LARRY: Let see, here. Hold on. That's the road side, right.

WAYNE: Right.

LARRY: Okay. All they're doing is justing changing out their, ah, their troops. No aggressive action will be taken. We've talked about that.

WAYNE: No. They're (inaudible) aiming their weapons up in the air (inaudible)

LARRY: Well, they could. But, your folks are getting a little antsy. They have no reason to be, you know, aggressive towards you.

WAYNE: We still have the children and we want to get them out.

LARRY: Yeah. But, you know, you've ah, you've not, ah, you've not done anything in the past 4 hours. Are they ready.

WAYNE: I don't know, but I'm I'm

LARRY: Let's let's work on it, okay.

Let's work on this and, ah, try to get, ah, you know we're not, ah, we're not able to communicate with David or Steve, and, uhm, you know, when we work it together you and I, it worked out. So, check and advise if you would. I need your help in order to bring these kids out of there safely.

WAYNE: I'll check.

LARRY: Okay. Come back to me okay. I'll stand-by right here.

(PAUSE - 16 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Wayne. Are you there?

WAYNE: Right here.

LARRY: Okay. How are you doing?

WAYNE: Tired.

LARRY: Okay. Have you heard anything about what they're planning to do as far as getting the kids out. You know, we're in the second day.

WAYNE: We would like to see some daylight.

LARRY: Should be getting fairly light out there, should it.

WAYNE: Yeah, well except for the cloudy weather.

LARRY: Yeah. Is it raining out there.

WAYNE: No, I don't think so.

LARRY: Okay. (PAUSE) Is it cold?

WAYNE: Just damp.

LARRY: Hold on just a minute. Did ya ever, did ya ever have a meeting to decide what you're gonna do with the kids. How we're gonna bring them out. Wayne.
WAYNE: I'm waiting for ah, for a report.
LARRY: You haven't received that yet.
WAYNE: No, I haven't received it yet.
LARRY: Okay. Is there anyway you can kind of expedite that. (PAUSE) Is there? Wayne, is there anyway that we can possible expedite that report and, uhm, let us start making some arrangements. Are you there, Wayne?
WAYNE: I'm here.
LARRY: Okay. Is there anyway that you can do that.
WAYNE: You're pretty close to, ah, an idea I heard on the radio.
LARRY: You heard an idea on the radio.
WAYNE: Yeap.
LARRY: Okay, and what is that?
WAYNE: It sounded like, ah, sounded like David wanted to wait for daylight.
LARRY: Sounded like David wanted to wait for daylight.
WAYNE: I don't know if the reporters got it right or not.
LARRY: Okay.
WAYNE: We're close.
LARRY: Okay. Is it on, ah, 10 80 KRLD.
WAYNE: Yeah.
LARRY: Okay. So you think it, you think what he, David was asking for was daylight then.

WAYNE: Sounded like it.

LARRY: Sounded like it.

WAYNE: I mean it was a reporter.

LARRY: Uh hun.

WAYNE: Saying that's what Steve and David wanted, I don't know how much the reporter knows. I mean, ah, LARRY: Could you hear David's voice talking with the reporter.

WAYNE: Ah, no. The reporter talking to, ah, talk show host.

LARRY: Talk show host. (PAUSE) Let's let's work on this deal. What do you want to do about the kids. How do you want to handle this.

Same as we did before.

WAYNE: The best way. The very best way.

LARRY: Okay. It worked out well when we, when you and Byron were moving those kids out, right. You know, nobody was hurt, the kids got out, they're being well cared for. Is that the way you want to try and do it again. (PAUSE)

WAYNE: It would be safer with a little lighter out.

LARRY: That would get in during during the evening hours, remember. All—all the kids that left—left during the evening hours. There wasn’t any problem.

WAYNE: Ah, there was a problem.

LARRY: What kind of problem?

WAYNE: Ah, the (INAUDIBLE) moving around and didn’t know where it was, ah, they didn’t know how to meet the car. All of that would have been easier with a little daylight.

LARRY: Well, that we decided to do it, you know, in the evening hours. That was, that was your again, your decision.

WAYNE: (INAUDIBLE)

LARRY: Okay. (PAUSE) Stand-by okay.

WAYNE: Okay.

LARRY: Alright.

(PAUSE - 7 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE)

BYRON: Hello, Wayne.

WAYNE: Yeah.

BYRON: Wayne, this is Byron Sage. How are you doing.

WAYNE: Fine.

BYRON: Okay. Ah, Larry said that, ah, he had talked to you a little earlier and that, ah, he had mentioned something about it was, it was your impression from a, newscast or something, that, ah, David wanted to wait until daylight before we started working on, ah, continuing these, ah

WAYNE: I got a, I just got a progress report.

BYRON: Oh good.

WAYNE: And, ah, apparently there is an agreement with, ah, Jim Cavanugh that ah, he was going to go and get some rest and that they would, ah, resume negotiations with David later.

BYRON: Very good.

WAYNE: That had reach some agreement to, ah, to delay.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: It wasn’t unilateral.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Alright. I’ll check with, ah, with our people, with the CP. We got them back on the line and, ah, I’ll just, ah, be on the line here if you need anything alright. You doing okay.

WAYNE: Yeah, go ahead.

BYRON: Okay. I’ll just stay on the line here, ah, in case you need anything and I’ll touch base with, ah, with the Command Post to see if they have kind of a, of an idea as to a timeframe.
WAYNE: Alright.

BYRON: Alright. What we want to do is, ah, just like you and I worked out before, we just want to establish a, a mutually agreeable safe transition getting the, ah, getting the people out of there without any, ah, any threat level to anyone. Okay, so I'll be back in touch with you in just a little bit.

WAYNE: Okay.

BYRON: Okay, Wayne.

(Tape 20 - Side B)

(PAUSE - 22 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Hey Wayne. Wayne, are you there.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: He'll be right back.

BYRON: Okay, thanks. Is this Greg?

(PAUSE - 5 MINUTES)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Hey Wayne, are you back yet?

Wayne, are you there? (PAUSE) Hello, Wayne.

WAYNE: Byron.

BYRON: Hi, Wayne.

WAYNE: Yes.

BYRON: Yeah, this is Byron. Ah, we got some, uhm, some sketchy information from the CP that, ah, apparently, uhm, there’s some preliminary information regarding the identity of the next 2 kids to be brought, ah, out. Do you have any information on that, and, and, how can we start working on it to, ah, make it go smoothly.

WAYNE: Sounds like they’re working on it.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: Go with the flow.

BYRON: Okay.

WAYNE: We’ll let you know before they reach the door.

BYRON: Okay, Wayne, we would also like to, ah, if you can, keep us posted as to, you know, what type of plan so that we can coordinate and make sure that, ah, that everybody on the perimeter knows and it can go just as smoothly as possible. If we can get it going, like you and I had it going last evening, then we can just bring this thing to a, to a smooth, safe, orderly, conclusion without, ah, any problems. Okay.

WAYNE: Oh, there is one problem.

BYRON: What is that.

WAYNE: I don’t think that they’re gonna want to open that door if, ah, if the snipers have there weapons trained down on that door.

BYRON: Okay. I don’t think that that’s the situation, but I’ll pass along your concern to the, ah, to the CP, okay. I’ll pass that on right now.

(PAUSE - 1 MINUTE)

(BACKGROUND NOISE - INAUDIBLE)

BYRON: Hello, Wayne.

WAYNE: Yo.

BYRON: Yeah, this is Byron. The CP’s gotten back and said that, ah, you don’t have anything to be concerned of there. There’s not gonna be any type of, of, that type of attention focus on you or anybody in the house, okay.

WAYNE: Well, we don't want some to get nervous.

BYRON: That's right.

WAYNE: Have CP to make sure, he, ah, talks to those guys.

BYRON: Okay. We just finished talking to the CP and he's ah, he, I'm sure has relayed that over to, ah, is Dave, ah, DK, is he on the line with anybody now or is it Steve that's talking to them.

WAYNE: I don't know which one it is.

BYRON: Okay. Well, we'll make sure that they pass it on over there as well. But, ah, I want to get back to you and tell you that that's not a concern, okay. I mean I realize it's a concern to you, but it's not valid. It's not a, it's not gonna be a situation here.

WAYNE: 10:4
