(Tape 82)

DICK: -- you have not lost any rights, you will not lose any rights. All you have to do is exercise those rights. And to do that is a simple matter: come out and make your voice known. That's, that's it, simply; it's simply that.

WAYNE: My voice is already known. Everyone knows that you have a practicing attorney, under siege --

DICK: Well, let's practice then, Wayne.

WAYNE: -- under siege cutoff from the courts. Everyone knows that. How do you, how do you think that looks for you?

DICK: Come out and practice. That's all we ask, Wayne, nothing more.

WAYNE: That's funny, that's funny.

DICK: Nothing more. You come out and you use the education and the experience that you have to represent those people along with others to represent those people inside and to ensure that the information that you want to furnish the outside world is furnished to them so that the inquiry can go forward so that this will never happen again; so if there are agents involved in wrongdoing that, that they're handled appropriately and the matter will go forward.
As long as you're staying in there we can't go forward with that part of this whole incident. All of us want to do that. We're not here because we enjoy being here.

WAYNE: You enjoy what you're doing.
DICK: I don't enjoy what I'm doing -- WAYNE: There are a bunch of perverts in the FBI and you knew it.
DICK: Well --
WAYNE: You enjoy what you do.
DICK: -- explain that to me. Explain that to me, please.
WAYNE: Well, I don't have to explain that to you. You know J. Edgar Hoover's record. You know the videotape. You know the books written about him.
How long have you been with the FBI?
DICK: A good long while.
WAYNE: Who recruited you?
DICK: What does that have to do with what's going on here today?
WAYNE: I'm asking you a question. Don't you know was the director when you joined the FBI?
DICK: Well, you know, the director of the FBI did not recruit me personally. You know that.

WAYNE: No, but --

DICK: Are you asking me who the director was at that time?

WAYNE: Somebody that worked for him did.

DICK: J. Edgar Hoover was the director at that time, yes.

WAYNE: Yeah, see, I knew it. I just knew it.

DICK: You just knew that?

WAYNE: Oh, yeah, I knew that.

DICK: Well, you know --

WAYNE: Because your agency hasn't changed.

DICK: -- the answer is right there. The answer is right there.

WAYNE: Your agency has not changed in all of these years.

DICK: It hasn't?

WAYNE: It has not.

DICK: Well, there have been many people that have suggested that it has.

WAYNE: Well, then why is William B. Sessions being kicked out?

DICK: William B. Sessions is not being kicked out. When, when did you get that pearl of wisdom?

WAYNE: The whole nation knows that the bureaucracy within the FBI cannot get along with its director, William B. Sessions.

DICK: Well, that's not at all true.

WAYNE: That is true.

DICK: You read in the newspaper certain accounts presented by certain people. You think that is, is the answer, what you read in the newspaper? It's absolutely not the answer. All --

WAYNE: I'd like to read my newspaper, you know, I paid for it. Who's getting my newspaper? Who's getting my mail?

DICK: Now, Wayne, let me ask you something.

WAYNE: Who's taking care of my clients?

DICK: There's no --

WAYNE: Who's got my, my, my, my, my law office telephone all rigged up?

DICK: Not, not the FBI. Is that, is that what you're going to suggest?

WAYNE: You said you're in charge.

DICK: No, I -- Wayne, you're an attorney and you know that is 100 percent inaccurate, 100 percent.
WAYNE: Law of agency, Dick. I'm an attorney.

DICK: Okay.

WAYNE: I know about the law of agency.

DICK: That makes me, that makes me in charge because you know about the law of agencies?

WAYNE: That means you get to be -- you get your name on the lawsuit. That's, that's what it means, Dick.

DICK: Come on ahead. Come on ahead. I'm willing, I'm willing --

WAYNE: Fine. Then you open --

DICK: -- I'm willing to accept that if we can get this resolved.

WAYNE: -- you open, open up a communication link with the outside --

DICK: It will be opened.

WAYNE: -- and we'll put your name on the lawsuit, okay?

DICK: David -- I mean, Wayne, I will leave you my business card and you can name me in this lawsuit.

WAYNE: Where can I pick up your business card?

DICK: As soon as you come out I'll be there to hand it to you.

WAYNE: That's funny.

DICK: I'll be there to hand it to you, or I'll leave it at a place of your choosing.

WAYNE: I, I guess you'll put it on my body as a body count won't you?

DICK: Wayne, that is unreasonable, it's, it's nonsense and you know it.

WAYNE: It's not nonsense.

DICK: You're an attorney. You know that that is absolutely untrue.

WAYNE: I know your government has been corrupt ever since it killed its leader back in what was it, '63, and failed to investigate and find out who did it, who was responsible for it.

DICK: If you have those answers, Wayne, please make them available to us at your earliest convenience.

WAYNE: When is the investigation going to start?

DICK: As soon as you folks come out of there so we can get it -- we're already starting the investigation. The congressional inquiry has already been set in motion, all right? Obviously, to, to complete it --
WAYNE: Really? Whose committee? Who's the chairman?

DICK: I -- you know what, I haven't read a newspaper since I've been in, in this city, not one newspaper --

WAYNE: Well --

DICK: -- not one.

WAYNE: -- somebody's reading my newspaper.

DICK: Well, I'll tell you if it'll make you happy we'll ensure that your, your newspaper is delivered to you as long as you like.

WAYNE: As long as I like?

DICK: Listen, David, once again we made an agreement concerning, concerning --

WAYNE: I'm not going to discuss David's agreements.

DICK: -- the third seal.

WAYNE: I'm not going to discuss David's agreements with you.

DICK: All right. I'm suggesting to you though --

WAYNE: I don't think you're competent to make an agreement.

DICK: Really?
WAYNE: Really.

DICK: Okay. How, how would you suggest it's done then?

WAYNE: I think it should be done in the public.

DICK: Absolutely. What have we been saying for three days? I'll agree with you --

WAYNE: So put, put, put David's --

DICK: -- 100 percent.

WAYNE: -- agreement out there in the public, okay?

DICK: 100 percent. David can come out and make --

WAYNE: And let David discuss it.

DICK: Absolutely. We've asked him to do that, put David --

WAYNE: With the public.

DICK: What have we been asking him to do for three days?

WAYNE: You've been lying.

DICK: Do you get any kind of feedback in there?

WAYNE: You've been lying to the public. You've been saying that you used no military weapons here. Three choppers with machine guns blazing at us?
DICK: Wayne, that is completely untrue.

WAYNE: That's completely untrue, huh?

DICK: There were helicopters. Not one helicopter had a machine gun in use.

WAYNE: There was a chopper that was tearing apart rooms in this building not identifying any targets.

DICK: David -- Wayne, if you have that information come out and share it with us, okay?

WAYNE: It was David Koresh's room.

DICK: If you have people in there that know that to be true then obviously we want to have that information. ATF --

WAYNE: Well, if, if our people can come out --

DICK: Listen, Wayne --

WAYNE: -- and talk to the --

DICK: -- listen.

WAYNE: -- public then how come Catherine Madison hasn't been allowed to talk to the public? When is she going to get her press conference? What about her rights?

DICK: Wayne, let's talk about here and now.

WAYNE: No, let's talk about that for a second.
DICK: Refresh my memory. Catherine Madison?

WAYNE: You need refreshing? What did you do to her?

DICK: Who is Catherine Madison?

WAYNE: Is she still alive?

DICK: You talking about the Catherine Madison that was inside there?

WAYNE: Aren't you talking about us coming out there?

DICK: Absolutely.

WAYNE: Okay. So, we have --

DICK: She is a material witness.

WAYNE: -- we have.

DICK: She is a material witness. She's not been charged. She is a material witness.

WAYNE: Look. I'm not going to believe you if you say she hasn't been charged.

DICK: Did you hear --

WAYNE: Don't waste my time.

DICK: -- did you hear the press, did you hear the press, the, the press --

WAYNE: Let me talk to the press.

DICK: You will.

WAYNE: No, let me talk --
DICK: You will have every --
WAYNE: -- to them now.
DICK: Wayne, when I offer you information --
WAYNE: Give me back my rights.
DICK: -- you reject it, okay? Every time I make a statement as to what is, then you refute it and come up with something else.
WAYNE: No, you make statements about what shall be. You, you haven't made any statements to me about what is.
DICK: What is is that we offered you, that you meaning collectively, the, the bunch of you, the folks out there in the compound, a lot of different options.
WAYNE: No, you haven't.
DICK: You have made --
WAYNE: You've made a lot of ultimatums --
DICK: You have made --
WAYNE: -- a lot of threats --
DICK: David has made some agreements --
WAYNE: -- a lot of demands. You sit your tanks on our cemetery. You know, that's a, that's a criminal offense in the State of Texas?
DICK: Then, then charge us.
WAYNE: When is the sheriff going to --

DICK: Charge us.

WAYNE: -- do something about that?

DICK: When are you going to come out of there? Let's get it done. You put -- if you think that we -- what we have done is illegal then you file the, the suits.

WAYNE: I think you're a bunch of perverts, really.

DICK: Well, you're -- once again you're entitled to your opinion. I certainly wouldn't question your opinion. You have the right to offer that. I obviously disagree with it but you have the right to offer --

WAYNE: Well, you're asking us to surrender to an agency of the government that had a pervert for its leader at the time that you were recruited. Now, come on, Dick, really.

DICK: You think I'm going to sit there -- here and engage you in debate about a man that has been dead since 1973?

WAYNE: He hired you.

DICK: What is your point there? What is your point?

WAYNE: You met his standards, right? So
I'm supposed to trust you?

DICK: Wayne, you're an attorney. You can advise those folks inside about the procedures that need to be followed, that must be followed, and that will be followed.

WAYNE: I've advised them how you have broken the constitution over and over again.

DICK: Okay. Again, if that's what you believe --

WAYNE: Every moment that you deny them access to the media you are violating their Bill of Rights.

DICK: Wayne, I'm not going to sit here and debate you.

WAYNE: Now, I cannot advise those people to trust you --

DICK: Well --

WAYNE: -- to have confidence in you.

DICK: -- those people apparently are relying on you and if you're giving them that type of information then you're doing them a disservice. You're doing them a disservice. They had legitimate, honest questions which they posed to me. I asked them to talk with you in addition to accepting the information from me and that you should be able to provide them that sort of information. Now, if you have chosen not to or if you've chosen to give them erroneous information then that is your responsibility, it is not mine. If they rely on you for the truth and you give them lies or inaccuracies or untruths, then that is unfortunate because those people need to rely on you.

WAYNE: You came out here, you violated the Fourth Amendment on search and seizure.

DICK: Really?

WAYNE: Really. You're denying them their First Amendment access to, to -- DICK: You're aware that they had a search warrant, are you not, and an arrest warrant? Are you aware of that?

WAYNE: You don't serve a warrant by piling out of vehicles with your guns blazing.

DICK: Well, if that's what was done then make that known to the appropriate people and appropriate courts and appropriate judges and the appropriate jury.

WAYNE: No, you listen for a second. If that's what was done, you charge those people, you investigate those people and you dismiss the charges --

DICK: Absolutely.
WAYNE: -- if they -- if they're not founded.

DICK: Well, hold it. You mean, you mean to tell me that you think that we should file charges because you say that this was done? If that's the case, come out and talk to us about it. Go before the appropriate personnel, before the appropriate magistrate. Give your testimony and then if the magistrate finds probable cause he will obviously go ahead and, and charge the ATF. File your appropriate affidavits and complaints.

WAYNE: Give Catherine Madison access to the media.

DICK: Catherine Madison is in protective custody.

WAYNE: She's already out. Have you forgotten that?

DICK: That's true, and she's not been charged.

WAYNE: How come she hasn't had access to the media?

DICK: I don't know that she hasn't had access to the media. I don't know what --

WAYNE: Why don't you ask her?

DICK: Because we're trying to deal with this issue here. This is --

WAYNE: Because? What, what kind of answer is that?

DICK: No, listen, you're, you're trying to dodge the question. You just asked me about --

WAYNE: No, I'm asking the question again.
DICK: No, listen.

WAYNE: Why don't you ask her?
DICK: I'm going to answer the ATF question first.

WAYNE: Don't tell me no.
DICK: You said that --

WAYNE: Tell me yes. Ask her. You got the phones, you got all of these people working for you, ask her.

DICK: Wayne, did you ask me a question?
I'd like to respond to the question. You asked me why have the ATF agents that were involved in the incident on Sunday not been charged.

WAYNE: I just asked you why Catherine
Madison hasn't been given a press conference.

DICK: Now, hold it, let me answer the first question first and then I'll go to the second question.

WAYNE: No, you will answer the --
DICK: That's the way things are normally done.

WAYNE: -- you will answer the question on Catherine Madison first.

DICK: Listen. I have nothing further to say to you, Wayne. If you cannot, if you cannot talk with me and allow me to answer those questions for you then you and I have nothing more to say to one another.

WAYNE: Who do you want to talk to then?

DICK: I want to talk to David once again so we can iron out this agreement that we had prior to my dealing with the third seal.

WAYNE: He doesn't want to talk to you. You want to talk to Steve?

DICK: No. I need to talk to David. David is the one that --

WAYNE: He doesn't want to talk to you.

DICK: -- David is the one that had agreed to release those children upon completion of this, this study and this finding of the third seal. We have done that once again.

WAYNE: Have you called the, have you called the faculty of Baylor yet? I was standing here when he talked to you.
DICK: All right.

WAYNE: Said, you know, call some experts.

DICK: There are a number of things that we're in the process of doing and most of which or some of which obviously I'm not at liberty to tell you. We will do what we feel is necessary to do, but what I want to do is get back to the agreement that we had, that is David and I, had prior my spending several hours attempting to research the third seal. He and I went into the third seal, we talked about it at some length, both of us reading passages from the Bible and he trying to help me understand the third seal.

WAYNE: Okay. Well then, you're, you're accountable for the third seal, you know that? You're accountable for keeping the truth about the seven seals from reaching the public right now.

DICK: Wayne, I'll tell --

WAYNE: Do you know that -- what that means?

It means --

DICK: -- I'll tell you what. You know what?

WAYNE: -- it means, it means that God is going to hold you responsible.

DICK: That's what David tells me and I will accept that from David. However, Wayne, you're an attorney. Let's deal with the area that you have some expertise in and if you have that expertise please use it to the advantage of those folks inside, all right?
You apparently are the only attorney in there, they've asked you for advice and you have the responsibility to give them the advice that they asked of you.

WAYS: That's not my problem that I'm the only attorney that they can talk to. That's your problem. You're the one that cut them off from all the attorneys out there.

DICK: Listen, let me --
WAYS: Don't, don't drop that on me.

That's not my problem.

DICK: Listen, let's you and I get one thing straight, okay?

WAYS: That's not my problem.

DICK: Let's get one thing straight.

WAYS: Hey, I'm not working for you.

DICK: The media --
WAYS: I'm not working for you, Dick.

DICK: The media is available. Are you finished?

WAYS: Are you going to change your attitude?

DICK: Wayne --

WAYNE: You need to drop that.

DICK: -- perhaps --

WAYNE: I'm not the one cutting these people off from legal advice, you are.

DICK: We're not cutting anyone off from legal advice. The lawyers will be standing in line to represent you folks.

WAYNE: No, you said right now I'm the only one.

DICK: Inside. Are you not the only attorney inside there with the folks there?

WAYNE: Let's not --

DICK: If, if I'm wrong about that --

WAYNE: -- let's not tease each other. We got telephones. Patch one in.

DICK: Put Steve on the line will you, please?

WAYNE: Put Jerry Spence on.

DICK: I'm not putting Jerry Spence on. I'm the one that's talking to you now. If you don't choose to talk to me, put Steve on.

WAYNE: Put William Kunstler on.

DICK: I just told you --
WAYNE: Oh, you're not going to do it?

DICK: -- I'm not putting -- William Kunstler will be one of those standing at the head of the line.

WAYNE: Standing where?

DICK: Waiting to represent you folks.

WAYNE: At the mortuary, right?

DICK: Wayne, you know, perhaps you'd better put somebody else on, okay? Why don't you put Steve on, please?

WAYNE: He wants to talk to you, Steve.

STEVE: Hello, Dick?

DICK: Yeah, Steve, how are you this afternoon? Listen, I want to let you know that apparently the repairmen need to do some -- need to access some water -- pumping -- the pumping station up there at the T intersection. I just wanted to let you know that they'll be up there and, and conducting some business up there.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: Please, make sure that there's nothing that's done that, that, that's of concern to those folks. They're just doing their job out there, all right?

STEVE: Well, you know, we haven't done anything up to this time.
DICK: No, I understand that.
STEVE: Okay.
DICK: I just, I just want to refresh --
STEVE: All right
DICK: -- you know, the rules of safety. I just want to make sure they're clear in both of our minds. Listen, I'm going to leave you here shortly, but let me, let me go over one thing with you if you will.
STEVE: All right. I'm listening.
DICK: No, I, I took David at his word. I did quite a little research in, in --
STEVE: Okay.
DICK: -- on the third seal, all right? A significant amount, and I did it -- took David at his word that, that he would, would release those children once we talked about the third seal. And I didn't tell him that I had all the answers because if, if I did I certainly wouldn't be here, would I? I didn't have the answers, I don't have the answers, I don't, I don't say that I do. I'm not arrogant to suggest that I do have the answers, I'm not disrespectful. What I did do was attempt to develop some information so that he and I could talk together and that I could understand something more than I, I formerly understood about the third seal. We did that. And then once again, David elected to suggest that well, I didn't tell him in the manner that he found acceptable. That, that shows me that the man is not a man of his word, he's not the man of conviction, he's not a man of truth. Through these past days he tells me he's the man of truth. That's not truthful to do that, you know? I went through this --

STEVE: Dick, I'm amazed at -- do you have Jesuit training or something?

DICK: Absolutely not.

STEVE: Do you know what a Jesuit is? It's a man that spends a lot of years in, in rationalizing, reasoning, understanding the psychologies of man and how to debate and deal with them. You get off on -- I was sitting here when he gave you the challenge, Dick, in honesty I sat here. He wanted you to go whatever source it took, whether the Papacy, whether a minister, whether -- any kind of a scholar and bring back showing where that seal is located. It was a challenge for your own benefit, for your ultimate eternal benefit. If you can show where that seal is, he is wrong in everything. People --

DICK: No, listen --
STEVE: Listen.

DICK: Okay. Go ahead.

STEVE: Listen, honestly, if you could do that, if you can do it, people will walk out of here so quickly seeing that he is not the only one that's...

DICK: I understand that's what he's saying.

STEVE: That is...

DICK: However, my...

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- understanding was that I was to tell him and discuss what the third seal --

STEVE: That --

DICK: -- is; not where it is --

STEVE: -- I -- Dick --

DICK: -- but what it is.

STEVE: -- I, I didn't hear that, honestly.

I heard --

DICK: Well, my understanding was to -- that we were to discuss what it was --

STEVE: Do you have a tape that you could --

DICK: -- not where --

STEVE: -- play back, play back of that conversation?

DICK: -- not where it is.
STEVE: If you play back the conversation of what you two agreed to -- I heard what he had to say; obviously I could not hear what you were saying. But I did hear what he was saying and, and the challenge was clear because I saw that in your attempt to do so if you could find someone, I mean, it is the step of all steps, people would be out of here. It would show me also that the man is no different than any other scholar that has an ability to study that book whether -- no matter what denomination or no religion. If someone can show where that seal is located in the rest of the writings of that book, well then there's no need to be here at all; his challenge is bogus, it's been foolishness and it's not been a great experience.

DICK: I'll tell you what. Let's do it this way. You get together with him, you sit down and write out that that self same answer. You get together with David, you put that down on paper in that fashion, you send it out with some children; we will then do the research and we will get together at that point. All right. I want specifically from David that agreement on paper, all right? I can't accept this any longer word of mouth, I must have it on paper. You put it on paper or on tape which you have inside there and you send it to me, all right?
You're telling the, the people that -- you're telling us that he's a man of his word; we will determine that. You put it down, send it out with the kids and we'll --

STEVE: Dick --
DICK: -- and we'll get that resolved.
STEVE: -- Dick, aren't you a little bit concerned about this government and, and the direction that it's --

DICK: Steve, don't bag the question. I just asked you to do that.

STEVE: No, no, but I, I listened to attorney Martin talk to you. I -- you know, the first thing that has bothered me more than anything else?
DICK: What's that?
STEVE: Well, just the very issues he brought up to you about our constitutional rights, about the First and Fourth Amendments. I heard him very clearly --

DICK: Really?
STEVE: -- talk to you about it. And there is no question that there is total disregard for those rights.

DICK: All right. Listen, I told you yesterday --

STEVE: You --

DICK: -- I put in 22 years as an FBI agent --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- I'm perfectly aware of Fourth Amendment responsibilities, all right? The agents that were there were there to serve a lawful search warrant issued by a magistrate --

STEVE: But you --

DICK: -- a federal magistrate.

STEVE: -- you forget. I mean, you might have been -- your agency, your experience might have been positive through the years where you've done things right. And I've never heard, like I told you before negative things about. I was an eyewitness also as to what took place. It was the most shocking, appalling thing that I've ever seen. And to think that such a, a power had that ability or was allowed to do such a thing, what does it tell the human psyche? What does it tell any individual? I mean, why even make a move until we see some response as to an investigation going on and these men that did such a thing?

DICK: Steve, David challenged me, all right? Apparently he has it in his own mind that I fell short of the challenge. I am challenging David and you to write down the thing that we just talked about which will set the limits of this, of this agreement.

STEVE: Okay. I am going to --

DICK: That is the agreement, to show you the seals.

STEVE: -- what I will do all that you've asked, that which you have requested. I'm going to talk to him about it.

DICK: You write that down and you send that out with some children; we will work on it and we will get it done, if that's what it takes. You put it down. Is that too much to ask? No, it's certainly not. You put it down and we'll deal with that issue. I'm going to let you go. You get to David. You tell him we'll take it in one form or another.

STEVE: How long will you be around -- Dick, how long will you be around yet today?

DICK: I'll be here for a while yet.

STEVE: You will? Okay.

DICK: You get to him, you sit down, you write this up or you put it on tape. I'm asking you for one or the other, or the other, all right? You send it out with the children -- some children. We will then agree. I will get back to you then or a representative of, of, of the team here, we'll get back to you. We will get it straight and we will do this. David says if we do that he will come out. We will take the man at his word. I want it on paper. I want it on paper or on tape.

STEVE: Well, of course, you know, I'm going to have to ask him about the statements you said he made --

DICK: Well --

STEVE: -- about his coming out in regards to -- he, he said about himself, the group, tell me? Because I didn't hear.

DICK: All right. You, you get with him --

STEVE: All right.

DICK: -- and you ask him what it is that he said, okay? You tell him that Dick has issued the challenge to him and I expect him to accept that challenge, I expect him to sit down and do that, because that's what he tells me that he will do and that's, that's his counterproposal to these things that we have offered; he has come to us with this suggestion and we're willing to work on it. I will get back to you; you get to David and, and you tell me what your response to that is.

STEVE: How much time is it that you want?
DICK: Well, it doesn't -- shouldn't take but a few minutes.

STEVE: Well, just tell me so I can plan on being back at the phone here.
DICK: Okay. It's 4:30. I'll be back to you at 5 o'clock.

STEVE: Sounds good.
DICK: Very well.
STEVE: Talk to you then.
DICK: Good-bye.
STEVE: Bye.

* * * * *

STEVE: Hello?
DICK: Steve? Dick.
STEVE: Yeah.
DICK: Did you get ahold of David?
STEVE: He's right here.
DICK: All right. Let me speak with him, please.

STEVE: Okay. Just a moment.
(Pause)

STEVE: Me first? Okay. He said talk to me first. He's trying to finish his meal right now.
He's just eating here, finishing up here.

DICK: All right. Did you propose to him what I suggested?

STEVE: Yes, I did.

DICK: What was his response?

STEVE: He hasn't given me one.

DICK: All right. Well, perhaps he wants to give it directly to me.

STEVE: Apparently so.

DICK: Good. I'll, I'll wait here until he finishes his meal and, and we'll get it down on, on paper or tape and --

STEVE: Okay.

DICK: -- we'll move on.

STEVE: Shall I -- I'll tell you what. As soon as he's done, or as soon as he's done eating his meal there I'll call you back then.

DICK: All right. Call me right back.

STEVE: Okay, and David's telling me right now he wants to send some pictures out to you.

DICK: That's fine. We'll, we'll be happy to.

STEVE: That's fine.

DICK: We'll be happy to. You can send them out with the kids.
STEVE: Did you want to still talk to some of the women or the babies?

DICK: Certainly, we'll be happy to.

STEVE: He said certainly, he'll be happy to.

DICK: I'll talk with them until David finishes his meal.

STEVE: All right.

DICK: It's my understanding he's going to send you some pictures with some kids?

STEVE: Apparently so. I -- I don't know about the kids. Ask him or them. I mean, I don't know that. Okay. Do you want to talk to him? Do you want to talk to him? I've got someone just smiling at me. They act like they don't want to, but here they are. Go ahead. He's --

DICK: Tell them I don't bite, I don't bite.

STEVE: I, I -- go ahead.

DICK: Hello?

JULIE: Hello?

DICK: Who's this?

JULIE: Julie.

DICK: Julie, how are you?

JULIE: Okay.

DICK: Listen, I know you have some questions and some concerns and you may be somewhat reluctant to, to ask me. Please don't, don't hesitate. I'll be able to answer questions for you.

Do you have children in there?

JULIE: Yes.

DICK: How many children do you have?

JULIE: Five.

DICK: Five children? What are their names, Julie, and what is your last name?

JULIE: Well, I'm Mexican.

DICK: Pardon me?

JULIE: I'm, I'm, I'm, I'm Mexican.

DICK: All right. Well, what's your last name?

JULIE: Huh?

DICK: What's your last name?

JULIE: Martinez.

DICK: Martinez?

JULIE: Um-hum.

DICK: All right, and what are the names of your children and how old are they?

JULIE: Just a minute.

(Pause)

JULIE: We'll send some pictures out with their ages.
DICK: Okay. You going to send the kids out with some pictures? Is that --

JULIE: No.

DICK: -- is that Audry, Abbey and Joseph?

JULIE: Yeah.

DICK: That's three of them? Who are the other two?

JULIE: It's Crystal.

DICK: Crista? And who old is Crista?

JULIE: Crystal.

DICK: Crystal, I'm sorry. Crystal is how old?

JULIE: Well, they said, you know, we're going to be sending out some pictures.

DICK: Okay. With the kids, with, with Audry, Abbey and Joseph and Crystal? You're sending them out with the pictures?

JULIE: No. We'll send a picture of them.

DICK: Oh, okay. And what, what, what's the name of your other child?

JULIE: Isaiah.

DICK: I'm sorry? Josea?

JULIE: Isaiah.

DICK: Isaiah. Okay How old is Crystal?

JULIE: Well, they're going to put their age on the picture.

DICK: Okay. So you have pictures of the children that you're sending out?

JULIE: Yeah.

DICK: All right, and you're sending out pictures of other children as well?

JULIE: I suppose so.

DICK: Okay. Do you want to come out with your children?

JULIE: Well, not at the time, no.

DICK: Well, David has given me his assurance that you're, that you're able to leave just by telling him that. So please, if, if you feel more comfortable leaving with your children I'm sure David will understand that and, and he'll welcome and allow you to do that.

JULIE: Well, if I go out all you guys are going to do is put me in prison.

DICK: No, that's not true at all. That's not true at all. Not, not everybody is going to be charged. Not everybody was involved in the shooting, and in addition to that, you may well have a self-defense defense anyway because I know the fellows in there are convinced that the ATF came up there shooting and if --
JULIE: Yeah, well, my room was -- my room is the room right above the door --
DICK: Sure.
JULIE: -- and my -- you know, I'm surprised, you know, we're still alive.
DICK: How old is Crystal?
JULIE: Three.
DICK: Okay, and Isaiah?
JULIE: Well --
DICK: Young, younger than Crystal?
JULIE: No.
DICK: Little older than Crystal?
JULIE: Yeah.
DICK: Okay. Well, listen, you know, I, I know what -- that you -- you know, you have to report what you saw. Okay. I wasn't there, others were not there in the same room with you. If you are in a room with bullets coming through the walls and that sort of thing then you have to let the authorities know.
JULIE: I just barely had time to, to get my children and duck to the floor, you know --
DICK: Okay.
JULIE: -- drop down to the floor.
DICK: Well, then you need to report that, you need to report that to ensure that it never happens again. And a way for you to do that and, and at the same time to provide the care and love that your children need is to come on out with them.

JULIE: Well --

DICK: Do you have some questions for me? I know you're concerned about going to jail, but I'm telling you that not everybody is going to go to jail. Look how many people are in there. You think that all of you are going to jail? See, that's just not accurate.

JULIE: Yeah, but I mean, you know --

DICK: I know this is a scary thing for you because you've not been through anything like this. None of us have. None of us have been through this. But I know there are some questions that you probably want to ask that, that I can, that I can clear up for you. I hope David or, or Wayne didn't tell you that you were all going to jail because that's just absolutely --

JULIE: No, they didn't.

DICK: Okay. Well, that's not true and, and that's just not accurate. What we're going --

JULIE: David -- you know, David tells us that if we want to go -- he told me that I -- if, if I wanted --
DICK: Okay.

JULIE: -- to go I could go.

DICK: Well then, if you want to go ahead. You know, if you don't want to I'm not -- obviously I can't force you to leave and if, if you --

JULIE: I just don't -- you know, I'm not --

DICK: Do you want to send the kids out then and you stay and send the kids out?

JULIE: I don't know what you guys are doing to our kids.

DICK: Okay. Well, let me explain that to you. I can answer that for you. All the kids are together and they're being cared for awaiting the return of their parents.

JULIE: But I'm hearing a lot of things on the radio.

DICK: Yeah, but what you're hearing -- what are you hearing that you're concerned about?

JULIE: The what?

DICK: What, what are you hearing that you're worried about?

JULIE: Well, that, you know, how the kids are all -- that they're, you know, messed up in their mind and that, you know, just because they're well behaved that they're, they're not normal and, you know, are they being treated --

    DICK: Well, I hope that's not accurate.

    JULIE: -- are they being treated like, you know, there's something wrong with them?

    DICK: Absolutely not.

    JULIE: No?

    DICK: You know, no one that I am aware of will ever mistreat a child. You know, some -- JULIE: Well, they did here. They came and shot at us when we -- they knew that we had a lot of children here.

    DICK: Well, that's -- if that's what you believe happened then that's what you need to tell the courts, you need to tell the newspapers, you need to tell the TV people, you need to tell everyone that. You as a parent must tell people that. It's very important that you do so it won't happen to somebody else or somebody else's children. Please do that. We, we welcome that. ATF will tell their side of the story so it's absolutely essential that you tell your side. But if nobody comes out then that can't be done. So how are people going to come up with answers if they don't know what happened?

    JULIE: I don't know.

    DICK: Well, you need to start thinking about it.

JULIE: Well --

DICK: That's, that's what you have to do.

You have the responsibility as a parent to care for your children and provide the children with love and affection and care and you can't do it while they're in there under these conditions.

JULIE: I don't know what to do. I don't --

DICK: Well, I can tell you what to do.

JULIE: I want to talk to my brother.

DICK: Well, you'll be able to talk to your brother. Give me your brother's name.

JULIE: His name is Joe Santoyo.

DICK: Joe?

JULIE: Yeah.

DICK: Santoyo?

DICK: All right. What's his telephone number?

JULIE: Just a minute. He lives in, in Mesa, Arizona.

DICK: All right.

JULIE: And it's Area Code (602) --

DICK: (602) --

JULIE: -- 464--
DICK: -- 464--
JULIE: -- 4325.
DICK: -- 4325. All right. I can tell by talking to you that you would feel very much more comfortable if you send your children out. Tell David you'd like to send the children out with the pictures that he's going to send --
JULIE: I, I --
DICK: Listen, send them out. I know you want to send your children out. I can hear it in your voice and I understand that. You're concerned about your children as good mothers are. I know you want to leave. I know you want to send your kids out. Please send your children out. David will let you send -- come out. David has repeated that you're all free to go and that if you stay it's your choice, so please let it be that if you, if you choose to stay. But your children are not old enough to make those decisions. Send them out.
JULIE: They don't want to go.
DICK: Well, listen, come on, please --
JULIE: They, they said they don't want, you know -- DICK: That --
JULIE: -- that, that they want to be with DICK: Well, you come out with them. You come out with them. There's no reason you can't --

JULIE: If, if, if I go out I mean, you know, being here is the only way that we could be together. If I go out you guys are going to separate us.

DICK: Listen. I've sent photographs in, I've sent tapes in.

JULIE: But you won't let, you won't let me be with my children if I go out.

DICK: Well --

JULIE: They'll put my in jail and they'll take them away.

DICK: The two ladies that left did not -- they're, they're -- protective custody for a short while but you'll be reunited with your children. It's your -- you know, it's your responsibility to make decisions for those kids until they're old enough to do that. They are certainly not old enough to do that now, are they? Do you think your children are old enough to make those kinds of decisions now? They're not. You know that. I know -- I can tell you're a caring parent just talking to you. I, I know it's, it's, it's rough, but David has assured us that you're free to go and you're certainly free to send your children out. Please, as a parent send your child out -- send your children out. They'll be well cared for. We have your brother Joe's name. We'll be in touch with Joe. We'll provide all the care and custody for the children.

JULIE: I want to talk to my brother.

DICK: Well, you can talk to your brother as soon as you come out, but right now send the children out. I will call your brother and explain that while you would like to come out you'll send the children out immediately and that you want to ensure that he knows that the kids are here and that you're going to be reunited with the kids as soon as possible but in the meantime to please ensure that he knows that the kids are being cared for properly and --

JULIE: I just -- I don't know. I know every time I had a problem or decision to make I always talk to my brother.

DICK: Well, you'll, you'll be able to talk to your brother.

JULIE: Well, I need to talk to him now.

DICK: I will talk to your brother for you until, you know, such time as you come out. But send the kids out. I'll talk to your brother and I'll make sure that he watches over the kids until you get out. I'll explain to him that you've asked me to ensure that he watches out for your kids on a temporary basis until such time as you can get together with the kids again. Tell David that you'd like to send your children out with these pictures. David will allow you that. David has given me his word as a gentleman and as, as an honorable man that, that you're free to go and that you're free to send the children out if you -- should you decide to stay behind. Make the right decision. Make the right decision.

JULIE: Well, that's why I need to talk to my brother.

DICK: I will talk to your brother. You --

JULIE: No, but I need to talk to him.

DICK: You can talk to him as soon as you come out.

JULIE: No, but that's why I need to talk to him before I do.

DICK: It's your choice, all right? You can stay or you can go. You can allow your children to go. The children as David suggested are innocent, they have no part of this thing. You as a parent have the ability to say get your coats on and on and go out the door. Now, if you don't do that then it's your responsibility, not mine, not anybody else's but yours. You have the decision, you have the responsibility, you're a parent, you've given birth to those children and you must make those decisions, the right decisions, for those kids until they're old enough to make their own. You have to do it. I know that you want to do that because you're a loving parent. Tell David that you want to send the children out and that you can send those children out with whatever photos David wants to send out. I know you want to do that. Don't be afraid. You tell David that you've made a decision and that you want to send the children out. You go do -- tell him that right now while I'm talking to you on the phone. You leave and I'll, I'll keep the phone open. You go tell David you want to send the children out. You go do that right now, please.

JULIE: I need to talk to the children before I make any decision.

DICK: Okay. You -- well, let's do it now. Let's, let's, let's do it now. I know you want to do it and you've made the decision.

JULIE: I haven't.

DICK: I know you've made the decision. It's in -- I know, I can tell by talking to you you want to do the right thing, you need to do the right thing.

JULIE: Well, we all want to do the right thing.

DICK: You can't live with yourself if you don't do the right thing. You need to do the right thing and you know what that thing is -- that right thing is. I know you've, you've considered this, you've prayed about this and you know it's the right thing to do. Please. You go tell David that you want to send your kids out and you give the kids a message for your, for your brother which I will assure you that will be delivered to your brother.

JULIE: Well, the kids aren't being taken to the places where they were supposed to go.

DICK: Listen, we were asked by the folks there to keep the kids together as long as we can and we've done that, we will continue to do that.

JULIE: No, when they first went out they were supposed to go with --

DICK: What do you mean first? These kids have been out for several days, they've been out for several days. They're being well cared for. They're clean, they're well fed and they're playing together with one another, with their friends and that'll continue to happen. You have to make sure that your kids are part of that. You've got to take the responsibility to do that. I know you want to, don't you? Don't you want to make sure that your kids are safely cared for? Do you want to do that? I know you do. I know you do. You tell David that you want your children to leave, all right? You go do that right now. You're relieving yourself of pressure. You -- the kids come out and I know you -- the weight of the world is going to be off your shoulders because you know your kids will be safe and well cared for, and we'll call your brother. I'll assure you that your brother will, will watch to make sure those kids are cared for properly temporarily until you come out and that you're reunited with the kids. Now, you go tell David right now. I'll hold the phone. You go tell David that you want to send the kids out with the pictures. Will you do that for me?

JULIE: Um-hum.

DICK: Give the phone to the next person. I will talk to them while you go tell David that you want to come out, okay?

JULIE: Okay.

DICK: All right.

(Pause)
(Indiscernible voices in the background.)

KATHY: Steve?

STEVE: Yes.

KATHY: Can I talk to him?

STEVE: Sure.

KATHY: Hello, Dick?

DICK: Yes.

KATHY: Hi, it's Cathy.

DICK: Cathy, how are you this afternoon?

KATHY: Pretty good.

DICK: Good. What can I, what can I do for you?

KATHY: Couple things I just wanted to check on. Whether or not you've notified Mike's family.

DICK: I gave, I gave that request to, to others. Of course, I'm here speaking with you folks so I'm not able to do everything myself.

KATHY: Right.

DICK: But yes, I passed that on and --

KATHY: Can you find out for me if it, if it's been done?

DICK: It will be done. There are a number of --

KATHY: Well, I --

DICK: -- there are --
KATHY: -- I'd like to know when it has been done.

DICK: All right. Well, I'll get -- try to get you that information just as soon as I'm able to.

KATHY: And could you also pass on a message to my children? Today happens to be my youngest son's third birthday.

DICK: I know you miss him, don't you?

KATHY: Sure I do, and he misses me.

DICK: No question.

KATHY: And I love him and he loves me.

DICK: Well, let's get you back together.

KATHY: I'd love that, you know --

DICK: All you have to do is open a door. Open the door and walk up the road. It'll be -- the first step's the hardest but it's a very short walk.

KATHY: And, and I'm sure you, you really are honest and you think that way, but you just don't understand all the complications of this government obviously.

DICK: But you do, Cathy? Let's share those concerns then. What is your concern about you leaving --

KATHY: David has already told you that.

DICK: Okay, but don't -- I don't want to talk about what David has said. You ask me questions that you want answers for and I'll provide them to you.

KATHY: I didn't, I, I didn't ask you any questions. I'm just telling you --

DICK: No, but I say if you have concerns ask me and I'll, I'll, I'll try to explain them to you to your satisfaction.

KATHY: I don't have any questions. My, my, my point that I just made was you said all I have to do is walk out the gate and you think it's that simple. Maybe you do. Maybe you really think that's all there is to it. Maybe you're just saying that because you're a negotiator and that's your job.

DICK: Well --

KATHY: I'm saying it's --

DICK: -- that's not the case.

KATHY: -- not that simple. I know that it's not that simple and you should know.

DICK: David told me that it was that simple. He said all you have to do is indicate an interest in leaving and you can go. I mean it's that simple.

KATHY: Oh, I'm sure I could, I'm sure I could.
DICK: David's indicated that.

KATHY: I could walk out that gate any moment that I wanted to.

DICK: Has David made it difficult for you to make decisions?

KATHY: I am 30 years old. I can make my own decisions.

DICK: All right.

KATHY: Okay?

DICK: Let's make it then.

KATHY: I -- David does not tell me what to do.

DICK: All right.

KATHY: He tells me what the Bible has taught for 6,000 years, okay? It's been in print for ages.

DICK: Um-hum.

KATHY: And all he is doing is making it public. Just give him the chance to make it public and the whole world will know. That's all.

DICK: Cathy, I want to tell you one more time that that is his choice. It's, it's available, that forum is available anytime that he wishes to make use of it. It will be here, it is here and, and it's up to him to do it. But sometimes it's difficult to take that first step, to do that first thing and that's what he has to, that's what he has to do.

KATHY: And sometimes it's difficult for you to get us six gallons of milk too.

DICK: The milk is available, has been available all day and --

KATHY: Well, where is it?

DICK: It's, it's right up here with -- in close proximity. We can make that available. I told David that this morning.

KATHY: Is it at our front gate?

DICK: No, it isn't at your front gate. It will be there as soon as you head the kids up the, up the, the walkway the milk will be there.

KATHY: If we give you the kids what do we need the milk for?

DICK: Well, you have more than several children there do you not?

KATHY: If one of our babies --

DICK: I said four children.

KATHY: -- gets sick and dies because of your negligence --

DICK: Hold it, hold -- Cathy, Cathy, am I their parent? Am I their parent?

KATHY: Hey, we requested it, you said you'd bring it.

DICK: And I, and I continue to say that.

KATHY: You have already promised you would bring it and you have not done so.

DICK: I will. I told you it's available.

KATHY: Why wasn't it here yesterday?

DICK: It's available today.

KATHY: Well, put it at our front gate.

DICK: Certainly, I'll be happy to. Send the four kids walking up the road and it'll be there.

KATHY: Why? Why? You have the kids. We have already given you 21 kids. We didn't get any milk then.

DICK: David tells me that the children are innocent. We will all agree to that. The children are not old enough to make their own decisions.

KATHY: The milk was supposed to be arrived when Mark left.

DICK: Cathy --

KATHY: Since Mark left --

DICK: -- the milk --

KATHY: -- Kevin has left and also Heather. So you want more of our kids just for six gallons of milk?

DICK: I told David, I told Steve and I, I'm telling you now that the milk is available.

KATHY: When we give more kids. We're going to give more kids and you're still not going to give the milk.

DICK: Really? Well, then --

KATHY: Really.

DICK: -- I'll tell you, I'll -- we'll have the milk put out there. You walk with the children up there and you can go up and pick up the milk and you don't have to leave until the milk is there.

KATHY: Okay. So you --

DICK: Okay?

KATHY: -- put the milk there --

DICK: Okay.

KATHY: -- I'll go up and get the milk --

DICK: With the children.

KATHY: -- I'll take, I'll take one child with me and I'll bring that child back here.

(End of TAPE #82)
