11:30 p.m. - 8:20 a.m.
HENRY: Hello? Hello?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello? Can you hear me?

HENRY: God --

(Electronic noises)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello?

HENRY: Hello?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Pass that over here a minute (indiscernible).

HENRY: I'm, I'm sorry?

MR. SCHNEIDER: (Indiscernible) hookup (indiscernible). Hello?

HENRY: Good morning.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Good morning.

HENRY: How are you?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Crazy phone.

HENRY: It is. How are you this morning?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Not too bad. How's yourself?

HENRY: I'm doing okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Good.

HENRY: David asked me to call him first thing this morning so we could get Heather going.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay. Let's see. Get somebody else going here too, making sure she's on her way here.

HENRY: I'm sorry?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay. Let me see if I can't get someone here on making sure she's on her way.
HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Just a moment.

HENRY: Okay. Thank you, Steve.

(Gap)

(Indiscernible voices in background)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, I heard they're getting someone to get her there.

HENRY: I'm sorry?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, they're getting someone to get her there.

HENRY: Oh, okay. Everybody sleep okay?

MR. SCHNEIDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: Do you want Heather to be heading out or --

(Indiscernible voices in background)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Can we give you a call right back there?

HENRY: I'm sorry?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, can we give you a call right back there?

HENRY: Sure.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Going to try to get ahold of David there and, and see if there's anything else or whatever else there --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay. I'll give you a call right back.

HENRY: Okay, fine.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay, bye.

* * * * *

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello?

HENRY: Good morning.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah, good morning.

HENRY: Just wanted to make sure that -- you know, I wasn't sure whether I was going to call you or you were going to call me.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah. They're, they're in the process yet I guess.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: He still wants to get a few things and I think --

HENRY: Okay. Is --

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- she wants to take some things with her or something I guess.

HENRY: Okay. Is David okay this morning?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Yeah. Yeah, he's all right.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: I'm just kind of looking down here to see if they're -- what they're all doing here yet.

HENRY: Okay.

(Gap)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello?

HENRY: Yes?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Let, let me get Rachel here for a second and see just what's going on.
HENRY: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Just a moment.

(Gap)

(Indiscernible voices in background)

MR. SCHNEIDER: Rachel? Do you want to check (indiscernible). Pardon? I was going to check to see if (indiscernible).

(Gap)

RACHEL: Hello?

HENRY: Good morning.

RACHEL: Good morning.

HENRY: Rachel.

RACHEL: Yes.

HENRY: How are you?

RACHEL: Well, I was trying to get some sleep.

HENRY: I'm sorry, I didn't -- I, I, I didn't ask him to wake you.

RACHEL: Well, he's trying to -- he was trying to get the closest female to do something I guess.

HENRY: I'm sorry?

RACHEL: He was trying to get the closest female nearby to do something I guess.

HENRY: To do what?

RACHEL: You know, to check on Heather.

HENRY: Oh, okay.

RACHEL: I, I believe she's sleeping.
HENRY: Heather is, is sleeping?

RACHEL: Um-hum.

HENRY: Okay. What happened is, when I spoke to David last night he asked me to call first thing this morning so we could --

RACHEL: Um-hum.

HENRY: -- you know, so we could get her out. I didn't want to interfere with your, with your prayer meeting, so --

RACHEL: Oh, yeah, right.

HENRY: -- so that's why I called, you know, at about this time. I didn't want to call any earlier. I didn't want to call at 6 o'clock, but --

RACHEL: Um-hum.

HENRY: -- you know, at the same time I didn't want to interfere with your prayer meeting.

RACHEL: Well, I hate to wake her up.

HENRY: Well, do you want, do you want me to, to call you back in just a little bit?

RACHEL: Well, you mean in a few minutes you think she's going to be awake? Is that what you're saying?

HENRY: Well, do you think she's not going to be awake?

RACHEL: Sorry?

HENRY: Did you not think she's going to be awake?

RACHEL: Well, I don't know what time she went to bed. Just a minute, okay?

HENRY: Okay.

RACHEL: Is this Jim I'm speaking to?

HENRY: This is Henry.

RACHEL: Henry, sorry.

HENRY: That's okay.

RACHEL: Okay. David said that he wants to see some things start clearing up and --

HENRY: I'm sorry?

RACHEL: He wants to get some things cleared up.

CHILD'S VOICE: Mama.

RACHEL: And that is, first of all, he wants to see that the children will be going to their relatives.

HENRY: Okay.

RACHEL: And he also said we need six gallons of whole milk.

HENRY: Six gallons of whole milk?

RACHEL: Um-hum, for the babies that are still here. That's dirty, Bobby, don't touch that. You want a banana?

(Child's laughter)

HENRY: Okay.
RACHEL: What?

(Indiscernible voices in background.

RACHEL: (Indiscernible) Oh, that's real nice (indiscernible) went to the bathroom before he went to bed.

CHILD'S VOICE: Cold (Indiscernible).

RACHEL: Well, get back under the blanket. Sit down.

CHILD'S VOICE: (Indiscernible)

RACHEL: Sit down.

CHILD'S VOICE: (Indiscernible)

RACHEL: Bobby, sit down. Sit down.

(Child crying in background)

RACHEL: What's the matter? Sit down. Sit down.

(Child crying in background)

RACHEL: What's the matter (indiscernible).

(Children's voices in background)

RACHEL: (Indiscernible) Bobby? Bobby?

CHILD'S VOICE: Uh-uh, uh-uh.

(Child crying in background)

RACHEL: Star, don't. Star, don't make her cry.

(Child's laughter)

RACHEL: She thought you wanted a bite.

CHILD'S VOICE: (Indiscernible)

RACHEL: (Indiscernible) that means the blanket's wet now.
CHILD'S VOICE: No, it isn't.
RACHEL: Well, it's not?
CHILD'S VOICE: (Indiscernible)
RACHEL: Okay.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Hello, Henry?
HENRY: Hello.
MR. SCHNEIDER: Good morning again. Yeah, I was, I was talking over here with David --
HENRY: Um-hum.
MR. SCHNEIDER: -- and, and he's got concerns, you know, that there's been some talk shows and so forth from the radio and of course that's about the only way we're getting our information other than yourself. But his concern is about the children that have left here already. And from the beginning when I guess we were working this out and speaking with Jim also, we were under the understanding that they would be going to their homes or to their relatives' homes very soon. And from some of the reports we've heard, you know, he's not been happy and that or neither are the parents that are here because they're hearing about what they're all being taken through or put through. At the same time we've heard much said about foster homes and they had a woman psychologist on where she was saying how she thought it was abnormal --
--

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- that the children were well-behaved. I mean, if that's the society overall,
I mean and that -- we -- I know society has degenerated into that where there's no such thing as discipline anymore --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- where no doesn't mean no and --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- so if there is a child who seems to be -- well, to us there's no question, no matter where these children travel or who comes to see or visit them, they've always had the very highest compliments.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: And these children they're --
--as you can see and observe, they've never been beat.

HENRY: Right.

MR. SCHNEIDER: But, you know, these are the things we're concerned about right now.
HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: But originally when we worked this out with Jim and we talked with him we were under the impression that it wouldn't be long, days is what it seemed, and --

HENRY: Yes.

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- they would be to their destination.

HENRY: Um-hum. See that -- I think that that's what the impression was, that, that this was a very temporary situation which was going to be such that David was going to lead everybody out and they would be quickly reunited with their parents.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, David said to those that, you know, know and love them, he's, he's speaking with me right now.

HENRY: Pardon me?

MR. SCHNEIDER: Wait just a minute. What? Oh, with nonreligious relatives.

HENRY: I'm sorry?

MR. SCHNEIDER: He, he mentioned with nonreligious relatives.

HENRY: I'm, I'm not understanding the -- this last part.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, meaning the, the relatives -- a lot of these relatives that they'd be going to are not religious anyway.

HENRY: Um-hum.
MR. SCHNEIDER: They're not with the message, they're not with our group anyway, none of them are. So for that reason we didn't -- David did not see that there should be a problem there at all.

HENRY: Well, there isn't. I mean, I, I don't think that that's a problem if -- well, I can look into this thing, you know, and does, does he anticipate that this is going to be a, a --

MR. SCHNEIDER: Oh, Henry, just, just a minute, he's, he's saying -- he's saying something that -- there's nothing that would make us more mad than if some kind of a psychologist got ahold of them like this -- this woman that's advocating homosexuality or, or saying --

HENRY: We are doing everything to ensure that nothing -- you know, that they're not treated as guinea pigs. You know, we want the best for this children -- for these kids.

MR. SCHNEIDER: You, you would know -- of course though Henry you would know that in this world there are psychologists now that are very high ranking, in fact even with the Clinton organization.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. SCHNEIDER: Here we're talking about the President of the United States --

HENRY: You know, one of the --

MR. SCHNEIDER: -- wait now, where to them homosexuality is -- that should be a freedom of choice and, you know, I mean it influences on children and so forth. Well, you know, that is the most -- to us it is a very extreme opposite of what we're all about.

    HENRY: Okay. Listen, I've just been handed something to -- you know, with respect to the children and let me tell you what, what I've just been handed.

    MR. SCHNEIDER: Okay.

    HENRY: Apparently the children are being kept together for their own security and comfort, okay?

    MR. SCHNEIDER: Well, that's okay.

    HENRY: Okay, until, until every -- you know, until everybody walks out.

    MR. SCHNEIDER: Can I -- just hold on.

    HENRY: Okay, until everybody walks out.

    MR. SCHNEIDER: He says that the children --

    HENRY: And the child --

    MR. SCHNEIDER: Henry, just wait, wait let me tell him, let me tell him.

    MR. SCHNEIDER: He says that the children are being kept together right now for their own safety and so forth, being they're used to one another. Are you say -- that's not what the authorities are saying. That's -- we're not -- you know, like for instance, remember the news conference and so forth?

    HENRY: Um-hum.

    MR. SCHNEIDER: We're getting different information than that, Henry.

HENRY: Okay. We have been advised that the -- that it's a policy of the, of the Child Protective Services to turn the children over to relatives. In those cases where the --

MR. SCHNEIDER: (Indiscernible) wait --

David -- do you have your Bible there? He's going to show you a few scriptures really quick. We want to show you what real social welfare should be. Here, I'm going to -- just a moment. Are you over there, David?

(Pause)

MR. KORESH: Look at the (indiscernible) hello?

HENRY: Good morning.

MR. KORESH: Hello?

HENRY: Hello?

MR. KORESH: (Indiscernible), Henry. That means good morning.

HENRY: How are you?

MR. KORESH: Huh?

HENRY: How are you?

MR. KORESH: We're -- we, we -- you know, we're very good. We're, we're doing all right.

HENRY: Okay. I understand that you have a, a, a concern and I want to advise you, number one, that the children are being kept together for their security --
MR. KORESH: Remember --
HENRY: -- and comfort.
MR. KORESH: -- we're monitoring, we're monitoring every lie that we've been told beginning with, you know, with Jim -- HENRY: If you give me -- I have -- you know, I listened to you to great, you know -- I listened to you when --
MR. KORESH: I know, but if, but if, if you don't --
HENRY: -- okay, now I want you --
MR. KORESH: -- apply it then like I say --
HENRY: Listen to me for a second this time.
MR. KORESH: I will.
HENRY: Just give me a chance --
MR. KORESH: I do.
HENRY: -- give me a chance to tell you.
Okay. What the Child Protective Services have advised us is that it is their policy to turn the children over to relatives in those cases where the parents are not available, okay?
MR. KORESH: The parents are all available.
HENRY: Give, give me an opportunity to finish saying what I want to say and then I'll give you a chance to say what you want to say, okay?
MR. KORESH: Okay, that'll work. Go ahead.
HENRY: Okay. Since the Child Protective Services don't know when the parents are going to come out, you know, they will hold them until everybody walks out. Now, we are prepared because we, we felt that you might have a concern to provide you with a videotape if you'd like to see what exactly is going on with the kids. How about that?

MR. KORESH: Well see, they -- the helicopter shot up my room all to pieces and our VCR's and stuff like that -- Steve, do we have a VCR anywhere? Oh, we still got one that works, not shot up? Okay. Okay. We do -- we, we --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: Standard or high eight? Okay, yeah, we -- okay, we, we have, we have a standard and a high eight remaining.

HENRY: Okay. We're -- listen, I've been working with you and for you with this thing all the way, not just about this thing but everything, okay?
So I -- if you have a concern I appreciate your, your telling me and give me a chance to respond to it or to look into it. That's all that I ask.

MR. KORESH: Well, we -- that's all we've been doing.

HENRY: Okay, and that's what I've been doing for you. We will provide you with a, with a tape so that you can see the children and I know that your fears will be, you know, you know, that, that we can clear up any misunderstanding or any misimpression that, that's coming forth.
MR. KORESH: Well, we, we do understand and agree that anything that states that our children are abnormal and stuff because they're well behaved -- see, one, one thing that's, that's implied is that, you know, the children have gone through a dramatic, dramatic experience.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: That may be true. But the thing of it also is is that our children have also been taught just as Joseph, Isaac, you know, just as all the children of the ancient patriarchs --

HENRY: Sure.

MR. KORESH: -- the knowledge of God, the knowledge of trust. I mean, what kind of, what kind of story of this is that a child hears about Abraham who goes off and he's told by God to sacrifice his own son? Now, here is a definite biblical story of child abuse. I mean, what, what, what a test to a child's mind, that my son the Lord shall provide unto thee a sacrifice? The father, where is the lamb? The Lord shall provide. And all of a sudden, son, the Lord has provided you for a sacrifice. Now, what, what a dramatic experience.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, what a, what a, what a shock to a child, a young man.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know?
HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And then all of a sudden, the Bible tells that Isaac complied, you know?

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And Isaac, Isaac is going to allow his father to, to kill him for a sacrifice and about the time that the knife started coming down towards his son's chest (indiscernible) the Lord, you know, grabbed the arm of Abraham --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- and said, now I knowest that thou fearest me. Now, come off of it. You need to rip that part of the Bible out. Now --

HENRY: Well --

MR. KORESH: -- now, now I have, I have never brought any of my children to that point, never, ever, never and I've never been required to. But the thing of it is is that when Zachariah states, "Smite the shepherd, the sheep shall be scattered, my hand shall be upon the little ones," you know, somebody on the, on the radio the other day had the audacity and the nerve to misquote or mistranslate the passage saying, you know, the Bible does say smite the shepherd, sheep will be scattered and it says, you know, God will sacrifice the little ones. No, that's not what it says. Nowhere in the Hebrew manuscript or text does it say that --

HENRY: Um-hum
MR. KORESH: -- at all. And yet, you know, this case of biblical apparent child abuse is praised by Christians as one of the most sober tests of child obedience.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, Christ says to the, to the, to the other angels before they destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, and we know what the sin of Sodom and Gomorrah was, don't we? Ezekiel says, "Idleness of time and fullness of bread," --

HENRY: Um-hum, um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, and they, and they went after strange flesh.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, they says, you know, "Bring these men that we may know them," in other words, they wanted to -- they were homosexuals.

HENRY: See, one of the things that's happening here is once the, once the press has nothing to report they want to try to manufacture something.

MR. KORESH: No, this was an interview with the actual social workers out here.

HENRY: Well --

MR. KORESH: This is the social workers talking. And, and the thing of it was there was, there was questions given to them.

HENRY: See, once -- I'm sure, there's no question in my mind, that once you see the tape this issue will be, you know, settled. There should be no question in your mind --

MR. KORESH: So they're still --

HENRY: -- that these kids are being --

MR. KORESH: -- they're still all together?

HENRY: -- taken care of in the fashion that we've said that they were going to be taken care of. You know, there's no reason for anybody to --

MR. KORESH: Well --

HENRY: -- to do anything except to, you know, to tell the truth and, and the video will speak, will speak for itself.

MR. KORESH: In the manner and fashion that originally we were, we were agreeing with, with Jim and all that was that each one of the children were given the names of closest of kin which is --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: -- usually the grandparents.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: And it's, it's a guarantee that the majority of all the grandparents, matter of fact all the grandparents which are not involved in this message --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, are the ones that are, you know, the children always allowed to, to visit and commune with their, with their, you know, close kin and stuff like that.
HENRY: Okay. See, as I was saying, you know, everybody was assuming and has been assuming that it's just a question of time that, you know, when you would be coming out.

MR. KORESH: Yeah, but when we come out we also know in the process that all these women and all these men and stuff are going to a system and they're not going to be with their children. So --

HENRY: Well, I -- you know, I, I don't --

MR. KORESH: -- we know that as a fact.

HENRY: -- I don't know that, that everybody is going to be, you know, incarcerated. Some of the men, you know, will probably be and then some of the men that, that need to, to receive medical attention are going exactly there. But it's going to have to be sorted out. That doesn't mean that everybody is going to be incarcerated. I don't think that there's going to be charges against everybody.

MR. KORESH: Right.

HENRY: So, you know --

MR. KORESH: But we assume that there will be until it's sorted out, that's just the way it is.

HENRY: Well, it's not going to take that long to sort this thing out in terms of who's going to be charged and who's not going to be charged. But in any case, I'm willing to work with you, I have no problem with this, you know? You've worked with us, you know, you told me yesterday that you were going to give me Heather, we're ready to, to, to come and pick up Heather and if you have other requests in addition to this I'll look into it. I, I'm ready to provide you a video, you know, whatever is on your mind we're, we're willing to work with you.

MR. KORESH: Well, Heather definitely wants to be with her two brothers. Now --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: -- let me, let me explain to you a little case history with, with Heather.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: Okay? Now, Heather and Kevin and Mark are some of the children that -- you know, they've not always been with us, although they've, they've been associated to the movement for quite some time not in the respect that since, since I came along and instructed the, the people of the, of the so-called movement.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Okay. Now, now, now, we was talking about earlier there's always been men who have studied the scripture and found little gems of light and which they've inquired into, you know, Luther and Knox and Wesley we was talking earlier about this. And the -- this group of people believed that one day there would come someone, you know, David. The, the scripture talks about the, the House of David or David would come again one day; the shepherd --
HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- which they know to be as, as Christ, right?

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Okay. Well, finally naturally when, when, when men in their hunger and desire to know truth study scripture on their own they're not, they're not themselves able to know all the details but there are certain gems of light in the scripture which are just obvious.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know, such as the passage in the last days it shall come to pass, blah, blah, blah. Well, whatever there may be, there's an obvious, and though a person may not be inspired of God to know the details of the event, at least they see in the shadows of it that there is a shadow and the shadow points forward to a literal fulfillment of whatever the scripture my imply.

HENRY: Uh-huh.

MR. KORESH: And so when I come along, you know, what I do is I -- naturally I have to be sent to those people who are the most promoted and the most complete in the knowledge of the obvious.

HENRY: Right.

MR. KORESH: I mean, I'm not going, I'm not going to be sent to the papacy --

HENRY: Um-hum.
MR. KORESH: -- because the papacy is not going to believe anything on me --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- because they're not going to use any of the unaccepted doctrines that they do not accept as evidence of my authenticity, you know?

HENRY: Um-hum, um-hum.

MR. KORESH: Okay, so, so there -- it just happens that a small little remnant group on the face of the earth here in Waco, Texas was the ones that God chose for me to come to --

HENRY: Right.

MR. KORESH: -- because, you know, they already believed in a large degree in regards to, you know, someone in the latter days coming --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- under, you know, in the, in the name or under the lineage of David.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And so when, when, when, when I, I come and I show them all the things that they are to believe and tie it all together in the light of the Revelation and, and state my purpose being the, the off root and offspring of David, then all of a sudden, wow, you know, they, they get the fruit of their faith.

HENRY: Sure.

MR. KORESH: The, the light is made manifest and they --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- begin to realize the actual nature of this fulfillment.

HENRY: Uh-huh.

MR. KORESH: Okay. So anyway, the people here are concerned in regards to, you know, here they have submitted and, you know, through my counsel and through my promises revolving around the prophecies, you know, as, as Isaiah 49, where they are guaranteed by God that although, you know, they temporarily lose their children to the, to the beast, to the system --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- God promises to very, you know, miraculously and, and very, you know, through great means of judgment to judge the system by this means and also to, to promise to reunite these children with those parents who've had faith in what, you know, the prophecies --

HENRY: Right.

MR. KORESH: -- and, and these things.

HENRY: Right, right.

MR. KORESH: Okay, and of course, one of the great abominations and desolations in which, you know, in the New Covenant in Hebrews talks about is that, you know, the thing that brings the greatest wrath of God is the most, you know, defacive image that man portrays of God and one of -- one image that God is totally defaced by is when mankind abuses himself with strange flesh. In other words, Paul states right before the flood that there were men with men working that which is unseemly.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: You know what I mean?

HENRY: Right.

MR. KORESH: And reaching into themselves with just recompense which is meat. Of course, you know, the -- the subject is they received a disease which they couldn't get rid of, they deserved it.

HENRY: Um-hum, um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And it was in the days of Noah it is today, the, the epidemic of AIDS --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, this virus which --

HENRY: Exactly.

MR. KORESH: -- which deals with a terrible breaking down of the immunity of man against disease and stuff.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And women burning in their hearts with women, you know, forsaking the natural use and going after women. And, well, you know, this is something that definitely people may be born with these propensities --

HENRY: Um-hum.
MR. KORESH: -- but they're not to be exonerated and flaunted in the sight of God because it's nonproductive --

HENRY: Exactly.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, it does not work that way.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: It's a very (indiscernible) you know, it just doesn't -- God didn't make it that way.

HENRY: Right.

MR. KORESH: You know, we can play mud pies and that's just imagination, but, but we don't really eat mud pies, it doesn't work.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: So anyway, anyway, how are you doing this morning?

HENRY: I'm doing okay. I want to, you know, make sure that I don't interfere with, with your prayer meeting. I know that that's coming up and that's why, you know, I'm, I'm not trying to hurry you up, but --

MR. KORESH: The daily --

HENRY: Yes.

MR. KORESH: -- the daily sacrifice, morning and evening.

HENRY: Okay. Well, if, if we can work on getting Heather out, I, I will get the, the tape to you, I will work on this. Make sure that if there is some inconsistency, if there is something that's not exactly the way that you feel it should be, we'll work on it. You know, I --

MR. KORESPH: Okey-doke. Well, I'm not, I'm not, I'm not jumping up and down like a --

HENRY: Okay, okay.

MR. KORESPH: -- madman hollering and screaming, I'm just simply trying to remind you that, you know, especially like with what me and Jim, you know, had already stated --

HENRY: Sure.

MR. KORESPH: -- that certain things were --

HENRY: Sure.

MR. KORESPH: Anyway, you're probably pretty tired now aren't you?

HENRY: I am.

MR. KORESPH: I see, okay. Well --

HENRY: Is Heather coming out now?

MR. KORESPH: Yeah, we'll go ahead and send her out --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESPH: -- like I say, but, you know, she, she (indiscernible) oh, okay. Now, like I also said to Jim earlier, you know, you know, if, if you all need more money, now this is something that we're, we're --

HENRY: No, no, no, no, no.

MR. KORESPH: -- at your, we're at your mercy
HENRY: We're not asking for money.

MR. KORESH: -- for doing these things.

HENRY: We, we, we don't --

MR. KORESH: But we need some milk.

HENRY: Oh, okay.

MR. KORESH: You know, I mean, I mean this is something that's just strictly on the, on the merits of, of, of, you know, your own tender hearts, but we need approximately six gallons of milk. We have a lot of baby feeders here --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: -- and the thing of is is that, of course, you know, the, the physical aspect of the women under certain kind of -- women lose the ability to produce milk under these conditions.

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And so --

HENRY: Oh, yeah, I see what you're saying.

MR. KORESH: -- if, if at all possible, if at all possible --

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: You know, we sent the last bits of milk with the children with you all --

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: -- you know? But if you all could, if you all could just send us some, you know, regular whole milk --
HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESH: -- you know, six gallons of it we would, we would more than be grateful to you.

HENRY: Okay. Okay.

MR. KORESH: Is that, is that asking too much?

HENRY: No.

MR. KORESH: Thank you very much. He said, he said he would do it, Rach.

HENRY: Okay. I'm going to, I'm going to work on the milk. I want you to send Rachel out and then I'll -- I'm sorry --

MR. KORESH: Not Rachel --

HENRY: Not Rachel.

MR. KORESH: -- Heather.

HENRY: Send them both out. No, okay, go ahead and send Heather out and then I'll call you as soon as she gets here, hopefully I'll, you know, everything squared away by then.

MR. KORESH: Okay. Well, when, when the van comes to pick her up, you know, can you all bring the milk and that way when we send her up there then, you know, we could just bring the milk back?

HENRY: Well, I think the, the, the van is already -- I'm not -- I think that they're already in place, but I'll -- I can either -- I can send it to you as soon as we -- let, let's get her out and then let me send you the milk.
MR. KORESH: Okay. All right. Okay. So, you want us to, to take Heather up to the same water tower as we did before?

HENRY: Yes, yes.

MR. KORESH: Okey-doke. Okay. I'll --

HENRY: Wait, wait a second. Are you sending her out on foot?

MR. KORESH: Well, no, that's, that's, that's a long ways to walk. We'll do it just like we did before, the, the little car, Sita and -- huh? -- Sonya, just drive her up there.

HENRY: You're going to send Sonya like to where the ambulance was, you know, that armored ambulance?

MR. KORESH: Well, the reason why they brought the armored ambulance that time was is because of the puppies. They wanted to, to make sure wasn't putting any bombs or something along with the --

HENRY: Uh-huh.

MR. KORESH: -- with the little child. But if you'd like to do that too we can do that.

HENRY: Okay. Can you walk -- can Sonya walk her to the, to the -- to that location?

MR. KORESH: Yeah, well, if you want if she's going to go there she could walk herself there.

HENRY: Okay. Yeah, that, that'll be good.

MR. KORESH: Okay.

HENRY: That'll be real good.
MR. KORESH: Well, he's saying that they, they'll bring the six gallons of milk afterwards.
HENRY: I will.
MR. KORESH: (Indiscernible) that what they're saying.
HENRY: We will.
MR. KORESH: Okay. Then, then you all can bring the, the six gallons of milk and the armored vehicle too and we'll just send one of the ladies up there and --
HENRY: Okay.
MR. KORESH: Do you think Sonya can pick up six gallons of -- yeah, she could. That'd be easy. Okay then.
HENRY: Okay. She coming out now?
MR. KORESH: Yeah, we'll, we'll be sending her out right now. Where -- just, just bring the armored vehicle up and then once we see it she'll be out there, okay?
HENRY: What is she wearing?
MR. KORESH: What's she wearing? Is her coat blue or what? What will she be wearing? Go find out real quick what color her coat is. Anyway, you'll -- her -- she's little and her hair is real blond.
HENRY: Oh, okay. Okay. You can go ahead and send her then. Go ahead.
MR. KORESH: All right. She'll be out in a little bit.
HENRY: She's nine year, she's nine years old isn't she?

MR. KORESPH: Heather's nine, right.

HENRY: Okay.

(Gap)

MR. KORESPH: What about the tanks? I'm sorry, Sherrie, I didn't understand you. What did you say?

(Indiscernible female voice in background.)

MR. KORESPH: Oh, it's a red coat.

HENRY: It's a red coat?

MR. KORESPH: And a red hood.

HENRY: And she's got real blond hair?

MR. KORESPH: Right.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESPH: So, what does it say here? It says need --

HENRY: Milk.

MR. KORESPH: Oh yeah, we already got this.

HENRY: Okay.

MR. KORESPH: This note right here? Yeah, the, the girls told me last night that --

(Indiscernible female voice in background.)

MR. KORESPH: Oh, okay. Yeah, we (indiscernible) until he -- he said, he said he'd work, he'd work with us on that. Oops.

HENRY: Are you okay?

MR. KORESPH: Oh, yeah, I just -- it was -- are you ready? You scared? Okay. Now, now, you may need to jump around and scream a bit so you'll be considered normal.

    HENRY: (Laughter) Don't tell her that.
You're going to confuse her.

    MR. KORESH: You know, you know, well, no, like I say, we've always taught all of children that's of adult is to be respected, you know.

    HENRY: I know.

    MR. KORESH: You know, as a parent and --

    HENRY: And they've, they've all been real nice, they've all been real nice.

    MR. KORESH: I know, but I tell you, when I was down there with those social workers that time, that time when you all should have arrested me when I,
when I first had those -- someone says we were abusing our children?

    HENRY: Uh-huh.

    MR. KORESH: You know, and I went down there with Rachel and, you know, Star, Cyrus and Bobby, and we was, we was down there and, and, well, Mr. Koresh, what age do you believe that children should be disciplined -- you know? These Mrs. Koon and Ms. -- what was their names? These overweighted ladies that eat too much and sit on their butts too much which definitely is -- is definitely a bad way to raise children, I mean, you know?

    HENRY: Sure, sure.
MR. KORESH: I mean, a parent should at least stay in shape and keep themselves in good health so they can live a long time with their children.

HENRY: Really.

MR. KORESH: You know?

HENRY: Um-hum.

MR. KORESH: And these big old fat ladies are in there, you know -- now, don't get me wrong. I, I liked them, I -- you know, but they got this Bible in there and everything. And I says, I says, I says, well, I believe in disciplining children upon conception -- I'm sorry, pardon me? What do you mean, Mr. Koresh?

HENRY: (Laughter)

MR. KORESH: Sort of like, you know -- and I told them, I said, listen, I says, you know, God gave to Israel the law, something to put in their heart, in their mind --

(Tape ends abruptly)
