BYRON: (TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) The pronunciation is -- DAVID KO-RESCH, KO-RESCH.

WAYNE: Byron.

BYRON: Yes. Go ahead.

WAYNE: Ah, they say that if, ah, as soon they, as soon as we bring the van back, ah, they're going to send the next 2 out, so, I asked them to bring the 2 children down to door and let me know and I'll call you to bring the van.

BYRON: Very good. The van's ready so you call us and-and we'll be waiting on your word.

WAYNE: Okay, ah, the connection is being made.

BYRON: Good, thank you Wayne. (PAUSE)

BYRON: (TALKING WITH AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) He's gonna call us when they want the van to move. Okay. He's gonna call us when they want the van to move. Okay. Two more kids to be sent out.

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - BYRON TALKING W/SOMEONE - INAUDIBLE)

WAYNE: Byron.

WAYNE: Ah, just wanted to chat with you a
BYRON: Yes, sir.

WAYNE: You know, ah, we were listening to that pastor that came on KRLV. He doesn’t have any idea what he’s talking about. He says that he understands and he knows the seven seals.

BYRON: From the Book of Revelations.

WAYNE: Yeah.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: But, in the previous chapter 5, it says, that an angel with a loud voice says that no man can take the book out of God’s hand and take the seals off of that book except the lamb of God appears and he prevails to take the book and reveal the seals. There’s no way that—that person on the radio could be, ah, either a man in heaven, a man on earth or man besieged under earth.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: There’s just no way.

BYRON: I understand.

WAYNE: He has no credentials to discuss the seals and the proof of it is that when he gave his explanation of the seal, he did not refer back to a single prophecy in the Bible. And, Chapter 10 of the Book of Revelations says that God’s mysteries are revealed to the servants of prophets.
BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: So, in revealing and discussing the opening of that book, the seven seals, if he has the credential of being the lamb, that person is going to teach the seven seals based on what was revealed and discussed in the prophecy.

BYRON: Okay, I understand that.

WAYNE: There's nothing in the prophecies about a rapture. There's nothing in the prophecy about, ah, Christ coming in clouds of great glory. It said the messiah comes as a sinner.

BYRON: Okay. Can I make a suggestion to you Wayne.

WAYNE: Yes sir.

BYRON: Ah, obviously you are a very learned man and you had, you have lived under a strict doctrine and, ah, ah, some very significant instructions. Your message to get out, as-as I understand it is-is what, ah, David and yourself and the rest of the followers there want. If you are not comfortable with, ah, attempts made by whoever, is the media is trying to contact, ah to be, ah, an expert in the field.

WAYNE: Yes sir.

BYRON: Then this again, goes to the importance of trying to work this out, so that you, yourself or David, uhm, Steve, whoever, can be the appropriate spokesman within the right setting and- and you will have an opportunity to do that. We will try to facilitate that for you, but it, that comes with the ability of being able to resolve this and give you your, your, your appropriate opportunity get before the media. Do you see what I am saying.

WAYNE: Yes, ah.

BYRON: I can understand, uhm, the fact that that it would be very upsetting and I can agree with the fact that it would be upsetting if you feel that an individual who's giving what he feels is an expert account of what you're trying to say. Nobody can say it better than you. Okay. So that's—that's what we need to do. We need to work this out together with a common goal being giving you an opportunity to put the word out as you want to do it. Alright, so we're moving in that direction, and we'll continue to move in that direction. Ah, but I understand your concern. I have not heard, ah, the news accounts because, frankly, it's been more important for us to be on the line trying to make sure that you and I can work these things out smoothly. But, I-I understand what you're saying and, ah, ah, I agree with it. Okay.

WAYNE: Just something for us to ah, think BYRON: Sure, no, I understand that. I understand that completely.

WAYNE: I just want and hope that you’ll keep an open mind on the subject until you’ve learned more about it.

BYRON: I’m-I’m anxious to do that. And, I do have an open mind on it. And-And, ah, I guarantee you that I will keep an open mind and will do whatever I can to make sure that you and I can explore this fully. I don’t want anything to bring this to a premature conclusion, okay. We need to continue to work it until, we, ah, we bring everybody out safely and we can explore these things in the comfort of, ah, of a safe environment.

WAYNE: I appreciate that Byron, and, uhm, I just hope that you’ll be guided by the thoughts that, ah, this isn’t really worth anything but listen to what a person says about his belief because that’s why the religious world is in such confusion. Even within the same church, pastors disagree with each other.

BYRON: I understand that. I’ve experienced that as well. I know what you mean.

WAYNE: But when a message is taught and it’s based on the bible itself from the word of God without interpretation, then a person can be certain that the message has come from God. God’s word stays around for thousands of years, hasn’t changed every 2 years like the Texas penal code, or the Texas family code. God hasn’t had any need to continue, ah, patching it up, changing it, and trying to make it better.

BYRON: I couldn’t agree with you more.

WAYNE: And the amazing thing is, after all those thousands of years, suddenly someone appears on the scene and has a perfect understanding of the scriptures. What a great lost if he doesn’t have an opportunity to share what he knows.

BYRON: Okay. That’s—that’s where your job, and my job are the same. They’re identical. We need to facilitate making that a possibility. We need to work together to make sure that he has that opportunity. And you have the right to exercise that opportunity. Okay. I know what you’re saying and,
and, we’re in total agreement with it.

WAYNE: Byron, David is talking to the BATF right now.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: He’s promised as soon as he gets off the phone he’s going to, ah, send 2 more children.
BYRON: Okay. As soon as he gets of the phone, he’s going to what.

WAYNE: He’s gonna send 2 more.

BYRON: Okay. We will be ready to work with ya, and, we’ll do it exactly as we did the last one. Is that okay.

WAYNE: That’s okay.

BYRON: Very good. I’ll stand-by for your call.

WAYNE: Thank you.

BYRON: Okay, Wayne.

WAYNE: I’m here.

BYRON: Ah, I just got the word from the CP that they’re ready to send the van back in to pick-up 2 more children. Is that your understanding?

WAYNE: Yes, that’s my understanding.

BYRON: Okay, are they ready? Are the kids ready?

WAYNE: Ah, not yet, ah, he’s on the, on the line with the ATF right now.

BYRON: Very good. Let me know and, ah, hold on just a moment.

BYRON: (TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON)

Have we sent the van in or are we ready to send it in. (DIRECTED TO WAYNE) The van is moving in your direction now. And again, the same thing will be carried out as we did before so that there's no offensive action or anything to, that should alarm, alarm you, okay.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay. I gonna stay on the line here and let me know.

WAYNE: Okay, thank you.

BYRON: Yes sir.

(PAUSE - 45 SECONDS)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Wayne. Wayne, are you there?

WAYNE: We're here.

BYRON: Alright Wayne. Is the same lady gonna walk these 2 out.

WAYNE: I don't know.

BYRON: Okay. Please let us know. It might be good to make everything, ah, you know, as similar as we can so that it-it gets to be an absolute routine and there's no-no variation, no question and everybody comfortable with it.

WAYNE: I'll pass it on.

BYRON: Okay. Thank you . (PAUSE - 30 SECONDS)

BYRON: (TALKING WITH AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON): There will be a lady, but he don't know it's the same one. I get the impression that it'll be the same thing, but he didn’t know if it was same lady. Now they’re ready to go according to, according to Wayne, they’re ready to go.

(PAUSE - 35 SECONDS)

(BACKGROUND NOISE)

BYRON: Wayne.
WAYNE: Yes, Byron.
BYRON: Okay, the van is ready to come in.
You tell us when you’re ready to send the kids and we’ll move it into a position.

WAYNE: 10:4
BYRON: Okay.
WAYNE: Ah, Byron.
BYRON: Yes, Sir.
WAYNE: I’ve got (10 SECOND PAUSE), Byron please stop that van. It came on our property.
BYRON: Okay. It apparently is going in to turn around and be ready for the kids. It’s not gonna encroach on your property.

WAYNE: 10:4
BYRON: Okay. It’s parked in front of the guard shack is what we’re being told.
WAYNE: Please ask it to wait.
BYRON: Okay.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Please ask it to wait.
WAYNE: Pass this on.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: They suggest that the same, ah, woman bring the children.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #3: (YELLING) They want the same woman to bring the children out.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: (YELLING) Is that right. So that it's no confusion to them. They want (INAUDIBLE) to take the kids out so that there is no confusion.

(INAUDIBLE FOR 30 SECONDS)

WAYNE: Byron.

BYRON: Yes Sir. Go ahead.

WAYNE: Ah, we heard something on the radio.

BYRON: What is that?

WAYNE: Ah, we heard that, we heard that around 6:00 p.m. that, that, uhm, that three persons tried to leave our building and were captured.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #4: (TALKING TO WAYNE) One captured, one was killed and one was wounded.

BYRON: I have - I have not heard that Wayne. I haven't heard one way or the other. That's news to me. Okay what we're trying to facilitate is not - is a safe and voluntary exchange here. We're trying to, ah, nobody trying to capture anybody, alright. But I haven't heard about anything happening like that at 6 o'clock.

WAYNE: We don't know anything about anybody leaving our building.

BYRON: Okay, you know what was going on about 6 o'clock though was the, uhm, when you and Larry were working out the safe, ah, ah, exit of that—that last ATF team which was the forward most position which had, which was behind what, ah, the dairy barn right.

WAYNE: Yes, we are aware of that.

BYRON: Okay, that's, they maybe confusing that. You need to realize, and I'm sure you do, the media is absolutely voracious as far as a trying to get any information to put out on the air and one station is in competition with the other. They're liable to put stuff out that's absolutely frivolous. And, you and I can't be, you know bouncing up and down like a couple of yo-yos trying to keep up with— with garbage that they might be putting out on the air. So, please believe me, I'm not aware of that having taken place and, that—that doesn't impact on what you and I are working through right now. Have those kids let the ah, have they headed towards the van yet? Wayne. (PAUSE) Wayne are you there.

WAYNE: Not until David's off the phone.
BYRON: Not until what?

WAYNE: David is on the phone with the BATF.

BYRON: Okay. Then they're gonna coordinate when the kids are let, we're gonna to try to the message to the van to just stay in place ready for kids.

WAYNE: Thank you.

BYRON: Alright sir.

(PAUSE - 20 SECONDS)

BYRON: (TALKING W/AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON)

Keep the van in place. David on the phone to ATF and as soon as he's done they're gonna send the kids out.
Two more kids are ready to go. Two more kids are ready to go.

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

(BACKGROUND NOISE)(BYRON TALKING)

BYRON: Wayne, Wayne are you there. Wayne.

WAYNE: Yes.

BYRON: Okay, the van is at the guard post waiting for the kids right now, okay.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Alright.

BYRON: And, we've asked them to remain there until you send the kids out.

WAYNE: Thank you.

BYRON: Yes sir.
(PAUSE - 2 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE - BYRON TALKING W/SOMEONE)

WAYNE: Byron.

BYRON: Yes, Sir. How are we doing on the second two kids.

WAYNE: They're coming to the door.

BYRON: Okay. (BYRON TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) They're coming to the door, now.

BYRON: (TALKING TO WAYNE) The van is at the guard post, okay. Unless advised to contrary, we'll just leave it right there waiting as we did before.

WAYNE: You can tell them now, they're coming to the door.

BYRON: Okay. (PAUSE - 25 SECONDS)

BYRON: (TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON)

Two more kids at the door.

WAYNE: We hear a chopper.

BYRON: Ah, they're not, they are not law enforcement chopper's, okay. And for your, I'm glad you brought that up. We got word that we have contacted the FAA and stressed that they need to, the Federal Aviation Administration needs to ensure the pilots in this area to steer clear of it because it's causing problems for you, concerns for you, and it sheds ah, sends the wrong message. It is not our aircraft, it's not our helicopter, okay.

WAYNE: Yes, ah, 10:4.

BYRON: Okay.

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

(BYRON TALKING TO SOMEONE)

(PAUSE - 45 SECONDS)

BYRON: Wayne, have the kids exited the building yet? (PAUSE - 20 SECONDS)

WAYNE: Negative.

BYRON: Okay, we're still waiting for you.

Just let me know.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay.

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE - BYRON TALKING)

(PAUSE - 2 MINUTES)

BYRON: Wayne. Wayne are you there, this is Byron?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Yeah.

WAYNE: I'm here.

BYRON: Okay. I just want to let you know that we have gotten the word to the CP and the CP is trying to get in touch with, uh, KRLD, to make sure that they pronounce, ah, KO-REESCH properly.

Okay.
WAYNE: It's KO-RESCH.

BYRON: Pardon me.

WAYNE: KO-RESCH.

BYRON: KO-RESCH, okay. We will make sure, and I apologize for my ignorance of it, KO-RESCH.

WAYNE: (INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Pardon me.

WAYNE: -- was the ancient conqueror of Babylon, the King of Babylon.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: The last days the Bible says that Babylon is going to be conquered. It's gonna fall. The prophets talk about a Cyrus on the last day. But that's an English translation. The name comes from media Persia Iran. The pronunciation is KO-RESCH.

BYRON: KO-RESCH. I understand. Okay, I'll pass that along. Hold on just a moment will you please. Have the kids--have the kids left yet. Have the kids left yet, Wayne.

WAYNE: Negative

BYRON: Okay, hold on just a moment please.

(10 SECOND PAUSE)

WAYNE: The kids are here.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Hold on.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: Hold on.

UNIDENTIFIED FEMALE SPEAKER: Wayne.
WAYNE: Yes.

UNIDENTIFIED FEMALE SPEAKER: Cece got the two kids and she's on here way out now.

WAYNE: Tell her to hold up.

UNIDENTIFIED FEMALE SPEAKER: Hold up

(PAUSE - 30 SECONDS) (BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Wayne.

WAYNE: They're ready.

BYRON: Okay, we're ready. If you go ahead and send them out.

WAYNE: Okay, they're leaving.

BYRON: Okay, very good. Good job Wayne.

(PAUSE) (BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Tell us when they are going out of the door, will you please Wayne.

WAYNE: They're coming out now.

BYRON: (TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) They're coming out now.

BYRON: (TALKING TO WAYNE) They're moving the van forward to pick the kids up. They start getting a little nervous.

WAYNE: They're coming

BYRON: (TALKING TO AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) They're coming out now.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: They're coming out now.
(BACKGROUND NOISE - 20 SECONDS)

BYRON: Wayne.

WAYNE: Yes.

BYRON: Okay, are they - are they walking to the van.

WAYNE: I'm sure they are.

BYRON: Okay. Are you in a position where we can talk a little bit here.

WAYNE: Yes sir.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Get off the phone.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (Talking to Wayne) Get off the phone now.

BYRON: Okay. Ah, we're getting some information that, ah, that David may be upset about us talking to you, and that's the last thing we want is to upset anybody. But we appreciate the way you've been able to work with us on this thing. And we would like to keep this line open, but we don't want to make things worse, alright.

WAYNE: Alright.

BYRON: Can you please let us know, because it would be, ah, Larry and I would prefer to be able to stay on the line with you.

WAYNE: I'll check into it and, ah, get back to you.
BYRON: Okay. If David, David was injured, is that correct. Wayne.

WAYNE: I can't confirm that.

BYRON: Okay, I understand that, but, just let me mention this. Ah, it may be in you all best interest, everybody best interest if David is injured, and I hope he's not seriously injured, but if you can continue to carry out his, ah, ah, his advice in conversation with us, that's what we would like to continue to do. Okay. You're doing a good job, we like to keep that going.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay, How are-how are the kids doing. Are they out to the van yet.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Where are the kids?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: Where are the kids?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #3: They already went.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: How far.

WAYNE: They're on their way.

BYRON: Okay, very good. Talk me through it, if you will again because I'm-I'm just sitting here looking at a wall so I can't tell when they actually get to the vehicle.
WAYNE: They're half way.

BYRON: Half way, good. (PAUSE) Hey, Wayne, you guys are doing okay, huh.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Yes sir.

BYRON: Okay. Please let, ah, David know that we're not, we are not trying to do anything behind his back but we would like to keep this channel of communication opened, caused it's obviously helping everybody out. Everybody. We're not trying to undermine his authority or anything, and, ah, we respect the, ah, the respect he obviously has for you.

WAYNE: Alright, ah, I'll have to get back to you.

BYRON: Okay. Keep me posted if you will on the progress of the kids before you, ah, cut me off here.

WAYNE: 10:4.

(BACKGROUND NOISE - NEWS REPORTS)

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

BYRON: Wayne, can you see them yet, buddy, are they in the van.

WAYNE: (TALKING W/AN UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) Are they there?

WAYNE: (TALKING TO BYRON) Almost.

BYRON: Okay, thank you.
(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

(BYRON TALKING WITH SOMEONE)

(PAUSE - 30 SECONDS)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: They're there.

BYRON: Did you say they're there.

WAYNE: The van is leaving with the children.

BYRON: Very good. Okay, is the, ah, is the mother on her way back to you safely.

(PAUSE - 30 SECONDS - INAUDIBLE)

WAYNE: No sign.

BYRON: Okay, we'll hold in with you.

WAYNE: They just reached the van apparently.

BYRON: Okay, very good. I'll let, if I hear something before hand, I'll let you know, but the last I heard was that they're waiting for them at the van still. (PAUSE - 20 SECONDS)(BACKGROUND NOISE) We're hearing that the kids just reach the van, Wayne.

WAYNE: The van is leaving, she's returning.

BYRON: Very good. Let me know when she's safely back to the compound and we'll start working on the next phase. You're doing a good job, Wayne.

That's why we need to-to leave this, ah, communication open and hopefully you can convince David that that’s in everybody best interest, okay.

WAYNE: I’ll have to report back to you.

BYRON: Okay. And the proper pronunciation again is KO-RESCH. Is that right.

WAYNE: That’s correct.

BYRON: Very good. Thank you. We’ll be standing by.

WAYNE: 10:04

BYRON: Wayne

WAYNE: Yes.

BYRON: I’m gonna step out and try to get a drink and a little relief here. Larry’s back so I’m gonna put him on.

WAYNE: Okay

BYRON: Okay, pal. Thanks again, you’re doing a good job buddy, hold on.

LARRY: Okay, Wayne, I’m back. Are you
okay?

WAYNE: I’m okay. How are you doing,
Larry.

LARRY: Well, I’m-I’m okay. I’ll make it.
We’ll gonna make it. Right. That’s-that’s what we’re headed for. We’re doing very good, you, look what we’ve accomplished. It’s great, okay. We need to keep moving in that direction. Now, are you gonna get two more kids ready to go:

WAYNE: I'm going to check with, ah, David.

LARRY: Okay. Ah, Byron told you what was requested, so let's try to keep it stressed to him how vital it is to keep our communication link open, okay. It is very vital to look to the outcome of this situation, okay. Will you do that.

WAYNE: I can't promise you, I'll do that though, I'll try.

LARRY: Okay.

WAYNE: Let me just get back to you in a few minutes.

LARRY: Okay, we'll hang on, we're here.

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

(THE END OF SIDE A - TAPE 12)
(Tape 12 - Side B)

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - SOMEONE TALKING)

LARRY: Wayne, Wayne.

WAYNE: Wayne here.

LARRY: Okay, I heard your beep so. Did you make contact?

(PAUSE FOR 1 MINUTE)

LARRY: Wayne, are you back yet.

WAYNE: I'm here.

LARRY: Okay, were you able to make contact with David.

WAYNE: No, I've been waiting for, ah, the return of the mother and, ah, as soon as she's back I'll make contact.

LARRY: Okay, okay. She should be there in just a minute. Should be there in just a minute. It's working well. We appreciate it. It's working well, we're getting it done, okay. We're-we're making, we're making progress. We're making progress. That's the most important thing right now. A successful completion of this. Are you gonna get a couple more ready when the lady gets back.

WAYNE: I'm gonna make contact and get back to you.

LARRY: Alright, we're gonna hang, okay.
WAYNE: Okay.

LARRY: Alright.

WAYNE: She’s in and I’m going to, ah, take a break here.

LARRY: Okay, that’s fine.

WAYNE: Okay, I’ll keep the line open.

LARRY: Please keep the line opened, please. Okay, we’re doing well, we’re doing well.

Okay.

(PAUSE - 16 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Wayne.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Larry

LARRY: Yeah, you back Wayne.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: No, he’s not back yet. He’ll be back shortly.

LARRY: Oh, okay. Okay, ya doing okay.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Yeah, we’re just sitting here eating some, chicken a la king.

LARRY: Chicken a la king, okay, that’s good.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (INAUDIBLE)

(CHUCKLED WHILE TALKING)

LARRY: Pardon hun. Chicken a la king. Is it out of a can

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (INAUDIBLE)
LARRY: Fresh hun.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Okay, fresh chicken a la king. That's great.

(PAUSE - 5 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Wayne.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: He's not here yet.

LARRY: Did Wayne come back.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Not yet buddy.

LARRY: Hun.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: Not yet.

LARRY: Okay Steve.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: This is Greg, Larry.

LARRY: I mean Greg, Greg. Ah, is he making any head way with David.

GREG: I haven't heard a word. I'll try to find out what's going on.

LARRY: Please do. These long silences are killing us.

GREG: Yeah. (PAUSE) Ah, drink a coke with a smile.

(PAUSE - 2 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)
LARRY: Greg.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: He'll be right back.

LARRY: Okay.

(PAUSE - 2 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

GREG: Yeah.

LARRY: Okay, what's happening. We've got the van set, we're ready to remove some more kids.

GREG: We're working on it --

LARRY: Okay. He's still visiting with, ah, with David.

GREG: Yeah.

LARRY: Okay, okay.

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

GREG: -- aircraft approaching Larry.

LARRY: Pardon me.

GREG: What's the deal on the aircraft approaching.

LARRY: Alright, stand-by, let me double check. Okay, hold on Greg. (PAUSE)

GREG: (TALKING TO SOME UNIDENTIFIED PERSON) Where is it?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (TALKING TO GREG: It's coming straight towards us, Larry.

LARRY: Okay, okay. It's not a, not a law enforcement. You know like I told ya before, it's, we're not, you know it's news media, all of our aircraft are grounded.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: -- verified before hand.

LARRY: Understand, you know, we, we got them clear for a 10 mile radius. If they're in there now, they're in violation of your air space. We got that from the FAA. But, it's not one of ours. All of ours are grounded, okay. Everything we have is grounded right now. We told you we would do it and we're gonna stick by it, okay.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Okay.

(PAUSE - 5 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE)

(THE END OF SIDE B - TAPE 12)
