BYRON: Hey Wayne. Wayne. Wayne, this is Byron, are you there.

WAYNE: Good morning.

BYRON: Hi Wayne. CP has requested that, ah, Steve or Dave, ah DK, give them a call at the Command Post. Apparently they’ve tried to get back in touch with Steve and, ah, they’ve not been successful. Does he have that number.

WAYNE: Yes, he has the number. But I’ll have to check to make sure that their phone is working.

BYRON: Okay. If you would please, and let me know, or give me a number where they should try to call you if there’s another phone that you want them to talk on.

WAYNE: Okay, I’m checking it out.

BYRON: Good deal. I’ll be here.

WAYNE: Hello.

BYRON: Hello.

WAYNE: Alright, this is Wayne.

BYRON: Yeah, Wayne.
WAYNE: I got a report that David is on the telephone with somebody.

BYRON: Very good.

WAYNE: And he is going to call CP if he is not talking to them.

BYRON: Okay. I think I heard somebody say that the phone was ringing over there, so that's good. Do you have a feel for ah, I understand they gave us a couple names of, ah, the next 2 kids to be coming out. Do you have any kind of an idea as to what type of, ah, plan we're gonna follow if it was the first plan that you and I had worked out, or the second plan, that, ah, the water tower. Okay, the reason I say that is that we can go ahead and start trying to make sure that the, ah, proper vehicles are available to, ah, to make the exchange, pick-up the kids. Do you have any of the facts whether or not it's still, is it two kids or will there be more or, you know, just wondering where we stood.

WAYNE: Well, I'm sure I'll get those details before we open the door.

BYRON: Okay. Okay. And again, I passed along your concerns that you had mentioned earlier, and, ah, they continue to tell me that that is, that you don't need to worry about that, that's not a problem.
WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay. (PAUSE) Did you get any sleep last night Wayne.

WAYNE: I don’t think so.

BYRON: Okay, you and I are on a even keel here.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: I did

BYRON: Whose that, Greg.

BYRON: Hey Wayne.

WAYNE: I’m here.

BYRON: Okay, ah, CP has called over, apparently they lost contact with, ah, with, ah, Steve or DK. If you could please ask them to, ah, to try to give them a call back. Apparently they had some, ah, phone problems, and, ah, that’s been resolved, if they can try to initiate the call again that would help out.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay. Thank you.

(PAUSE - 4 MINUTES)

WAYNE: Yes sir.

BYRON: Okay. Ah, the other line, the other phone is not working.

WAYNE: Not at the moment.

BYRON: Okay. Ah, you want me to go ahead and, ah, terminate this line then for the time being. Wayne.

WAYNE: Yes sir.

BYRON: Okay, are you gonna have to hang up on this one or not.

WAYNE: I’m gonna have to hang-up.

BYRON: Okay. Okay. I’ll try to give you a call back when I get the word that, ah, that the CP is no longer on the line, okay.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Wayne, I appreciate your help on this bud. We’ll work through this thing today as well.

WAYNE: Alright.

WAYNE: Hum, not yet.

BYRON: Okay. Let me continue to check with my people and maybe we can start making arrangements to have, ah, you know, vehicle ready to go or something, but, ah, if you would, try to give us as much time as possible and I’ll ask our people to do the same thing for you.
