that's what I don't know. See, I don't know.

JIM: Okay. Now, listen to me.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. You know I am concerned about his health and safety of everyone, okay?

STEVE: Well, but, but, you know how he would react to that?

JIM: Oh, oh, I understand.

STEVE: If there's a God -- I mean if he couldn't keep him alive, I mean what's the sense in even living at all in the first place.

JIM: I understand.
STEVE: But, but --

JIM: Let, let me talk, Steve.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Let me talk.

STEVE: Go ahead.

JIM: I've been a good listener.

STEVE: Yeah, I know, go ahead.

JIM: But let me talk. David doesn't want to die. We talked about that. He and I talked about that directly.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: He expressed that to me implicitly, okay?

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JIM: That -- make no mistake, and I'm telling you straight out. I asked him straight out about that.

STEVE: Right.

JIM: Okay. He, he does not want to die.

STEVE: Truly, I agree.

JIM: Okay. Now, we -- every minute that he's there, his truth is being diminished. That's one thing that's a negative. I want -- don't want that to happen. I've got world -- we've got worldwide media out there and what we're hearing is that they don't believe he's coming out. And in the next 15 minutes, they're all going back to their normal programming because they don't even think -- they've got it all interrupted. I mean I guess what I'm trying to convey to you is how --

STEVE: I understand that. I understand that.

JIM: They think he's a fraud if, if he doesn't keep his word.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And what I'm saying is, I, I don't believe that's true. I mean I, I, I think you guys are sincere. I know he's sincere. And I want him to come out of there in the most positive light he can.

STEVE: Okay. Can I pass that on before -- I won't remember all your words so let me pass it on before, you know, I don't, you know, give me that.

JIM: Tell him I'm concerned about him. I'm concerned what people feel about him.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And he will lose, you know, all the good he got from that broadcast, he's going to lose it.

STEVE: Okay. Let me tell him that, okay?

JIM: Okay. Hey, listen --
STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: I wasn't supposed to tell you that about the media.

STEVE: That's okay.

JIM: Okay. I'm slipping that to you on the side.

STEVE: Okay, but, -- well, you know, it's -- well, I -- look, it's been an honest thing between you and I anyway so far. So, it's not --

JIM: Well, I'm going to get in trouble if the commanders know I said that.

STEVE: All right. Okay. Well, you know, that's where it ends.

JIM: Okay. All right.

STEVE: Just a moment.

JIM: Between us.

SCOTT: I'm just going to keep holding the phone, okay?

JIM: Scott?

SCOTT: Yeah.

JIM: Hey, you're there?

SCOTT: Yeah. I'm going to just keep holding the phone.

JIM: You just hold on.

SCOTT: Yeah.
JIM: Holler at me if you need me.

(Gap)

SCOTT: Okay. Thanks, Jim.

STEVE: He said if he's a fraud his God will prove -- hello?

JIM: Steve?

STEVE: Yeah. He said -- he was saying to me if he's a fraud, his God will prove that and show that.

JIM: You, you tell him that Jim said, I know he's not a fraud.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: I know he's not. See, I know that he's sincere and truthful, okay?

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JIM: I know that.

STEVE: So far it appears, though, he's waiting. And if you saw the look on his face and so forth --

JIM: Well, it's important to me that you go to him right now --

STEVE: All right.

JIM: -- without your mind cluttered with any other facts.

STEVE: All right.
JIM: And you tell him that Jim said that he knows that he's not a fraud. That is not my feeling.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: I'm --

STEVE: All right.

JIM: -- talking about the news media and what millions Americans --

STEVE: Right.

JIM: -- and millions of people --

STEVE: Okay, got ya. Hang on.

JIM: They don't know you like I do.

SCOTT: Okay, I'm still here.

SCOTT: Yeah.

(Gap)

STEVE: He says, just fear God -- Jim?

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: He, he thinks the world of you. He says, just fear God and wait, just wait. You know, like you said, I don't know, a minute or whatever, but just wait, Jim.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Okay?

JIM: Well, you know, Steve --

STEVE: No, I do, I know --
JIM: I understand that.

STEVE: I know all the arguments and I --

JIM: I'm not mad at you, guy.

STEVE: I'm glad. I'm glad.

JIM: But, listen, there's not a more patient guy than me.

STEVE: I thank you for it.

JIM: But --

STEVE: Maybe that's a virtue of -- would have to be a virtue of God.

JIM: That's right. But we need to have a change. We need to have some movement. Maybe -- STEVE: But that -- he, he can't move until -- I mean -- right -- that's what he wants to do.

Look --

JIM: Would you go down to David -- would it be -- would it help if, if, if you just go down there for just a minute and, and said a prayer with him and see if now's the time to come out because, bless his heart, I want him to come out.

STEVE: I know you do. I know you do. And that's not the problem with him. It all came down to that one word that was told him, to wait, nothing else, not don't do this or don't go back on your word, nothing like that.
JIM: Right. I know. I understand that. I understand that. You're being straight up with me and I appreciate that.

STEVE: I am. I really am.

JIM: I know you are.

STEVE: Oh, boy, I'll tell you what, you know, being -- going back and forth and --

JIM: Now, is Scott still there?

STEVE: Pardon? Yeah, he's right here.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Can, can I pass him to you, you know, and I'll just wait there for a bit, okay?

JIM: Okay. Go, go, go to David.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Just get with him --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- for just a minute, now.

STEVE: Okay. Thanks, Jim.

JIM: A brief -- listen.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: A brief prayer maybe you and him together and see is it time now to come out. I mean has it --

STEVE: Okay. Well, --

JIM: And, and, and can he come out? Is, is, is the waiting over? Is the message over? Is the message now to go?

    STEVE: Well, let me, let me just, you know, I'm going to go over there and just wait a minute there and talk to him then a little bit.

    JIM: Okay, Steve. Put Scott on.

    STEVE: Okay, here he is.
