DAVID: -- Assyria, Nineveh, certain titles.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But when you see the prophecies of Daniel, you see that Nebuchadnezzar is the first king that had an empire, world empire. He saw an image and this image was to depict every phase of human rulership down to the end of time. That's why the head was the head of -- Babylon, and the arms, which are part of the head, right --

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: -- was made of Persia which meant that, meant that Persia was still Babylon, wasn't it?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And Greece was still made of Persia and Babylon, wasn't it?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: And Rome was still Greece, made of Persia and -- you know, when one nation rises up, I mean it incorporates all people, doesn't it?

JIM: Right.
DAVID: They're all mingled together, aren't they?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Well, that's what the whole image is all about.

JIM: I see.

DAVID: It's about a nation or an empire of all nations.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Now, what nation do you know of in the end of time, which will be a nation of nations?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Do you know one?

JIM: A nation of nations?

DAVID: Yeah. Let me say a nation of nationalities.

JIM: Israel?

DAVID: Nope.

JIM: I don't know.

DAVID: Well, what nation has more nationalities than any other nation in one place?

JIM: America?

DAVID: Exactly. A nation that -- it comes and it is built up from the nations. Daniel says, in a nation where they'll mingle the seeds of men. And from there, it spreads to all nations.

    So, we have, like we say, red, black and white, all aspects of every form of ancient political government commingled into one network called the United States of America.

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: But the way Revelation 13 brings it to view is that the prophet sees that although it's powerful and dreadful, it still portrays the image of a lamb, though it speaks as a dragon.

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: And the Bible begins to explain to us that there will come a time in the latter see, we are subject to the laws of our nations.

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: As God told Israel to Jeremiah that when you go in amongst the heathen nations, you shall, you know, you shall keep their laws and you shall obey, you shall pray for the blessings of the city where the Lord scatters you. Okay. So, you might have peace.

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: Okay. But there comes a time when in the finality of all the empires a truth comes into the world that determines or demands us to either keep alliance to God and truth or to the dictates and laws of man.

So, Jim, if you had a situation to where you had to obey the laws of God or laws or man, which laws would you keep?

JIM: Well, I'd try to keep both of them.

DAVID: Well, yeah, exactly, if they were in harmony.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: 'Cause remember laws are really good for us.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: You know.

JIM: Right. I understand.

DAVID: Yeah, but what if, what if one law said -- what if the law of the State said you can't keep the law of God?

JIM: All right. I understand.

DAVID: Which one -- what one would you have to do?

JIM: Well, you have to do what's right by your conscience.

DAVID: Yeah, okay. So, you'd probably keep the law of God, if you understand, right?

JIM: Yeah, I would. Yeah.
DAVID: Okay, but you don't understand it, though.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: Not the way we do.

JIM: Right, exactly.

DAVID: Okay. So, yeah, that's considered in the judgment but these prophets are not Old Testament. Remember, Revelation says that their messages will be revealed when there's time no longer. Their truth they were given are given for a time in the end.

See, we hear about chariots with flaming torches. We hear about people that are small. We hear about a person that has good tidings, you know.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: It's kind of like in Jeremiah 50 and 51. It seems like it -- the fall of Babylon takes place, when in Jeremiah 50 God says, that I have laid a snare for thee, Babylon, and you will be taken unawares, for you will strive against the Lord.

That's just like Psalms 2 says. It says the heathen rage -- and they got all these wild imaginations, you know. Nahum says, why do you mad against the Lord, oh wicked counsellor, you know.

JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: And it says that the heathen rage.
Let us break his bands asunder and cast his cords away from us.
I mean they don't want to know the field.
JIM: Right.
DAVID: So, it, it comes down to the saddest thing in the world. It comes down to where people have been privileged with literature and ability to read and see but now they're so full, that they don't care to learn.
So, he that sits in the heavens, sad to say, he laughs.
'Cause, Jim, let me tell you something about my father.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: He wants your butt.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: He wants, he wants to wipe this world out. It's vanity, it's proud, it's arrogant, it's corrupt, it's rotten.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: Well, let me tell you something about Christ. He lived here 2000 years ago with humanity, and he saw that there was hope. Now, the way it appears to you is our situation here is heavy and tight and you're concerned, which this is good, that you get all the people out that you can. And I appreciate that. Especially the innocent and everything.

JIM: We want everyone, uh-huh.

DAVID: Okay, now here's the deal.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: I feel the same way for you and this world. I'm in my position because I know what's going on upstairs, you know. I've done everything in the world to avoid this. I've done everything in the world with Robert to avoid this.

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: Now, I'm just trying to do my best to get the innocent out, too.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: When you played that recording on the, the radio, there may not be very many but there's going to be someone out there that's going to say, hey, wait a minute. He showed me point blank that Psalms 45 is the first Seal.

JIM: There's a whole lot of people.

DAVID: Yeah, I know. And they're going to say, but wait a minute. But he's a terrorist. But wait a minute, he's this and he's that. He's a child molester. He's blah, blah, blah.

JIM: But I didn't tell you this, Craig Smith from the Christian Broadcast Network --

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: -- exactly what you said, just there, happened today. Exactly what you said there happened today. He called us and said that the Christian response in support of your message was overwhelming, incredible. But, but the people were starting to worry because you didn't come out. Other than that, I mean he was getting calls -- he said, I can't handle the calls. That's what he told me.

DAVID: Okay. But here's the thing. Did they also inform them that I have a commander above me? I only do --

JIM: Well, they're Christians, I'm sure they know.

DAVID: Look, they don't know me, okay. They are Christians according to what man has taught them.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But the honesty -- what is going to be the saving grace for all who have heard that tape is this. They're going to have to look at themselves and say, irrespective of what we think of this man --
JIM: But they're starting to understand, David. That's the feeling I got, you know.

DAVID: Well, look, let me explain.

JIM: Because you told me it takes a long time to learn it.

DAVID: Well, here's the deal. The 45th Psalm is a revelation of Jesus Christ, isn't it?

JIM: Okay.

DAVID: God said, my heart's -- God wrote a book about me.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And God has foretold me and called me to be a warrior, a destroyer of the gentiles.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But before this prophecy is to be fulfilled, it's been God's purpose to allow mercy and truth to go first. That's why before anybody gets hurt in this world -- if you could understand who the four angels were right now, the four corners of the earth, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: (Indiscernible) says, hurt not until we've sealed the servants of our God. And their foreheads, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: You know what they're sealed with, don't you?
JIM: What?
DAVID: The seal of the living God. They're sealed unto God by accepting and receiving the knowledge of God's truth. In other words, their mind is enlightened with the light that comes from God's word.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: That's given to them by Christ.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: I come, my reward is with me. You know all that stuff already.
JIM: Right. I understand.
DAVID: Okay. Now, so, because there is such a power of unbelief in the world today, due to the adversary who rules men by their passions and feelings and emotions, what takes place is there has to be another judiciary. Angels of God, powerful angels, are in continual communication, going back and forth. And decisions are being made on every individual that's involved in observing this activity.
JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: Like I said and Habakkuk said -- I didn't say it, Habakkuk said it, regard you amongst the heathen. There will come a time --

JIM: We'll all be judged? At some point, won't we, David, all be judged?

DAVID: We're being judged now.

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: The truth is what's judging us.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: You see, now, if Psalm 45 is the first seal, well, then what we got to look at, we got to look at, well, what's the lesson there? Well, the lesson is that Christ is going to destroy his enemies. But that's not what we want to worry about.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: You see, it's just like you guys. There's tanks out here and everything. Well, you know, that, that could destroy your enemies, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But you're telling me, you're saying to me, you're saying, but, Dave, they're out there. That's a show of arms but they're not there to destroy you.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: They're just there to, to kind of emphasize that I want you to come my way.

JIM: Uh-huh.
DAVID: You see?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Okay. But you don't realize that there is guns a billion times bigger than yours pointed at you.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: You see. Bigger than you, bigger, and more accurate. And the thing of it is, you can't see them. You've got guys out here trying to camouflage themselves, trying to hide, but you don't see the camouflage that's hurled all around you guys. You don't know what's fixing to happen to you.

Okay. Now, here's the deal. The only way you can learn what's fixing to happen is if you give this fool -- well, like you're doing now, you know -- an opportunity to emphasize one thing, that in the first seal Christ goes forth conquering in the conquer. You know that, Jim.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: And for your lack of knowledge, you don't have that much fear of God. I realize that. But the thing of it is is Psalm 45. That threat should scare you.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Because the reason being is that the real purpose of that is an invitation to the marriage of the Lamb, Revelation 19. So, instead of the truth coming to destroy you -- which, oh, yes, if you reject it, it will destroy you. But the point is is that you might look at it, judge for yourself. And it says, blessed are those which are called unto the marriage of the Lamb. You know, Revelation 19 -- and the heaven parts and there's the man on the red -- on the white horse again, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And he has a crown, many crowns. He has a name that no one knows but he himself.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: And no scholar can tell you what the name Koresh means. No one knows except one person. He has a name that no one knows but he himself, but his name is the word of God.

Have you ever heard about the word of God being made flesh? It's a serious thing, very serious. So, people are being judged right now, just like we're being judged. And, you know, our T.V. doesn't work too good. We'll hear on the radio. People are calling up and they're like, blah, blah, blah, blah, you know, you know, cult leader, whatever. Some are saying, well, you know, he's got his weird beliefs.
Some are being merciful, some are not being so merciful, whatever. And, you know, cases are being decided right now in regards to this -- hey, is Psalm 45 the first seal? Is that truth a truth? And then I mentioned the Psalm 1, you know.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Are we to sit in the seat of the scornful or the steps of the ungodly or are we meditating on the law of God right now? What is God's law? Right now, God's law is not Ten Commandments. God's law to judge the world is Seven Seals, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: That law is Christ, isn't it?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Revelation of Christ, something that's extra. And this is where in the New Testament, Jim, Christ explains about how the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins. Five are wise and five are foolish. They were all waiting for the marriage, weren't they?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: The five wise got extra oil, though, didn't they?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: And the five foolish didn't get extra oil, did they?

    JIM: Un-ah.

    DAVID: Well, what do you think that extra oil is? The oil is what gives us light in our lanterns, right?

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: What do you think that extra oil is that they didn't get, that they weren't interested in?

    JIM: I don't know.

    DAVID: Well, what's the last revelation of Jesus Christ that's important for us to know? I mean you've already got the revelation of Jesus according to Matthew, don't you?

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: According to Mark, Luke and John?

    JIM: Uh-huh.

    DAVID: Aren't all these men laboring with pen to reveal Jesus to you?

    JIM: Uh-huh, that's right.

    DAVID: Well, what's the revelation that we need to find then? What's the last part? What's extra? That won't be known until there's time no longer.

    JIM: Is that the Seals?

    DAVID: Well, is it?
JIM: I don't know.

DAVID: John says something must be hereafter, didn't he? What must be hereafter? Must God sit on a throne hereafter?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Must he have a rainbow above his throne? Must he have a book in his right hand?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Must it be sealed? Must Christ open it?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And then after he opens it in heaven, must he come and bring it? I think so. And must we make a decision for life or death? I don't want to talk about your, your personal life. I don't want to talk about things you've done and haven't done.

JIM: Right, I understand.

DAVID: I want to talk about if the truth came, would you want to know it.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: That's what I care about, Jim.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: I mean I care about my children, too.
JIM: I understand. Well, I think I understand it better now that you've explained it to me.

DAVID: But -- are you there, Jim?

JIM: Yeah, I'm sorry, I just bumped the phone. I think I --

DAVID: You're starting to catch it a little bit.

JIM: Yeah. I think, I think maybe these -- I think I am getting a feel for it. It is -- it's really a little clearer to me.

DAVID: It's a message of life and death.

JIM: I think these people that were calling into the Christian Broadcast Network, David, were really receiving their message. Now, you know, there are so many call-ins and people wanting to hear more about it and --

DAVID: Well, see, so now what happens then, if you understood more about all the prophets, you would understand.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: That Isaiah says, for they -- talking about the enemy -- shall surely gather together but not by me. In other words, God's not backing these guys.
JIM: Right.

DAVID: And all that gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake, my namesake.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Okay. This is what happens is when these guys if, if they don't, if they don't listen to me.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: You know, and they make hasty decisions like an eagle that hastens to eat. See, the eagle is a symbol of your currency, too, you know?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: It's the national seal.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: Okay. He claims the wheat and the barley, doesn't it?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: Okay. Now, the prophecy also projects these things. Isaiah says, woe to the nation overshadowing with wings which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia. In other words, this nation is way on the other side of the world, right?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: And what happens is is that the prophecy says that, you know, they sent ambassadors to a people scattered and (indiscernible) beginning, you know. And it says their ambassage is not going to work but they, themselves, are to be instructed, you know.

   JIM: Right.

   DAVID: And it says if they're not instructed, then God's going to use them as an example for everyone else in the world who has had a chance to hear the first point, is Psalm 45 the first seal?

   DAVID: Now, notice, Jim, this is personal now, just between me and you.

   JIM: Okay.

   DAVID: When, when we first -- when you first said over the radio -- you asked people to call in, you know, the teachers or scholars or whatever --

   JIM: Uh-huh.

   DAVID: -- to call in and start, you know, explaining the Seals, remember?

   JIM: Yeah, but that's what you wanted, David. You asked for that, remember?

   DAVID: Yeah, okay. Well, and you heard what they were saying, right?

   JIM: Right.

   DAVID: The Apocalypse and --

   JIM: Yeah.
DAVID: -- you know, metaphor, parabolic.

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: Well, you notice how they just started like yak, yak, yak, yak, yak, right?

JIM: Right.

DAVID: But you notice how they didn't go according to the prophets?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But, you know, was not King David a prophet?

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: I mean he prophesized a lot of Messiah, didn't he?

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: Well, then Psalm 45 point blank tells you the details. It's like the Seven Seals are like a movie preview, you know. The prophecies give you the details --

JIM: Right.

DAVID: -- but the Seven Seals in the first picture just give you a small picture preview of what the event relates to.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: So, that's why in Israel -- that's, that's how in Israel we get the rabbi stumped.
JIM: Right.

DAVID: Because what we show him is this. We say, now, look, how can the Christians be wrong when they say that what must be hereafter are these Seals. You see?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: When you show them from the prophets what the Seals are ——

JIM: Right.

DAVID: -- then that's what they believe in.

JIM: Right.

DAVID: This is where Paul says, Paul says, that God would have all Israel -- Jew and gentile come into harmony, you see. And it's got to be through one truth.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Now, if the Christians are saying that the prophecies of the prophets are to be fulfilled in the end of the world, then the Jews can't say the Christians are wrong, can they?

JIM: No.

DAVID: Okay. So vice versa. If the Jews are believing today that the prophecies are going to fulfilled by Messiah, then the Christians have to say the Jews aren't wrong.
JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: To bring in perfect harmony between all people. But, of course, it just seems like today the gentiles do not really even care to know about these Seals. And this is what's going to judge them.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Anyway, you got those, those puppies ready, Mark? You got a van down there waiting for us?

JIM: Yeah, yeah. Dave?

DAVID: Yes.

JIM: I'll check on the van and you check on the boy, okay?

DAVID: I will.

JIM: Oh, hold on just a minute. Let me check on this. Okay. Dave?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: Oh, okay. I just wanted to say before we did that, I think I got a better understanding of that stuff and I appreciate you --

DAVID: Well, what I'm saying is is that --

JIM: But let, let me tell you that I had to make some arrangements about those puppies.

DAVID: Oh, at least take them to the kennel cause, you know, you -- they shot their mother.

JIM: How -- no, we're not going -- you know, we want to take care of them. How many, how many are there?

DAVID: How many are there, of the puppies.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I think there's eleven.

DAVID: Eleven.

JIM: Eleven, okay. All right. I know that's -- here's what, here's what I want you to do is just have Mark -- can you put them in a box or something?

DAVID: Yeah, we'll put them in a box.

JIM: Okay. Just have him walk out with the box and just walk down the driveway to one of those -- to where the stretcher was?

DAVID: Right.

JIM: Okay, you know, like we did before, the same thing.

DAVID: Uh-huh.

JIM: And one of -- that ambulance down there is going to get him because I don't want nothing to happen to him now. He's 12 years old, and I'm just --I want extra precaution. And I want him to walk down to that ambulance.

DAVID: All right.

JIM: Okay. And I'll have him and the puppies on that ambulance. Ain't nothing going to happen to that boy, okay. We're going to make sure it's safe.

DAVID: Oh, I believe you.
JIM: Yeah, I know. I know.
DAVID: Make sure it's not a bomb.
JIM: Oh, hey, don't worry.
DAVID: A puppy bomb.
JIM: No, no, no, no. Don't worry about that. Don't worry about that. Who's, who -- is he your boy?

DAVID: No. Well, you know, all children are all of our responsibilities.
JIM: Okay. Go, go ahead and send him out and I'll, I'll advise the ambulance, okay.
DAVID: Okay. Be sure and tell them --
JIM: Okay.
DAVID: -- yeah, okay. And be sure and tell the guys around here that he's not doing nothing funny, all right?
JIM: Oh, hey, I -- let me square that away. Okay. All right. Let me, let me get them. You just get the kid ready but keep the line open.
DAVID: Okey-dokey.
JIM: Okay.
(Gap)

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: They'll be -- I'll be running -- another 15, 20 minutes probably. Boy, I hate to see people like Jim perish. God help them.

(Gap)

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: Well, the word of God does come to pass, don't it?

(Gap)

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: Our barrel is on, on the tanks, right? Our barrels are on the tanks, right? What? Yeah. Just write her name in it.

(Gap)

JIM: David?

DAVID: Yes, sir.

JIM: Hey. I just checked up there, and they're ready for Mark to walk out.

DAVID: All right.

JIM: Is his name Jones --

DAVID: Yeah.
JIM: -- Mark Anthony Jones?

DAVID: Mark Jones.

JIM: Mark Jones. Okay. He can walk out with the puppies and tell him to walk down to that ambulance vehicle and they're going to -- they'll take good care of him.

DAVID: All right. And he's going to bring a Bible, too. So --

JIM: A bottle, okay.

DAVID: A Bible for Angelica.

JIM: A Bible for Angelica, sure. We'll get it to her. Put her name in it.

DAVID: That's what -- I just had them do.

JIM: Okay. All right. How's Scott's leg anyway? I haven't heard from him.

DAVID: All right. He, he's up and around.

JIM: Is he? He's not getting an infection, is he?

DAVID: No.

JIM: Okay. Well, we get Mark safely out there and -- that's real good because you're showing me some compassion. And I'm going to make sure I tell that to the, to the commanders, you know.

DAVID: I wish I could have a direct line to all the commanders.
JIM: Well, I'm telling them for you. They're so busy they couldn't sit down and, anyway, they're running, you know, running around.

DAVID: Yeah, they don't know what they're dealing with. I, I don't blame them.

JIM: But, you know, the qualities of a good leader, right? I mean conviction, compassion, courage. You've got conviction. I know --

DAVID: Well, the thing of it is is that -- like it says in Revelation, it says, in righteous that he does judge and make war. Now, let's, let's understand the first principle here and that is people don't know where I'm coming from. Small means -- let's say in the days of -- let's say we were Amorites.

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And here comes these Israelis, right?

JIM: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And they're going to overthrow our city. And Moses is the leader. Now, do you think the Amorites and Hittites and all those people thought Moses was a man of God?

JIM: Okay, David, excuse me.

DAVID: What?
JIM: They're saying they're ready and they're watching for Mark.

DAVID: Okay.

JIM: Is he, is he there with you?

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: Can someone get Mark now. They're boxing up the, the puppies.

JIM: They're boxing the puppies up?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: Okay. Okay. Has he got a warm coat?

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: Yeah, get him, get him some warm clothes, too.

(Gap)

(David speaking to unidentified person in the background).

DAVID: Hey, where's, where's Mom at, son? Where's Mom at? Tell her to come here.

JIM: David? David?

(David speaking to unidentified persons in the background).

DAVID: Every one of them. That's the first thing to do is to shine them up, right.
BOBBY: Me, Bobby.

JIM: (Laughing) Who's -- who's there, Bobby? Isn't that the three year old?

DAVID: Yeah. No, that's my little one. What, is she two yet, Rach?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: No, she's only 14 months.

DAVID: Oh, she's 14 months. Oh, she's a cutie, too.

JIM: Fourteen months.

DAVID: Yeah. Our dogs were malamutes, registered malamutes.

JIM: Oh, really?

(Jim laughing)

JIM: Hello. Hello.

DAVID: Hello.

JIM: Hello. Hello, Bobby.

DAVID: Say, hello.

JIM: Hello, Bobby.

DAVID: Hello, Jim.

(Jim laughing)
JIM: Hello, Bobby.

DAVID: You eating candy. You don't want to talk, huh? Say, hello. She's, she's eating candy. What is that, what kind of candy is that? Oh, it's strawberry candy. She's looking at me, though. She's real, real -- my children talk real -- early -- hey, Bobby, Bobby.

JIM: Yeah. Bobby?

DAVID: Here, say something to her.

JIM: Okay. Bobby, Bobby, this is Jim. Bobby? Hello. Bobby? How ya doing? You listening to me? Bobby, are you listening to me?

DAVID: Say something. Say something, Bobby.

DAVID: She's not being -- she's not being talkative.

JIM: She's quiet today, huh?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: Yeah. That's the way the little ones gets, you know.

DAVID: Bah-bah.

(David speaking to Steve in the background).

DAVID: So, when they going to do that,
Steve? They're starting to do that now?

STEVE: Do what?

DAVID: Cut everything.

STEVE: Are they?

DAVID: Well, that's what I thought you said. STEVE: No. No, I haven't heard anything.

DAVID: Oh. Watch out.

STEVE: I know those guys (indiscernible) they're in our garage back there doing (indiscernible) with the plastic things, you know, piddling around.

DAVID: They're probably riding the motorcycles.

JIM: Who, the kids are out?

DAVID: No.

(David speaking to Steve in the background).

STEVE: And they ran over our one building, I watched them run right over the top of that.

DAVID: Which building was that?

STEVE: The one right next to the shed, like next to the garage.

Oh, that old, that old shed, that old building?

STEVE: They ran right over the top of it.

JIM: What did they do, David?
DAVID: Oh, they ran over our building.

JIM: Which one?

DAVID: Well, I don't know, Jim. You're supposed to know all that.

JIM: Well, I can't see out there. I have to wait, you know, call them on the radio, get somebody to call them because I don't -- I can't see out there.

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: Is -- it's out in the back, you got some -- a lot of little buildings out there?

DAVID: Yeah, it's the building out near the garage.

JIM: Oh.

DAVID: Where all the motorcycles were.

JIM: Oh, yeah, okay. You know that little silver trailer? Is that where you mean?

DAVID: Not, not the -- not, not, not the silver trailer. Yeah.

JIM: All right. Let me check on that.

(Jim speaking to unidentified person in the background).

JIM: Check and see if they ran over a shed. David said they did.

Okay. Yeah, we're checking -- I'm going to check on that and see. Was one of those ladies that came out yesterday one that lived in that little silver trailer?

DAVID: I don't know if she did or not but usually the one that lived in that trailer was one of the real, real old ladies.

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: They get to a -- and her name was -- hers name was -- oh, I can't think. Wait a second.

What, what's -- Trudy. Trudy. She's not here. But they, you know, see, they're not -- nothing to do with -- they're just real old ladies. They're like in their 80's or so.

JIM: Yeah, wow, really?

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: They've been there a long time?

DAVID: Well, -- no, what happened was when I used to travel, I used to go to these, you know, like orthodox religious meetings, right, where people are like, you know, real orthodox and they want to dress, you know, like the --

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: -- Amish and all that, Mennonites.

JIM: Yeah. I've seen a lot of them people in, in Tennessee and --
DAVID: Right.

JIM: -- Pennsylvania.

DAVID: Right.

JIM: That's kind of interesting. They ride these buggies, you know.

DAVID: Yeah.

JIM: And have horses. Have you ever seen that?

DAVID: Oh, yeah.

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: And so when, when I give studies, you know, they just -- they are so interested. They just wanted to learn.

JIM: Yeah.

DAVID: So, they come down. And sometimes they get, you know, and you got -- it's kind of like you got to have half way a nursing home, you know.

JIM: Oh, I understand. Yeah. That's --

DAVID: Yeah. Yeah. I bet, I bet they freaked out when they got charged with conspiracy to murder.

JIM: I'm, I'm sure they did. I told you I took care of that, didn't I?

DAVID: Well, it's --

JIM: I took care of that now. That's not the case. There, there --

DAVID: It's just so sad 'cause like, you know --

JIM: No. It's -- I know. I understand that. And that was just one of the attorneys there but they're just held as a material witness and that's all.

DAVID: Bobby, no, you can't eat my telephone.

(Jim laughing)

JIM: Heck, don't do that.

DAVID: Say something.

JIM: Hi, Bobby, how are you doing?

JIM: Hi, Bobby. David, is Mark there? Is Mark there?

DAVID: She's not saying nothing, Rach.

JIM: David?

DAVID: Well, she ate the thing. She don't want to talk, she's eating candy.

JIM: Oh, okay. Is, is Mark there?

DAVID: Mark's here now, isn't he? Run and get him real quick and then send him out.

JIM: Yeah, send him out. They're waiting for him.
DAVID: Good kid.

JIM: He's probably looking for the dog box.

(Gap)

JIM: Is Rachel doing okay?

DAVID: She's fine. Do you want to say something? Say, hi.

JIM: Hi, Bobby. Hi, Bobby. Hello?

DAVID: Say something. Hello?

JIM: Hello? Hi, Bobby.

DAVID: Hello.

JIM: Hello. How are you?

DAVID: Hello. She almost said something.

JIM: I gotta see that child. I bet she's cute.

DAVID: She's beautiful. She's a little clown.

JIM: What color hair?

DAVID: Blonde, just like her mother.

JIM: Her mother, yeah.

DAVID: Bobby, say something. Are you saying something to her?

JIM: Yeah, I was talking to her but she, she just listened, I guess. Was she grinning or something? She can hear my voice but she doesn't --

Bobby? Bobby? Oh, it's okay.
(Bobby crying)

JIM: Oh, I hear her. How are you, honey, huh? How are you?

DAVID: I don't guess -- I don't guess she wants to talk.

JIM: I guess she's not too talkative today. You and me are the guys that do that, right?

No, why not? What you want, Nah-nah? -- I can't, what that means, Rach.

JIM: Hey, David, see if you could send Rachel to speed Mark up a bit.

DAVID: Yeah. Where's Mark at now? Mark, you got the puppies? Okay. You're ready? Okay, Mark, here's the deal. Yeah, put the picture in, yeah. Okay, the Bible's in that bag? Okay. And there are Barbies? Okay. Okay, Mark, look out the window there and at the front of the gate there's an ambulance. It's -- like an armored vehicle, right?

JIM: Yeah. It's an armored ambulance.

DAVID: Okay. It's, it's a big truck, okay. And just take the puppies up there and then just, you know, get in with them and they'll take you over to the place. And give us -- they'll give us a call when you get there, okay?
JIM: David, does, does --
DAVID: Not to be scared or nothing.
JIM: David, do I need to talk to him?
DAVID: Uh --
JIM: No? All right.
DAVID: Yeah, go ahead, yeah, you can talk to him. Yeah, you know, you can explain it to him. This is Jim. This is the guy you'll be seeing, okay?
MARK: Hello?
JIM: Hello, Mark?
MARK: Yes.
JIM: This is Jim. How are you?
MARK: Fine.
JIM: Just do what David says, okay?
MARK: All right.
JIM: Walk out the driveway with the puppies down to that ambulance -- funny looking truck, okay. And those guys will take you over to me.
MARK: All right.
JIM: And you'll be fine. You'll be safe. So, don't be scared. And when you get over here, you can talk to David.
MARK: All right.
JIM: Okay. See you later. Bye.
MARK: Bye.
SITA: Jim?

JIM: Yeah. Who's this, Sita?

SITA: Hi. You recognize my voice.

JIM: Yeah, I've been missing you.

SITA: I'm -- I miss you, too, because I keep hearing different people talking, you know.

JIM: Oh, well, yeah, we're pretty busy.

I'm sorry. How ya doing?

SITA: I'm doing fine. I'm just missing my kids.

JIM: Well, listen, I want you to come out, and the kids do need you. They've been asking. And Human Services has contacted us about that.

SITA: Oh --

JIM: I'd like to see you guys come out and get reunited. So --

SITA: I know, but I, I got some stuff -- I got some of their Bibles.

JIM: Okay.

SITA: Bibles and some -- a few clothes and their dolls, Barbie.

JIM: Okay. I'll get it to them for sure, Sita.

SITA: Jim, could you please?

JIM: I guarantee it.
SITA: Her name -- their name -- one is Crystal and Angelica.

JIM: Right. I remember them. I'll do that.

Are you going to come out later?

SITA: We'll see how it goes. I, I, I much want to do this also but we have to wait what's going to happen.

JIM: Okay.

SITA: And --

JIM: I understand. I've been talking with David, and he said that right now everything's fine. He just wanted to wait.

SITA: Yes.

JIM: And --

SITA: Oh, I thank you, too.

JIM: But I want you guys to hang in there because we're going to get you all out here. These kids need you.

SITA: Oh, we love you.

JIM: These kids need --

SITA: Thank you for helping.

JIM: Okay. Well, you just stick with me now and --

SITA: Yeah, I know, because I don't quite understand. We just got off from -- out of church and went my room, opened my window. All of a sudden these guys came -- get out of that trailer and just start shooting.

JIM: I understand.

SITA: My kids -- if I didn't get up, up in my room -- they were in my -- the bunk bed. And you'd see it, it's all full of holes. They would have been gone. Do you know that?

JIM: I understand that. I'm real sorry about that.

SITA: But you must know why. They didn't tell us they was going to come or anything. They just start shooting -- just got out of that trailer and just shot -- just start shooting.

JIM: I understand, Sita. I regret that happened. I really am sorry that happened.

SITA: I just hope nothing happens again.

JIM: Well, that's --

SITA: I don't understand but I just hope you guys can handle your side of -- we didn't do anything.

JIM: Oh, listen. I can handle it. But you guys have got to work with me and you've got to help me, you know. And if you do, I mean we can resolve this thing safely and quickly. And that's what we want to do. And David says he will. And I thought yesterday afternoon we were about resolved.

SITA: Yes.

JIM: And David says he will. And I want you guys to support him on that. And if he does, then you can come out here and be reunited with these kids and you guys. I mean what kind of life is this, sitting in there with, with --

SITA: Yeah.

JIM: -- you know, police everywhere? I mean that's no kind of a life.

SITA: I know.

JIM: So, you need to come out and get reunited and everybody safe. Hey, listen, --

SITA: Yes.

JIM: -- nobody regrets what happened more than me and you, too. We know it was bad, but we can't go back and change it.

SITA: I know.

JIM: So, we've to take -- right this today and go forward and do the right thing, you know.

SITA: Well, --

JIM: You're smart and you're intelligent and you're -- SITA: I try to be.

JIM: Hey, has Mark left yet?

SITA: They're coming down now. They're saying good-bye to David.

JIM: Saying good-bye to David.

SITA: Yes. Every time a kid come, they want to give him a big hug and stuff.

JIM: Well, I understand. It's just those guys are out there waiting for him, you know.

SITA: Okay.

JIM: And I don't want him to --

SITA: Yeah. They're, they're saying good-bye to David.

JIM: Okay. Is there -- it's just one coming, though, right? Is there two kids? Just one, isn't it?

SITA: Uh --

JIM: Mark?

SITA: Mark.

JIM: Yeah. I think it's just Mark.

SITA: Yeah, Mark, and the, the little pups.

JIM: And the puppies, yeah.

SITA: Yeah. They thought they were dead, too, but when I put that flag, they were yelping.

JIM: Oh, really.
SITA: So, I, I just take my life for them to bring them in.

JIM: Uh-huh.

SITA: Because they were outside, and their mom, their mom was, you know.

JIM: Well, take a deep breath and relax and everything is going to be fine. We'll get through this. And, you know, we've already -- 18 kids are in safe hands and, and the two ladies.

SITA: Yeah.

JIM: There's no reason for, for the rest of you not to be out here. It's just David's got to decide and you guys have to decide.

SITA: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And I mean that's the way to do it, you know. (End of tape.)
