TAPE #38

March 4, 1993
(Telephone ringing)

MR. KORESH: Hello? Hello? Hello? Hello?
HENRY: Good morning.

MR. KORESH: Yes.
HENRY: How are you this morning?
MR. KORESH: Well, let me check. Cold.
HENRY: Are you cold?
MR. KORESH: Yeah. Say, Henry?
HENRY: Um-hum.
MR. KORESH: Yeah.
HENRY: How do you feel, other than cold?
MR. KORESH: Well, I feel all right. I just -- kind of chilly.
HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Okay. All right. What time is it?
MR. KORESH: 6:30. Okay. Once it gets, once it gets light outside Kevin is going to be out, all right?
HENRY: Okay.
MR. KORESH: It's still dark now.
HENRY: Okay.
MR. KORESH: I thought it was -- I thought it got light earlier.
HENRY: Is it still dark out there?

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: Okay.

HENRY: Do you want me to call you back in just a little bit?

MR. KORESH: Yeah. We're, we're just going to, we're just going to get little Kevin and stuff and get him ready.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: Okay. Thanks a lot.

HENRY: Okay. Well, I'll call you back in just a little bit.

MR. KORESH: Okay.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: Bye.

HENRY: Bye-bye.

* * * * *

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello?

HENRY: Hello.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Who --

HENRY: Steve?
MR. SCHNEIDER: Yes.

HENRY: Is David around?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yes, just a moment.

HENRY: Thank you.

MR. SCHNEIDER: They're asking for you, David. I guess he'll be right with you in a little bit. Kevin will be out here in a little bit.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Let's see, what, what -- okay. Yeah, they're going to -- they'll keep you posted. He's -- they're, they're getting him ready or whatever I guess and then --

HENRY: How old is Kevin?

MR. SCHNEIDER: I believe he -- let's see, I would think he's 10 or 11, I believe, 11 years old.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah.

HENRY: Okay. Well, we'll kind of go in the same fashion that we've been going. What's Kevin's last name?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Jones.

HENRY: Jones. Okay. We'll do it just like we, we did it yesterday. We'll, we'll follow that same routine. I think it's been working out real good.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay.
HENRY: He, he can walk up to the armored ambulance, okay?
MR. SCHNEIDER: All right.
HENRY: He's, he's, he's in good shape, but as I say, he's not hurt or anything like that, right?
MR. SCHNEIDER: No, not at all.
HENRY: Okay, good.
MR. SCHNEIDER: No, he's fine.
HENRY: Good. Did you sleep okay?
MR. SCHNEIDER: Right. Well, yeah, I've, I've had a pretty good sleep.
HENRY: Good, good.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah.
HENRY: Had a real good conversation with David.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Oh, good.
HENRY: I mean, a, a long conversation with -- it went real well.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Good, good.
HENRY: Um-hum, um-hum.
MR. SCHNEIDER: When, when were you able to talk with him?
HENRY: Last night.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Oh, I see, okay.
HENRY: Um-hum, um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: That's right, I, I remember it now, yeah.

HENRY: And then, and then --

MR. SCHNEIDER: Don't mind me, I, I'm a little bit sleepy yet.

HENRY: Oh, yeah.

MR. SCHNEIDER: I'm just kind of -- dozed off for about 10, 15 minutes there.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay.

HENRY: David is awake now though isn't he?

MR. SCHNEIDER: I believe so.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Just a minute.

HENRY: Okay.

(Indiscernible voice in background.)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, he says he'll be talking. Pardon? He -- when he went to sleep he got chilled and so he's going to -- he wants to get warmed up here I guess.

HENRY: Oh, okay. Is it cold there?

MR. KORESH: Yeah, it, it was kind of a chill.

HENRY: Uh-huh.

MR. SCHNEIDER: It's kind of cool.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: So, yeah, they're, they're getting him ready now.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: He's I believe here somewhere.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Pardon?

(Indiscernible voices in background.)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, they're checking now, I guess.

HENRY: Okay.

(Indiscernible voices in background.)

HENRY: Once we get him here what we'll do is we'll work on the same thing. That is to say, we'll, we'll give a call back again so --

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay, good.

HENRY: -- so he can talk to his mom and --

MR. SCHNEIDER: Right.

HENRY: -- everybody can feel comfortable with, with the way things are going.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay. Here's, here's Sita.
HENRY: Oh, okay.
SITA: Who is it?
HENRY: Sita, this is Henry.
SITA: Oh, hi, Henry. Good morning.
HENRY: How are you? Good morning. How are you?
SITA: I'm fine now.
HENRY: You sound real good.
SITA: Oh, thank you.
HENRY: Did you get a good night's sleep?
SITA: Yes.
HENRY: Well, good, good, good.
SITA: I just went to check on Kevin and he's putting his shoes on.
HENRY: Oh, okay, good, good.
SITA: And he's trying to, trying to say good-bye with the rest of the kids.
HENRY: Uh-huh. Well, that's important. That's very important to the kids. In the setting that you have there everybody becomes quite close to one another and it's important for everybody to feel that, that even though the separation may just be a temporary separation, that they, that they have a chance to say good-bye to one another.
SITA: Well, one of them he said, "I'll see you later."

HENRY: Good.

SITA: (Laughter)

HENRY: (Laughter) Well, you know, that's what we would like to continue. We'd like to continue bring the, bring the kids out so that, so that everybody can feel like they are going to be reunited.

You know, it's just a, a slow process but everybody's going to be reunited, I really believe that. And if you feel comfortable at, at some time we'd like to get you out too because I think that, that a lot of people, you know, are looking at you because -- you may not feel this way, but I think it's very important, you know, because everybody traditionally considers Hispanics and considers Orientals to be very close to their, to their family and it's so, it's true. And I think it's very important and if -- I think if you were to come out to rejoin your, your children I think a lot of people would have a lot of, of respect for you and would not -- you know, you wouldn't lose any respect or, or anything like that. And you, you are considered a leader, I think.

SITA: Me?

HENRY: Yes. Well, you're an important person for goodness sakes, you know? Your, your children are important to you. I think everybody realizes that. And when, when a person is considered a -- an important person, you know, you're considered a leader.

    SITA: Well, I'm not an important person. I'm, I'm not a leader, that's for sure.

    HENRY: Well, of course you are. Why do you say that?

    SITA: I just don't.

    HENRY: What, what you've been doing is you've been facilitating the moving of, of the kids. You know, it takes somebody with leadership to, to accomplish something like that. I mean, you could have just sat back but you didn't.

    SITA: No, I --

    HENRY: I think it's helpful.

    SITA: I think God gave me the courage to --

    HENRY: Well --

    SITA: -- do what I have to do.

    HENRY: -- absolutely, absolutely. It takes courage, determination and, and faith in God which is all -- you know, all attributes that you have. I think a lot of times we tend to underestimate, you know, what we can do and our abilities and what -- I -- you know, I think you've got a lot of courage and a lot of determination and I think it's real good and people will follow you, you know, more than you -- but you --

SITA: Just a minute.

HENRY: Okay.

SITA: He's getting his shoes on. I just woke him up. Sorry.

HENRY: That's okay. I think you, you know,
God has given you courage and he expects you to, to act in the fashion that you feel comfortable with, you know. And, and certainly because your family is so important to you, you -- you know, you have to do things that you have to do even if takes a sacrifice because, because they're important to you.

SITA: Um-hum.

HENRY: Um-hum. How old are your kids?

SITA: Angelica has just turned six last month --

HENRY: Uh-huh.

SITA: -- January 19, Crystal is three and a half.

HENRY: Oh, okay. Okay. It's difficult to be, you know, to be separated from them but you'll be joining them I'm sure soon.

SITA: Yes, I'll be joining them. I'll see all of them.
HENRY: Um-hum. How old are you, Sita?

SITA: I think 34 or 35.

HENRY: (Laughter)

SITA: (Laughter)

HENRY: Well, good. At, at, at -- you know, at, at their age, it's, it's, it's very important, very important for them to, to have the closeness of a mother. I mean, the separation is just for temporarily, but, but the -- but the -- still, kids at that age they really need their mothers, I mean more so than their fathers.

SITA: Oh --

HENRY: Okay?

SITA: Wait, wait. Just a minute. Kevin? You get -- we're on the phone. Give me the phone. Just a minute. Let me get this -- can you hear me?

HENRY: Yes. I hear a lot of static. It almost looked like you're breaking away.

SITA: Yeah, this phone is so delicate, even -- the thing is -- I think we got that --

HENRY: Have you, have you had breakfast?

SITA: Huh?

HENRY: Have you had breakfast?

SITA: No, not yet.

HENRY: Not yet? Has Kevin had breakfast?
SITA: No, I just woke him up just now.

HENRY: Okay. What we'll do is we'll get him something here.

SITA: Yeah, as long as not pork or anything or that -- anything else.

HENRY: Oh, no, no, no, no. We understand that. I think we're very clear on that. We, we're going to --

SITA: I'll, I'll be grateful.

HENRY: Yeah, we're, we're going to make sure that, that none of the kids -- you know, I mean, I think they've been told and I think everybody here realizes that, that that's not an option, so --

SITA: Um-hum.

HENRY: -- we'll, we'll work on that.

SITA: Thanks. I appreciate that.

HENRY: You're welcome, Sita, you're welcome. The kids are important and, you know, everybody wants to make sure that, that, that they're treated properly and that, you know, that everybody there feels comfortable with, with what's -- how they're being taken care of. We're also trying --

SITA: Is there any way I can talk to the kids?

HENRY: I don't, I don't know. Probably the best way would be if you came out.

SITA: There's more children here. I'll be happy -- more happy when they are okay with me, all of them are safe.

HENRY: Okay, okay.

SITA: But if there is any way I can talk to them? Are they all in one place?

HENRY: To be honest with you, I don't know.
I'll have to check and, and see where all of them are. I honestly couldn't tell you.

SITA: Could you, please?

HENRY: Would, would -- I will. Is coming out not an option that, that, that, that you're comfortable with?

SITA: No.

HENRY: Could you come out with some of the children yourself?

SITA: Not yet, no.

HENRY: Okay, okay.

SITA: Thank you very much.

HENRY: Okay. Well, if you change your mind, you know, we'll be delighted, you know, to, to facilitate that for you to make it easy for you.

SITA: Um-hum.

HENRY: Later will you walk out? When you say not now, how about later?

    SITA:  Um-hum.

    HENRY:  Okay.  How much later?

    SITA:  I don't know.  We have to wait and see, and Kevin just came here now.

    HENRY:  Okay.

    SITA:  He's saying good-bye to his father.

    HENRY:  Okay.

    SITA:  You want to talk to him?

    HENRY:  No.  If you want to go ahead and, and send him out, have him walk to the armored ambulance at -- which is at the end of the driveway.

    SITA:  Okay.

    HENRY:  Okay?

    SITA:  Just a minute.  His -- hello?

    HENRY:  Yes?  Sita?

    SITA:  Wait, wait.  Hello?

    HENRY:  Yes?  Sita?

    SITA:  Just a minute.

    HENRY:  Okay.

    (Indiscernible voices in background.)

    (Music in background.)

    SITA:  Henry?

    HENRY:  Yes?

    SITA:  Oh, thought I lost you a few minutes.
HENRY: (Laughter)

SITA: Well, I didn't lose you, but --

HENRY: (Laughter)

SITA: -- the line is --

HENRY: Yes. It sounds like it's a bad line. We'll have to see if we can get you a phone or something. Let me know when he's coming out. Is David asleep?

SITA: Sorry?

HENRY: I'm sorry?

SITA: I thought you were saying something.

HENRY: I said, is David asleep or is he just -- I know he was cold and he was trying to get warmed up.

SITA: I -- I don't know if he caught a chill or not, but he's shaking.

HENRY: Oh, okay. He's what?

SITA: He, he just --

HENRY: He's shaking?

SITA: Yeah.

HENRY: Okay. He's shivering?

SITA: Yeah. We just gave him an extra --

HENRY: Blanket?

SITA: -- blanket.

HENRY: Okay, good.
SITA: Try to warm him up.

HENRY: Warm him up?

SITA: Um-hum.

HENRY: You don't think he's got a fever do you?

SITA: I'll, I'll have the nurse check her --

HENRY: Okay, good.

SITA: -- get her -- get his temperature.

HENRY: Okay, good, good. You got to be careful --

SITA: Okay.

HENRY: -- you got to be careful with, with David because, I mean, he looked like he was doing better and better, but I mean there's always a possibility that, that he could be going into shock. If that's the case we'll have to get him out very quickly.

SITA: Oh, I guess you don't have to worry about him.

HENRY: Well --

SITA: He's --

HENRY: -- don't say you don't. You never know for sure. Somebody's going to have to stand up for him and --

SITA: Okay.
HENRY: -- and let him know it. If he's got fever you're going to have to call right back, okay?

SITA: Okay. Kevin's going to --

HENRY: He's going to walk out now?

SITA: He's going to -- not yet, but he's getting ready to walk out in the front gate.

HENRY: Okay.

SITA: Okay?

HENRY: Okay.

SITA: I'll just --

HENRY: Don't, don't hang up until, until we get him going out.

SITA: Yeah, where the, the guard shack used to be.

HENRY: He's over by --

SITA: (Indiscernible) guard shack?

HENRY: He's -- is he over by the guard shack?

SITA: Huh? Well, I just heard that there's no guard shack in front of the gate anymore.

HENRY: Okay. That, that's, that's where he's going?

SITA: Yeah.

HENRY: Yeah.

SITA: Same place.
HENRY: Yes.

SITA: Okay. Just a minute. Rachel want to talk to you.

HENRY: Okay.

SITA: Oh --

HENRY: She doesn't want to talk to me?

Thanks a lot.

SITA: (Laughter)

HENRY: (Laughter)

SITA: Okay. He's ready now.

HENRY: Okay. Is he going to walk out?

SITA: Yeah, he's --

HENRY: Let, let me know when he's walking out.

SITA: He's going to walk out now. He's -- have to get, get your -- all your stuff ready? Where is it? Okay. Just a minute, okay?

RACHEL: Okay. They're going to -- they're going to the door. They're going to be coming out.

HENRY: What now?

RACHEL: I said they're going to the door. They will be -- he will be coming out.

HENRY: Okay. Is he -- tell me what he's wearing.

RACHEL: He's -- Kevin. He's wearing a blue
HENRY: Okay. He, he doesn't have a blanket on him?

RACHEL: What?

HENRY: Okay. Go ahead.

RACHEL: A black hat and a blue jacket.

HENRY: Okay. That's fine.

UNIDENTIFIED VOICE IN BACKGROUND #1: Black hat and a blue jacket.

UNIDENTIFIED VOICE IN BACKGROUND #2: Black hat and a blue jacket. All right. He should be wearing a black hat and --

HENRY: Now, make sure that, that Rachel is --

UNIDENTIFIED VOICE IN BACKGROUND #3: That's Rachel, that's Rachel.

HENRY: Is this Rachel?

RACHEL: This is Rachel.

HENRY: Oh, I'm sorry, Rachel. I thought I was still talking to Sita.

RACHEL: (Laughter)

HENRY: (Laughter)

RACHEL: Totally different accent.

HENRY: I'm sorry. I'm sorry. Is -- everything seems to be okay from this end. Is everything okay from that end? One of the concerns I have is, is, is David is, is shivering. Is he okay?

RACHEL: Yeah. Well, you know, it's cold here. I mean I'm cold myself when I get up out of the blankets.

HENRY: Okay. Okay, but I, but I just want to make sure that that's what it is --

RACHEL: Yeah, it --

HENRY: -- and Dave's not running a fever.

RACHEL: No, it's just that he's got a -- no.

HENRY: Okay. Make sure somebody takes his -- you know, just in case, we're still not out of the woods with him, make sure somebody takes his temperature, you know, because if he, if he starts to go into shock or something like that we'll have to get him out right away.

RACHEL: Yeah. Well, it's not that -- he said we still haven't got our phone yet.

(Indiscernible male voice in background.)

HENRY: Oh, okay. We'll --

RACHEL: And the phone cord.

HENRY: Okay. What we'll do is, is I'll make sure that we work on that immediately if not sooner.
RACHEL: Okay.
HENRY: Okay? Now, now, is --
RACHEL: Because we paid the money. I mean it's been days now.
HENRY: Okay.
RACHEL: We sent money --
HENRY: Okay.
RACHEL: -- $1,000 and haven't got nothing.
HENRY: Okay. That's fine. I'll, I'll make sure that it gets taken care of immediately.
HENRY: Okay. Is Kevin on his way out?
RACHEL: Yeah.
HENRY: Okay. Okay.
(Indiscernible in background.)
RACHEL: He said he'll make sure that it's taken care of immediately. What?
UNIDENTIFIED VOICE IN BACKGROUND #4: Do you see him coming out?
HENRY: Is he coming?
RACHEL: He, he said to tell you that he knows that word.
HENRY: What? That he what?
RACHEL: He knows --
HENRY: Tell him it'll be 2,000 years.
(Laughter)
RACHEL: He said to tell you it'll be 2,000 years.

HENRY: But it'll be immediately.

RACHEL: He said are you talking man's time or God's time?

HENRY: (Laughter) Is, is, is, Kevin coming out the door?

RACHEL: He must be. I don't see him. They went, they went --

HENRY: Okay.

RACHEL: -- down so I --

HENRY: Okay.

RACHEL: -- you know --

HENRY: I, I'll tell you what we're going to do. We're going to pick him up and we're going to bring him, you know, here. We'll initiate a phone call so that he can talk touch base with his mom. Who's his mom? Is his mom there?

RACHEL: No.

HENRY: His mom is not there?

RACHEL: Uh-uh.

HENRY: I don't mean right there right now, but I mean so that he can call back.

RACHEL: No.

HENRY: No?
RACHEL: Uh-uh.
HENRY: Well, can, can he talk to somebody, to you or to somebody?
RACHEL: Yeah, he can.
HENRY: Okay. Okay. Is his father there, somebody?
RACHEL: That's -- he's my cousin.
HENRY: He's your cousin? Oh, okay.
RACHEL: I mean, sorry, not my cousin. That's my nephew.
HENRY: Oh, okay. Well, that's fine. We'll, we'll have him talk to you, you know, once he gets here. And then what I think what we'll do is I'll talk to Jim, okay?
RACHEL: Um-hum.
HENRY: And maybe he can give you a call and we can work out the details of how we're going to get the phone to you.
RACHEL: Okay.
HENRY: Okay?
RACHEL: All right.
HENRY: And then we also probably need to work on a couple of things that we have pending from yesterday.
RACHEL: Okay.
HENRY: Okay? Well, tell David that we'll give him a call shortly and then we'll talk to, to either you or him or, or the two of you.

RACHEL: Okay.

HENRY: Thank you, Rachel.

RACHEL: All right.

HENRY: You take care.

RACHEL: Okay, you too.

HENRY: Bye-bye.

RACHEL: Bye.

* * * * *

RACHEL: Hello?

JIM: Hello, Rachel?

RACHEL: Yes.

JIM: This is Jim.

RACHEL: Hi.

JIM: How are you doing?

RACHEL: Fine.

JIM: Kevin just came over here.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: Do you want to talk to him?

RACHEL: Yes.

JIM: Okay, hold on.

(Pause)

RACHEL: Kevin?
KEVIN: Hello?
RACHEL: How are you doing?
KEVIN: Fine.
RACHEL: Are you in the hangar?
KEVIN: Huh?
RACHEL: Are you in the hangar?
KEVIN: Yeah.
RACHEL: Do you see any of the other children?
KEVIN: No.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Not yet.
KEVIN: Not yet.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Are you --
RACHEL: Are they going to take you to them?
KEVIN: Yeah.
RACHEL: Okay.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Tell her the ride in the tank -- the --
KEVIN: The ride in the tank was bumpy and loud.
RACHEL: Yeah?
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Were, were the agents nice to you?
KEVIN: Yeah.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Tell --
KEVIN: The agents were nice to me.

RACHEL: That's good.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Did they get you something to eat, a donut?

KEVIN: They got me some, something to eat too.

RACHEL: What did you eat?

KEVIN: Donuts and Coke.

RACHEL: Well, that's a real nutritious breakfast isn't it?

(Laughter in background.)

JIM: Tell Rachel we'll do better -- say Jim says we'll try to do better --

KEVIN: Jim says we'll try to do better.

RACHEL: (Laughter) okay.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #5: Tell her you love her and you'll see her soon.

KEVIN: I love you and we'll see you soon --

RACHEL: I love you --

KEVIN: -- bye.

RACHEL: -- I love you too, okay, bye-bye.

JIM: Hey, Rachel?

RACHEL: Yes?

JIM: He looks fine.

RACHEL: Okay.
JIM: And sorry about the donuts.
RACHEL: Oh, that's all right.
JIM: There's not much in this hangar here.
RACHEL: Yeah.
JIM: Is there, is there something you want us to get for the rest of the kids? I can probably get some food up here or something if you --
RACHEL: Yeah, that'd be good.
JIM: Okay. Well, tell me --
RACHEL: (Indiscernible)
JIM: -- so tell me what, I mean, for the next ones that come out because I can have it ready.
RACHEL: Well, they don't cook there, they probably just have packaged stuff, right?
JIM: Well, you tell me what you want and I'll arrange to get it for them. You just tell me. What, what -- do you like them to have fruit or -- RACHEL: Yeah, they like to eat fruit. I'm trying to think of breakfast food, you know?
JIM: Yeah, what -- well, this morning, you know, let's think. I mean, because they come out, I think they're hungry, they want to have a banana or -- RACHEL: Yeah, they, they like bananas. They like fruit a lot.
JIM: Bananas?
RACHEL: We, we eat a lot of fruit too.

JIM: They've been get, getting fruit one of the agents told me. They were getting some fruit, but I'll make sure that's what they, they get some more if you like if that's what you want.

RACHEL: Okay, and maybe some sort of protein or something.

JIM: Protein. Okay. Juice too?

RACHEL: Yeah, they, they like to drink juice.

JIM: Okay. We'll, we'll arrange to get some orange juice and some fruit up here, okay?

RACHEL: Okay. They like hot dogs, I know that.

JIM: Hot dogs.

RACHEL: (Laughter)

JIM: Not this early. (Laughter)

RACHEL: (Laughter)

JIM: Later on maybe.

RACHEL: Yeah.

JIM: We're get -- working on the phone getting authorization to get the phone, okay?

RACHEL: Okay, and the --

JIM: And --

RACHEL: -- cord too, right?
JIM: And the cord, right, right, and we, we passed that on. I, I should hear something back on that shortly.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: Okay?

RACHEL: I think 150' is what he asked for.

JIM: How, how many feet, 150?

RACHEL: Was it 150'? Yeah.

JIM: Does anybody else need to talk to Mark before he goes to be with the other kids? Or I'm sorry, Kevin?

RACHEL: Kevin -- no.

JIM: No? Okay. Okay, good. The other day, you know, David said that once we started with the kids again, you know, he'd just make it a continual process so you might talk to him about seeing, you know, who he wants to send next, and I'll arrange for the fruit and juice and stuff.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: And, and later on in the day if it -- as lunch progresses, you, you tell me if it -- you know, and I'll make sure what you want them to have.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: No pork and I understand that.

RACHEL: Right.
JIM: But I mean we'll -- you tell me, Jim, just get them a hot dog and a Coke, you know, or something and we'll arrange that, okay?

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: But you may want to think about who's -- you know, these, these kids that are about 11, 12, it's good to -- you know, it's real easy for them to walk to that armed ambulance.

RACHEL: Um-hum, um-hum.

JIM: You know, the smaller ones, you know, we might have to do that a little different. I don't know. We'll have to talk about it.

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: But Sita, you know, has been real good about walking them down there --

RACHEL: Um-hum.

JIM: -- and so if there are some infants you know or little children that need to be carried down there --

RACHEL: Okay.

JIM: -- we can work it out, you know?

RACHEL: All right.

JIM: Okay? And somehow, you know, we got to wrap them up warm --

RACHEL: Um-hum.
JIM: -- and get them down there gently and --

RACHEL: It should warming up today, huh?

JIM: I think so. I'm, I'm sorry. The reason we keep asking about the weather is we're in this big hangar --

RACHEL: Yeah?

JIM: -- and I don't have any windows.

RACHEL: Yeah, the -- well, I think one of the reasons it's much cooler in here too is because the windows are broken out.

JIM: Oh, yeah.

RACHEL: So --

JIM: Okay. Well, let's hope the weather holds warm because that's -- do, do you have some heaters that can keep you warm in there?

RACHEL: No.

JIM: No?

RACHEL: Well, we did but not anymore.

JIM: Well, don't you have propane or gas or anything?

RACHEL: Yeah, but you know what happens if you fire and shoot at those --

JIM: They --

RACHEL: -- the place will blow up.
JIM: Yeah, yeah. Well, we want to be careful we don't have no fires. But you still have blankets and --

RACHEL: He's asking about heaters -- if we have heaters.

JIM: Huh?

RACHEL: Yeah, we have blankets here.

JIM: Okay. Is David doing all right?

RACHEL: Yeah, he's doing fine.

JIM: His wound pretty -- is it better?

RACHEL: Yes.

JIM: Okay.

RACHEL: Seems to be healing pretty good.

JIM: Good. Well, that's good news. We were, we were worried. There was kind of crucial period, you know --

RACHEL: I mean it's, it's still pretty painful.

JIM: Is it? We've been worrying about some gangrene or something, you know.

RACHEL: No.

JIM: Okay, good. Keep it clean, you know?

RACHEL: Um-hum.

JIM: That nurse I talked to, Julienne --

RACHEL: Um-hum.
JIM: -- Julienne, is she from Jamaica?
RACHEL: I don't know.
JIM: She had an accent like Jamaica or West Indies, you know? But she seemed to be taking care of it well.
RACHEL: Yeah.
JIM: You know, she seemed to know that -- how to dress it and so forth.
RACHEL: Yeah, she took care of it yesterday again.
JIM: Do we -- the remaining children, Rachel, can you give me an idea of their ages?
RACHEL: Let me check the (indiscernible) just a second.
JIM: Why don't you run it down to me? That may help me get some stuff prepared.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #6: The names too.
RACHEL: Jim?
JIM: Yeah?
RACHEL: This is our hour of worship so we'll talk to you later, okay?
JIM: Oh, okay. Will you call me after?
RACHEL: Okay.
JIM: Thanks, Rachel.
RACHEL: All right. Bye.
JIM: Bye.

* * * * *

RACHEL: Hello?
JIM: Hello?
RACHEL: Hello?
JIM: Hello? Well, I got -- hold on, got no volume on -- hello?
RACHEL: Hello?
JIM: Can't hear --
RACHEL: It's Rachel.
JIM: Hello?
RACHEL: Hello?
JIM: Yeah, I can't hear you too good. This is Jim.
RACHEL: This is Rachel.
JIM: Can -- Rachel, can you hear me?
RACHEL: Uh-huh.
JIM: I can barely hear you. Okay. Hold on, let me call you back in just a second.
RACHEL: Okay.
JIM: Okay.

* * * * *
RACHEL: Jim?
JIM: Yeah, hi, Rachel.
RACHEL: Can you call back? Because I'm trying to help David get up.

    JIM: I can't -- hold on a minute. Hey, I'm sorry. I couldn't hear you.
    RACHEL: I said call back later. He's up halfway and I got to finish helping him and so I got to go.

    JIM: Okay, okay.
    RACHEL: Okay? Call, call back later, okay?
    Bye.
    JIM: Okay.

    * * * * *

UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #7: What time is -- (Indiscernible voices in background.)

    JIM: Hello?
    RACHEL: Hello?
    JIM: Rachel?
    RACHEL: Yes.
    JIM: This is Jim.
    RACHEL: Hi.
    JIM: I just wanted to tell you they're having a press conference on the TV.
    RACHEL: Okay.
    JIM: Channel 10, I think they told me. Try 10 or 8.
    RACHEL: How do you turn this on? How do you -- that's all? Because he said it's on Channel 10 or 8. Press conference. Is, is it on 25 too?

    JIM: Twenty-five, I don't know. I don't know. Can you get 10 or 8?

    RACHEL: No.

    JIM: Oh, okay. All right. Let me go watch it.

    RACHEL: Oh, we, we got 25 here.

    JIM: Twenty-five? All right. Let me see if it's on there.

    (Indiscernible voices in background.)

    JIM: Rachel can't get 8. She can get Channel 25. Is it on 25?

    RACHEL: Sorry?

    JIM: I, I was talking to a guy here to see if --

    RACHEL: Oh, okay.

    JIM: -- see that if he'd check if it was so Channel 25. We don't get 25.

    RACHEL: Oh.

    JIM: You get it and we don't.

    RACHEL: Well, what picture do you see?

Would it be the same or --

    RACHEL: I got, I got to walk in to the next room.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE VOICE #8: It's the news media.

JIM: It's just the news, you know, news media and, you know, with the -- let, let me watch it and see what they say and I'll call you back. Is that all right?

RACHEL: Jim?

JIM: Yeah?

RACHEL: We're listening to a radio station. It's not KRLD, it's a different one, and two of the ATF agents confirmed that they fired first.

JIM: Oh, I didn't, I didn't hear that.

RACHEL: And that it was, was an accident.

JIM: Oh. Well, I think you guys need to --

RACHEL: And that he was at the door and they heard him -- they -- yeah, they heard David yell out, there's women and children here --

JIM: Um-hum.

RACHEL: -- and let's talk about this.

JIM: Yeah.

RACHEL: They confirmed it anyway.

JIM: Okay.

RACHEL: Okay. Let me know what kind of picture you have. But the picture we're seeing, the man is wearing a red sweatshirt or -- of some sort.
JIM: Okay. That's it. A red sweater.

That's --

RACHEL: Yeah, okay.

JIM: -- FBI agent.

RACHEL: Yeah, okay, that's the one. Okay.

JIM: Okay.

RACHEL: All right. Thanks.

JIM: Watch that and I'll call you back.

RACHEL: Okay, thanks. Bye.

JIM: Okay, bye.

* * * * *

RACHEL: Were you watching it?

JIM: Yeah.

RACHEL: They said that the women and children were all in one place.

JIM: Right. Yeah, I heard him say that and I know that's not right.

RACHEL: No, it's not true. They were scattered all over the whole building --

JIM: Yeah, I know that's not --

RACHEL: -- in their own rooms.

JIM: Yeah, I know that. I mean --

RACHEL: Well, can you correct it?

JIM: Yeah, I'll pass the word on, absolutely.
RACHEL: Thank you.

JIM: Absolutely. Okay. Hey --

RACHEL: Just a minute, just a minute.

JIM: All right. Hello?

MR. KORESH: Good morning, Jim.

JIM: David.

MR. KORESH: This -- hello?

JIM: Hello, how are you?

MR. KORESH: This guy is full of it isn't he?

JIM: Yeah, Rachel just told me. I understand that's not right, that I know the women and children were all around in there, you told me that.

MR. KORESH: Now, what are you, what are you going to do about that agent that, that confessed that, that they fired first, which is what happened?

JIM: Yeah, well --

MR. KORESH: You, you all guys are going to be really in hot, hot water.

JIM: Well, I, I think so. I mean, I think you, you have a side here that needs to be heard and --

MR. KORESH: Yeah, and another thing is --

JIM: I mean, I think that's the facts that need to come out.
MR. KORESH: It's kind, it's kind of strange that I didn't get -- I didn't, I didn't fall down dead right there in the door isn't it?

JIM: Well, I, I -- that's true.

MR. KORESH: Do you know, do you know how many bullets came through the walls and that door?

JIM: Geez, I don't know. I think, you know, that's a point we talked about yesterday.

MR. KORESH: It sounded, it sounded like popcorn.

JIM: Oh, I know it. I, I think that, David, that's something you need to be --

MR. KORESH: And they also said, they also said that, that, that, that they, that they heard me say, you know, you know, get back, there's women and children in here, let's talk about this -- then blap.

JIM: Well, see, David, you can see that there's a lot of people that are going to support your position in the court.

MR. KORESH: Oh, well, the thing of it is, you know, like I say, it's, it's above and beyond that. There's, there's a, there's a lot of -- oh man, I mean --

JIM: Well, listen, it's going to be a big investigation. Everybody's going to be interviewed and --

MR. KORESH: Oh, I know that. It's, it's a big one right now.

JIM: Well, I think, you know, when you, when you walk out --

MR. KORESH: Because, you know, you know, there's another -- there's, there's a lot of these films and stuff that we already, you know, got ready to set up called, The BATF Breaking the Law in the Name of the Law?

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, National Gun Owner's Association and all that?

JIM: Yeah, the gun owners?

MR. KORESH: Yeah.

JIM: Um-hum, um-hum. Yeah, that's what I'm saying. There are some --

MR. KORESH: And --

JIM: -- there's other similar situations and I think that, you know, you can tell your story.

MR. KORESH: And, you know, like I, like I told Robert, Robert could have -- those guys could have arrested me anytime they wanted to.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And the Sheriff's Department and stuff like that could have -- you know, you all guys just wanted to play cowboys. That's just the way the impression is.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And that guy was down there at the bar in Waco and he heard those -- and you all, you all aren't supposed to be drinking anyway, you know?

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And you all out there and bragging and shooting your mouth off about coming and, and, and cleaning us out out here at this compound. I mean --

JIM: Yeah.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, people heard that.

JIM: Well, David, I think, you know, that it's important, and you and I realize it, and I can tell you that --

MR. KORESH: Isn't it, isn't it sad that, that, that, that people are, are that --

JIM: I, I --

MR. KORESH: -- foolish?

JIM: -- I agree. I think --

MR. KORESH: And, you know, answer me another thing. Is -- why, why is it that, that there's these young men that are supposed to be old enough to know better --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- dare get on a ladder and try to climb up on a roof of a place and try to break though some windows?

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: I mean --

JIM: Well, you know, there's always a lot of unfortunate comments from ill-informed people and,
and the media is very interested in your side of the story.

MR. KORESH: Yeah, I understand that.
That's, that's why you all have locked me off from the outside. But, but the thing of it is is that --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- it's just another bureaucratic way of showing the oppression of this nation.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, that's what you guys play. You know, you want it all one-sided now.

JIM: Um-hum. No, David, I, I don't want to suppress your side. I -- you know that Henry and I don't. I think you --

MR. KORESH: Well, I --
JIM: -- you should tell your side.

MR. KORESH: What did he say, what did he say?

(Indiscernible voices in background.)

MR. KORESH: No, they never gave us the phone yet either like we've been asking for the past two days.

JIM: Hey, we're, we're working on that.

MR. KORESH: This guy's telling the, the media -- of course, like I say, you know, remember, Jim, it's -- we're not really involved on this side of it but --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- it's, it's -- you know, he's saying that you all call all the time and we don't answer the phone for --

JIM: Oh, he doesn't know. That's not the case.

MR. KORESH: Well, I mean that's what he's telling the news.

JIM: Yeah. Well, you, you know what the hell those things are, goes through ten people and it's all mixed up. But, you know -- you know, they're ad-libbing. They don't -- might know all the facts or they've got it through three different levels and they say, oh, well, you know -- that might have been from two days ago or something when, you know, you --

MR. KOresh: One guy looks like he worries too much.

JIM: Worries too much?

MR. KOresh: The older man?

JIM: (Laughter) He probably does.

MR. KOresh: I sure wish you'd let Robert give me a call, I really want to talk to that young man.

JIM: Yeah, I know you do. How are you feeling today?

MR. KOresh: Well, I've, I've been trying for an hour to get up on the toilet.

JIM: Oh, really?

MR. KOresh: And I've been having to, to figure out a way -- we're trying to figure out a way of maybe building something to where I can like use my right arm to pull up.

JIM: Do, do you want me to talk to the doctor for you?

MR. KOresh: Wait a second. Let me -- they keep referring back to 1988 --

JIM: Oh, man --

MR. KOresh: -- which in -- that was when Harwell -- look --

    JIM:  Yeah, I know about Roden and them, yeah.

MR. KORESH:  No, no, but you don't understand the whole story, and I explained it to, to Henry last night.

    JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  You know, here, here's eight guys and here's George Roden standing out in the open and all of a sudden all, all these guys are blasting off guns.  How come the guy didn't drop dead?

    JIM:  Oh, I know, and of course you were acquitted on that.

MR. KORESH:  No, no, no, but, but how come he didn't drop dead?

    JIM:  Yeah.  You mean Roden?

MR. KORESH:  Yeah.

    JIM:  I don't know.  I don't know.

MR. KORESH:  Because nobody fired at him.

    JIM:  Yeah.

MR. KORESH:  They were, they were, they were standing still in the position that -- of the night before when we originally went into the church to find the casket.

    JIM:  Um-hum.
MR. KORESH: The weapons were taken only as a diversion. We fired in the ground in case --

JIM: Yeah.

MR. KORESH: -- George came -- come -- came out after me and the other two guys.

JIM: Right.

MR. KORESH: They were trying to take the pictures of the church.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: There was a group of guys at the, at the dump ground and a group down at the, at the lake by the dam and that's what they were for and that's why that day --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- when George came out and stood there in the middle of the road and fired at Stan and, you know, the bullet ricocheted and hit Stan in the pocket --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- but that was all used as evidence. I mean, you know, the guy would have been dead --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- if we had wanted him dead.

JIM: I know that, I know that.
MR. KORESH: But there, there was no question on it. Now, the Sheriff's Department had nerve to tell me that I'd been better off if I'd shot him. Now, that, now, that -- someone's going to be judged on a statement like that.

JIM: Yeah, that, that's not right. But --

MR. KORESH: But if you had shot him and killed him you, you ought to have gotten off easier.

JIM: Well, let, let me make a point with you that you'll appreciate, okay? And that is that your side of this that you have told to me and Henry and, and Rachel and, and the others have told us in the last few days, okay? The reporters need to get it and you need to tell it --

MR. KORESH: Well, why don't you --

JIM: -- to the court.

MR. KORESH: No, no, no, no, no. Why don't -- look, like I said, my God, the one I've been trying to tell you about --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- there's decisions being made, big decisions, based upon people are, are, are, are jumping and making judgments off of what they've been hearing which is, you know, all one-sided. This guy here is on TV answering all these questions as if he's an authority.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Now, what I tell you doesn't get out.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You're just, you're just smoothing me --

JIM: No.

MR. KORESH: -- to try and use psychology on me and I'm using psychology on you, and you're trying to convert me and I'm trying to convert you.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, that's what's going on here. And the thing of it is is that I don't know what your education is, but I don't have one.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: But I am --

JIM: Well, I'm, I'm --

MR. KORESH: -- a truth.

JIM: -- surprised at that. I'm --

MR. KORESH: I have a truth.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, God does not use educated men, God uses the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, the weak things to overthrow the strong, the things that appear to be not to overthrow the things that are.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Now, that's why I was trying to tell Henry last night --

JIM: Um-hum, right.

MR. KORESH: -- well, I read some prophecies to him. Did, did he tell you anything about it?

JIM: Yeah, um-hum, right, he told me this morning. We discussed it.

MR. KORESH: And I told him, like I said, my original promise I still abide by. I don't care what happens to me. I want to live and I want these people to live to bear witness to a truth.

JIM: That's right, um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And God's standing back to see just exactly -- because he's going to make an example.
He's going to -- as it says about -- in the (indiscernible) God is going to uncover the skirts of the well-favored harlot --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- who through her sorceries --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- and through her merchandise have deceived all nations.
JIM: Um-hum, um-hum.

MR. KORESH: So, you know, you just like --

JIM: Well, I understand.

MR. KORESH: -- like -- okay, for instance, capitalization, right?

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Catholicism incorporated a way of bringing about income and means to revolve the economies of their empires --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- through a traditional system of, of buying and selling. That's where Christ's mass got its prospective parts of gift-giving.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Because now, now, in a, in a system, the capitalistic system, if you did not have the spiritual, traditional promotion of gift-giving --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- at Christmas, Easter and Halloween --

JIM: Right.

MR. KORESH: -- the whole economy -- economic system would fall through.

JIM: I see.
MR. KOresh: If people held their money and stuff like that, department stores and all that that has stocks and stock markets and all that --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: -- would fall.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: You realize that, don't you?

JIM: I do, and I'll tell you the truth, sometimes I think that stock market is controlled by some people behind it.

MR. KOresh: Well, in Daniel --

JIM: They, they say it's not, but --

MR. KOresh: Well --

JIM: -- I'm not sure I believe that.

MR. KOresh: -- it is. In Daniel's prophecy
it tells you about the King of the North.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: And it tells you about how he works amongst the nations and it says he shall have the power of all the shares of silver and gold.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: Okay?

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: Now, the thing of it is is that you asked yourself which was the northern kingdom of,
of ancient Grecia --

JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  -- when it split into four parts?

JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  Well, all the way to the west, northwest --

JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  -- which incorporated Rome, which also finally became what we known as the Vatican when, when Rome became ecclesiastical --

JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  -- or political/religical. My mind.

JIM:  Yeah.

MR. KORESH:  Religio/political.

JIM:  Right.

MR. KORESH:  So the thing of it is is that the power of Rome converting to spiritualistic -- aspect --

JIM:  Um-hum.

MR. KORESH:  -- of humanitarianism was so dramatic and so powerful -- did just exactly what Christ said it would do.

JIM:  Um-hum.
MR. KOresh: It became an abomination --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: -- that made those who followed it desolate.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: Because they, they were totally cheated and directed away from the Last Testament of Christ --

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: -- which was the message to John in the Revelation.

JIM: Um-hum.

MR. KOresh: That's why this foundation is called -- (Tape ends abruptly).
