(Tape 25)

STEVE: -- people coming out. You see what I'm saying? We asked for it two days ago or whatever and it never came, so that's okay, though. We're making do with what we got. I'm still talking with you and I choose to and will continue to do so.

JIM: Well, we, you know, we --

STEVE: And I will tell you again I am also disappointed that, you know, we didn't follow through, but he told me again that it has not changed, but he says his God told him to wait and that's what he's doing, so --

JIM: Okay. And I'm going to respect that. Okay?

STEVE: I tell you the truth. You know, humanly I'm embarrassed.

JIM: Steve, I'm --

STEVE: Could you appreciate that even?

JIM: Yes. I do appreciate it and I --

STEVE: Like you say the world yourself -- I'm just embarrassed even if it's one other human being, if I'm telling someone the truth. My integrity is at stake.

JIM: Well --

STEVE: I realize what it does to one's reputation after that point of time.

    JIM: Well, let me say this.
    STEVE: Okay. Go ahead.

    JIM: And that is that a leader -- I respect you for saying that, first of all, but a leader has a lot of attributes and some of them -- courage. That's one, right? Would you agree?
    STEVE: Yes, I would.
    JIM: Conviction.
    STEVE: Um-hum.

    JIM: Which is something I think you have strongly, and a commitment, you know. And I've seen a lot of conviction, but I haven't seen that much courage or commitment. And I have to show my bosses, you know, that you guys will keep your word to me and I want to do that, and so if you will send some kids out and I'll send the phone in. I can say look, we had a breakdown yesterday, but --

    STEVE: Jim, how come you didn't hear me what I said? I mean, I -- look, I can't, I can't do anything, honestly. I'm going to try. Now, that's what I'm telling you. I'm going to try.
    JIM: Okay.

    STEVE: But, you know, that -- it won't -- nothing will ever be contingent on that.
JIM: That's okay.
STEVE: If you sent in a --
JIM: That's okay, Steve. I understand.
STEVE: Okay. A trailer full of gold or whatever else. Okay. I know you got it again. I think once in awhile you and I get sidetracked and --
JIM: Yeah.
STEVE: -- just come back to the same issues, but I know you're anxious -- JIM: We're like brothers. Hey, Steve --
STEVE: I know -- huh?
JIM: Like brothers.
STEVE: Oh, yeah. I'm sure we could have had a good game of football, but --
JIM: Yeah.
STEVE: -- anyway.
JIM: Well, that's nothing. I mean, heck, we're just, we're just two guys trying to work out a difficult situation.
STEVE: Yeah.
JIM: And, you know, don't you ever think that I take anything by it. I appreciate your hanging in there.
STEVE: No, I really -- no, and neither am I easily offended. I'm not. You know --
JIM: I'm not either.

STEVE: -- people can say a lot to me and I realize that because of, you know, background, genetics, upbringing, false reports, whatever else. It can be a combination of those things. That's how a lot of people come to the conclusions, so I --

JIM: Well, we got to hang in there for the children. They can't speak for themselves.

STEVE: Well, let's hang in there for all of us.

JIM: That's right. Let's do that and --

STEVE: I mean, I don't choose to die anymore than the children do. I still love life as much as I did when I was five or ten.

JIM: Nobody said die. We're going to work through this.

STEVE: Well, this is what I'm talking about, too, you know. I mean, none of us here choose to die or do we choose to cause problems or bring in -- anybody else's life into, you know, anything but keep everything safe.

JIM: Steve, let's take a break and leave somebody by the phone in case I need to --

STEVE: Well, right now -- let's see. I'm over here by myself.
JIM: Okay.

STEVE: I don't know. Every -- I think somebody -- they went to --

JIM: Well, just when you, when you got out -- off, you know, just send somebody back to watch the phone and --

STEVE: You mean to keep an eye out if you ring or --

JIM: Yeah. That's all.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And let me give you my number so you --

STEVE: Oh, let me write it down. It's same one, is it? Well, let me take it just in case.

JIM: Take it just in case.

STEVE: All right.

JIM: 799 --

STEVE: Okay, 799.

JIM: --0545.

STEVE: 0545.

JIM: Okay. Now, that other phone where -- there's another phone somewhere. We talked to Wayne a couple times.

STEVE: Right.

JIM: Okay. Now, the way that works is, only that phone, if you pick the receiver up --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- it rings the phone here.

STEVE: I see. So that's -- okay. This whole thing is so screwy the way these phones are.

JIM: Hey, it's my fault. I apologize. I should have explained it clearly before. Okay? It's my fault.

STEVE: Okay. So one of the other phones he has --

JIM: Well, wherever -- we talked to Wayne one time and he was on a different phone.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And if you just pick the receiver up, you don't have to dial or anything --

STEVE: All right.

JIM: -- it starts ringing and you'll get me. If you're at this phone, just dial the 799 number and you'll get me.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. That was the glitch. I didn't explain it.

STEVE: I see. Okay.

JIM: Now, what I -- here -- here's what I want you guys to do for me.
STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Just relax.

STEVE: I'm listening.

JIM: Take a deep breath. Okay? We're going to work all this out. Talk to David and, you know, be in there fighting for us. Let's get it, let's get it resolved if we can. Okay?

STEVE: I sure want -- I sure wish that off the record, off the line, I mean apart from all this, I'd sure like to see ahead of time or hear from you what you thought about how this whole thing came about. I mean, really from your perspective.

JIM: Okay. You know, we --

STEVE: I mean, you as a person, you as a human being who has to answer to God also.

JIM: If you come out, we'll talk. If you come out, we'll talk.

STEVE: You understand what I'm saying?

JIM: Yes, and if you come out --

STEVE: You and I have talked over some time and so forth. We've talked about honesty, integrity and so forth and --

JIM: I'll tell you if you come out, we'll sit down. We'll -- I'll tell you all about it.

STEVE: You'd like us to come out for that very one reason then, right?

    JIM: Well, I want you to come out for a whole lot of reasons.

    STEVE: No, I'm only -- I know. I'm --

    JIM: I mean, you know, I want all those kids and those --

    STEVE: I mean, really it's -- I mean, you know, I've listened to a lot of people having a lot of things to say about all this and that, but I mean when you think about who is all involved and, I mean, the lack of safety from the beginning and then what you're telling me now, you know, I mean, that, that's why, you know, I want to believe you so bad and I'm doing the best I can. I really am.

    JIM: Well, I'll tell you --

    STEVE: Especially with you as an individual and you've been following through on that.

    JIM: Well, if we -- we'd been on the phone to start with, we could have worked it out maybe.

    Okay?

    STEVE: But this is what David has been implying from -- right from the beginning, so when --

    JIM: Well, we can't change that.

    STEVE: -- you bring out things like that, you know, he just has to smile to a degree.
JIM: Well, let him, let him show me some of that good faith then.

STEVE: Okay. No, no. He -- but the first thing he has is love for you as a person.

JIM: Oh, I know that.

STEVE: He would give you morning, noon and night, any time of the day, to show up -- show you things that must be understood because ignorance is not bliss. Ignorance is not bliss.

JIM: Okay. I got to go talk to these commanders.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Hang in there with me now.

STEVE: I will, and if you call back, I'll be right back here.

JIM: Okay, Steve.

STEVE: Okay. And I'll try to work it out where maybe you can talk to him on the phone or whatever else.

JIM: Do that. I need to do that.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay. Thanks.

(Telephone ringing.)
RA:  Hello?
JIM:  Hello.  This is Jim.
RACHEL:  Hi.
JIM:  Who's this?
RACHEL:  Rachel.
JIM:  Hi, Rachel.  Are you okay?
RACHEL:  Yes, just fine.
JIM:  Is -- can I talk to David, please?
RACHEL:  Just a minute.  Let me see if he's able.
JIM:  Um-hum.  David?
STEVE:  Hello?
JIM:  Hello.  This is Jim.
STEVE:  Yeah.  Steve here.
JIM:  Oh, Steve.  How are you doing?
STEVE:  Yeah, not too bad.
JIM:  I want to see if I can get David.  Is he around?
STEVE:  He's -- just a minute.  Let me take a look.
JIM:  Okay.  Thanks.
STEVE:  I left him and he said to me, "Has he read those scriptures yet?"
JIM:  No.  I'm sorry, Steve, I haven't.  I called for a reason and that was to tell you that -- you know, you mentioned this morning about the, the ladies, the two ladies --

STEVE: Yes.

JIM: -- that had a charge on them?

STEVE: Right.

JIM: And, you know, I wasn't aware of that because I slept the whole night.

STEVE: Oh, yeah, I can imagine.

JIM: And so I went in there and -- in the Command Center in the back.

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JIM: I just raised hell with them and said
what -- you know, what are you doing to these two ladies? You know, that's -- they said well, we, we didn't know. I said well, that's crazy, you know.

Anyway, I made a big stink about it and made them get on the phone to the United States Attorney and they're dropping it and they're held only as material witnesses.

STEVE: All right. I mean, they don't --

JIM: No. They didn't do nothing. I -- we --

STEVE: They neither do know. I mean, seriously.

JIM: Listen. We took care of it. Okay?
STEVE: Okay.

JIM: And they're going to be held as material witnesses for their safety.

STEVE: All right.

JIM: The charges were filed just to hold them.

STEVE: Yeah. When you said that, I figured as much.

JIM: But, but anyway, I want you to know that. Now, listen --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- you know, I did it for you guys. I know you were worried about them and I met, I met the one lady --

STEVE: Right.

JIM: -- in the hallway and she had a tape for -- you know, the tape to the, you know, radio.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: You know?

STEVE: Right.

JIM: She was real nice. The -- they're having a news conference --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: -- at -- right about now.

STEVE: Okay.
JIM: But I want to alert you to it. Do you have T.V. you can look at?

STEVE: Not right at the moment. We had one plugged in. What channel would it be on? We don't -- I don't think --

JIM: Channel? It's probably all of them, you know.

STEVE: Oh, okay.

JIM: But some of the commanders are going to be on there live.

STEVE: Okay. Well, let's put it on then real quick. Do you mind?

JIM: No. Go ahead.

STEVE: Could I talk to you a little later then?

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Have David call me --

STEVE: I'll try to do that.

JIM: -- as soon as it's over.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Okay.

STEVE: Bye.

* * * * *

* * * * *
(Dial tone.)

JIM: Hello?

RACHEL: Hello?

JIM: This is Jim.

RACHEL: Okay. Just a minute.

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Yeah. Steve?

STEVE: Yeah. He said that there was no sound.

JIM: Oh. Well, I got it here and there's sound.

STEVE: Really?

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: Yeah. He didn't get -- he never heard anything. I didn't know if that was just the T.V. or the --

JIM: It's the T.V. Did you see the picture?

STEVE: Yeah, I got to see the picture.

JIM: Yeah, because it's on here. It must be your T.V.

STEVE: What was all said or what was the gist of it all? We heard the first part. It seemed to fuzz in and out a little bit and then it seemed like -- it sounded like they could have been having troubles, too.

JIM:  It's still on.

STEVE:  It's still on?  What channel do you have?

JIM:  Try channel 8.

STEVE TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:  Could you try channel 8 to see if that comes in?

STEVE:  The first part I did hear it did say something about that they were arrested and, you know, of course, about the charges.

JIM:  Yeah.  But -- we were just watching on channel 8.

STEVE:  Okay.

JIM:  See if you can get it on.

STEVE:  He wanted, he wanted me to ask you, you know, you know, it's the kind of thing, you know, it's not what's on your mind, but it's what's on his mind, and he says, "Do you think that you should ask yourself and the other agents do you think this country is too big to be disciplined by God?"

JIM:  Oh, no.  That's -- you know, Steven, I wish in hindsight that this whole thing could have been approached in a different way.

STEVE TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:  Oops.  Careful here.  You're going to click them off there.
JIM: You still there?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: Do you know what I'm saying?

STEVE: Yeah, I do. I really believe that.

I mean, I do believe you mean that and I do myself. It never would have had to come to anything like -- never.

JIM: No. I wish it was handled a different way and I really think that ATF was --

STEVE: I feel bad. I really feel bad for Robert's sake because if what -- the little bit I heard on there was true about the missed signals or whatever, he must feel awful because nothing would have ever come.

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: He should have known that by the demeanor and the spirit of David from spending time -- as much time with him as he did and with all of us.

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: I never held back anything from him at all.

JIM: Well --

STEVE: There were times I felt like saying well, come on, Robert. You're an agent with BATF or FBI or who, you know, but I never did. I thought well, he must -- we -- he can't think that we're that stupid.

    JIM:  I know, I know what you're saying.

    STEVE:  But, anyway, you know, I'll tell you the truth. I still like the man and if something happened with their signals and then maybe it wasn't meant to happen as it did, I mean, I don't know, but I mean --

    JIM:  Well, I'll tell you there's, there's two things that I think did happen. I think ATF was probably supplied with some information from some -- maybe -- I don't know -- people that don't like you. I don't know.

    STEVE:  Oh, that's -- that could be true.

    JIM:  You know, I don't know how that came about. I think you guys may have some enemies. I don't know.

    STEVE:  Well, we do. Marc Breault is the guy that has generated all this for the past two years.

    JIM:  Well, I'm not -- you know, I found bits and pieces but, you know, apparently a lot of people have told agents stuff. You know, the agents, they kind of act out as -- based on facts, you know.

    STEVE:  I would think so, at least to the best of their ability, but even myself, I've listened to -- I'll listen to individuals that have a debate or problems between themselves. Paints a pretty good picture.

JIM: Can you get that press conference on?

STEVE: Just a minute. They might have it on. Hang on one second.

(Press conference on T.V. heard in background.)

RACHEL: Jim? Jim? Hello?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Hello. Let me get him for you. Okay?

RACHEL: Can you -- sorry?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: I need to get him for you. Hold on just a second. Here's Jim.

RACHEL: Can you just tell him to call back after this program is over?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Well, here he is right now. Hold on just a minute.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: Hello? This is Jim.

RACHEL: Can you just call back after this program is over we're trying to listen to?

JIM: Okay.

RACHEL: Okay. Thanks.
JIM: All right. Bye.

   * * * * *

(Telephone ringing.)

RACHEL: Hello?

JIM: Rachel?

RACHEL: Yes.

JIM: This is Jim.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: Is David there?

RACHEL: Just a minute. Let me see.

STEVE: Hello, Jim?

JIM: Steve.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM: How are you doing?

STEVE: Hey, he was just asking me -- he was -- I was saying well, you were on the phone and would you want to talk to him and he said -- I tell you what, Steve, he said who I'd like to talk to -- he said I'd like to talk to Robert Gonzalez.

   JIM: Oh. Well, I don't even think he's in Waco anymore. You know, they sent a lot of these agents, you know, back to their divisions and stuff.

   STEVE: I -- it doesn't sound like you know for sure, though.

   JIM: No. I can check. I can check.
STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Why does, why does he want to talk to him?

STEVE: Just a minute.

STEVE TO DAVID IN BACKGROUND: He wants to know why you'd like to talk with him?

STEVE: Because he still loves the guy.

JIM: Oh. Well, I understand. Let me check and --

STEVE: All right.

JIM: -- if I can't reach him, I promise I'll pass the message. Okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM: Did you guys get to see that press conference?

STEVE: Yeah. He was just watching it. You know, it was real poor for always hearing what the questioners were asking. Toward the end it became a little more clear.

JIM: Yeah. They were all yelling, you know.

STEVE: Right.

JIM: Do you think I could talk to David? Is he there?

STEVE: Well, let me ask him again. Okay?
JIM: Ask him please for me.

STEVE: Jim?

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: He says you don't believe the word of God. He'll talk to you when he gets more information.

JIM: Oh. Well, tell him that I do believe in God and you know that.

STEVE: He says, he says you don't believe the word of God. Everybody believes in God, a god, whatever --

JIM: Yeah.

STEVE: -- whether it's themselves, but he says tell him he doesn't believe the word of God and he'll talk to him when he has more information.

JIM: Okay. So he's going to talk to me later basically, right?

STEVE: That's what it sounds like.

JIM: What information?

STEVE: I don't know myself, really don't, don't have the foggiest.

JIM: Would you ask him for me?

STEVE: What information?

JIM: Yeah. Just ask him or maybe he'll tell me himself.
STEVE: Jim, he's tell me -- he says he doesn't realize there's over a hundred statements in the Bible forewarning man -- I had a time so they -- hello?

JIM: Yes. Go ahead.

STEVE: -- so they don't have to do certain things about a man. He says there's over a hundred statements about a man to come in the last days contrary to what people will think. That's why in Matthew 24, one of the last prophecies of Christ about the final days, he talks about wheresoever the carcasses, that is where the eagles be gathered together and it has something to do with his second return, so this is why you can ask your theologians and any minister or priest, rabbis. They can't tell you what that is, that carcass. Well, obviously it's a dead body, but what eagles, what carcass? What's it got to do with the second return of Christ? But he -- now, this is what you don't understand. If you ever took the time, tonight, whenever, whether you believe in him or not, Isaiah 40 to 66, Joshua 35, Ezekiel 20, 36. All these places talk about a man in the last days that's a sinner. He can do one thing, open up the words of the book, open up the seven seals. Can't do any miracles, doesn't raise the dead, heal the sick, isn't a psychic, isn't anything else, but he does open -- if people have questions about life and death, eternal life, no matter what the question is,
he will show it in context from that book.

    JIM: Well, I see. I get the, I get the connection.

    STEVE: We can't, we can't help but say it over -- okay, for -- you know, can't help but say it over and over again. We want to see you make it. I, I, of course, detect, you know, you've got a job to do. That's where you're at --

    JIM: Absolutely.

    STEVE: -- and you're trying to show me kindness by even listening to me. I don't believe you even really want to hear me but, you know, you're being cordial about it. But, you know, I can't help -- -- but getting back to -- I believe it. I believe the book and I see the statements.

    JIM: Sure.

    STEVE: And if it wasn't for this situation
now, if you ever wanted to get the greatest debaters in the world, any one of us would sit down with them, give them their fair time and sit down. You would find out quickly they and no one knows what they're talking about that book. It's been opened up and it can't be controverted.

    JIM: Well, Steve, if it can't be controverted --

    STEVE: It can't be.

    JIM: Well, let me ask you this. If the parallel here is to the biblical, my recollection is that Jesus was tried by a court. Is that not right?

    STEVE: Yeah. They didn't do too well with him, did they?

    JIM: Nope. But wasn't he tried? Didn't he go before a, a magistrate or a judge?

    STEVE: He sure did.

    JIM: Well, I mean, how are you drawing a parallel here?

    (Background conversation.)

    STEVE: Jim?

    JIM: Yeah.

    STEVE: He'll talk to you.

    DAVID: Hey, Jim.

    JIM: Hey, David.

    DAVID: I still love you, Jim.

    JIM: Hey, how are you? I'm concerned.

    DAVID: My pulse is up. I may be, I may be healed here in a couple days.

    JIM: Yeah.
DAVID: And, people, I'm the fastest healer in the world, you know?

JIM: Yeah. Okay. Are you -- do you have any pain?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: That's a good question.

JIM: Well, you know, Steve was telling me and I've just drawn so many parallels here that I'm just trying to see that, you know, maybe I should be realizing that that's -- that you're going to go before a magistrate.

DAVID: Okay. Now, here's the deal.

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: The night of Gethsemane. You told me you were a Christian man.

JIM: I am a Christian.

DAVID: Okay. What did Christ tell the disciples before they went to Gethsemane? What did he tell them to bring along?

JIM: Geez, David, I don't know. You tell me.

DAVID: Well, they brought two swords, didn't they?

   JIM:  Um-hum.

   DAVID:  And who told them to bring them?

   JIM:  Jesus.  Okay.

   DAVID:  Okay.  Now, you know what a sword was back in the days of Rome, don't you?

   JIM:  Yeah.  Yeah, I know.

   STEVE:  It was a military weapon, wasn't it?

   JIM:  Okay.  What's a sword today?

   DAVID:  Well, today a sword is a Renaissance type weapon.  It's an ancient weapon.  I mean, you know.

   JIM:  Yeah.  Okay.  I'm listening.

   DAVID:  So when Christ stood before Pilate,

   the prophet Zachariah had already said smight the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered.

   JIM:  Okay.

   DAVID:  But when they asked Christ in Matthew 24 about his coming and the end of the world -

   JIM:  Right.

   DAVID:  -- the disciples were -- in their minds they were thinking about what Daniel had foretold in the ninth chapter.  Now, you see, the prophetic prophesies of Messiah all revolve around a principle that God has always used such as the message of Jonah. When Jonah was sent to Nineveh and he prophesied, all the people repented, didn't they?

JIM: Yeah, um-hum.

DAVID: And so God stayed his judgments, didn't he?

JIM: Yes. That's right.

DAVID: So when Christ was teaching the gospel --

JIM: What's wrong with that -- I'm sorry. Go ahead, David. I heard a noise in here.

DAVID: Okay. When Christ was preaching the gospel, the people kept asking for more and more evidence, didn't they?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: I mean, defend 5,000 one day and the next day the same 5,000 rejected him --

JIM: Right.

DAVID: -- because he wasn't going to keep doing it, was he?

JIM: That's right.

DAVID: He made himself of no reputation, right?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: He tried to stay low, didn't he?
JIM: Right.

DAVID: He did all the miracles and all the original zealots that John the Baptist for following him until he began to speak words such as unless you eat my body and drink my blood, you have no life in you. But they said -- you know, they rejected it, so they followed him no more. Okay.

DAVID TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: Where's the Bible now? I want to read it to him from the King James.

DAVID: Let's take a look at something here. It's found in the book of John.

JIM: Hey, Dave?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: Excuse me just a second. Did you, did you see that news conference?

DAVID: Yeah. It was very -- the news, the news thing, I had a problem with projecting the audio.

JIM: Oh, you did? I'm sorry.

DAVID: So they're, so they're straightening it out.

JIM: Well, it's your T.V. because we had it clear here.

DAVID: No, no. What happened was -- and then it came through again.
DAVID TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: The blue Bible.

JIM: Oh, the channel did it?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: The broadcast? Oh, okay. Well, we've -- I guess on this -- this hearing here's probably on a hard line cable and maybe yours is a satellite dish or something.

DAVID: No. Mine -- the satellite's not working.

JIM: Oh, okay.

DAVID: I couldn't get to it anyway.

JIM: Hey, I want to -- I had a doctor in here this morning.

DAVID: Uh-huh.

JIM: And I got ahold of him and I, I wanted to go over some things with you because I talked to him about your wound and he was just concerned about, you know, within three days here that we were going to have some gangrene --

DAVID: No. We don't have any of that.

JIM: -- blood poisoning or an infection or anything.

DAVID: No. We don't even have any of that.

JIM: He asked -- okay. Good. Good. I'm glad to hear that.

DAVID: The, the pus, there's no pus. The top hole and the -- well, even, event the gash that went through my wrist, it's not even turning red around it. It's just a little bit, but not even turning red around the outside.

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: Well, I'll let you talk to the nurses as soon as --

JIM: Well, yeah, later on. But let me ask you this. Have you lost your appetite or anything? Are you eating? Can you eat?

DAVID: Well, I can say continually sipping on like orange juice or, or soup, chicken soup.

JIM: Okay. Well, that's good. You can get something down?

DAVID: Oh, yeah.

JIM: Okay. And --

DAVID: It did not go into my colon.

JIM: Okay. Can -- have you had any vomiting or --

DAVID: No. I just -- I've tried to sit up which I can't do and also my hip -- like I say, it's -- you know, being shot's a dramatic thing.

JIM: Yeah.
DAVID: It shocks the body and plus, you know, like I said, it cracked or went through or did something at the top part of my hip bone because it hit me from the side in my belly, head over and hit the hip and then went around and out kind of like towards my rear.

JIM: Okay. Well, you know, I'm just concerned.

DAVID: All right.

JIM: We've been through a lot yesterday and I know that Steve told you we talked earlier, but I guess I'm now where I want to move forward, you know, with our plans we made yesterday and to kind of see if we can facilitate that now.

DAVID: What about, what about now -- Robert now?

JIM: Well --

DAVID: I would definitely like to talk to that young man.

JIM: Okay. Well, I think he -- I don't think he's in town, but I told Steve I'd check. But I can give him a message.

DAVID: Tell him to give us a call because, like I say, I want to ask him if he's, if he's afraid that's going to have to face what I showed him out of that book.

    JIM:  Well, well, if you just -- I'll give him that message.  Why don't you let me pass it on?

    DAVID:  Well, tell him to give me a call.

    JIM:  Well, I'll see what I can do.  I'll check on it.

    DAVID:  Okay.

    JIM:  Okay?

    DAVID:  Now, you're talking about going before a judiciary, right?

    JIM:  Right.

    DAVID:  Okay.  Now, let me take you to John 18.  There's a record of it.  All right?

    JIM:  David --

    DAVID:  You answer me in regards to how you think this means.  All right?

    JIM:  Hey, David --

    DAVID:  Go ahead.

    JIM:  -- can we, can we talk about the arrangements?

    DAVID:  Can we talk about God?

    JIM:  Okay.

    DAVID:  Now, can we talk about something that I am willing to die for or live for?  It's your choice.
JIM: Okay. Go ahead.

DAVID: You don't know me from the man in the moon. Nobody does. I have never told anybody that I was Christ or Jesus. That's not how this message works. The way the doctrine works --

JIM: Okay. I'm listening.

DAVID: The way the -- let me explain.

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: The way that your nation, the United States of America, works is that it puts on its currency In God We Trust. Now, on the one dollar bill you have a pyramid there.

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: Now, let me tell you the God of Egypt was not the God of Moses. Now, it has another symbol. It's got the illuminite (phonetic). Now, if you knew anything about the trilaterus (phonetic) of the illuminite, how far it goes back in time --

JIM: Right.

DAVID: -- you see, you would know that even that inspiration is not the God of Moses. And then there is also a star of stars revolving around the Star of David. Now, that even itself is not the God of David. Now, the prophecies do talk about the God of David and the Star of David, but it's not in a sign or a symbol. It's not in a picture. Anything that we have in pictures made by the hands of men is not the truth symbol of God. Now, so we have to find out, Jim, right now --

JIM: Okay. I'm listening.

DAVID: -- which God we believe in. Do we believe in the God of Moses? Do we?

JIM: Yeah, absolutely.

DAVID: Well, then how come, how come out of almost three million Israelites that came out of Israel only two of the original adults made it to the Promised Land?

JIM: You're talking about on the Ark, Noah's Ark?

DAVID: No. I'm talking about --

JIM: Oh, the two original.

DAVID: I'm talking about Joshua and Caleb.

JIM: Oh, I see. Um-hum.

DAVID: Because Hebrews -- Paul, which I explained to you, when it came down to works, they really did not believe God. They were too busy trying to do their own thing under the garment, false garment, of doing God's thing. Now, so we're supposed to try the spirits. Let's just go to the New Testament.
JIM: Okay.

DAVID: People who believe in Jesus today fail to understand that Matthew, Mark, Luke and John have clearly written that no matter how many miracles Christ did, yet they would not believe on him. Even his own original twelve forsook him.

JIM: Um-hum. That's true.

DAVID: Now, let's get real here for a second.

JIM: You're exactly right on that. I understand that.

DAVID: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John makes it clear. So in the book of John, you know, all the letters that are printed red, you know?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: Statements such as I spake openly unto the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple where the Jews always resort and in secret have I said nothing. Why asketh thou me? Ask those which have heard me what I have said unto them. Behold, they know what I've said. Now, if Robert Gonzalez had come into my home and had sit down and had remained sitting down and had been honest, I would have told him everything and showed him everything about me. I have never since Day One hidden or withheld anything from a mind that can sit and ask questions and learn with the book opened. Now, if you ask me --

JIM: I agree.

DAVID: If you ask me a direct question just to pacify your curiosity in an evil manner, then I will not say anything to you.

JIM: Well, what do you mean by that?

DAVID: I am saying that if you read Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, you would see that the daily continual process of the Sanhedrim and the Pharisees was to always entangle Christ in his talk, always trying to condemn him in his talk, to get him on something, to get him on something. Now, if there is a God, the same God of Moses and Christ, then we begin to see that God is showing mercy to the Jews and the Gentiles for a reason. Why? Well, to make a point. The point is, is that --

JIM: Oh, I'm sorry. Go ahead.

DAVID: The point is, is that if you do give mercy, Isaiah 26 says let favor be showed to the wicked, yet they will not learn righteousness.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: They kill themselves. You see, in the New Testament the punishments are not less, but they're greater. God does not execute judgment on the ungodly immediately, so pride and arrogancy, self-will begins to grow and grow and grow in man until finally he thinks in his own mind, in his own perceptions of the right ways of God. Jeremiah and all the prophets already spoke against this. Like in Jeremiah 16 when it talks about the Jews and says you have been worse than your fathers in that you walk everyone after the imagination of his own heart.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: Now, did Christ choose twelve? Did not one betray him --

JIM: Yeah. That's right.

DAVID: -- with a kiss?

JIM: Yeah, um-hum. That's right.

DAVID: Okay.

JIM: Judas, right?

DAVID: Judas, right. You know, that's what Robert has done, too, you know.

JIM: I understand that. I can see that. I understand that. I know what you're telling me.

DAVID: Okay. Now, did the disciples forsake Christ when it came right down to the nitty-gritty?

JIM: Well, wasn't it Peter at the gate?
DAVID: Yeah. Peter denied him three times like Christ had foretold, right?

JIM: Right. Right.

DAVID: And the others ran against Gethsemane.

JIM: Um-hum.

DAVID: Okay. So Christ --

JIM: But --

DAVID: -- Christ is placed in the jurisdiction of Pilot, right?

JIM: He went to the, to the court.

DAVID: Okay. And Pilate told him, he says, hey, take him and judge him according to your laws. The Jews, therefore, said unto him it's not lawful for us to put any man to death. Hey, it's not a matter of judgment. It's a matter of executing judgment, isn't it?

JIM: Um-hum.

DAVID: You know, they're telling, they're telling Rome that we did not have our political law of which we originally had to execute capital punishment on a man.

JIM: Um-hum.

DAVID: So what takes place is that the -- the Jews, therefore, said unto him it's -- death, that the -- of Christ may be fulfilled which he spake signifying that he should die, which is the crucifixion which was the means of capital punishment for the Romans.

JIM:  Right.

DAVID:  Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again and called Jesus and said unto him art thou the king of the Jews, which you know in a political statement that would be treason, wouldn't it?

JIM:  Right.

DAVID:  Jews were actually Romans at this time, weren't they?

JIM:  That's true but, David, let me ask you this. Wouldn't it -- wouldn't the process have to be the courtroom and maybe the, the -- an acquittal and then -- or some situation like that, and wasn't it --
I remember Barrabas and how that all changed, you know. I don't know. It's confusing to me.

DAVID:  Well, here's the thing. Well, here's the thing. It says right here. See, Jesus is under observation with Pilate now. Pilate's trying to figure him out, right?

JIM:  Right.

DAVID:  Okay. Jesus answered --
JIM: But it's a court. It's a court.

DAVID: Well, not yet. In those days, in those days even Rome, closer to a democracy of our time, it was in the hands of one or two rulers to decide a man's fate, and Pilate just had that kind of power.

JIM: I know you're unhappy with Robert, but --

DAVID: No, no. I'm not. I feel sorry for Robert.

JIM: But don't allow his deceit to affect the trust between you and I.

DAVID: I'm not. That's why we're reading this, isn't it?

JIM: That's right, and isn't it true that -- I mean, even in Jesus' time that he trust -- he had trusted friends and he had close confidants in his last days? I mean, we do.

DAVID: Well, let's finish this. Jesus answered him -- did you say this thing of yourself or did someone else tell you vis-a-vis?

JIM: No. I'm saying that. I was raised as a Christian. I was an altar boy.

DAVID: But you know --

JIM: I'm telling you. I know this.
DAVID: Okay. Did you know that --

JIM: Didn't he forgive, didn't he forgive? Didn't Jesus forgive?

DAVID: Okay. What's an altar boy?

JIM: What's an altar boy?

DAVID: Tell me what an altar boy is.

JIM: It's a little boy who goes to church and helps the -- at the altar.

DAVID: Hmmm.

JIM: You don't know what -- you know what that is.

DAVID: Oh, yeah, I know what it is. It's a part of the Catholic tradition.

JIM: Um-hum.

DAVID: If you had read Hebrews, if you'd read Corinthians and Ephesians, if you'd read the Bible, you'd find out that the Christian church, they did away with all the implements of the sanctuary in regards to the literal implements, and they were directed to always have their --
