CHARLIE: This is Jim Kavanaugh. He's been on the phone with him all day. This is Serephin from the radio station. Jim?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yes, this is Jim Kavanaugh.

CHARLIE: Jim, Charlie Serephin (ph.) here. He, he's called in here and I've been talking to him off the air for half an hour and he just wants to go on and straighten out the preachers that we've had on the air and get the message straight and everything. And, he wants to talk to the people and everything and I don't want to screw you guys up, but I, I feel kind of compelled that I ought to talk to him and keep him going. He sounds like he's bleeding pretty bad.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah. I'll tell you what you need to do. You can let him talk for a few minutes.

CHARLIE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: But then you've got to get him back with us because--

CHARLIE: All right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Because we've got to get some of these kids out.

CHARLIE: All right. I'll do that, I'll get him back with you and I've been trying to telling him too, you know, that these other people, you ought to let them go and they shouldn't have to suffer. Nobody should have to suffer and he shouldn't have to die and everything, but --

    JIM KAVANAUGH: What you need to tell him for trust and confidence is, you need to tell him, I'm doing this because Jim Kavanaugh told me to do it and Jim said to call as soon as he's through.

    CHARLIE: All right, Jim Kavanaugh.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Yes.

    CHARLIE: All right. I got you.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, thank you.

    CHARLIE: I'll do it, thanks.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, he's going to play it.

Okay, Steve? Jim here.

    STEVE: Yeah, Jim?

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah.

    STEVE: Steve back here.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Hey, Steve.

    STEVE: Hi, gee, I just wanted to touch bases with you here.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: I just talked to the radio man.

    STEVE: All right.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: And David was talking to him and putting David on now. I told the reporter that I wanted him to put David on.

STEVE: Well good, thank you for that.

JIM KAVANAUGH: So he, he was reluctant, but I told him to do it, so we'll see if it's on here.

STEVE: Okay, good. Jim we're a little concerned. These guys are passing information up to me. They're pretty upset because they said they believe the National Guard is around here now.

JIM KAVANAUGH: They are?

STEVE: Yeah. We hear that there's an armored vehicle up at the guard gate right now up at the Post or whatever you'd like to call it.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, okay, it, it's not at your gate. I mean, there are National Guard. There's, you know, FBI, there's state troopers, there's Waco police, sheriff's police. I mean, yes, it's true, but nobody does anything except on what, my word. Nobody's coming. You have my word. Yes, they're there, it's true. I'm not lying to you. It's true.

STEVE: They were pretty upset when the plane flew directly, very close to the com--to the building itself.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Some plane flew over?

STEVE: Yes, it did. It was very low and right in line with the building.

JIM KAVANAUGH: You know, I can't -- some of these can be media. You know, news people. It could be, I swear it's not us, I swear we're not doing that.

STEVE: Well he, they, you know, these guys here, they get so itchy, you know with that kind of thing.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand. Just pass the word.

STEVE: I'm trying.

JIM KAVANAUGH: That we're not coming. They can relax. We're not coming. I mean, you can all go to sleep cause nobody's coming. You know, I'm telling you, it's not happening.

STEVE: Good.

JIM KAVANAUGH: It's not going to do, it's not going to do anybody any good.

STEVE: I agree. I agree.

JIM KAVANAUGH: So, we're not going to do that. We've already -- you and David have already save some lives. I mean we've got people out here. You've saved their lives.

STEVE: Well, the truth of the matter is, like him, I wish anything in this world, if we could've, I hated to see even one person hurt.
JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand. I believe you and I know you're sincere and I can tell by your voice and I know you feel bad. And, I feel bad. But I want us to keep this lifeline going.

STEVE: We're going to do that.

JIM KAVANAUGH: So we can get, you know, some more children out maybe.

STEVE: Right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Is David on the radio?

STEVE: Yeah, he is, right now, and I thank you for that too. I know you made a good effort on our part.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, he didn't want to, but --

STEVE: Yeah, I understand. When it comes to you know, religious issues like that, I mean --

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, yeah, well he's getting his word out and we all know he wants to.

STEVE: Well, you got to hear quite a bit from him, didn't you?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, he's so intelligent. Holy smoke, I was listening to him read from the Bible, he knows it word for word, I mean, it's unbelievable.

STEVE: Well a lot of that he wasn't even reading. He was just quoting.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, I know he wasn't reading it, I know. It was unbelievable. I never, I've never --

STEVE: Even myself, the first time I met him in Los Angeles, after that (indiscernible--interfering noise) that property they have there and he came out with greasy hands, he was supposed to give a study to 80 people and his hands were so greasy, he just stood there and for five hours, I mean he just, not even opening a Bible, chapter after chapter, I sat there watching verbatim word for word following along in my Bible. I was astounded. I mean it's one thing for scholars of many degrees or people with good memories to memorize even, I don't know, portions of the Bible, the whole Bible, but here was somebody who put it together, harmonized it, and made it so plain and clear. I mean, that's always been his concern. Not any other issue, but allowing people to really get to see what these prophets saw for the final days in light of the last book of the Bible, so -- It's always been his burden and his (indiscernible)

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, I understand. Like, he's getting a chance to be heard.

STEVE: Right. What kind of a background do you have, Jim?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, I'm a Christian and was raised that way and--

STEVE: You were?

JIM KAVANAUGH: -- and believe in God and the Bible.

STEVE: Do you belong to any kind of Church or you just--

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well I was a Catholic and my wife was a Christian Church --

STEVE: That probably was interesting, huh?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, you know, some of the Catholics are funny about that and --

STEVE: That's true.

JIM KAVANAUGH: -- and the Christians -- they've changed a little now as you know, but the Christians seem to be a little bit more accepting and the Catholics seem to care about all the rules, you know.

STEVE: Right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: But, you know, I mean, you got to believe, it's just the way it is.

STEVE: Well, you know, we don't judge anybody whether they do or don't. I mean we love people and in honesty if they can't see things, you know we give them that credit and believe according to Romans 2 and 3 that (indiscernible--interfering noise) much like came to them and what they did with their opportunities. I believe one day, an honest seeker, if he was agnostic, a buddhist, if he did the best he could with the light he had, God will be merciful in that manner. This is what we've always taught and believe that now. We also believe that as in the days of Noah, God was going to bring a judgement upon the world and the majority of the world said "no, you won't," so he did. And, after the flood, God says I'll never destroy the world with a flood again, and he says, well yes you will. They built the Tower of Babel to and get away from a flood that would never come. So Christ matched twenty forces in the final days, he says, it wasn't in the days of Noah, that's when it will be the final days.

So in the last days, there's a message for people. There's to be an ark of safety, but where is it to be moved, what kind of an ark of safety. No wooden boat is going to help you and I in this generation of course. So this is what the Prophets all talk about. What God is going to offer for a way out. We're all sinners. I'm no better than anybody else in this world [gap] I've tried to be a Christian, I've tried this, tried that, but I've always loved truth. I've never said that I know Christ because my lifestyle doesn't show it even though I've tried for years.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, that's honesty Steve. Some people try to fool you and tell you, that they, that's why they don't see him, but that can't be.

STEVE: Well, I see a very high standard in Christianity when you look at the writings of Christ and you look at the writings of the Prophets and the Apostles. Like even John says those that are born again do not commit sin. So, that brings up a question, well, if we sin are we born again? And then you have a lot of Evangelicals running around saying, hey, are you saved? Are you born again? They look at me and I say to them, "I'm not, I'd like to be, but God requires something. He tells us in the final days how you can become born again." It's found in Ezekiel 36 [gap] and the Apostles themselves for twelve years and they ran, I mean for three years and they ran around with Christ. They were people that fought for position and they argued amongst themselves, but the time came when they all ran away when he died. But then when they were gathered together they finally obeyed --
JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): Tell them to get ready. As soon as he stops rambling, I'm going to try to negotiate two more kids.

STEVE: (indiscernible) something that never happened to me -- tongues of fire lighting on the heads of these individuals. They went out and raised the dead, healed the sick, and you know, it's not happening anymore.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I know.

STEVE: But the Prophets foresaw that it didn't work two thousand years ago. It did for awhile, but it says in the final days of Revelation 13, this time Satan is going to work the miracles, and will cause fire to come down out of Heaven which Elijah did three thousand years ago, but this time it's not God behind it. So the only way we'll know the truth from a faulty is by what the Book says in its entirety and its harmonization. So this is why we like to have people have an opportunity. We don't claim to be able to do any miracles. We're not Pentecostal. We try to be very factual, not go by feelings. Everybody in all religions have feelings, but you know, God is not against that or anything. But, we look at the sure word, what God says he's going to do.
JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay.

STEVE: It's going to be hard for the flesh, of course, but we'll try to hang in there and try to do the best we can with our fellow man.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand.

STEVE: So, all these years that I've been with him and worked with him, you know, we've never harmed anybody, never touched anyone and, we've had a lot of threats. I was with him and went over to England and there were theologians that got a hold of me and warned me about my, you know, my life would be in danger and I--

JIM KAVANAUGH: Just for what you believe in?

STEVE: Yes, because, you know, what was happening, we were offering information to a lot of theology students, those that were paying about $10,000 a year to become ministers. And, we didn't charge anything. We raised questions that they could not answer. We said in honesty, if you really want to know the book called the Bible, you know, let us present something. You can ask any questions you want. If we can't show you the answer right in the Book, not give an opinion and a theory, well then you've lost nothing but an exercise of the mind and a little time. But if you see something there, you know, meditate on it, look at it, go back on your own and wrestle with the issues, and you know, it's between you and God.

Even when I first met David, I was, I thought to myself, God, what is this, a Jim Jones, you know anything with a small group off in the middle of who knows where, you know you've got to wrestle with the issues. And for six months, I went back and forth with that Bible trying to prove him wrong.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I'm no theologian or religious scholar and I certain --

STEVE: Well, you're almost better off because of that, Jim, because people like yourself that have worldly experience, usually give a man more of break. They do more listening than those in the religious world. They already think they know God.
You can't do anything for them, so if there's a message of impending doom and a way out, they won't take the time out what that way out might be. You know, this has been what the testimony of the Prophets all the way through. You know, one law condemns us all. The Ten Commandments, we don't keep it. It's a good law (indiscernible--interfering noise) God's color. But there's another law, it's called the Law of the Spirit of Life. It's from Romans 8, and in every generation God sends warnings by Prophets, but there are always people that are picked that are everyday people, Hosea and Micah, these guys were sheep herders, and fig pickers. They didn't wear three piece suits. They didn't have a lot of doctor degrees. Not to say that's wrong, but God picked people that were humble, that he could work with and every generation these kind of men were rejected.

So, you know, the last days, we believe we're in the last days as Christianity does at large, and the word is very clear as to how it's all going to come to an end. And we just want to make sure people have that opportunity to take a look because it talks about in all the Prophets about the Heavens departing as a scroll. It's going to be a scary thing. If you ever have the time, you know, write down Isaiah 24. God says he's going to turn this globe, this planet upside down and shake the inhabitants. Says it's going to reel to and fro like a drunkard. People are going to be terrified. And, if they don't know information ahead of time, it says if they run they'll fall into a pit. And those that escape out of the pit will be taken in a snare. See the thing is to if we're to stand still, but you can't without information, without having an experience based upon trusting God's word, not by your feelings, because we're all bad. I mean, bad in that we have tendencies to do things that we don't even like ourselves, so this is what we've share with people all over, and you know, to this time we still are.

But, of course, we hold nothing against anyone. We just want to make sure that people have that opportunity to understand if they want. If they don't, we respect that too. Its between them, God, and the Judgement.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand.

STEVE: He probably wanted to talk to you too, but he's still on with this guy. So how are you hanging out there Jim, are you tired?

JIM KAVANAUGH: A little tired.

STEVE: I believe it, I believe it.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I know you are.

STEVE: Were you up pretty early today?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, I kind of like to get up early, I tend to do that.

STEVE: Jim, do you know Robert personally, Gonzalez?

JIM KAVANAUGH: No, I don't.

STEVE: But you know of him, of course.
JIM KAVANAUGH: I know the name, yeah.

STEVE: I just, I just would've liked to have talked to Robert. You came, you heard, you know, make your decisions.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand.

STEVE: Don't forget what you heard. Keep it in mind.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand. I think --

STEVE: He's talking about the children right now, so I think he's going to try to work it out.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I think he's telling them to play the scripture.

STEVE: I think he's getting to that now.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I'm just listening to David on the radio.

STEVE: Okay. So he is on? I didn't even know.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Oh, yeah. He's on a long time.

STEVE: You can hear him on the radio?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, uh huh.
STEVE: Okay. [gap] He doesn't know that I'm on with you right now.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah. Okay. Okay. [gap] What he said was he told the guy on the radio station that he would take the fact that I told the radio man to let him talk as one of the scripture readings.

STEVE: Okay, right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And that you would send out two more children.

STEVE: Okay, I see.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Now that's what he just said, if you want to check with him, that's fine, but if we could get two more kids, I think it would be great.

STEVE: Right, right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: If you want to just --

STEVE: I'm waiting for him to stop here, so I can, I didn't really want to interrupt him yet.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, maybe, is Sita around there?

STEVE: Just a minute.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Maybe you can get her to get two kids ready or something.

STEVE: Yeah, I'm looking for her now.

JIM KAVANAUGH: He's giving the word now.
He's getting out, I'm telling you, he's getting out.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: There's people all over the world listening to that.

STEVE: I hope so.

JIM KAVANAUGH: He's really getting it out.

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): I'm talking to Steve and David said on the radio that he was going to count the fact that we told that radio man to talk to him as a reading of the Scripture. David's going to send us two more kids. I got Steve. They're going to get them ready. We're not ready just yet. We're lining it up.

STEVE: We'll definitely do it.

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): They'll definitely do it. You have Steve's word.

STEVE: That's right. There's no problem.

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): No problem. They're going to do it.

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): And you can trust him, I'm telling you. It's okay. You can trust him. Steve, he won't break his word.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, I got, you know, these commanders and deputies and stuff.
STEVE: You guys have quite a job there.

JIM KAVANAUGH: The sheriff was asking for you guys. I just want to pass it on. He's real concerned. I talked to him earlier.

STEVE: Which one is this?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Sheriff Thorn.

STEVE: Okay, I've never met him. I don't know him myself, but of course David does.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, David knows him.

STEVE: He likes him very much and he's appreciated him.

JIM KAVANAUGH: He's a real gentleman. You know, I talked to him at length and he just said hey, I don't want anybody in there to get hurt. Let's work it out. He's behind you, so I want you to feel good about that.

STEVE: Well we do feel good about him. David's met him apparently or talked to him and he really appreciates him.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, he's a good guy. I really believe he is. I know you can size him up fast.

STEVE: I know that any of these guys that put their own life on the line not knowing what they're getting into and hearing this and that information. You can't help but have appreciation for these people.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: Sure.

    STEVE: I try to put myself in their shoes and where they're coming from and try to understand and I know it's not easy.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: David's still talking to him.

    STEVE: Yeah, he is.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: I think he's going to get through in just a minute. Well he's getting it out, I'm telling you. It's hard sometimes to get that out, you know, I mean you know how much that would cost to try to buy that?

    STEVE: Oh, tell me.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: I mean, probably world wide, I mean --

    STEVE: This is about the best opportunity we've had.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: It is. I think it's great. I mean as a result the kids are getting out. I mean, it it's good. You're making good out of bad. You know what I mean?

    STEVE: Right.

    JIM KAVANAUGH: You're making good out of bad. We're trying to do good and that's -- hold on Steve, they're hollering at me. [gap] okay, yeah --

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): Are they on the ground? The guys with the -- okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: What happened Steve, they said they're looking down the road with the night vision goggles --

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: There's five of your men in the guard shack in the trees.

STEVE: What?

JIM KAVANAUGH: They said they're out front there. They can see them.

STEVE: We have nobody. Wait just a minute.

Jim is saying--

[gap]

JIM KAVANAUGH: Are we sure it's none of us, right?

STEVE: -- Honestly, in all honesty, we don't have anybody down there. So if there's someone down there, it's the National Guard --

JIM KAVANAUGH: It's not the National Guard.

STEVE: It's nobody to do with us.

JIM KAVANAUGH: It's your people. I'm telling you straight. It's your people.
STEVE: We, I'm telling you, we have nobody down there, Jim. You're talking about the gate at the end of our dirt road, right?

JIM KAVANAUGH: At the front gate.

STEVE: We have nobody down there.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, they told me they can see them.

STEVE: Well, that tells me that, okay I don't doubt that you're saying that there's someone down there, but they're not our people.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, they, they, there's nobody of ours that close. The only reason is the car. You know we want the car to come down and get the children.

STEVE: Exactly. Now I'm concerned about that.

JIM KAVANAUGH: So what we need to do is somehow to check that.

STEVE: Well don't you--

JIM KAVANAUGH: I'm not sending anybody. I don't want them to, you know, to shoot anybody.

STEVE: Exactly, that's exactly what would happen, so you know, let's keep that cool yet.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Let's keep that cool.

STEVE: I want to talk to Wayne about that, he just--

JIM KAVANAUGH: You know, you have my solemn word.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: You can send Sita with a flashlight. We've already let her go back twice.

STEVE: Right, I understand.

JIM KAVANAUGH: You can send her out to look and if it's your people you tell them to come on back in, you know.

STEVE: Hang on, I'm going to talk to Wayne about that, what he passed on there.

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): Okay. I'm trying to get him to send Sita out with a flashlight to look and tell them to come back in.

STEVE (aside): Yeah, Jim is saying that -- he claims that they're ours. We don't have --

STEVE: So what's going on Jim? Can you get these guys out of there?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, they're not our guys.

STEVE: Well, how would you do it? I mean how can you get a hold, I mean you must have connections.

JIM KAVANAUGH: No, I mean they're not, they're not police. In other words the agents are saying they came from the compound.

STEVE: They didn't though. I swear they --

JIM KAVANAUGH: You know, I wonder, you know what happened, I wonder, a couple of guys earlier --

STEVE: Okay, right,

JIM KAVANAUGH: -- came across--

JIM KAVANAUGH: Chuck, give me the name of the man that was arrested, okay? I've got to give Steve his name.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, a couple of guys came across that were in your place today.

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: But they're part of your guys, I mean they're part of your group, okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And they came from another house or location, I don't know. Okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And they came across, one got away, but one we arrested, he's in good shape, nothing's wrong with him.

STEVE: Which one was arrested?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I'm going to get his name in a minute, Delroy? Delroy? Nash?
STEVE: What's his name?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I think it's Delroy Nash, but I'm checking. He's a Jamaican man, a black man?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Do you know who I mean?

STEVE: Yes, I do.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay.

STEVE: I didn't know that his name was that, but I guess --

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well that's what he told us.

STEVE: Okay. That could be, I just knew him by a nickname.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, so what I'm saying is, he came from out there, okay?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Now, possibly these people in the front could have came, I mean they could be your believers, but you know they got there without your knowing it. You see what I'm saying?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: They are not police. Because we wouldn't put them there, you wouldn't send the kids out, I mean that would be crazy.

STEVE: We don't have anybody out there, Jim. That is the truth. What happened to the other two guys?

JIM KAVANAUGH: The other two guys?

STEVE: Someone told me they heard on the radio that three guys were heading this way, one was shot, one was wounded, and one was captured.

JIM KAVANAUGH: No, we don't -- we had two guys we saw and captured one. We don't know what happened to the other one. We don't have him. We don't know where he is.

STEVE: This is what we heard.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, I'm telling you straight. There's two guys in the back, back in the woods in the back.

STEVE: Right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And that's when -- remember after we'd been talking and later on the shooting started, remember that?

STEVE: Okay.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And we said, you guys said it's not our guys, and it was these guys that came over there from somewhere else -- Jamaica--

STEVE: What kind of a vehicle were they in?

JIM KAVANAUGH: They were on foot.

STEVE: They were?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Uh-huh. So I, I don't know if the guys in the front came from the mag bag or somewhere else?

STEVE: That's what I wondered.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Or, you know what I mean.

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And the only problem then is communication. They just don't know what we're doing.

STEVE: Of course, of course.

JIM KAVANAUGH: And we, we could have some tragedy, so let's see if you and I can come up with a way to verify who they are.

STEVE: Well, that's what I would like to do.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Let me think here. I wonder, could you, could you holler out the front to your guys, ask them to come in, they have safe conduct, I guarantee you.

STEVE: Jim, I'm telling you for a fact, I mean it. David, myself, Wayne, all of us here are not allowing that kind of a thing.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, but you may not know it. They didn't come from inside.

STEVE (aside): Jim thinks that there are some guys that are either approaching our place or coming near the place, that are out there near the guard shack, that might be ours, cause he says it's not theirs. But isn't there an armored vehicle there also?

JIM KAVANAUGH: No, no, that's -- none of those armored cars are near there. They're down on the 2491 road.

STEVE: Can we check that out somehow or go back, okay, he's going to see about our men and make sure of the rest of it.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, we've got to work something out, I mean.

STEVE: Oh, definitely. I don't like that at all.

JIM KAVANAUGH: We can get you a bull horn somehow. You could call them. You could yell out the window. Is it any of our guys? Come on in, safe conduct's guaranteed. I mean if it is and they come in, then we know. You know, I don't want no trouble.

STEVE: No, exactly.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I mean, it's not going to do us any good to get a child hurt or something. And, I know you feel the same. But I'm giving you my solemn word. I've never told you anything except the truth.

STEVE: You know, I believe that.

JIM KAVANAUGH: It's not our guys. I don't doubt that they didn't come from inside, but they might have been --

STEVE: Okay, if it's not ours, you know, I'm positive it's not, but he's going to check and do everything possible. If it's not our guys, who do you think it would be?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well it could be somebody from the mag bag.

STEVE: I doubt it, cause we don't, there's no five guys that I'm aware of out or you know, away from us. Other than the one you mentioned--

JIM KAVANAUGH: Geez, I don't wonder if it could be reporters. I doubt that they'd get up that close.

STEVE: So, you did pick up two guys, right?

JIM KAVANAUGH: We picked up one and one got away. You know, the --

STEVE: David, I'm talking to Jim right now and he's telling me there's five guys down there. I'm assuring him they're not ours, He thinks there might be some of our guys coming to our place but if there was they'd come up to the building. Why would they stay?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, I don't know, maybe, maybe they don't know, maybe they're scared. Maybe they think agents are up in there. Maybe they want to ambush the car. See, they may not know what we're doing with the children, is what I'm saying and they may say --

STEVE: Well that's what we're going to do then, is check on that.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, check on that and hey
Chuck, are they sure there's like four or five people?
Okay, Steve says they don't think it's their guys, but they're going to try to holler out to them or something. Okay, that's what I would recommend.
Don't put yourself in jeopardy. [gap] Well, maybe Sita could --

STEVE: Could Sita walk up there and check to see what's at the guard gate? Sita's going to walk up there and check it out.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Sita's going to walk up there, great. Hey, Chuck, Sita's going to walk up there with a flashlight. Tell everybody she's going to check out who's there. Sita.

STEVE: The same one that brought the children.

JIM KAVANAUGH: The one that brought the children. Steve?

STEVE: Let's get this resolved, then we're going to make the next move where we were before this was reported, okay?

   JIM KAVANAUGH: You mean the kids?

   STEVE: Exactly.

   JIM KAVANAUGH: Absolutely.

   STEVE: We're going to send her out right now, then.

   JIM KAVANAUGH: You're a good man. Hey, the guy we got that's safe and sound is Delroy Nash.

   STEVE: Okay.

   JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay. He's fine.

   STEVE: What happened? There was an older man that was down there at the mag bag there. What happened with him?

   JIM KAVANAUGH: Steve wants to know about an older man at the mag bag, he wants to know about--

   STEVE: His name is Bob.

   JIM KAVANAUGH: His name is Bob. He's still there.

   STEVE: He's still there at this place?

   JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah. As far as they know, he's still there.

   STEVE: Right now, we're getting ready to send her out.

   JIM KAVANAUGH: Is David still on with the reporter? [gap] Nobody's going to hurt Sita.

STEVE: [gap] You heading out there Sita? You got a flashlight?

SITA: Yeah, I got a flashlight.

STEVE: No kids right now. Just go out, check it out, come back and we're going to send two more --

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah.

STEVE: Okay? She's going to be --

JIM KAVANAUGH: -- She's going out?

STEVE: Yeah. Call to see if they're ours or who they are or whatever. It's very important she returns, of course.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Oh, absolutely. Sita's coming out. Tell everybody.

STEVE: Okay, give her the flashlight.

[gap] Okay, they're getting ready now. Like us, they're concerned.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I understand.

STEVE: I want to tell you, I really appreciate your telling me that and I'm concerned myself. I'd like to know who they are and so far I haven't heard they got -- okay, David just said he still wants all his kids out.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, we're going to do it.
You have my word, we're going to do it.

STEVE (aside): We've got his word. He's going to do it, so -- [gap] Head out there, okay? I thought you left already.

SITA: There's a van--

STEVE: Oh, there's a van there, I guess.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Chuck, is there a van there? Where's the van? It's not there, is it? It's down at the roadblock, it's not there, no.

STEVE (aside): They're saying there's nobody there, Sita. There's nobody at the guard gate. There's no vehicle.

JIM KAVANAUGH: There's no vehicle. Just some people.

STEVE: There's some people and we're trying to find out who the people are.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Just tell her to walk out. She'll be safe.

STEVE: Walk out. You'll be safe. They're guaranteeing that. She's coming right now.

JIM KAVANAUGH: She's coming out.

STEVE: Yeah. You know, it's funny, I keep on saying that and then I see her face here again. I guess they want to make sure that -- someone had mentioned that there was a van there. I don't know.
You know, I'm in a place, here, I can't tell.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Is she walking down there?

STEVE: Yeah, yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: She's coming down. Steve said she's coming.

STEVE: Yeah, she is.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Does she have a flashlight?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: She has a flashlight.

STEVE: She has a flashlight. [gap]

JIM KAVANAUGH: Maybe it's somebody she knows, you know. Can they see?

STEVE: Jim, so how long are you going to be carrying on tonight?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, I'm sticking with you, buddy.

STEVE: You are, oh, man.

JIM KAVANAUGH: For the kids, right?

STEVE: I guess we're going to be a couple of night hawks.

JIM KAVANAUGH: We'll do it for the kids.

STEVE: Oh yeah, oh yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: You got someone to get you a cup of coffee in there or something?

STEVE: Yeah, we've got that.
JIM KAVANAUGH: It was kind of cool out there today. A little rain.

STEVE: Yeah, I guess so. It's not like Hawaii.

JIM KAVANAUGH: No. I've never been there. I bet it's beautiful.

STEVE: Oh of all the places I've been in the world, there was a time I said I'd never leave there. The only reason I left is for something better. Truth, catching a vision of eternal life, but yeah, it's a warm place.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, oh yeah. Kind of beautiful, the mountains and the volcanos.

STEVE: The ocean, you got it. Waterfalls, pools, trade winds, you really don't need air conditioning.

JIM KAVANAUGH: That would be neat. Not like Texas.

STEVE: No, no. One day it's 40, the next it's 80.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, I understand.

STEVE: Are you from here?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I grew up in New Jersey and I was a policeman in Florida and I was an agent in Nashville, Wichita, Washington, Dallas.
STEVE: Wow, holy smoke.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I go all over the place.

STEVE (aside): Jim, he's from New Jersey. He was a police officer in Florida and he's been in New Jersey, I mean Wichita, JIM KAVANAUGH: Nashville.

STEVE: Nashville, yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Country music, got a lot of them down there.

STEVE: You would have liked some of our music then. We played quite a variety.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Kind of like blue grass?

STEVE: Yeah, exactly. These guys are able to play just about anything.

JIM KAVANAUGH: I got to tell you, I got a nephew. He's eleven years old and he can pick a banjo, it's unbelievable. I don't know how a kid can learn so fast.

STEVE: Eleven years old?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Eleven years old.

STEVE: The banjo's quite an instrument. I had a cousin that also played one and I was amazed at his ability.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, kids can do any --

STEVE: I like that instrument myself. I wonder, is she down there yet?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Can they see her?

STEVE: Yeah, I'm wondering here if they can see her yet. Do they notice her yet from your side?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Chuck, do they see Sita?

Sita's back inside, we think. Is she there?

STEVE: No, no. She should be outside.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay.

STEVE: Heading down the road.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Steve said she's outside he thinks.

STEVE: Yeah, David just wanted to reassure, just as soon as she gets back in the building, we're sending two right away then.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, as soon as Sita gets back, we're going to do two more kids. Once we can get, make sure that there's nobody there.

STEVE: I'm really glad though that you told me that, it helps.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, we got to be straight. I mean we can't play. Let's deal in honesty here. I think these could be some folks that you know, I know you didn't tell them to go there, I believe that. But I'm saying they could've went there on their own and you didn't know it. They're trying to help.
STEVE: Right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: All right. Sita's coming out. Yeah. Sita's coming out now.

STEVE: Yeah, they see her?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Sita, okay, she's coming out to check around. [gap] I think they're in the guard shack. I think there's two in the guard shack.

STEVE (aside): He thinks, he thinks there's two in the guard shack.

JIM KAVANAUGH: A couple in some trees. Trees I guess across the driveway, in the bushes.

STEVE (aside): And a couple of trees or bushes across the drive. No, none of theirs. None of theirs. David is saying again. They're none of ours.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay. We've got to find out who's who, you know?

STEVE: Wow.

JIM KAVANAUGH: You know, since we've pulled our people back, I mean we haven't sent nobody up there, but that car to get the kids, I swear.

STEVE: Okay. [gap] the car that came up to pick up the last two or any of the four, was it noted then?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, they didn't tell me.

STEVE: Does anybody there know?
JIM KAVANAUGH: Sol?

STEVE: Spotted them even then?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Let me get through. Chuck, were those guys there when the car went to pick up the kids the last time? Did they see them? Okay, the driver didn't see them.

STEVE: She didn't?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, but the guys with the night vision glasses, one in the back, they see them, they're watching them.

STEVE: Wow, I tell you what. I'm sure curious myself. I mean if they're people we know, I'd sure like to know who they are.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Like I say, if it is, they just don't know what's what. And, they may be scared. And, you know, they don't know exactly what's going on so, maybe Sita can, if she recognizes them, she can say hey come on in, or you know whatever.

STEVE: Right.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Or they can walk out, you know, whatever they want to do. [gap] How's David doing?

STEVE: How are you doing David?

JIM KAVANAUGH (aside): He's asking David how he's doing, but -- JIM KAVANAUGH: Is he getting weak Steve?

STEVE: I can see him from where I'm at here and I think he's listening to the radio.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Well, he sounded a lot stronger to me and I felt good about that. I don't think, David's off the radio.

STEVE: Pardon?

JIM KAVANAUGH: David was through with the radio guy?

STEVE: Yes. Yes, he is.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay. The agent's passing me a note. Well get him on the phone. I can't get off this line, but you can get him on another line.

[gap] I wonder how Sita, Sita still out there? Oh, you can't see her.

STEVE: They can. They've got night scopes. But I'm not in communication with them right at the moment. What's happening with Sita? Can somebody give me word?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I was just holding, just in case he asked for me again. Just wait a little while.

STEVE: She's just going?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I don't know if he'll ask for them. I'll try to talk him out of it.

STEVE: Jim, Jim?
JIM KAVANAUGH: Yeah, go ahead Steve.

STEVE: They said she's just going now. I'm disappointed.

JIM KAVANAUGH: That's okay. I understand. I was slow in getting that truck down there, I know it's not your fault. You know, it's hard. We got a lot of people.

STEVE: Playing again? Oh, I see, they're playing the -- [gap]

JIM KAVANAUGH: Are they talking about David?

STEVE: Yeah.

JIM KAVANAUGH: That's good. (indiscernible) I just don't want to hang up right now. She hopefully can see with that flashlight. It's pretty dark out there. You're not at a window where you can see them, are you Steve?

STEVE: No.

JIM KAVANAUGH: These little children are beautiful and --

STEVE: They're all very well behaved.

JIM KAVANAUGH: They were, they're just gorgeous and they're just so polite and smiling. We gave them a cold drink and they've got a lady with them and they're fine.
STEVE: Okay, that's good. One of the worse things that reports --

JIM KAVANAUGH: Tell them to hold those kids, just a minute, I'm afraid that the mother of the second bunch wants to talk to them.

STEVE: (indiscernible) we, David said, there's no one in the shack. The van's not there. There's no one in the shack. Where else did she look? They said across the street in bushes there were a couple.

JIM KAVANAUGH: A couple.

STEVE: Right?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Hold on.

STEVE: Okay. Guys with night goggles watching the road.

JIM KAVANAUGH: That's probably Sita, right? With a flashlight? We seen a lady out from the compound on the EE Road. Okay, he said that the team sees people pulling back from EE Road. toward--

STEVE: Hello?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

OPERATOR: This is the operator. I have an emergency for 863-5252 from A Current Affair, will you-- JIM KAVANAUGH: No, no. Operator, this is a Federal Agent.

STEVE: Jim, is there any way I could talk to them and call you back? Could I?

JIM KAVANAUGH: I'll allow that, but let me get the operator first.

STEVE: Okay.

OPERATOR: I'm here, sir.

STEVE: Operator?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Operator, wait, operator?

STEVE: This is the number that you want to reach and I would like to talk to Current Affair.

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, operator, operator.

OPERATOR: Yes.

JIM KAVANAUGH: This is Jim Kavanaugh, I'm a United States Treasury Agent, I'm talking--

STEVE: Jim, can I call you right back? Let me, I'll call you right back, or let me, I'll tell them I'll call them back, is that okay?

JIM KAVANAUGH: Okay, yeah, okay.

STEVE: Okay. Operator, I'm going to call Jim right back and I just want to get at least a connection with you to talk to you and--

JIM KAVANAUGH: Operator, okay, and do that and I don't want you to break in on the line anymore.
OPERATOR: Sir, I cannot prevent that.

STEVE: Okay, well operator, go ahead, thank you Jim, I'll get back with you.

JIM KAVANAUGH: The operator just cut in on my line with Current Affair -- give it to him and she wouldn't not do it. (indiscernible voice in background) Well, they are but I don't know how many -- get this set up--

(End of tape.)
