STEVE: I have rarely gotten to hear someone's story plainly and clearly told. Usually, they find themselves in confinement. And if they do make it to -- as far as with a jury in a courtroom situation, usually it's a yes and no. And it's, of course, interrogation by a District Attorney or something of that nature.

DICK: Uh-huh.

STEVE: And rarely do you hear the details of any one story come out plain and clear or does the press ever print or if they do get the information as it really was, rarely do they print it that way.

DICK: Steve, who, who can you look to? Let's address that issue. Who can --

STEVE: I guess, you know, --

DICK: Who can you look to to --

STEVE: I, I, -- it's not that look -- in this world -- I mean, of course, you know, there's imperfection in this world. And we, we, you and me, all of us as beings have had to deal with that all our lives, and I still will. But I'm just saying ahead of time, you know, I don't really expect much but at the same time, that's not going to stop me from communicating, wanting to write and to make things good and --

DICK: Well, you sell yourself short then, Steve. You sell yourself short.

STEVE: I really don't because I -- I'm saying it's not that I would -- I'm still going to do all I can, we are, to do the right thing, to do the thing that will benefit all. And we only want the best for, you know, not only ourselves but others.

The reason why I left Hawaii and a very good lifestyle was because I want something better that lasts, guarantees. And there's really no guarantees in this world which is a cemetery, everything dies here, of course, this planet. But and through my life, I've done a lot of research and --

DICK: Sure.

STEVE: -- comparison of religion and philosophies of men, whether it's borrowed philosophy, whether it's eastern, western --

DICK: Steve, Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: Hold on for just a second.

STEVE: Okay.
DICK: Just a second.

STEVE: Sure.

DICK: Steve?

DICK: Question for you.

STEVE: Sure.

DICK: One of your concerns in there, of course, is dealing with these kids and how they're being treated and are they, in fact, together. What kind of video player do you guys have in there, Beta or VHS?

STEVE: It's a -- it's 8, High 8.

DICK: High 8?

STEVE: Right.

DICK: Meaning -- okay, that's eight millimeter.

STEVE: It's, it's a VCR camera --

DICK: High 8.

STEVE: -- but it's the small --

DICK: Oh, you've got a camera that you, that you play the tapes through there?

STEVE: Exactly.

DICK: High 8 is all I need to know?

STEVE: Right.

DICK: Okay. What we're, what we're doing here is we're going to put together a tape for you --
STEVE: All right.

DICK: -- with the kids to show you, to give you the knowledge that these kids are, in fact, together and they're being well cared for.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: And you're -- now, you're sure on that, High 8?

STEVE: Yes. Yes, positively.

DICK: Now, you're a technician? I mean will --

STEVE: Well, I operate the camera myself.

DICK: My, gosh, if you don't know, we're all in trouble, aren't we?

STEVE: Well, I wouldn't go as far as saying I'm a technician or anything but I've had a little bit, of course, photography experience.

DICK: Yeah. Now, -- can you -- and then you hook that up to your T.V. to play it through the T.V., is that what you do?

STEVE: Right.

DICK: Okay. So, you're using that as a cam -- the camcorder as a VHS --

STEVE: Right.

DICK: -- as a video --

STEVE: Correct.
DICK: -- machine.

STEVE: We do have a number of VCR -- the VHS format.

DICK: Oh, you do have a V --

STEVE: Yes, we do.

DICK: But I thought, I thought that David suggested that all of them had been broken or rendered inoperable.

STEVE: No, I think -- that the topic over that was the T.V. He had a very -- a decent T.V. --

DICK: Oh, okay.

STEVE: -- which -- see, we haven't been able to get Channel 25 as Henry and --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- Jim suggested. We only get Channel 2 because --

DICK: Okay. So, you have more than one format is what you're saying?

STEVE: Yeah, we do.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: We have the two -- well, we have a number of VHS recorders --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- but at the same time for a camera, we only have one really good camera.
DICK: Okay. But you have any machines to play tapes other than this camera?

STEVE: Yes, we do. Yes, we do.

DICK: Okay. Well, that's what I wanted to find out so we can get --

STEVE: That's with the VHS format.

DICK: Okay. So, we want to get it on -- on your video player is a VHS format. So, we want --

STEVE: Exactly.

DICK: -- we want to make sure that -- you probably got so darn many people out there, we'll send out a couple to you and you can play them in different places.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: Is that fair enough?

STEVE: Sure, it is.

DICK: Okay. That's one of the issues I know that you and David were concerned about and we've addressed it and we're going to work with it.

STEVE: Well, good.

DICK: And, in fact, I, I think I've got some stills I'll send out to you. Yesterday when this issue came up, I thought, geez, you know, I'll go out and get this done. We'll, we'll, we'll get somebody with a recorder. We'll take pictures of the kids and -- well, still 'cause I wasn't sure whether you had the equipment that could play these sorts of things --
    STEVE: Right.
    DICK: -- and so I said, well, let's, let's handle it both ways. That way we should have it covered.
    STEVE: Right.
    DICK: So, you've got all those formats.
    STEVE: Okay.
    DICK: So, I know that's one of the -- one of the issues that you were terribly concerned about.
    So, we've handled it. We're, we're -- well, let me put it this way.
    STEVE: Okay.
    DICK: Between you and me, okay. Things move slowly. You know, I've worked for the government for a few years --
    STEVE: Yeah.
    DICK: -- and things move slowly.
    STEVE: Right.
    DICK: Really, kind of slow. So, when you don't get things, you know, when we don't get things done as quickly as you might think we should, please bear with us because we're trying, we're trying to handle those as quickly --
STEVE: As an individual -- I mean unless for some other reasons that you could tell me but I have a curiosity about what happened to some of my other friends that have been involved in our organization. One of them was a Mike Schroeder. I believe -- I have a feeling that could have been the body that was found yesterday out in the field. Is that possible?

DICK: You know what? I, frankly, do not know. I know we're making every effort we -- when I say we, now, I mean collectively. I'm not presently doing it but the efforts are being made to identify that person, okay. I can't tell you but you know what I'll do?

STEVE: Well, they did, they did tell me that there was a Delmar or a -- I can't remember what his name was but I didn't --

DICK: Delroy?

STEVE: Delroy. Okay.

DICK: I've, I've heard the name. I --

STEVE: That you had in custody.

DICK: I will -- is -- Delroy Nash?

STEVE: Huh?

DICK: Delroy Nash?

STEVE: I guess so. I think that's his name.
DICK: Okay. You -- I'll, I'll check on that for you. I don't, I don't know these fellows. These names are new to me.

STEVE: Okay. What about a Bob Kendrick? Check on him, too, because he had been in the same place as Delroy.

DICK: Okay, a Bob Kendrick?

STEVE: Do you have him also? I, I -- see, here's what the reports I've been hearing through the press is that --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- one man was killed, one was wounded, and one was taken in captive. But it sounds like the wounded man was also. So, I was curious as to what happened to who and what the circumstances were. The press also made it sound like they had left our compound in a gun burst, in a gun battle. Well, I mean that shocked everybody here. So, -- because number one, they --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- they had not even been here but it sounds like they were making attempts to get here.

DICK: All right. Well, my, my understanding is that, that Delroy Nash is in custody.

STEVE: Okay.
DICK: I've been told that. There has been one body found and we're trying to identify that individual.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: And the, -- if the other fellow was out there, he's --

STEVE: What I don't understand, why it takes so long because all you'd have to ask is if information is given by myself, ask Delroy, is this the man that was with you? Is this so and so?

DICK: Well, but the only problem is, are you sure that Delroy would even know that? In other words, if Delroy --

STEVE: Yes, he would.

DICK: Okay. Well, listen to me.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: If Delroy tells me that that is so and so, you know, that's, that's nice but we have to conclusively determine if that's accurate.

STEVE: Right.

DICK: But that's certainly a help, and I'll pass that on. That is a help. So, these -- Delroy --

STEVE: Yeah. What happened to the older man, Bob Kendrick, his name is?

DICK: I --
STEVE: He has graying hair, glasses.

DICK: Now, let, let me tell you something -

STEVE: All right.

DICK: -- okay, so you and I know where we're coming from, okay?

STEVE: All right.

DICK: These kinds of things, I do not know because I am not anywhere around that kind of effort.

STEVE: Well, if you want to get a hold of the information, let -- 'cause I know they have them.

So, I mean you can tell me something about it.

DICK: Well, I'll tell you one thing --

STEVE: Maybe not right now maybe but --

DICK: I will -- as soon as we identify that individual, I will guarantee you that we'll let you know.

STEVE: Also, could you tell me about what's happened with the individuals out in California because it's been stated over and over again on the radio that they were arrested and I would like --

DICK: Well, well, let me interrupt you again.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: We're trying to get some things done
for you.

STEVE: Right.

DICK: Do you have VHS or Super VHS, or both?

STEVE: VHS.

DICK: Not, not super but VHS?

STEVE: Well, the VC -- the recorders themselves I would imagine would handle either format.

DICK: I don't think that's true. It's got to be one or the other. I'll tell you what, what brand do you have?

STEVE: Just a moment. We have a number. I can't even remember right off --

DICK: Have somebody jot those down --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- and then -- and let me know so, so we can get these things done --

STEVE: (Indiscernible) regular VHS.

DICK: Yeah, but see, you know what, if you tell me that and it's wrong, then we can't get the stuff to you. So, be sure what you're telling me so that we can shortstop some of these things. You know, some of these things take a long time and if we're not accurate going in, it's --

STEVE: Right.
DICK: -- not going to be -- you know what did they tell you, going in is only good as or coming out's as good as going in or vice versa, something, something like that.

STEVE: Oh, yeah, whatever.

DICK: Yeah, whatever. But find that out for me. Go find that out. Send somebody down to, to tell you what the model is or what the brand name is and the type, whether it's VHS --

STEVE: Well, we had at least about three, four -- well, I can tell you the format right off. It's VHS.

DICK: Yeah, but is it super?

STEVE: No. None of -- VCR recorders, they're all basically the same. It's usually the camera that puts out the high resolution, like a High 8 or a VHS or -- I mean a VHSS, that's super -- no, what is it, the S, yeah the super. So, when it comes to the recorder themselves, they will handle either one.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: So, you know, I mean, yeah, the format is VHS. So, whatever you send to us, it'll, it'll work, it'll be okay.

DICK: Let me, let me tell you something else, okay?

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: I'm dealing with some technicians here that get off over getting all this stuff together right.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: Do you know what I mean?

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: So, when they ask me something, I try to get them exactly what they need.

STEVE: Well, just -- they should already know it because of the low resolution of the T.V. itself. I mean the -- a regular format the VHS will do. So, --

DICK: And the reason we're doing this is for the tape for the kids.

STEVE: Right.

DICK: You know, so we want to make sure it's right.

STEVE: You, you know what, you, you're telling me what you are and I believe you anyway.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: You know, whether you showed me a picture or not, I can -- I mean there's sincerity in the voice, I mean, I mean, you know, you can read me (Indiscernible).

DICK: Remember when I was telling you a little bit ago that we have to answer to people? Well, we've got technicians here that want to do their -- want to do their thing and do it right --

STEVE: That's fine. That's fine.

DICK: -- so that you -- so when they ask me questions, I try to give them the right answer.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: Sometimes I feel like kicking them in the rear but I always get the answer for you. And that's the best I can do for you.

STEVE: Well, that's good. I thank you for the attempt.

DICK: Okay. Good. Well, we'll go with the VHS and with the, the Super 8 --

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DICK: -- is that what you told me before? And --

STEVE: Well, actually, you know, all we'd need --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- probably would be -- well, we could -- I guess we could play the (Indiscernible).

DICK: Well, I'm tell -- I'm told that the VHS is all we can handle for you.

STEVE: I figured so because the other is not as probably --

DICK: Okay. Okay.

STEVE: -- as common.

DICK: We'll go with the VHS, then.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: All right. We got that straightened out, didn't we?

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: It only took us 10 minutes to do it but we got it straightened out.

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: Okay. All right. Some of the other things -- again, getting back to this publicity thing, okay, --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- and, and this inquiry, this congressional inquiry, it will be -- it will be done. It will be done.

STEVE: Tell me right off --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- because I've not been involved before, what would be the process and procedure of such a thing? We come walking out, what happens? Are we all taken --

DICK: If, if you were to leave right now, what would happen, is that what you're asking me?

STEVE: Yeah, sure.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: Just give me a scenario.

DICK: Let me tell you -- let me tell you the way I see it happening, okay?

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DICK: You folks come out, all right, and there's absolutely no question -- you're, you're an educated man -- I'm not going to lie to you -- we're going to go ahead and take you into custody --

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DICK: -- until we resolve issues such as identity, are there currently outstanding warrants for you. We're going to interview you, and we're going to sort out this whole process. I'm going to tell you directly that there is absolutely no way that everybody's going to be charged with, with, with criminality in the same degree of criminality. It can't be done.

Now, you've got a lawyer. Wayne has probably already told you this. So, and I'm not a lawyer, okay. So, I'm not going to give you the technical terms but I've been doing this job for a long time.

STEVE: Right.

DICK: You're going to have to see a magistrate. Some will be charged, some will not be charged when the facts come out. You and only you -- I mean you, meaning the rest of you folks in there, can tell us what happened in there. And you think that we're just going to say that, that, you know, what ATF says is accurate is accurate? Absolutely untrue. Absolutely untrue. We're going to interview each and every one of you people and you tell us what happened, what you saw happening, what's your thoughts, what's your impressions, and what happened. And then we're going to have to deal. Some attorney at some point for the government is going to review what is said by both parties in this -- plural. And there's going to be a determination made.

I will guarantee you that there is not going to be, you know, running you folks down to the jail and throwing away the key. Isn't going to be done. It is never done because in this country we're guaranteed by the Constitution that we have to do things in a certain way. My guess is and, again, I'm not going to tell you anything that I -- if I tell you
I'm guessing, you know, I'll tell you it's a guess. If it's something I know for a fact, I'll tell you that. You may well have to appear before Congress, you and David or others, perhaps, might want to to tell what happened. There is absolutely no person in this country that is not interested in what happened Sunday, okay? It's going to come out. As a law enforcement officer, I will not stand for any less. I do not want to be accused of, of circumventing the law and people's rights. I've been an agent for a long time. I have never done--

STEVE: I like what I hear.

DICK: -- and will not be done. We will not allow it to happen.

STEVE: I really do believe they are a lot of good men like yourself that have, you know, high standard and, and that want nothing but the best, an improvement for all -- like the country at large. And I've always been one of those kind of people also. I like the freedom of choice and also elections. But I -- it bothers me when you see certain elements in the society that are very powerful over a long period of time that are gaining more and more control. But see, -- and then I've got to ask myself, why is this? What have we done? Have we left down our -- the vigilance and the watch dog of keeping our freedoms like Abraham Lincoln warned about, Jefferson, Madison. And this is exactly --

DICK: We all hold those dearly.

STEVE: See, the Bible in the last -- one of the last chapters of the last book of the Bible it talks about how the merchants were the great men of the earth.

DICK: Steve?

STEVE: Yes.

DICK: Let, let's continue on with what is going to happen.

STEVE: I know. I noticed that --

DICK: I know. I didn't want to get -- I don't want to get off track here because those are very --

STEVE: Well, this really isn't being off track. These are the issues --

DICK: No, I understand but I want to answer your question.

STEVE: These are very -- part of the issues we're dealing with.

DICK: I understand but I want to answer your question as to what might happen, okay?

STEVE: All right.
DICK: Let me tell you something, there are people standing in line -- I'm talking about in the legal community and other watch dog groups and those kinds of things that want to insure that you folks get your story out.

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DICK: They -- my gosh, I mean people run --

STEVE: What, what, did you -- can I ask you a personal question?

DICK: Sure.

STEVE: What did -- what ever happened with this Weaver case? There was only -- I mean, the press, were they held back or did they choose not to report the case? But very little did the overall, the national medias pick up on it. There was only some of these little, little offshoot papers and so forth that tried to keep an eye on what was happening in that case. That was another one of those things that was involved with it seemed like the ATF again.

DICK: No, no, no. No, no, no. That was not ATF, not at all. I'll tell you what happened there. First of all, that was in a very, very remote -- let me correct myself on that. ATF was part and parcel of that.

STEVE: Yeah. In fact, I heard it was because of a gun shot --

   DICK: A gun violation.
   STEVE: A shotgun or something.

   DICK: Yeah, but the first, the first -- I'm sorry, I misunderstood your question. Yes, ATF was involved to a degree but the original problem was with, with the Marshal Service. And that's how this thing happened. But let me -- it's kind of different in, in a manner because, first of all, that was so far out in the, in the outback, as they said in Australia I guess, that it, it didn't get the kind of coverage that you, you folks have here.

   STEVE: Well, that doesn't make sense, though, because anywhere in America the way the press is, of course, technology of communication, that wouldn't affect anything.

   DICK: Well, that -- not true, not true because here, yeah, it's so centrally located. People from all over are here. But let me, let me go on to that issue.

   STEVE: All right.

   DICK: Weaver left, okay. Weaver walked out on his own and decided let's take this to court. We'll get this resolved. And this -- and there are still many of these issues are pending there. He's going to get his day in court, has already had his day in court and will continue to get that.

STEVE: Well, what -- I mean he's in court right now, the process or --

DICK: It's in, it's in -- it's being adjudicated, I guess is the way to say that.

STEVE: Well, that's what I'm saying. I don't read it in the major newspapers.

DICK: Well, you know what? You know how these things are -- he's filing a motion, somebody else has filed a motion but it will be done. It has to be. There's just absolutely no way it will not be done. This -- again, the Weaver thing, it will -- let's talk here specifically because you are concerned about specifics as I am here, okay. You come out of there, you'll see a magistrate. Many of you, my guess -- again, I'm going, I'm going to give you a guess because I'm not going to lie to you. My thought is that many of those folks inside there will be released immediately -- well, after these things I just spoke to you about are, are, are handled, all right?

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DICK: Again, I'm not going to lie to you and say, hey, come on out and pack your bags and take the next bus down the road. It's going to have to be resolved. But everybody's going to be treated professionally. Everybody is going to be treated well. There's not going to be any incident here that would cause --

    STEVE: Well, that's not what happened to these young guys on this property back in '87. Man, if you ever hear the story from the young guys themselves, you would be quite amazed.

    DICK: Okay. Listen, I don't know who, who -- what agencies they were dealing with, okay.

    STEVE: It was the local Sheriff's Department.

    DICK: Okay. Again, I wasn't here. So, please, I'm not going to -- I'm not going to address those issues.

    STEVE: The way they roughed them up in the gravel on the road and there were fire ants crawling all over them, biting them, and they were cussed at and told that, as they were laying face first on the gravel, they were told they should have thought about that ahead of time.

    DICK: Okay.

    STEVE: And here they were actually encouraged. They had gone to the Sheriff's Department and said there was a man that should -- there was -- what was it, corpse abuse. And they wanted the Sheriff's Department to come out and arrest the man or at least check it out. But instead of the department doing that, they were told they should. So, these young guys actually took a camera late at night or wandered around on this property trying to get a picture of this casket that this man, George Roden, had literally dug up.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: And in the process, they got the pictures, took it back to this man by the name of Dickerson who's no longer -- I guess he's retired.
But he said, boys, this isn't enough. We need to see bones.

DICK: So, you -- listen --

STEVE: But -- here's what I'm saying --

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- but when the day comes that he encourages them to go back onto the property, the Sheriff's Department knew about it. They're the ones that told these young guys to do this very thing.

DICK: Okay. Steve?

STEVE: Then -- wait, I just want to tell you something so you can see where we're coming from -
DICK: Okay.

STEVE: -- in regards to this.

DICK: I understand where you're coming from because I've heard this before.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: About mistreating people.

STEVE: Oh, yeah, --

DICK: I don't mistreat people and it will not be done.

STEVE: When the Sheriff's Department came out -- when there seemed -- and this so-called gun battle, let me tell you what it was like. Let me just tell you. And this is the -- I don't -- this is the way it was cause I knew these young men from Hawaii. They were friends of mine, businessmen and so forth. Never -- they're not into guns, they're not into anything. No records, no, no problems ever with anybody. So, these young men they take a shotgun or two along. They take a .22 rifle. I think one did have a mini 14, whatever that is.

DICK: Okay.

STEVE: And these men -- the reason they brought them along is because Dickerson says, when you go back on the property, there's some dangerous elements on the property, and he implied that they should protect themselves. He actually did. So, they went back onto the property and it got to be light, the time of day. The man came out with an Uzi semi-automatic, apparently, because of a dog barking and he starts shooting and firing at two, three of these guys that are walking along in the open. Well, the only thing that happened is one or two of the guys used their rifles or .22s, whatever, and shot them in the air for getting a distraction from the man, a diversion, so they could all get out of there.

DICK: Uh-huh.

STEVE: And some of the other guys that knew that are friends who had gone onto the property, called the Sheriff's Department. They came in. All our men were happy to see them, thinking, well, good, finally arrived here 'cause this guy's nuts. In the process, they told all our guys to get on the ground. They were arrested for attempted murder and conspiracy to commit the same, even though -- and it never came out about this Sheriff's Department, the part they had to play. We heard later that a number of those that were in the, the attorney's office, the D.A., were involved with knowing that these men on this property that had taken it over for some time had been involved in the manufacture of methamphetamines.
DICK: Okay.

STEVE: And, --

DICK: Steve, Steve, Steve, Steve?

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: Listen. That's the past. Can, can we --

STEVE: Yes. But, no, no, but --

DICK: Listen, listen to me for a minute.

STEVE: But wait, just let me say something.

That past keeps on coming up constantly by the agents and the press and not even in the correct scene.

DICK: Okay. Listen, Steve.

STEVE: Yeah, okay.

DICK: Let me interrupt you here. A press conference --

STEVE: You know how much it cost these guys, though, Dick, to get justice?

DICK: Well, listen, it isn't going to cost you a nickel. I'm telling you people are standing in line.

STEVE: But you know what it cost -- yeah, but it did cost us the -- why wouldn't it cost us this time --

DICK: Because --

STEVE: -- when the last thing -- between bonds and bails and attorneys and, and all the rest, by the time it was over, it was well over $100,000.00.

DICK: Steve, listen. I'm going to tell you, it is not going to cost you -- I'm telling you, people are standing in line to get, to get to you. I mean people want to hear what happened here. My God, this is something that's never happened in the history, in law enforcement history. This is not an everyday event. You think that people are going to mistreat you when you come out of there? If that's what you think, I'll stand up there and meet you and walk you in.

STEVE: Well, I don't, you know, -- really, that's almost irrelevant. I don't know whether they are not because --

DICK: They're not. Let me, let me assure you, they are absolutely not going to mistreat you. You are going to -- you're going to be treated well and this -- and the world is going to hear this because I'll damn guarantee you they're going to hear it 'cause I'll get out there and tell it myself. You're going to hear it. Now, listen, get over there and listen to the T.V. here. Give me a break here for a minute --

STEVE: All right.
DICK: -- and you, you watch the T.V. here, and I'll get back to you as soon as this press conference is over --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- and we'll get these things ironed out.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: Let's get, let's get this done.

Let's get those kids out of there.

STEVE: Well, call me when you want them, Dick. The truth is it's a pleasure talking with you. I already have a lot of regard for you.

DICK: Well, I'll tell you what, let -- let's you and I stay in touch but also --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- let me talk with Dave, too --

STEVE: Oh, positively, positively.

DICK: -- because -- let's get, let's get together here.

STEVE: Here's how it works with him, just so you know. You know, there are times because of his physical problems right now, he's just not able to -- he's so weak.

DICK: You know what, take the phone to the man.
STEVE: I do.

DICK: If the man can't come to the phone, take the phone to the man.

STEVE: Well, that's what we've been doing right from the beginning. So when you do talk to him, it will be that the phone will be going to him, as usual.

DICK: I'm looking forward to it.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: I'm looking forward to it.

STEVE: But anytime you want to call, you'll -- it will probably be with me you'll be talking to until -- and, and every time I'll try to get you to him every time --

DICK: You do that.

STEVE: -- unless he is physically unable and lacks the energy.

DICK: Let's, let's get it done. Let's get it done. Between the three of us, we'll get this handled.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: You, you, you with me?

STEVE: Yes, I am.

DICK: You're with me, okay?

STEVE: I'm with you.
DICK: I've got your assurances, you're with me?

STEVE: We're, we're going to work on it.

DICK: Let's do it.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: Let's get it done.

STEVE: Okay. Call me back or I'll call you. We'll, we'll --

DICK: Okay. As soon as the press conference is over, we'll get together.

STEVE: Okay. Is it about to come on?

DICK: They tell me it should be coming on, yeah.

STEVE: Okay. We'll turn it on.

DICK: Yes, scheduled for 10:30, and if they are any inaccuracies, we'll discuss it and we'll, we'll carry on.

STEVE: Okay. Thank you.

DICK: All right. Talk to you,

STEVE: Okay, bye-bye.

DICK: Bye.

** ** *

STEVE: Hello.

DICK: Steve?

STEVE: yes.
DICK: Dick, again.

STEVE: How ya doing, Dick?

DICK: Did you see the press conference?

STEVE: Yeah, I'm very impressed with your representative for the F.B.I.

DICK: Really.

STEVE: Yes, I am.

DICK: I'll pass that on to him.

STEVE: In fact, I'm quite amazed.

DICK: Well, I think we tried to -- what we're trying to do is, is correct some of those inaccuracies that none of us want to see.

STEVE: Well, I liked his very personal style and trying to stay exactly what's happening. And it came across to me very clear. I mean there were a few little inaccuracies but that's beside the point. That doesn't matter. It's -- the whole situation, I mean obviously will one day somehow come out and be made clear and manifest --

DICK: Well, as each one of those things comes up, we're trying to correct them.

STEVE: Right.

DICK: We see some inaccuracies ourself. We try to correct those.

STEVE: Right.
DICK: We'll pass on your, your hopes and thoughts and we'll get, we'll get it done. We'll get it done. The pictures --

STEVE: You, you don't have to tell me but I mean what do you think after your years of being raised and living in America with this great Constitution to have such an agency that originally wasn't even incorporated into the Constitution come -- I mean normally isn't it a sheriff or something that brings a warrant if there's something wrong?

DICK: Well, originally --

STEVE: I mean not, not like 80 or 130, you know, assault weapons with flak jackets on and --

DICK: Well, Steve, let me address that questions, okay?

STEVE: And he even knows Sheriff Thorne. They -- he really likes him. He likes all these guys in that department that --

DICK: Sure.

STEVE: I mean that's the most amazing thing. And to think that we even knew that these were agents across the street or we suspected.

DICK: Uh-huh.

STEVE: We really did 'cause we were told these guys were not paying any rent over there. They all had brand new vehicles. They were supposed to be students but they were all late 30s. They were, they were too articulate in their speech.

DICK: Uh-huh.

STEVE: If you want to know how we suspect -- I mean that's how I suspected. I mean what's seven guys that move out in the country, five or seven or how many were there -- I even went over there to meet them one evening.

DICK: Steve, listen.

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: All of us in law enforcement have to act on certain information provided to us. In the end, some of it may not be accurate. We try to deal with it as professionally and as accurately as we can.

So, we do the best we can. In this, in this instance, mistakes were made, all right, and they'll be resolved. And that's what the, these inquiries are.

STEVE: Yes, we are going for that, that's right.

DICK: Sure, exactly. That's what we're going to do when you guys get out of there. We're going, we're going to get this thing straightened out.

STEVE: Well, it probably never will be but we're going -- you know, you and I --

DICK: We'll work on it.

STEVE: -- will do the best we can.

DICK: You're darned right we will.

STEVE: But there's, but there's still that prophecy that talks about the last days. There's a country, there's an area that, that acts like a lamb.

DICK: Well, let's just hope it's not anytime soon.

STEVE: You know, Christ -- well, well, it is. You and I are living in the very days --

DICK: Well, --

STEVE: --- 6000 years of human history, Dick.

DICK: Okay. Well, let's hope there's another six --

STEVE: How long will this world -- don't, don't you want to go on to something better, if there is a God? Is this the way you want to live your life --

DICK: No, absolutely.

STEVE: -- and turn into --

DICK: I think we all, we all hope and desire that we'll be there.

STEVE: Well, yeah, okay, but in the, in the scriptures, there's a place called like a lamb like beast but speaks as a dragon. This country which was guaranteed by the people that came here and, and gained their freedoms, separated church and state, sat down -- in fact, this was originally called a republic, not a democracy. A republic guarantees the rights of minorities. A democracy is where a majority rules.

DICK: That's what I'm doing for you. I am guaranteeing -- I'm giving you my personal guarantee that your rights --

STEVE: Well, I know you mean well and that but, of course, one --

DICK: Well, it's more than I mean. It will happen.

STEVE: One would be very naive --

DICK: I will guarantee it.

STEVE: -- to, to believe that you would have any kind of power over the forces that be but I mean, I mean I appreciate what you're saying and --

DICK: Well, I'm not naive but, listen, listen.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: I've, I've worked, I've worked as a law enforcement officer for many, many years.
STEVE: How old are you, Dick?

DICK: I'm too old. I'm too old, 48 years old.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: A little older than you are.

STEVE: Yeah.

DICK: Yeah. But, but listen, I have been an agent for some time.

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: And the agents I work with all share the same concerns, that is that we work within the framework of the Constitution, that we protect the rights of those people that we deal with on, on an everyday basis, that it means the people that we arrest, the people that we deal with. And it -- you've got my solemn promise on that. We don't take that responsibility lightly. We don't. And it's not going to be in this instance. Now, listen, on the press release, you heard about --

STEVE: Okay. Yeah. Could you wait just one minute?

STEVE: Just one second.

[gap]

STEVE: Okay.
DICK: You're back?

STEVE: Yes.

DICK: Did you go tell -- did you see Dave, tell him I want to talk to him?

STEVE: Well, he -- not right at the --

DICK: Well, just hang on one minute.

[gap]

STEVE: Okay, Dick?

DICK: Yeah.

STEVE: Yeah, here's David.

DICK: Good.

STEVE: Hang on.

DICK: Good.

DAVID: Hello, Dick.

DICK: David, how are ya?

DAVID: Oh, fair to middling.

DICK: I'm glad I get an opportunity to speak with you.

DAVID: Well, how we doing over there this side?

DICK: Well, hey, we're here, you're there. Let's, let's work it out. Let's work it out.

DAVID: Well, --

DICK: Let's work it out. I'm sitting in for Jim today who, you know, I'm sure Steve mentioned to you that --

DAVID:  Jim, Jim's getting kind of shattered
--

DICK:  Jim's a little under the weather.

Jim's a little under the weather. You know, he's, he's worked real hard for you folks out there and,
yeah, it takes, it takes some time, it takes a toll -- it takes a toll. And I'm hoping that you and I will be able to go ahead and speak to one another and make some progress here.

Did you see the press conference?

DAVID:  Kind of half and half. I was -- last night I was talking to Henry quite a long time and --

DICK:  Yeah.

DAVID:  -- and time kind of got away from us --

DICK:  Been resting a little bit?

DAVID:  -- and I was enjoying my conversation with him. And then all of a sudden this morning I --

DICK:  Steve was real happy with it.

DAVID:  I -- oh, I, I loved the guy. I mean if, if he's genuine to his disposition then, like I say, he's, you know, he -- you know, like I say, we,
we can share knowledge, one with another and --

DICK: Sure.

DAVID: -- you can understand more where I'm coming from, to understand how authentic I am.

DICK: Well, I think he was real happy about some of the inaccuracies that were, were corrected. And I know one of the concerns that you have and that we share here is the safety of those kids. And it's one of the things that you had indicated to Henry that you were concerned about and also to Jim yesterday.

DAVID: Well, what I did -- what I explained originally in the beginning to Jim was is that, you know, everybody is watching out there on the outside.

DICK: Absolutely.

DAVID: And the way I have always worked and operated because of the high extreme censorship that I have obtained ever since 1985, is I have always bent over backwards and expended myself and opened myself to, to observation that anybody that's ever wanted to observe me or judge me. You know, in regards to the firearms and stuff they're taking place now, I mean anybody at any gun show can tell you exactly. I mean Zeanan (phonetic), Charlie, all those guys, McMahan, every one of those guys down at the gun shows, they know me, they understand. Everything I have, I filled out a yellow sheet on it, you know. And that's, that's exactly -- well, as a matter of fact, this eight month period, when, when originally we, we started our Camero company out of here 'cause California has a law, they started passing new laws here to where any vehicle unregistered and unlicensed and unsmogged, you know, cannot be parked on your premises unless it's parked in your garage, okay. Well, the property we had in California, I had, I had purchased 13 of these Cameros --

DICK: Well, you're a real Camero freak, aren't you?

DAVID: No. Let, let me explain. Let me explain. In the way -- in the association, you know, when the people, you know, come to the point of the truth and they understand the perimeter and what the truth is and they begin to clearly see, you know, what the prophets of old have seen and the light of the, the judgment which is the opening of the seven seals for the latter days, when they begin to understand why God has done what he'd done and, you know, why the world has become what it's become, then they begin to see God's picture on how God's going to resolve it because the point is made. Every man that lives a life and does not discern under the sun the purposes thereof, then that life given of God is that one and final gift and those who do not discern it as it is and begin to search for God and to know the truth of God, well that's the point that God makes. They came in darkness and they shall leave in darkness. Okay.

But, anyway, one thing that I have always never done is that a lot of times individuals such as Paul Gordon Fatta, when he originally in Hawaii heard the message -- actually, him and Steve Schneider had flown over here because they had heard about what I was presenting and -- hello?

DICK: I'm still here. I'm just trying to figure out who Paul Fatta is. Is he a, a member, a follower?

DAVID: Well, he's one of the members. He - - like I say, there's a lot of members that, that really are not here, you know.

DICK: Okay.

DAVID: They're not, they' not on the property and stuff like that.

DICK: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But anyway, the point that I'm making is is that he at that time being 28 years old in Hawaii, he was the, the owner of a company, Handy Van Services, which produced a gross of over $6 million a year.

DICK: Nice penny, isn't it?

DAVID: Well, for a 28 year old it is. I mean his father had, had built the company up and had gone into other businesses and enterprises. And he was in a limousine -- well, he had a big restaurant in Waikiki and all that stuff. But anyway, another fellow was making a comment and I was answering back.

DICK: Do you suppose he and I might be able to go into business?

DAVID: What's this now?

DICK: I say with a man with that kind of money, he, he and I are -- like to get together, I think.

DAVID: (Laughs)

DICK: Do you think he needs a business partner, David?

DAVID: I'm not really sure.

DICK: Not sure.

DAVID: But the point of it was is that like Paul, when he heard the message, you know, and he heard the simplicity of it, you know, he wanted to, to turn this business over to me.

DICK: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Now, that's, you know, that's,
that's a, that's a nice, -- that's a nice feeling.

   DICK: Shows a lot of -- a lot of faith in you, doesn't it?

   DAVID: Well, it -- definitely it does because you see the scripture in itself does have a challenge. I mean a lot of people put faith in the pontiff. That's, that's for sure.

   DICK: Uh-huh.

   DAVID: Or Billy Graham or Rex Humbard or --

   DICK: All men with strong conviction and --

   DAVID: All men of great show.

   DICK: Compassion.

   DAVID: You know. But we wonder if men of such deportment really are genuine. Well, like I say, the, the Bible -- and when, when it's time -- when it's time, you know, every phoney is found out.
   That's the way it always has been, you know. There was one time when even the pontiff was uncovered politically as an imposter. I mean in 1798, Napoleon's General Berthier overthrew Vatican, you know. Because of -- well, it really revolved around an awakening of the, of the general world public of Europe at that time. I mean when you had people like Hush Jerome (phonetic) and Tydnall Weinert (phonetic), trying to do certain things and the papacy, you know, burning them and dragging them and, and formulating all the iron maidens and guillotines of those days, you know, they called them and derided them as heretics. But finally, you know, in the 15th century, Martin Luther made a statement so clear and so plain that men and lawyers and judges and those prelates that were connected to the papacy, they, they said to themselves, now, wait a minute, you know. This man here has got something. And it's, it was -- it's based right out of the Bible, you know.

DICK: David, a lot of people have made those same comments about you. I'm not from this area but I constantly have contact with people back in my own area of the country and, and they've made a number of favorable comments directed toward some of the things you had to say. But I know one thing that my wife who is a devout follower, Christian, said, you know, I like what he had to say but I'm, I'm kinda concerned about, you know, his failure to follow through on the thing. I mean that, that comes from a lay person, from a person who, you know, is married to a law enforcement officer but certainly it does not restrict, you know, her knowledge to, to that area, fortunately. And she suggested to me, you know, I like some of the things he has to say but is, is he a man of his word? And I said, well, you know, I think, I think he's --

DAVID: Well, it's like this -- it's like this, Dick. I talked with Jim right off the beginning, okay. And I explained to Jim very clearly that in the picture that's developed by the New Covenant, by the New Testament, you know, and in, in the picture that's developed by our, our nation, you know, our nation under God -- isn't that what it says on our currency?

DICK: It does.

DAVID: It, it defines a God in which we trust, right?

DICK: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Okay. Now, in this nation or in this Constitution which allows liberty of conscience, freedom of conscience, freedom of conviction, you know, it's, it's still, it's still in a large degree a system that is governed by individuals who have their beliefs and their religions and it's also -- it's a tendency in, in the system to, to develop categorizations and to bring people of like faith into the positions of government, just as it is to proselyte people into the convictions of religion. In other words, over periods of time you might find that certain governmental offices and certain governmental institutions finally, you know, although not openly but somehow sometimes under cover, may bring a majority of one type of faith into a system, making it not only a bureaucracy, politically, but also a bureaucracy religiously. Do you understand what I'm saying?

DICK: I understand what you're saying, certainly.

DAVID: Okay. Now, for instance, when the United States of America which is, according to religious faith from the forefathers, protestant, one has to ask the question, well, what are they protesting against? You know, you go back to the Mayflower and all these things, you know. You know, what was the big gripe in the first place for men to risk their lives, to venture the great sea, to come to another hope, to another land. Well, it was because of the tyranny of, of Europe. It was because of the tyranny of the old country. And what was that tyranny? It was, it was political oppression that was -- or actually based or propagated by religious conviction. It was the Roman Catholicism. It was how Rome ruled the, the world, the basic world at that time for approximately 1,500 years and how that the,
the doctrines and the great men and all that were all highly associated and connected to the great pontiff, the religio-political system. That, you know, basically, he's the vice chairman, I mean he's God on earth, you know. And when the Eucharist is taken and stuff, the priest becomes the incarnate body of Christ and, and the exactions and the -- well, anyway, what I'm saying is is that that faith finally was contended by Martin Luther. The celibacy of the priest was contended over, you know. Doctrines in regards to after life and, and the purgatory and the baptism, by sprinkling and the child baptism. All these things were questioned by other people who rose up, such as John Knox, Wesley and Campbell, begin to say, really, the, the church of our fathers, the church was born in this great papacy. Is it really on the foundation of the written truth that is the written word of the Apostles, you know. We found out that, that not all churches really stand firm on the foundation of, of the Apostles, which were the personal witnesses of Christ. Okay.

Now, now the point we're making is is that when we see the last testament, we see that Matthew has written about Christ according to what he perceived, correct?
DICK: That's correct.

DAVID: And people that believe in Jesus believe in those things. And --

DICK: And they take great comfort from it, David.

DAVID: Well, definitely, although there are many who, who hope for healing and many who hope for the miracles. Christ does not do those things today. And some people would like to make you think that he does but we have documented proof from the very scriptures that those things are not being done, although they might be a deception. By anyway, the point is Matthew, Mark, Luke and John have given testimony and record of the controversy and the belief that they have. Now, what they're telling us, if you really look, is they're telling us that a man came through a virgin birth but they're telling us that the Sanhedrim and the Pharisees, when they confronted Christ, they told Christ pointblank and clear that they were not sons born of fornication. So, they're telling us in the Gospels that though they believe he was a virgin, you know, from a virgin child, according to Isaiah 8, they're saying that the -- the leaders of the day were saying that he was a, an illegitimate child. He was born of fornication.
Like I read in that original presentation, it says that, you know, according to John 7 and all it says that even his own brother did not believe in him, though he had done so many miracles, you know. Sometimes seeing is not believing. There has to be another element to be reviewed. There has to be another perception for us to really see what we're really looking at.

But anyway, so, it comes down to the point these men are telling us that when Christ came in the flesh, nobody would know him. Nobody would know him and there was a reason for it, you know. Any, any time, any time a truth comes that demands our full attention and our works and actions in harmony with it, men are going to have to sit down and count the cost. Usually in such a time, the men are in doing their own works, they're building their own little empires, they're, they're evaluating their own little perceptions of life. And if any truth came, well -- for instance, if Christ was to come right now, I mean right now, I mean, I mean --

DICK: Right this minute?

DAVID: Just -- I mean the real, real, real Christ. I mean no questions about it. This guy comes. He comes on a cloud. He's got a crown. He's got a robe. You know, he's got a sepulcher in his hand. I mean, you know -- no a sepulcher, a -- scepter -- I'm half going crazy here.

DICK: I know what you mean.

DAVID: A scepter in his hand. He comes to earth. He -- you know, the great trumpets blow and the angel is singing in the background --

DICK: There would be a lot of people left behind, wouldn't there, David?

DAVID: Well, no, what I'm saying is, everyone stands in awe and he goes right over to Vatican City, you know. And he knocks on the door of Pope John Paul, you know. Now, the Pope --

(End of Tape 52.)
