U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO & FIREARMS
TAPE #73
3/6/93
10:28 p.m. - 11:15 p.m.

(Tape 73)

DAVID: -- until you know about his book, that he wants to talk about things he's made touching the king, correct?

JOHN COX: True.

DAVID: He's going to put in the book, isn't he?

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

DAVID: His tongue will be the pen of a ready writer. He wants you to know that he thinks his son is fairer than the children of men. You may not think so. Isaiah 53 says there's no beauty when we shall see, that we shall desire Him. He's not the kind of guy you just look at and say, oh, wow, look at Him, He's the Christ. Says that grace is poured into his lips. Instead of hurting anybody, I would rather teach the truth.

JOHN COX: You can do that, too, can't you?

DAVID: Oh, yes, I would more than do anything and you don't know what I've given up. I should be able to do that.
JOHN COX: But you can teach -- you can teach the truth to more people than just those people that are inside that compound, can't you? If you want to. And it's your decision to make.

DAVID: You see, John, --

JOHN COX: Am I saying an untruth to you?

DAVID: Well, you're, you're, you're not fully understanding what position or time we're in. I explained to you we're in the fifth seal.

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And because of your lack of understanding of that seal as well as the second, third and fourth, you don't understand the events as they're now transpiring. You don't understand -- you don't understand that there is a heaven and there is a
God and there are people of great authority there.
You don't understand that Moses is there and Elijah and Enoch's there. You don't understand these things.
And you're of this world, you've never had a chance to go beyond this world.

JOHN COX: Well, I am. I can't deny that.

DAVID: Okay. So, God has proclaimed ahead of time something that must be done. There must be --

JOHN COX: Aren't you, aren't you of this world?

DAVID: No, I'm not. Honestly, John, I am not. I was born in this world.

    JOHN COX: Yes. And you also told me that you have never broken the laws of this country, didn't you?

    DAVID: Exactly, until recently.

    JOHN COX: No. Did you -- you've never broken the laws?

    DAVID: Go check my record, my past record.

    JOHN COX: Oh, I'm not checking -- I'm not checking your record.

    DAVID: I mean in '88, in '88 --

    JOHN COX: You know, it's, it's like me telling -- it's like me telling my dad I never broke the law and I never drank under age. Did you ever smoke grass?

    DAVID: Once.

    JOHN COX: Did you break the law?

    DAVID: Yeah, I did.

    JOHN COX: Okay.

    DAVID: I have to admit I did. But I didn't smoke that much.

    JOHN COX: Well, you just told me you didn't break the law.

    DAVID: Well, I guess you got me on that
one. You got me on that one.
JOHN COX: Well, --

DAVID: But, of course, that was put into law --

JOHN COX: Don't give me -- don't give me an excuse now.

DAVID: No excuse. Hey, and I didn't like it, you know what I mean. I was one of these guys that ran seven miles every day, you know. And a guy that was physically in condition like me got a better high off of isometrics and physical fitness. I mean I could not understand at a very young age why all my friends, you know, were doing that kind of stuff. And when I did it, you know, we really didn't know that much about laws, per se.

JOHN COX: Let me ask you something, David. Would -- let me -- and it's away from this and I don't want you to think that I'm, I'm trying to move you away for a particular reason. But I think I understand how you responded to my question as to why you have those weapons there, because that's going to suit your needs, all right? That's why you have those weapons there.

DAVID: Why did your --

JOHN COX: Let, let me ask you, would you -- do you want to communicate with the media? Do you want to communicate with them?

DAVID: If they have questions to ask, now's the best time to ask them. So, you can make your statements. We --

JOHN COX: No, no, no. Do you want to communicate with the media?

DAVID: What -- well, that would be fine. But it would --

JOHN COX: You know how you communicated with the media before?

DAVID: Yeah, through the telephone lines.

JOHN COX: No, through a -- an audio tape.

DAVID: Well, you see --

JOHN COX: Would you like to do it again?

DAVID: That is -- okay, look. The Bible communicates to us through a bunch of words, right?

JOHN COX: I'm just asking you a question. I'm looking for a yes or no.

DAVID: No, that's not efficient. It does not --

JOHN COX: It's what?

DAVID: It does not serve the perfect purpose.

JOHN COX: I'm asking you if you have a statement that you would like to be heard by the media and by those addressed by the media, would you or wouldn't you? I'm going to give you the opportunity to do it.

DAVID: John, there are people that have questions and a statement only --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

DAVID: -- develops another question. One on one communication. It's like I'm talking with you and I'm saying, John, is Psalms 45 the first seal? And you're saying, well, you can see that it has -- it definitely has a basis in the first seal of Revelation. But what I'm trying to say to you again is I'm saying, John, don't you fear God? Don't you know what I've just shown you? Don't you know who I am? And you, turning away from the Revelation, turning away from God --

JOHN COX: I tell -- no, I tell you that I fear God and that I know you know who you say you are and that, that's fine. But do I have to accept that?

DAVID: Well, it could cost you a great cost if you don't.

JOHN COX: I believe that you believe who you are but --

DAVID: Do you believe --

JOHN COX: -- that's not consistent with the teachings that I have received. So, and --

DAVID: Well, wait a minute.

JOHN COX: -- you're just telling me --

DAVID: And you're saying --

JOHN COX: Pardon me?

DAVID: You're saying that Psalms 45 is not the first seal?

JOHN COX: I am, I am saying that my teachings, as well as other people's teachings are --

DAVID: You talking about the Catholic church?

JOHN COX: Oh, sure.

DAVID: Well, you know what the papacy --

JOHN COX: But I'm not going to argue with you about your, your feelings and your interpretations of what you're saying.

DAVID: Well, what is, what is the papacy's interpretation of the first seal? You can't even tell me, can you?

JOHN COX: Do you want me to go call Rome and tell him, you know, I, I don't go along with this?

I mean you don't give a rat's ass anyhow, do you,

what I tell them, do you?

DAVID: The Vatican is a very unique place,

isn't it?
JOHN COX: It is.
DAVID: Very powerful place.
JOHN COX: But I'm not going to argue about the Methodists, the Baptists, the Lutherans, the Episcopalians.
DAVID: Why -- they're sisters, aren't they?
JOHN COX: I think we all are.
DAVID: Not us.
JOHN COX: Why?
DAVID: We're not related.
JOHN COX: Why?
DAVID: Because our God is a God of truth. And we -- hello?
JOHN COX: But my God is not a God of truth?
DAVID: No.
JOHN COX: We all have the same God, David.
DAVID: That's not true.
JOHN COX: Yeah, it is.
DAVID: (Laughs) Contrary.
JOHN COX: Au contraire, wrong. It's all how we interpret it.
DAVID: It's all how we believe the testament of God.
JOHN COX: Hey, I'm not going to argue that. But there is a God. You know, I'm not some theologian that's going to sit here and try and grasp this. I can't. I really can't. And you know that.

    DAVID: I'm sorry.

    JOHN COX: But I asked you -- I asked you whether or not you would like to make a tape and have it given to the media. Would you like to do that?

    DAVID: Wait one second.

    (Pause)

    STEVE: John?

    JOHN COX: What's up, Steven?

    STEVE: What's up, John?

    JOHN COX: What's the matter, he couldn't stand it anymore?

    STEVE: What do you mean?

    JOHN COX: He gave --

    STEVE: Hello?

    JOHN COX: -- up on me.

    STEVE: Hello?

    JOHN COX: David gave up on me.

    STEVE: Okay. Don't move it anymore 'cause it -- okay. Now, what's that?

    JOHN COX: David gave up on me. How come?

    STEVE: I don't know.

    JOHN COX: He's not walking away shaking his head, is he?
STEVE: Well, he does have -- about that look on his face.

JOHN COX: Very perplexed?

STEVE: Not quite, but he is --

JOHN COX: He's not mad at me, is he?

STEVE: Oh, of course, not.

JOHN COX: Oh, I --

STEVE: Probably sorry.

JOHN COX: Sorry for me?

STEVE: For sure.

JOHN COX: Well, he's not the first. He's not the first.

STEVE: No.

JOHN COX: No, I just asked him, asked him a question, whether or not he would like to make a statement to the media the same way that he made one before, on a tape. And I didn't get an answer.

STEVE: Just a minute.

STEVE TO DAVID: He said he -- all he did was ask you a question if you wanted to make a statement to the media --

STEVE: I'm supposed to tell you you're a snake.

JOHN COX: I'm a snake?

STEVE: But --
JOHN COX: Well, I've been called worse things than that before.

STEVE TO DAVID: He said he's been called worse things than that before.

STEVE: But he says he still loves you but he says you're a snake.

JOHN COX: Oh. What I was going to do is, is give him the opportunity to do it, you know. If he wants to make a statement, fine. We can make some arrangements to do that.

STEVE TO DAVID: (Indiscernible) to do it, if you want to make a statement, fine.

STEVE: He's more -- he looks kind of worn out.

JOHN COX: Oh, I can't believe that.

STEVE TO DAVID: He said he can't believe that.

JOHN COX: He was enjoying every moment of it. Hey?

STEVE: Yeah?

JOHN COX: You tell him I know he enjoyed every moment of it.

STEVE TO DAVID: He says, I know you enjoyed every moment of it.

JOHN COX: And he's hoping some of it will rub off.

STEVE: He says the truth will judge us in the end.

JOHN COX: Well, isn't that the -- that's the truth. I can't argue that, can I? It will. Are you interested in making a statement, Steven?

STEVE: Well, in -- see, what, what's the context? Making a statement, do you mean to the world, to the public, to --

JOHN COX: No, not to me, not, not to me, no.

STEVE: I didn't say to you, I said to the world.

JOHN COX: Well, sure. I mean --

STEVE: Are you talking about by the press,
by the telephone or what are we talking about?

JOHN COX: Basically, we're basically -- I don't know if you're interested or you're not. If you are, we can make arrangements for you to make a taped statement and give it -- we'll give it to the media.
If, if you're not, just tell me you're not. That's all.

STEVE: Okay. Just a minute.

STEVE TO DAVID: He's asking me if I'm interested or you're interested in making a statement to the media.

STEVE:  David says give us a line.

JOHN COX:  Give you a line?

STEVE:  Like we had before this all came about.  We had three or four telephone -- four telephone lines to the outside.

JOHN COX:  You're talking on the line.

STEVE:  Yeah.  But we're talking on --

JOHN COX:  This is, this is the line.

STEVE:  Uh-huh.

JOHN COX:  Now, what, what I have asked is if you would like to make a --

STEVE:  A taped statement --

JOHN COX:  -- a taped statement to be given to the media.  And, and, you know, the last tape statement that was given to the media was not altered, was not played with, you know.  I'm just asking you if you'd like to do it because --

STEVE:  Okay.

JOHN COX:  -- there's going --

STEVE:  Because there's --

JOHN COX:  I'm not, I'm not looking for 58 minutes now.

STEVE:  Okay.  Just a minute.

STEVE TO DAVID:  He said he just wants to know if you want to do it, if you want to make a statement (Indiscernible) to the media. (Indiscernible) He says I hope it wouldn't be a 58 minute one. (Indiscernible conversation between Steve and David).

JOHN COX: Steven? Steven?
STEVE: John?
JOHN COX: Let, let me --
STEVE: He said he'll start working on it.
JOHN COX: But let me tell you --
STEVE: All right.
JOHN COX: -- what, what this will consist of.
STEVE: All right.
JOHN COX: And then it may be negotiable, all right?
STEVE: I'm listening.
JOHN COX: But I'm, I'm just throwing it up for grabs.
STEVE: I'm listening.
JOHN COX: All right. That David will prepare, or in his absence if you want to prepare and send out a tape for the media, it will be received the same way before.
STEVE: Uh-huh.
JOHN COX: When the children and the women are sent out, we'll play the tape.

STEVE: Okay. Just a minute.

JOHN COX: Now, as I said, --

STEVE: All right.

JOHN COX: -- this is negotiable.

STEVE: Okay.

JOHN COX: All right. Give me another offer if you don't like that one.

STEVE TO DAVID: (Indiscernible) he says you can do as before. Get a tape together. When the women and children are sent out, they will play it. This is negotiable.

JOHN COX: Hey, Steven? Steve -- Steven?

STEVE: He said, he said, John, he says, I told him he was a snake.

JOHN COX: Well, you know why -- you know why I'm saying this? And as I said, I've been called --

STEVE: Why are you saying that?

JOHN COX: I've been called worse things than a snake. Haven't we all? And the reason --

STEVE: Well, see, Christ was also called a serpent, though. So, --

JOHN COX: And the reason I'm willing to play the tape after they're released --

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: -- is because we played a 58 minute tape with an entree to it and nothing happened. And that's, that's why we're looking for some assurances on David's part.

STEVE: Just a minute.

STEVE TO DAVID: He says, he says we're looking for some assurances this time because the last time we played it first.

STEVE: David is not smiling right now. He said his God --

JOHN COX: Has he thrown anything at you?

STEVE: He is -- I mean I'll tell you what, he's extremely serious right now. He's, he's --

JOHN COX: Well, good.

STEVE: -- actually staring at me saying, he said my God said wait.

JOHN COX: I, I hope he is being serious and staring at you. But what I am saying is -- first of all, I said it was a negotiable thing, didn't I? But I said that --

STEVE: He said he --

JOHN COX: -- we --

STEVE: John, here's what --
JOHN COX: Go ahead.

STEVE: -- here's what he said. He said any of these people can leave and go out from here any time they want. But for he, himself, --

JOHN COX: Well, well, send me something to prove that. And I want to get things moving again, Steven. You want to get them moving. David wants to get things moving. And we want to see some positive signs.

STEVE: What, what do you know -- see, he's actually sent me around the building, asking people on a day-by-day basis, do you want to leave, do you want to leave? That is no joke. Right from this morning on --

JOHN COX: Steven --

STEVE: -- right from this morning on --

JOHN COX: He had a little girl this morning that said that she wanted to leave, and what happens? Somebody pumps something in her ear and says, no.

STEVE: Well, that's -- not so, no, no, not so. I was sitting right here the whole time. Her mother said nothing to her.

JOHN COX: Do you think I fell off a turnip truck?

STEVE: Listen, that's the --
JOHN COX: Huh?

STEVE: -- truth. I sat here -- when the first question was asked, do you want to leave, she said, no. The second part of the question --

JOHN COX: She said yes first.

STEVE: No, she didn't. No, she did not. She didn't.

JOHN COX: Come on, Steve.

STEVE: No, no. The second part of the question -- now, listen, if you were there, you would have heard this.

JOHN COX: Well, I wasn't there.

STEVE: Well, I was. I was right here. The second part of the question is, if we get to talk to Gonzales, Robert Gonzales, would you go if that gave us the oppor -- and she said, yes, to that. And I about fell over.

JOHN COX: Steve, are you going to tell me that this six year old girl knows Robert Gonzales?

STEVE: Listen, listen. I --

JOHN COX: What do you think, I fell off the pumpkin truck?

STEVE: No, no, no, no, no, no. Now, listen to this. This is what happened. Whether she understood or not, I don't know. I don't know.
JOHN COX: You've got a good idea, huh?

STEVE: Well, I would imagine she probably didn't.

JOHN COX: Sure.

STEVE: But at the same time, her mother made no faces, no one coerced or encouraged either direction. And then her mother -- again, it was asked her mother if she wanted the daughter to go.

JOHN COX: Well, who guided the child?

STEVE: Well, then the mother did.

JOHN COX: Did the child do it of her own free will and volition?

STEVE: Well, this -- and the last thing --

JOHN COX: No.

STEVE: Listen. The last thing that was asked was that -- did the girl want to go or did the mother want her daughter to go. The mother said she did not want her daughter to go unless Robert called David and they had a phone conversation.

JOHN COX: Now, who planted that seed in the mother's mind?

STEVE: David did.

JOHN COX: Well, sure. The mother didn't know Robert Gonzales from the man in the moon.

STEVE: No, she did. She saw him. She --
JOHN COX: Well, --

STEVE: -- got to meet him.

JOHN COX: I know she saw him but she doesn't know the part he played in this thing unless somebody told her, right? So, did the girl have the opportunity to leave? Yes. The girl said she wanted to leave --

STEVE: Here's what David --

JOHN COX: -- and someone planted a seed and told her not to.

JOHN COX: No, no, here's how it works. The woman and her daughter -- number one, the woman did not want to leave but David says, look, if that gives this man an opportunity for me to talk to him, to share some things with him, would you be willing to encourage your daughter to leave? She didn't want to leave her daughter go, in the first place.

JOHN COX: How many women have allowed their daughters to leave?

STEVE: Oh, quite a few of them.

JOHN COX: Sure. And how many should be with their children, raising their children, caring for their children?

STEVE: Of course. Of course.

JOHN COX: You know it and I know it, right?
STEVE: Of course.

JOHN COX: Sure. Sita --

STEVE: So --

JOHN COX: -- said she wanted to leave. She would like to leave. But she's not leaving, is she?

STEVE: It's because of the mother. I can go get the mother right now. You can talk to her again if you want and I'm, -- I'll walk away.

JOHN COX: Well, how do I know -- how do I know what you tell the mother and what David tells the mother?

STEVE: Believe me, I have no -- when it -- look it, these people have come from such a distance, I have no influence on them. Even my own decisions are something that (Indiscernible).

JOHN COX: Why don't you let that mother walk down that road and tell somebody down at the end --

STEVE: She can.

JOHN COX: Tell them --

STEVE: She can do that.

JOHN COX: -- down at the end of the road that she doesn't wish to leave.

STEVE: She can do that.

JOHN COX: You know, I asked you yesterday to do me something real simple. Last night when we were talking and remember I read off the list of names to you of some of the concerned people that called about people --

STEVE: And I wrote those down.

JOHN COX: Not when I was talking to you, you didn't, right?

STEVE: No, no, no, no, not -- I told you that. Don't you remember how late it was?

JOHN COX: Sure. And I understand that and I appreciate that. But I asked you that I would like you to do me a favor and you said, uh-huh. And, and you'd get back. And then you and Dick talked this morning, I presume about it, huh?

STEVE: That's right.

JOHN COX: And I said I would like these people to speak to me or to speak to Dick or to speak to whomever, at your leisure so that I know that person is healthy and safe in there and I can call David Thibodeau's relative and say, yes, Belinda, David's fine. And I can call --

STEVE: Well, there's two right here.

JOHN COX: -- Margarita Vaega's --

STEVE: Would you like to talk with a couple of people here?
JOHN COX: I really would. I really would.

STEVE: Okay. Well, --

JOHN COX: But I thought you were going to make those arrangements.

STEVE: I -- well, look it, here's what I did. I went and talked -- I took the list down from Dick.

JOHN COX: Yeah.

STEVE: I can even read the list back to you. I went around -- I wrote down -- I says, well, who was it that called? Who were they asking for?

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: The first three names that you gave which he, again, reiterated to me were people that have -- I have never heard of them. Nobody here has ever heard of them. So, --

JOHN COX: Nobody ever heard of David Thibodeau?

STEVE: Oh, no, of course, David -- let me grab --

JOHN COX: That's the first name.

STEVE: Let me grab the list again, okay?

JOHN COX: Go ahead.

STEVE: Let me take a look at it here. I can't even find -- where, where did I go with the thing? I've got it here. Okay. Let's see what we have. Now, all these people were told, I went right to every last one of them and asked them --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- and told them the guy, he'll be calling. You can get on the phone. You can wait for his call.

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: Here's the list that was given to me.

JOHN COX: Yeah, go ahead.

STEVE: Okay. I'm looking at it right here. Let's see. The first three names -- he told me that a Barbara Reed, a Lee Ann Josephson and a Bill Josephson.

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: And the connecting person was Lynn Josephson. I said I have never heard -- I asked everybody here if they've ever heard of any of those four names. No one ever has.

JOHN COX: No Barbara Reed?

STEVE: No Barbara Reed. I don't know who she is.

JOHN COX: What about David Thibodeau?

STEVE: Of course, Dave Thibodeau.

JOHN COX: Because Belinda Gainon called about him. What about Jeff Little?

STEVE: Jeff Little, also. I answered -- in fact, we went right down the list, Dick and I did, and I answered every one that was here.

JOHN COX: And Margarita Vaega?

STEVE: Correct.

JOHN COX: Katherine's already outside.

STEVE: Exactly.

JOHN COX: Kathy -- Katherine Matthewson.

STEVE: Right.

JOHN COX: Sherri Jewell.

STEVE: Right. She's here.

JOHN COX: Mary Jean Borst?

STEVE: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: Gran -- what is it, Graeham or Gran Craddock?

STEVE: That's correct.

JOHN COX: Douglas Martin?

STEVE: That's correct.

JOHN COX: Sheila Martin?

STEVE: Correct.

JOHN COX: Paul Fatta?

STEVE: Correct.

JOHN COX: And Kol -- what is it, Kolani Fatta?
STEVE: Correct.

JOHN COX: And all I said was, would you let those people speak to me, say hello, say I'm doing fine?

STEVE: And I said, yes. In fact, there's two of them -- well, there's two not in that list right here.

JOHN COX: Well, that was 24 hours ago.

STEVE: What am I going to do when we get on the phone talking for hours like just now and --

JOHN COX: Yeah, but I was, I was getting --

STEVE: Wait, wait.

JOHN COX: -- an education, wasn't I?

STEVE: This is correct. Not only --

(JOHN LAUGHS)

STEVE: -- not only that, not only that, it was not me that brought up the subject matter of the last few conversations in the first place. When Dick talked to me earlier in the day --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- I took it down.

JOHN COX: Yeah.

STEVE: He said he'd get back to me in a few hours, which -- and it would have been like 4:00.

JOHN COX: Okay.
STEVE: And at that time he never brought up anything to do with these names even though I had the people standing right here.

JOHN COX: Well, you could have put them on the phone, huh?

STEVE: Well, he didn't ask for that. He started talking about --

JOHN COX: Hey, give him a little guidance.

STEVE: No, he said he had a new proposition that --

JOHN COX: Give him a little guidance sometimes, Steve.

STEVE: Hey, come on, John. He gave -- he said he had --

JOHN COX: Would, would you, would you let them talk to me?

STEVE: He had a new proposition. He said --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- there was something new that he thought we'd go for, that would be great. And that's when he dropped on me, we'll back off the Bradleys and everybody come out. I said, oh, great, we're, we're out there now.

JOHN COX: Yeah, I know about that. But would you let them -- would you let the people talk to STEVE: Yeah, they're right here.

JOHN COX: And I'm not trying to play a game with you. I really would like --

STEVE: Here's, here's Rita. You want to talk to Rita?

JOHN COX: Yeah.

STEVE: She'd like to talk to you.

JOHN COX: Great.

STEVE: This is John Cox. F.B.I. agent?

JOHN COX: Yes, sir.

STEVE: Okay. And then after that will be Lisa.

JOHN COX: Okay.

STEVE: Okay, here's Rita.

RITA: Hi, John.

JOHN COX: Rita?

RITA: Yes.

JOHN COX: What, what is your last name, Rita?

RITA: Riddle.

JOHN COX: Rita Riddle?

RITA: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: Well, you're not one of the names that, that I have on the list here but do you have a relative outside that you would like us to call and tell them that you're fine?

RITA: Sure.

JOHN COX: Okay. Who would you like us to call?

RITA: You can call -- I mean I, I know they know I'm fine, you know. I mean they know why --

JOHN COX: Well, I'm just trying to be reassuring to people, that's all.

RITA: Well, that's what I'm saying, you know. They know why I'm here and --

JOHN COX: Okay.

RITA: -- you know, they know I'm fine.

But, yes, if you want to do that, that's okay, too.

JOHN COX: Okay.

RITA: It's a North Carolina number. The area code is 704.

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

RITA: And the number would be 684 --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

RITA: -- 1639.

JOHN COX: Okay.

RITA: And the person that you can ask for is my father. His name is James Riddle.

JOHN COX: James Riddle. Okay. Well, I appreciate it. I really do.

RITA: But I would just like to tell you, you know, you think that he's got a bunch of people here that's not here of our own free will.

JOHN COX: No, I don't think that at all. I think everybody's in there because of your -- other than the children maybe that don't have their own free intellect or something, but I think you're all there because you want to be there.

RITA: Well, --

JOHN COX: What I'm saying is that -- the question is, can anybody leave if they want to leave?

RITA: Of course. Look, the car

(Indiscernible).

JOHN COX: Well, we've had, we've had some people tell us that they would like to leave and they haven't left.

RITA: You've had people in here tell you that they wanted to leave and haven't left?

JOHN COX: We've had children tell us that people would like to leave.

RITA: Who, who's that?

JOHN COX: Well, I'm not going to put somebody on the spot.

RITA: Look, I'm sitting here. I know what goes on in here.

JOHN COX: Well, I'm sure you do.

RITA: And I'm saying if there's any kids that want to leave here, they're more than welcome to go. Like he said, you know. He's gone around and told everybody if they want to leave --

JOHN COX: Well, I'm not, I'm not, I'm not to debate a child. I mean a child's going to do what a parent tells a child to do and I'm not trying to get into any dispute there.

RITA: There's nobody here told their kids. The kids want to stay with their parents. The kids that went out didn't want to leave.

JOHN COX: Let, let me ask you something, Rita. You say the kids wanted to stay with their parents?

RITA: Yes.

JOHN COX: All right. Do parents have an obligation to their children?

RITA: Well, you know --

JOHN COX: Do they? Yes or no.

RITA: Do the parents have an obligation to their children?

JOHN COX: Yes or no?

RITA: Of course, yeah. They brought them into this world, so, yeah.

JOHN COX: Well, then what about the parents of the children that have come out of that compound, do they have an obligation to their well-being, their welfare, and that they be raised properly?

RITA: Of course.

JOHN COX: Then why aren't they with them?

RITA: Because there's seven seals that's in the Bible. If you knew -- if you had to listen long enough --

JOHN COX: I've listened for days.

RITA: But, look, it takes a long time, you know. We don't learn a scripture here and a scripture there.

JOHN COX: You're not answering my question.

RITA: We learn -- we learn that --

JOHN COX: Why aren't the parents with the children?

RITA: That's exactly what I'm trying to tell you.

JOHN COX: Is it because they don't love their children?

RITA: Of course not.

JOHN COX: Then they should be caring for their children, shouldn't they?
RITA: They are caring for them. Because, see, that's what I'm saying.

JOHN COX: They are?

RITA: Right. Yeah, they are.

JOHN COX: How, by prayer?

RITA: No. That's what I'm telling you. If you knew, if you had sit and listened long enough, you may -- you know, you said -- you told me that you listened for two days.

JOHN COX: Well, I am but I'm -- and I --

RITA: Hey, look, I've been here for two years. It takes a long time --

JOHN COX: Well, I'm sure it does.

RITA: -- to go over the whole book of the Bible and to learn its meaning.

JOHN COX: I'm sure it does and I, I won't argue that point with you one bit. And we all have our different interpretations, don't we?

RITA: Right.

JOHN COX: And I'm not going to argue those either, whether a person's Baptist or Methodist or Presbyterian or Catholic or Jewish or whatever they are, you know. We all have free, free interpretation there, don't we?

RITA: Yeah, but there's only one -- the Bible says that there's only the Lamb that can reveal the book.

JOHN COX: Well, I'm not going to try and change your mind. I'm not going to try and change your mind, and I wouldn't attempt to do that. I feel that's your right and your privilege.

RITA: Well, but you're denying the world, you know. I don't know what you're trying to cover --

JOHN COX: I'm doing what?

RITA: -- up by not letting the press, you know, by not letting us talk to the press. There's a lot of people, look --

JOHN COX: Do you -- well, do you want to talk to the press?

RITA: I have listened to people on the radio. There were three people in particular that stated that when they knew when the Federal government pulled the media back --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

RITA: -- that they knew right then that the government had something to hide. You have stated on your press conferences --

JOHN COX: Let me, let me tell you exactly why we did it. You want me to tell you why we did it? Do you want me to tell you exactly why we did it?
RITA: Go right ahead.

JOHN COX: Well, you -- I think you sound exasperated and you're going to be condescending with me. All I want to tell you is why we did it.

RITA: Okay. Go right ahead.

JOHN COX: We did it because the Federal government is responsible for the safety and welfare of the media, period. And we know the weapons that are inside there, whether you know them or not, we know them and David has admitted them to me, --

RITA: (Laughs) So, you --

JOHN COX: -- that those weapons could harm the media. And we're responsible for their welfare. However, I have told David that if he would like to speak to the media and I'll tell you, if you want to speak to the media, all you have to do is walk down that path and the media is down there.

RITA: That's ridiculous, you know.

JOHN COX: No, it's common sense.

RITA: That -- no. That's totally ridiculous.

JOHN COX: Why?

RITA: Hey, look, we have a telephone.

JOHN COX: Do you?

RITA: You know --
JOHN COX: Well, go ahead and call out there and talk to the media then.

RITA: Well, we can't because you messed our lines up.

JOHN COX: No, I didn't mess your lines up.

RITA: Well, somebody did.

JOHN COX: Well, that could have been a vision.

RITA: I don't think so. And, you know, you -- I, I figure it this way, you know, I'm with the people on the radio, you know. When they said that you had something to cover up, you know, it's like you been saying that we got ten people in here dead. Well, we don't have --

JOHN COX: I won't tell you.

RITA: But, look, --

JOHN COX: I asked Steve --

RITA: -- it has never been straightened out.

JOHN COX: Let me tell you, I asked Steven last night, last night. And you ask him if I'm lying to you. I asked him last night when we were discussing Peter and we were trying to make some arrangements to remove Peter. I said, Steven, if there are others in there that are in the same condition of Peter, let me know and we'll try to make some arrangements. And I have not heard one word back. So, there is no allegation --

RITA: Well, I haven't heard it changed either about ten people being dead in here. So, you know, I figure, hey, --

JOHN COX: That's the media saying that.

RITA: -- what you going to do --

JOHN COX: That is pure speculation on the part of the media.

RITA: Okay. Well, where did they get it from because like I said, we have no connection with the media.

JOHN COX: I have absolutely no idea. Why don't -- let somebody ask the media where they got it from, come out and ask the media.

RITA: We don't need to come out to ask anybody. Like I said, all we need is a telephone line.

JOHN COX: Well, you're not going to get it. You know that.

RITA: Exactly.

JOHN COX: Well, come out and ask the media.

RITA: So that's what I'm saying, you know. I, I'm not coming out there. I don't want to, you know. I know they're out there.

JOHN COX: Well, that's your privilege. That your prerogative. If you don't want to come out, you don't have to. I don't want to be getting into an argument with you, you know? You're, you're probably a good person. If you want to stay in there, you stay in there. All I'm saying is the opportunity is there for you to come out. The opportunity's --

RITA: Hey, I'm well aware of that. Look --

JOHN COX: The opportunity is there for any parent to come out and be with their child.

RITA: (Indiscernible) I can come out anytime I please. Look, I came here at Passover. I left and went back home. Nobody made me stay. I came back at Atonement.

JOHN COX: Well, that's good.

RITA: I left again. Nobody made me stay. And just like now, nobody's forcing me to be here. I can leave anytime I please, just like anybody else here.

JOHN COX: Hey, I'm not going to tell you --

RITA: But, you know, look --

JOHN COX: -- I'm not going to tell you that you're doing anything wrong.

RITA: But look --
JOHN COX: I'm not telling you that you can't leave.

RITA: You --

JOHN COX: What I'm saying is that a parent --

RITA: Right. You said --

JOHN COX: -- has a responsibility to take for their child.

RITA: That's beside the point.

JOHN COX: Why, why is it? That is the point.

RITA: The point is, look, we've been sitting here for almost 8 days now.

JOHN COX: Yeah.

RITA: And it's not going to change because, yeah, as far as the media, the ball's in your court.

JOHN COX: It's going to change the minute David hears the word.

RITA: But look, you know --

JOHN COX: Isn't it?

RITA: -- the re -- why are we sitting here? Why do you think we're sitting here? I mean, you know, --

JOHN COX: Ask David.

RITA: -- there's a lot of people out here that would like to hear David, that would like to have questions answered, just like you did. But like I said, you know, just because you didn't listen long enough to get the full picture, you know, that's your own fault.

JOHN COX: Hey, the only person that's going to tell you why you're sitting there is David because he said he has to hear the word. Isn't that right,
Rita?

RITA: Do what, now?

JOHN COX: The only reason you are in there and you have not left -- because David had agreed that he and everyone in there --

RITA: Right. Originally, though, that's not why we're here. At this point, yes.

JOHN COX: Everyone were going to leave and David said you would not leave because he received a word telling him to wait. That's the only reason you're still in there.

RITA: That's right. That's right.

JOHN COX: So, don't give me some cock and bull story about why you can't leave, that we're preventing you from leaving. You can leave anytime you want.

RITA: That's exactly right.
JOHN COX: And that's your privilege. If you don't want to leave, don't leave.

RITA: Well, that's what I'm saying, you know.

JOHN COX: Well, that's good. The only reason I asked to talk to you is so I could pass on to one of your loved ones that everything's fine, not to get into some debate with you. Do you understand that?

RITA: Yeah. Yeah, I sure do.

JOHN COX: Why don't you put Steven back on the phone?

RITA: Okay.

LISA: Hello?

JOHN COX: Hey, who's this?

LISA: Hi, this is Lisa.

JOHN COX: Lisa?

LISA: Yeah.

JOHN COX: Lisa who?

LISA: Lisa Farris.

JOHN COX: Lisa Farris?

LISA: Yeah.

JOHN COX: How do you spell your last name, Lisa?

LISA: F-A-R-R-I-S.
JOHN COX: F as in Frank?
LISA: Right.
JOHN COX: R-R-I-S?
LISA: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: Do you have someone out here that you would like us to call and tell them that you're doing fine?
LISA: No, I don't have any family out there. All my family is right here.
JOHN COX: No mother, father, sister, brother, et cetera?
LISA: No, I was abandoned a long time ago.

JOHN COX: Okay. Well, that's the reason I was speaking to Steven. We were discussing a lot of other things along the way but I said there were some people who had called, some, some relatives and friends of people who were concerned, that's all. And I gave them those individuals' names and I said, if you get them and put them on, I'd be happy to call a relative and say, hey, I've spoken to your son, your daughter, whomever. And they're fine and they're -- they said to say hello or whatever message they had.

LISA: Yeah. Well, I don't know how to get in touch with them anyway even if you did want to talk to them. I don't know where they are.
JOHN COX: Okay. Well, that's, that's the only reason that, that I asked Steven to speak to somebody. You doing okay?

LISA: Uh-hum, fine.

JOHN COX: Well, that's good. I'm glad to hear it. Is there any message you have for anyone?

LISA: Excuse me? Do I have a message for anybody?

JOHN COX: Yeah.

LISA: I just have a message to everybody, you know.

JOHN COX: Sure.

LISA: And that is, you know, if they could, get in, you know, get in contact with us, if they could hear what we had to say, I wish, you know, I wish they could but it's --

JOHN COX: If they could do what, now?

LISA: If they could hear what we had to say and hear our side of the story, I wish they could.

JOHN COX: Well, let me tell you the same thing I told Rita, okay?

LISA: Okay.

JOHN COX: You could walk down that road and tell them anything you want to say and it's your decision to make. It's not my decision, it's your decision. And you've obviously decided to stay in there.

    LISA: Yeah. We walk out there, you're going to handcuff us and put us in the, you know, --

    JOHN COX: Not going to handcuff --

    LISA: -- solitary confinement and nobody's ever going to be able to talk to us again.

    JOHN COX: Why do you -- why do you say that? If you have any --

    LISA: Because --

    JOHN COX: If you have --

    LISA: -- you guys shot at us, we shot back at you and now, you know, you got us -- we know how the system works.

    JOHN COX: Let me, let me tell you something.

    LISA: You put people away everyday.

    JOHN COX: Do you know the Federal system?

    LISA: Yeah, of course, I know the Federal system.

    JOHN COX: Anybody is presumed innocent until found guilty in a court of law. That's the Federal system for you and for me, okay?

    LISA: Uh-huh.

    JOHN COX: If you have done nothing wrong, you're not going to be arrested. We're not going to arrest people who have done nothing wrong, who we have no reason to --

LISA: That's not true.

JOHN COX: -- to arrest. You think we arrested the children when they came out?

LISA: Of course not. They didn't, they didn't do anything.

JOHN COX: Well, --

LISA: They're children and they can't --

JOHN COX: -- you're not going to be arrested if you didn't do anything either.

LISA: I am fighting for what I believe in, and I'm fighting for, for my family and my friends here. That's something.

JOHN COX: But then you will be judged in a court of law. But what I'm just saying is, if you want to stay in there, that's your prerogative, you know.

LISA: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: That's, that's your business. I'm not trying to force you to come out of there, but the door is open. And as long as you understand that, that you will be -- you will be cared for if you, if you've been injured, your injuries will be treated.
And you'll be afforded legal counsel and in this country it's the best judicial system in the world.
Whether you like it, whether you don't like it, it's still the best one in the world.

LISA: Okay. Well I think I should go.

JOHN COX: And it's something we have to live with but I, you know, I didn't -- I just wanted to see if there was somebody that you wanted to talk to and I'd be happy to pass on a message.

LISA: No, that's all right.

JOHN COX: And I'm glad to hear that you're doing well.

LISA: Thanks.

JOHN COX: You're welcome.

LISA: Thanks a lot. You want -- Sherrie up? I think she's sleeping. Sherri, you sleeping?
Here, here, talk to a friend of mine, Neal. Here, hold on.

JOHN COX: I'm sorry.

NEAL: Hello, John?

JOHN COX: Hey.

NEAL: What's up?

JOHN COX: Who's this?

NEAL: Neal.

JOHN COX: Neal?
NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: What's your last name, Neal?

NEAL: Vaega.

JOHN COX: Neal --

NEAL: Yeah, you have my little kid there.

JOHN COX: I, I did what?

NEAL: You have a little kid of mine there.

JOHN COX: How do you spell your last name?

NEAL: V-A-E-G-A.

JOHN COX: V-A-E-G-A?

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: And what's your youngster's name?

NEAL: Joanne.

JOHN COX: Okay.

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: Well, I'll tell you one thing, Neal --

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: -- she's being cared for well and, and she's probably in pretty good shape. She's -- is she seven years old, seven years old?

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: I think I remember her coming out.

NEAL: Yeah, yeah.

JOHN COX: Does she have -- does she have any, any problems or anything that we should know about as far as taking medication or anything --

     NEAL: Problems?
     JOHN COX: I'm sorry?
     NEAL: No, she's fairly normal.
     JOHN COX: That's good. That's great because I, I'm concerned about that as are -- you know, everybody out here wants to make sure that we take care of them.
     NEAL: Listen, John, we brought all those kids up real good.
     JOHN COX: I'm sure you did.
     NEAL: There's nothing wrong with them.
     JOHN COX: I don't think there is.
     NEAL: I don't, I don't really see any reason why they need any psychology or any psychologists.
     JOHN COX: Oh, they're not.
     NEAL: Okay. I just want to let you know.
     JOHN COX: They're just being cared for. They're being fed, they're being clothed, they're being cared for, that's all.
     NEAL: Yeah. I saw the photos and --
     JOHN COX: And, and let me tell you, they'd love to be with you.
NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: Is -- do you have any, anyone out here, Neal, that, that you would care for me to contact, whether it's a mother, father, sister, brother, and tell them that I spoke to you and you're all right?

NEAL: Uh --

JOHN COX: And the reason -- and the reason I ask that --

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: -- it's not a trick. I'm not playing any games. We've had a lot of people call in here and --

NEAL: Okay.

JOHN COX: -- who are concerned.

NEAL: My relatives are all in New Zealand.

JOHN COX: Well, I don't care.

NEAL: And, so, --

JOHN COX: We'll contact the -- we've had the British Consulate call us.

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: So, I'll be happy to contact the New Zealand Consulate.

NEAL: Sure, by all means.

JOHN COX: You just give me a name and an address.

        NEAL: I did leave my address and number with Joanne.

        JOHN COX: Go ahead.

        NEAL: And she has it.

        JOHN COX: I'm sorry?

        NEAL: And she has it.

        JOHN COX: Joanne?

        NEAL: Joanne. No, she --

        JOHN COX: Who is Joanne?

        NEAL: My little kid brought --

        JOHN COX: Who is Joanne?

        NEAL: Joanne?

        JOHN COX: Oh, one of the other youngsters
that came out?

        NEAL: No, that's my kid.

        JOHN COX: I'm --

        NEAL: The seven year old.

        JOHN COX: I'm sorry, go ahead. And you gave the address --

        NEAL: And I gave the address and number on it, on her --

        JOHN COX: You gave her a little slip of paper?

        NEAL: Yeah.
JOHN COX: Okay.

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: Well, I can assure you that -- did it give the name of someone on there to be contacted?

NEAL: Yeah, she did. I gave it to her and she had it on her person.

JOHN COX: Okay.

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: Now, do you understand the same thing that I mentioned to, to Rita and to, to Lisa?

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: That you are free to leave and I understand you are free to leave.

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: And that if you care to stay in there, that's your business. No harm is going to come to you whether you stay -- you care to stay in there or you, or you care to leave. And, and I've impressed that upon David and I've impressed that upon Steven, that, that I'm certainly not here to get into any religious issues with you. And I respect your religious beliefs, you, David, Steven's, Rita's, Lisa's. That's your, that's your prerogative. But as I explained to Lisa and as I explained to Rita, that these children that are out here need their parents.

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: And they should be together and, and that parents have a certain responsibility to their children for their care and their upbringing and their welfare.

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: And that if you want to be with them, --

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: -- you certainly can be. But I'm not trying to exert any pressure upon you and tell you that if you don't, something's going to happen. That's not true. Your children are going to be taken care of us out here because we love them like you love them --

NEAL: Okay.

JOHN COX: -- you know?

NEAL: Well, maybe you should send them back.

JOHN COX: Are you serious?

NEAL: Yeah. You're concerned about them being with us and, and they're happy. Maybe you should send them back here. I think this will be the best place for them. I really didn't want to send them.

JOHN COX: Let me tell you something.

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: There's a reason, Neal, that those children aren't going back in there and, and you know what the reason is and I know what the reason is, is that there's a lot of weapons in that place, there's a lot of ammunition in that place.

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: And I am not going to put those children in harm's way to allow them to get caught in -- because of some foolish act by whomever, you know, just one person makes some kind of a crazy mistake, those kids can get hurt.

NEAL: John, they've lived with these arms. They've lived with these firearms for as long as they been around.

JOHN COX: You, you saw what happened last Sunday, didn't you?

NEAL: Yeah, and that was the --

JOHN COX: It wasn't good, was it?

NEAL: -- fault of the B.A.T.F. It had nothing to do with us.

JOHN COX: Hey, I am not here to judge whose fault it is. That's not my job. A court of law will judge whose fault it was. It's not my job. But what I am telling you is those children are not going to get put back in an environment where if anybody makes a mistake, they can be harmed. And I hope you understand that. And I'm not saying whether it's your mistake or David's or Steven's or A.T.F.'s mistake, or the F.B.I.'s mistake. But I think that I owe it, we owe it to those kids --

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: -- to insure that they don't have to be in that environment. I don't want them harmed, do you?

NEAL: No, but --

JOHN COX: Sure, you don't.

NEAL: -- that environment out there, too, is just as bad, I mean --

JOHN COX: Well, you made, you made a decision to send your daughter out, didn't you?

NEAL: Huh?

JOHN COX: You made a decision to send your child out?

NEAL: This is true.

JOHN COX: So, you made that decision of your -- NEAL: You're right.

JOHN COX: -- own free will. Nobody forced you to make it, did they?

NEAL: Well, --

JOHN COX: Huh?

NEAL: Huh?

JOHN COX: Nobody forced you to make that decision, did they?

NEAL: That's true, John, that's true. I sent them out.

JOHN COX: So, so, it was a -- it was a willful decision to send your child out?

NEAL: Yes.

JOHN COX: And, so, you had to have a reason for sending your child out, didn't you?

NEAL: This is so that this could come to an end.

JOHN COX: That's the bottom line, isn't it?

NEAL: Yes.

JOHN COX: And that's all I wish for, too, huh?

NEAL: But if you're talking about environment --

JOHN COX: Do you, you think that your child is in a worse environment now than your child was in before?

NEAL: Oh, Waco, the killings that take place out there is -- I don't see any difference. The same people that attacked this place are the same people already out there.

JOHN COX: Your child's being fed three days -- your, your child is being fed three meals a day --

NEAL: Yeah.

JOHN COX: -- in a nice warm bed in a nice environment.

NEAL: I appreciate that.

JOHN COX: And, and because we care. And I'm not telling you -- I'm not saying you don't care.

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: You love your child. You tell me how it's going to be resolved. I wish I had the answer. You tell me you think how this is going to be resolved.

NEAL: See, John, we live day-by-day every day and we --

JOHN COX: Yeah, but we shouldn't have to, Neal, should we?

NEAL: Well, you know, that's just the way the world is.

JOHN COX: No, the world doesn't have to be that way. I was living day-by-day in another state a week ago. But it doesn't have to be that way. And it's through reasoning and it's through common sense and it's through communications that this thing is going to be resolved peacefully and nobody's going to be harmed. Wouldn't you like to see that happen?

NEAL: Well, let me put it this way, man doesn't have the answer.

JOHN COX: Oh, I hope he does.

NEAL: He doesn't.

JOHN COX: I hope some sound judgement and reasoning will prevail.

NEAL: No. We've gone generation after generation. There's been a screw-up. There's been snowballing. And it's going to get worse and worse. We do not have the answer. Yes, the book that we --

JOHN COX: I'm listening.

NEAL: I'm talking about a book.

JOHN COX: I'm listening to you.

NEAL: Yeah, I'm talking about a book --

JOHN COX: Uh-huh.

NEAL: -- that not too many people believe in yet. They go every Sunday -- they go to church every Sunday, they go to sabbath every Sunday. And that's what we do. And then after that, it's back to --

JOHN COX: Who?
NEAL: -- their own normal lives and they do
--

JOHN COX: Who?
NEAL: People.

JOHN COX: Just think of the ones that don't go to church.

NEAL: Yeah, oh. They probably have a better chance than those who do go to church.

JOHN COX: Well, I hope not. I hope not.
NEAL: Well, --

JOHN COX: I mean I go to church and, and you go to church, right?

NEAL: True.

JOHN COX: And even though we may not totally believe the same thing, we do believe that there is somebody stronger than us, don't we?

NEAL: True. And we believe that he has the answer.

JOHN COX: Well, it may even be a she but there is an answer, isn't there?

NEAL: Right, there is an answer.

JOHN COX: Sure. And --
NEAL: And it's in your fingertips.

JOHN COX: And you and I are going to accept that answer some day, aren't we?
NEAL: Well, you're going to face it one way or the other, whether we like it or not, whether we're good or bad.

JOHN COX: Well, we are. We are.

NEAL: Yes.

JOHN COX: And we all have to answer for our actions, don't we?

NEAL: I think we are.

JOHN COX: You know? But just -- I think, as I told David and I told Steven, you know --

NEAL: Uh-huh.

JOHN COX: -- the Lord is charitable, too. And, and so is the system. And, and I just want you to understand that your children are going to be cared for and that if you want to insure their safety and their, their upbringing, all you have to do is come out and be with them and nothing's going to happen to you. I'll guarantee you that. But the system will prevail. You know that and I know that. The system will prevail.

NEAL: Well, there is a system that was once --

JOHN COX: No.

NEAL: -- based on God.

JOHN COX: It's going to be a system today and it's going to be a system next week and it will prevail.

    NEAL: Well, I think the, the government and the bureaucracy has gotten a lot bigger than it should be. It's not as simple as it was. The Constitution has been stepped on. People --
    JOHN COX: Well, it has.
    NEAL: -- come on this property and do whatever they want.
    JOHN COX: I can't argue -- I can't argue that. But people have viol -- you say the Constitution has been stepped on.
    NEAL: Sure, it has.
    JOHN COX: That's the law of the land, isn't it?
    NEAL: It's been violated.
    JOHN COX: And you have to live by it and I have to live by it.
    NEAL: I wish you'd live by it.
    JOHN COX: Huh?
    NEAL: I wish people would live by it and --
    JOHN COX: Don't we all?
    NEAL: Yeah.
    JOHN COX: David was telling me that if he hadn't been in the religious profession, he would have loved to have been a law enforcement officer.
