TAPE #90

3/7/93 - 3/8/93

11:47 P.M. - 2:57 A.M.
(Tape 90)

SHERRI: -- (Indiscernible) And if we did not, if we do not start protecting ourselves by, you know --

JOHN: Hey.

SHERRI: -- shooting you guys, the choppers would have --

JOHN: I can't argue about what happened in the past, all right?

SHERRI: Okay.

JOHN: It happened and it was a tragedy.

SHERRI: I know. I know, I know.

JOHN: Okay?

SHERRI: It --

JOHN: I'll see you in court, Sherri.

SHERRI: You'll see me in court?

JOHN: Yeah, that's --

SHERRI: I'll see you --

JOHN: -- that's where we all get our day of justice, huh?

SHERRI: I'll see you, hey, I will see you in the highest court there is.

JOHN: Well, I'm sure we will some day, huh.

SHERRI: The highest court, do you know where that is?
JOHN: Yeah.

SHERRI: Yeah. And I would really be shaking in your boots about now.

JOHN: Why?

SHERRI: Why?

JOHN: Yeah.

SHERRI: Why?

JOHN: Yeah. Is there something I should fear?

SHERRI: Psalms, Psalms 18 is terrifying.

JOHN: But is there something I should fear?

SHERRI: (Indiscernible) I can't believe this.

JOHN: Huh?

SHERRI: Because you don't fear God, that's why.

JOHN: Well, I do.

SHERRI: You absolutely do-- okay, Revelations 6. When this earth starts doing it's terrifying thing --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: -- you're going to be one of those, you know, the, the people rushing underneath the rocks --

JOHN: Uh-huh.
SHERRI: -- saying hide me from Him that sits on the throne and from the wrath. I mean, there's going to be so much wrath coming out, you have no idea.

JOHN: Hey, I'm going to meet my Maker some day.

SHERRI: You will meet your Maker some day

--

JOHN: We all will.

SHERRI: -- let me tell you.

JOHN: We all will.

SHERRI: Yet you -- yes, and you -- He not gonna be too happy with you.

JOHN: Why not?

SHERRI: And do you know what?

JOHN: I'm a man of peace.

SHERRI: You ought to read Psalm 75.

JOHN: Hey Sherri, I'm a man of peace.

SHERRI: Do you know what that says?

JOHN: What?

SHERRI: God is going to be -- you know what a horn is?

JOHN: How many horns?

SHERRI: Do you what a horn is?

JOHN: You counting the seven horns?

SHERRI: Do you know what a horn is? Read
Psalm 75, because this is what's gonna happen to you.

JOHN: What?

SHERRI: Psalm 75.

JOHN: You sound awful belligerent towards me.

SHERRI: I am because it scares me --

JOHN: Why?

SHERRI: -- that you don't even fear God, because this is what's gonna happen to you.

JOHN: God is loving.

SHERRI: God is loving? Read Psalm 75.

JOHN: Isn't God loving?

SHERRI: Not to those that don't --

JOHN: Huh?

SHERRI: -- know his seals.

JOHN: Why do you say that?

SHERRI: Because that's what the book says, not me.

JOHN: It says that --

SHERRI: Read Psalm 75.

JOHN: -- God doesn't love everyone?

SHERRI: Turn to Psalm 75. Turn to Psalm 75.

JOHN: God doesn't love everyone?

SHERRI: Oh, loves them.
JOHN: Huh?

SHERRI: Dearly. That's why He's so patiently waiting on certain people.

JOHN: He's forgiving too, Sherri, believe me.

SHERRI: Yeah, He is forgiving, yes, but not forgiving when you disregard some of His judgments.

JOHN: Wait a minute, you're talking to me.

SHERRI: Huh?

JOHN: You're talking to me.

SHERRI: I know I'm talking to you --

JOHN: Huh?

SHERRI: -- because you have a soul and we happen to --

JOHN: Do you have a soul?

SHERRI: Yeah. We happen to really be concerned about your soul.

JOHN: Oh, I bet.

SHERRI: We are.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: We are. So Psalm 75.

JOHN: What do you want?

SHERRI: I want you to read Psalm 75.

JOHN: Okay.

SHERRI: This is what's gonna happen to you.
JOHN: I will read Psalm 75, okay?
SHERRI: Read it. Please.
JOHN: What, do I have to read it to you?
SHERRI: Yes.
JOHN: Why?
SHERRI: 'Cause I want you to know --
JOHN: You won't answer any of my questions.
SHERRI: Okay.
JOHN: Why should I read it to you?
SHERRI: Do you know what a horn is?
JOHN: Uh-uh. Tell me.
SHERRI: Horn's a dick.
JOHN: Yeah.
SHERRI: And you're gonna be without yours.
JOHN: Oh, that's cute.
SHERRI: I know that's cute.
JOHN: That's a real class act.
SHERRI: No, that's just what Psalm 75 --
JOHN: I bet that makes you really feel proud, doesn't it?
SHERRI: No, it doesn't make me feel proud.
JOHN: Huh?
SHERRI: It makes me shake in my boots.
JOHN: What's it mean?
SHERRI: What do you mean, what's it mean?
What's it mean? Read Psalm 75.

JOHN: No, I mean what, what are you trying to say to me?

SHERRI: I'm telling you what God is telling you.

JOHN: I think you're just being kind of crude.

SHERRI: Read -- just -- never mind. Just read Psalm 75. I got to go. If you don't believe what that book says, I'm done. Tau.

JOHN: Have a nice day.

SHERRI: Okay.

JOHN: Aloha.

SHERRI: Here's, here's the next -- oh, she just left. See what I told you?

JOHN: What?

SHERRI: If she didn't take it right then she was going to leave.

JOHN: Well, she probably figured you were getting kind of belligerent.

SHERRI: I guess you'll be watching Johnny Carson tonight, huh?

JOHN: Who?

SHERRI: You.

JOHN: No, I'm sitting here.
SHERRI: Are you going to read Psalm 75?

JOHN: Sure.

SHERRI: Good. I'm glad.

JOHN: Unto thee, oh God. How's that?

SHERRI: Keep going, it's towards the end of the, end of the chapter there, or end of the psalm.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: And I would shake in your boots.

JOHN: Well, you're calling me wicked.

SHERRI: I'm calling -- hey, we're all wicked. I'm wicked, too.

JOHN: Why do you say that?

SHERRI: Why? Well, if you knew more --

JOHN: You're gonna lose your horn?

SHERRI: I don't have a horn.

JOHN: Well, it says the horns of the wicked. You said you're wicked.

SHERRI: The horns of the wicked, yes.

JOHN: Uh-huh. Do you have a horn?

SHERRI: The horns of the wicked. What else does it say? What does it say about the horns of the wicked?

JOHN: Will I cut off --

SHERRI: Will I cut off.

JOHN: -- but the horns of the righteous should be shall be exalted.

SHERRI: Should be exalted, so the men --

JOHN: Maybe, maybe I'm righteous.

SHERRI: -- the men. Are you righteous?

JOHN: I hope so.

SHERRI: Do you know where the fourth seal is found?

JOHN: Do I have to?

SHERRI: Well, that's what God says.

JOHN: What, if I don't know where it's found --

SHERRI: Oh --

JOHN: I'm not righteous.

SHERRI: According to the book you aren't.

JOHN: What, what are we having, are we having a lecture on theology tonight?

SHERRI: Well, all I'm saying is you're gonna shake in your boots and I'll -- you know, you're just being warned ahead of time, that's all.

JOHN: Hey, hey.

SHERRI: I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I mean, I'm totally sorry.

JOHN: Don't let it get to you, 'cause it won't --

SHERRI: Anyway --
JOHN: -- 'cause it won't get to me.

SHERRI: Anyway, I'm tau. Here we go. Here we go.

JOHN: I'll -- you be good, huh?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER: (Indiscernible) wants to learn any more scripture.

SHERRI: Do you want to learn any more scripture?

JOHN: Who's this?

SHERRI: Me. This is Sherri.

JOHN: Oh, I thought you were running off on me.

SHERRI: You know, it's just that I'm real concerned that you don't seem to fear, that's all, and, you know, you're talking --

JOHN: Do I fear death? Is that --

SHERRI: Do you fear God?

JOHN: -- what you're asking?

SHERRI: I'm asking if you fear God.

JOHN: Sure, I love God.

SHERRI: The beginning of wisdom is fearing God.

JOHN: Hey.

SHERRI: You know, fearing God?

JOHN: You know, some people fear God, other people love God.

SHERRI: Well, you don't fear God.

JOHN: And, and it's like being a pessimist and being an --

SHERRI: Do you want to know any more scripture about this?

JOHN: It's like being a pessimist and an optimist.

SHERRI: John, do you want to know some more scripture about this?

JOHN: Is it half full or half empty, kid. Huh?

SHERRI: Do you want to know any more scripture about this?

JOHN: Where are we going with this?

SHERRI: Huh?

JOHN: Where are we going with this?

SHERRI: What do you mean, where are we going? For your understanding.

JOHN: Well, you just wanted to be belligerent --

SHERRI: For your salvation, that's my --

JOHN: -- and, and raising your voice and getting crude and all of this kind of stuff.

SHERRI: I'm not getting crude, I said excuse me ahead of time. And it was not as crude as your men were, not your men but, you know, the other guys.

    JOHN: I'm not talking about what happened last Sunday.

    SHERRI: You're all the same, you're all the same company, government. I mean, I don't talk like those guys.

    JOHN: Well, I'm sorry you feel that way.

    SHERRI: You know, they talk a lot cruder and they didn't say, you know, excuse me ahead of time.

    JOHN: Well --

    SHERRI: Anyway, did you want to know some more scripture on this?

    JOHN: Like what?

    SHERRI: About, about anything from David?

    JOHN: What do you want to tell me?

    SHERRI: No, I want to know, do you want to study?

    JOHN: Do I want to study scripture tonight?

    SHERRI: Um-hum.

    JOHN: No. What I asked David is to speak to some people tonight. And he said that he would make them all available for me to speak to them.
SHERRI: Yeah, well, most of them went to bed.

JOHN: I wonder why?

SHERRI: Because. I was in bed. I didn't want to get up. I said I'd talk to him tomorrow. And then he says, well, why don't you talk to him.

JOHN: Oh, you, you couldn't give up the opportunity though, could you, huh?

SHERRI: Hey, I'm sorry, but a lot of these people really don't want to speak to you, because it's all the same sh-- stuff.

JOHN: What? What same stuff?

SHERRI: You know, the questioning, the --

JOHN: You think I'm being antagonistic in my dialogue with you or something?

SHERRI: No, it's just that --

JOHN: I'm really not.

SHERRI: -- you know, it's like senseless. Our whole point is the book, the Bible. You don't really --

JOHN: People call in here and they care about people, and so I tell them, I tell David and I tell Steve look, all I want to do is talk to the person and to ensure that they're all right, to ensure they're in there.
SHERRI: We are all fine here.

JOHN: And ensure that they're in there at their own free will.

SHERRI: We are here in our own free will, and that garbage that --

JOHN: Well, you can speak for yourself.

SHERRI: That garbage that you had on the TV, I was about ready to throw something at it.

JOHN: What, what's that?

SHERRI: Because when you, when the guy said that we, we were not here on our own free will, that's not, that is like so far from the truth.

JOHN: Well, who said that?

SHERRI: That, that guy that was on the TV. I don't know what his name was, name was. I mean, I took notes on the whole thing.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: It was bad. It was, it put us in a real bad light.

JOHN: Well, there's no question in my mind that you're there on your own free will, and I'm not going to argue that. But people call in and they want to know if their loved ones are, are safe, if they've been injured.

SHERRI: I have lived with these people for a long time, and I don't know --

JOHN: Do what?

SHERRI: I have lived with these people for a long time.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: This is a family here.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

SHERRI: And I don't see anybody who wants to leave. Nobody. And you know --

JOHN: But you're not, you're not there to speak for other people though, are you?

SHERRI: No, I'm not.

JOHN: You know, no more than I am either.

SHERRI: Hey, you know what? They would --

JOHN: Hey, David's son told me he wanted to leave.

SHERRI: David's son told you he wanted to leave. You know why? Probably 'cause cartoons or something.

JOHN: I didn't bring up why.

SHERRI: Well, I didn't --

JOHN: And you, it's pure speculation --

SHERRI: I didn't know either.

JOHN: -- on your part why, isn't it?

SHERRI: Speculation.
JOHN:  Isn't it?

SHERRI:  Because, you know, this is real senseless. And here's this person that would like to speak to you.

JOHN:  God bless you, kid.

SHERRI:  God bless me?

JOHN:  Yeah, stay in there.

SHERRI:  I think you better start hoping he blesses something else there, too, 'cause I'd be shaking in your boots.

JOHN:  Hey. Just take care of yourself, everything will work out fine. And I'll see you when you come out.

SHERRI:  (Laughs.)

JOHN:  Because David said you are coming out.

SHERRI:  Oh, we definitely are coming out.

JOHN:  He says it's just a matter of time. So I'll see you when you come out.

SHERRI:  You definitely will see us when we come out.

JOHN:  Okay.

SHERRI:  Okay. (Unidentified voices in background not discernible.) Jean left again.

JOHN:  Pardon me?
SHERRI: Where's Jean? She was wanting to -- (Unidentified male voice in background not discernible.) Do you want to speak or not?
(Indiscernible) or not, yes or no?

MS. BORST: Hi, this Mary Jean Borst again.
I just wanted to --

JOHN: Hey, Mary Jean, how are you?

MS. BORST: Fine. I just wanted to say one thing.

JOHN: Yes, ma'am.

MS. BORST: I used to work for the FBI --

JOHN: Did you really?

MS. BORST: -- years ago, yes.

JOHN: Where?

MS. BORST: Many years ago in Washington,
D.C.

JOHN: No, kidding, whereabouts?

MS. BORST: Well, I was, for a little while I was in the Ident, Identification Building.

JOHN: Don't tell me that, what year?

MS. BORST: Well, I started in '62.

JOHN: So was I.

MS. BORST: Really?

JOHN: Second and D Street, S.W.

MS. BORST: And then I went to the -- oh, I can't remember the name of that building right now, it starts with an R?

    JOHN:  Where?

    MS. BORST:  At that time it was the, the name of the building that I went -- first I was in the Identification Building.

    JOHN:  Uh-huh.

    MS. BORST:  Then I went to the -- I can't remember the name of the building right now. But I, anyway I went --

    JOHN:  Was it the Washington field office?

    MS. BORST:  Oh, I don't think so.

    JOHN:  Or the main building, the main Justice building?

    MS. BORST:  No, I went, it was a smaller building. I went into a steno pool anyway.

    JOHN:  Yeah.

    MS. BORST:  First I was in the Ident Building as a, you know, fingerprint, and then I went to --

    JOHN:  You were in the fingerprint section?

    MS. BORST:  Yes, just for a short time, and then I went --

    JOHN:  You got to be kidding me.

    MS. BORST:  No.
JOHN: In 1962?

MS. BORST: Right.

JOHN: That means two of us were there, doesn't it?

MS. BORST: Really?

JOHN: Yeah.

MS. BORST: Well anyway, I just wanted to say, I mean, I remember a lot of the people that I worked with back then and I'm sure some are still working there.

JOHN: Who was your supervisor back then?

MS. BORST: In the Identification Building?

JOHN: Yeah.

MS. BORST: I don't really remember, see, 'cause I was only in the Identification Building for three months. I went there because --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

MS. BORST: -- there was no opening at the time in the steno pool, and then I --

JOHN: I bet you were happy to get out, huh?

MS. BORST: And -- well, I enjoyed it but I loved it in the steno pool.

JOHN: Yeah.

MS. BORST: And then, but, and I just wanted to mention there was this, I had a good friend back then --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

MS. BORST: -- who later became an agent.

JOHN: Oh, no kidding, who?

MS. BORST: I was just -- Gary Stone. And I was just wondering if there's any way I could --

JOHN: Jerry or Gary?

MS. BORST: Gary, Gary, with a G. And I was just wondering if there's any way I could ever talk to him or at least just tell him hi for me? I heard --

JOHN: Gary Stone. Do you know where he may have gone?

MS. BORST: Well, I heard several years back, it's quite a few years ago, that he was stationed in Texas, but then that was, you know, quite a few years ago --

JOHN: Like how many years ago?

MS. BORST: Oh, that's probably, it's probably been ten years or so ago now, that I heard that. So --

JOHN: Now, was he an agent when you were with him up there or was he clerk?

MS. BORST: No, no, no. He came in as a messenger, right?

JOHN: Uh-huh.
MS. BORST: He was a clerk in that same building I was in the steno pool. And then he --

JOHN: And it wasn't Washington field office, huh? The Old Post Office Building?

MS. BORST: No. It was, it's, the building, the name of the building started with an R.

JOHN: Like the Ryder Building or something?

MS. BORST: Something like that. Well, I don't think it was Ryder but I'm sure it started with an R.

JOHN: Whereabouts was it, do you recall?

MS. BORST: I don't know, but it was a ways away from the Identification Building. It wasn't right there, you know.

JOHN: It wasn't up near the Library of Congress, huh?

MS. BORST: I think it was just like Raleigh, the -- no, not Raleigh.

JOHN: What, it wasn't --

MS. BORST: Rydell, the Rydell Building.

JOHN: Rydell Building?

MS. BORST: That was it, Rydell Building.

JOHN: That was the old, what, Domestic Intelligence Division, Rydell Building?

MS. BORST: It was in the Rydell Building, so it was like--

JOHN: And he was a messenger there?

MS. BORST: He was a messenger there. And then he, you know, later he, he studied, he, you know, went on to become an agent and --

JOHN: Um-hum.

MS. BORST: So it was several years later, probably before he became an agent.

JOHN: Um-hum.

MS. BORST: But, but he became an agent. Last I heard, I believe he was stationed in Texas and that's --

JOHN: Well, let me tell you, we'll try to round him up.

MS. BORST: Oh, I would love that. And his wife. He got married back then when he was still a, a messenger and --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

MS. BORST: -- she was a very good friend of mine who worked in the steno pool with me, and I would love it if you could get a message to them, 'cause they were great people. And you know, so many people back then -- my, my supervisor in the steno pool was Sylvia Wahler, and I'm --

JOHN: I bet you she's retired by now.
MS. BORST: She's what?

JOHN: I bet she's retired by now, huh?

MS. BORST: Well, I don't know. She was, back then she was like her late 20's. So --

JOHN: And she was a supervisor?

MS. BORST: She was a supervisor in the steno pool and -- JOHN: That's young.

MS. BORST: And she's someone I'm sure that would stay with the FBI until she retired, so she's probably still there.

JOHN: Let, let me --

MS. BORST: And I really liked her and I would love it if you could tell her hi for me.

JOHN: Give me, give me her name again.

JOHN: I knew a fellow that --

MS. BORST: But he didn't work for the FBI, he was --

JOHN: -- that was an agent with that name. But he did not, huh?

MS. BORST: No, he, he worked for someone else, but.
JOHN: Yeah. How long did you work for the Bureau?

MS. BORST: I only worked there for 2½ years.

JOHN: Yeah.

MS. BORST: Then I went back to Minnesota.

JOHN: Well, you know something about the Bureau then, huh?

MS. BORST: Yes, somewhat, you know. I mean that was years ago.

JOHN: And you, and you know we're pretty decent people, don't you.

MS. BORST: I know that there are a lot of people that I really loved, you know. Good people all over.

JOHN: Some, some good folks, huh.

MS. BORST: Right. That's very true.

JOHN: Well, well, you can do me a big favor, because we are good people and we are family, and we don't want to mistreat anyone or hurt anyone, and, and if you can plant that seed in there, that, that I'm being as truthful as I can be when I tell you that, that I, I have patience and everybody else out here has an awful lot of patience that this thing will be resolved peacefully and that's, that's our fondest wish. And you know the way the Bureau is, that we like to do things the right way, huh?

    MS. BORST: Well, I believe you. I mean, and I just have one thing I would like to ask of you.

    JOHN: You bet.

    MS. BORST: Please, besides, you know, if you could contact those people I used to know, I would love that, but --

    JOHN: Uh-huh.

    MS. BORST: -- just please keep letting David show you the seals, have an open mind and, and study, because this is the truth.

    JOHN: Okay.

    MS. BORST: It would never be here if it wasn't the truth. Okay? And, and all we want is for everyone to know the truth and that was all.

    JOHN: Well, do you think the seals' gonna let you come out of there shortly?

    MS. BORST: Well, like I said, all I'm waiting is for God to say come out --

    JOHN: Okay.

    MS. BORST: -- and I'm out.

    JOHN: Okay.

    MS. BORST: Okay?

    JOHN: I'll see you when you come out, huh?
MS. BORST: Okay.

JOHN: All right.

MS. BORST: I sure appreciate it.

JOHN: You be good, huh?

MS. BORST: You too. Did you want to talk to David or --

JOHN: Sure, I'll to anybody that's there.

MS. BORST: He says anybody that's here.

JOHN: I'll even talk to Sherri if she wants to talk.

MS. BORST: Okay, let me check, okay? Okay, bye-bye.

JOHN: Okay.

[Gap]

(Unidentified male voice in background not discernible.)

OLIVER: Hello.

JOHN: Hello.

OLIVER: This is an Aussie from down under, mate. Good day.

JOHN: Hey, how are you?

OLIVER: I'm all right.

JOHN: What's your name?

OLIVER: My name's Oliver Gyarfas.
JOHN: Oliver --

JOHN: G-Y -- G-Y, give it, give it to me again. G-Y --

JOHN: Okay.

OLIVER: I just wanted to tell you about my experience.

JOHN: Go ahead.

OLIVER: Okay.

JOHN: Your wife's -- Elizabeth's your wife, huh?

OLIVER: No, my -- Elizabeth's my mother.

JOHN: Oh, I'm sorry.

OLIVER: Yeah. They, they -- I don't where they are at the moment, they're probably pretty worried about me. Anyway, I'd like to tell you about my experience, is that all right?

JOHN: Go ahead.

OLIVER: Okay. I heard, I heard gunfire, all right, so we -- you know, as you know, we've got a bunker.

JOHN: You've got a what?

OLIVER: We've got a bunker. You know what that is?
JOHN: Well, I know what a bunker should be, yeah.

OLIVER: Well, anyway, it's a tornado shelter, something like that.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

OLIVER: So I went down in there and I walked over to the tunnel entrance, and I see one of your guys in a, in the, in a puddle. I could see his reflection above.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

OLIVER: He must have seen us, because, you know, he, he screamed out, he said, "Come out you mother-f'ers" --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

OLIVER: -- you know? I'm, I'm sure you probably know about this. But I couldn't shoot the guy because he was behind the cement, you know? So he was lucky.

JOHN: Why would you want to shoot him?

OLIVER: Well, he was shooting at us, you know, so self-defense, you know.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

OLIVER: That's the only reason I'd shoot anyone. Self-defense.

JOHN: Let me, let me --
OLIVER: I wouldn't go out to kill anyone purposely --

JOHN: Let me ask you something, Oliver.

OLIVER: Go ahead.

JOHN: You're there -- do you have any other relatives in there with you?

OLIVER: Yeah.

JOHN: Who do you, who else do you have in there with you that are your relatives?

OLIVER: I've got a sister, her name's Aisha Gyarfas.

JOHN: Okay, I talked to her earlier, I guess, Aisha.

OLIVER: Yeah.

JOHN: And we, and we were having some confusion as to the spelling of her first name. 'Cause she said there were several spellings for her first name.

OLIVER: Um-hum.

JOHN: What is the correct spelling of her first name?

OLIVER: The correct spelling is A-I-S-H-A.

JOHN: Okay.

OLIVER: That's the correct spelling.

JOHN: And, and that's it, just you and your sister are in there?

    OLIVER: Yeah.

    JOHN: As far as relatives are concerned.

    OLIVER: Yeah.

    JOHN: Do you understand, David and Steve and I have both discussed several nights now, that everyone in there is free to leave if they care to leave, all the men, all the women, all the, all the youngsters. And that's your understanding? That should you care to leave, you're certainly free to leave?

    OLIVER: Oh, yeah.

    JOHN: And no, and nobody's trying to exert any pressure upon you to leave, so that, that you are in fact staying in there on your own free will, is that correct?

    OLIVER: That is correct, yes.

    JOHN: And that David has told me that he has every intention of leaving and he wants to leave and he's just waiting to hear the word and that everybody then will come out, and he will bring his flock out with him, and --

    OLIVER: Yeah, he --

    JOHN: -- is that your impression?

    OLIVER: Yeah, he's waiting on Big Daddy to give him the word.

   JOHN:  On who?

   OLIVER:  Big Daddy. God.

   JOHN:  Well, I guess that's one way to address him. I haven't really addressed him that way before.

   OLIVER:  Well, that's just my little nickname for him, that's all.

   JOHN:  Yeah. But you, you are, you are aware that, you know, you're free to leave, all you got to do is walk down the road and --

   OLIVER:  That is true.

   JOHN:  -- that's the way it'll be. How long have you been down there?

   OLIVER:  I think it's been about 11, 12 months from now.

   JOHN:  Has it really.

   OLIVER:  Yeah. (Indiscernible)

   JOHN:  Having a tough week, huh? Difficult week --

   OLIVER:  Right.

   JOHN:  -- for all involved. Let me, let me ask you something else.

   OLIVER:  Go ahead.

   JOHN:  How come you have all those weapons in there? And, and I'm just asking for your own opinion, you know.

OLIVER: Well, we, you know, we, we know the prophecies and we know, we know what God --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

OLIVER: -- God, we know what the dragon's gonna do. We know.

JOHN: Um-hum.

OLIVER: So we, we, we were prepared for that, you know.

JOHN: And the, the only reason I ask is that I've never been in a, in a church or a religious community before that, that had the volume of weapons that you obviously have in there.

OLIVER: Um-hum.

JOHN: And I understand the Constitution, and I, and I don't want you to, to think that I don't understand about the right to bear arms and that, that it's a right that we, we hold very dearly in this country.

OLIVER: Um-hum.

JOHN: But I've just never been in a religious setting that --

OLIVER: You probably think we've abused that right, don't you?
JOHN: Huh?

OLIVER: You probably think we've abused that right.

JOHN: Well, I'm not here to judge, you know.

OLIVER: Okay. Well, that's good, I'm --

JOHN: You, you've got different, you've got different branches of the government. You got the executive branch and the, the judicial branch and the legislative branch, and it's up to the judicial branch in our system to judge, not, not the executive branch from which I'm a member, you know.

OLIVER: Um-hum.

JOHN: All I, my only hope is that it's all resolved peacefully. And I presume that's your hope.

OLIVER: Oh, for sure.

JOHN: You know, 'cause things have happened, they've happened, right? And we, we can't turn that clock around, can we? But we, but we can communicate, we can talk, and hopefully everything will be resolved successfully. And I believe it and I hope you believe it.

OLIVER: Yeah.

JOHN: Well, that's great.

OLIVER: Something like that.
JOHN: Do you have some message that you want me to --

OLIVER: To pass on to my parents?

JOHN: -- to pass on to your folks?

OLIVER: Tell them I love them.

JOHN: Okay.

OLIVER: That's about it, I guess.

JOHN: And you're all right?

OLIVER: I'm all right, I'm fine, I'm healthy, I'm strong, you know.

JOHN: Okay, and your sister's doing okay too?

OLIVER: I'm ready, I'm ready for any action you guys give out. That, that's all I want --

JOHN: Well, I think you're kind of preempting something, because I told Sherri and I told Graeme and I told Jean and, and everybody that I've talked to in there, that we're very patient people, and that --

OLIVER: Oh, we are too. We won't, you know --

JOHN: -- and that we have no intention and absolutely no intention to come into that facility. We, we are gonna stay out here and we're gonna wait till God gives David the word and when God gives -- OLIVER: Well, but --

JOHN: When God gives David the word that he's coming out, which I know he will, it's not if he will, I know he will, it's when he will --

OLIVER: That's it.

JOHN: -- and you all come out of there, everybody will be safe and sound. And if there are people that have been injured they'll be cared for.

OLIVER: Oh, yeah.

JOHN: And mothers will be able to get back with their children, and families will be reunited. And that's what it's all about, isn't it.

OLIVER: That's it.

JOHN: We're talking peace. We're not talking --

OLIVER: Well, God talks about war a lot, you know. And it's all throughout the Bible.

JOHN: Yeah.

OLIVER: We all hope for the best, I'm sure --

JOHN: But, you know, you can be a pessimist, you can be an optimist, can't you?

OLIVER: That is correct.

JOHN: Sure. The glass is half full, it's half empty, but I'm hoping that it'll all be resolved well. And I think David does and I think you do, don't you?

    OLIVER: Oh, yeah.

    JOHN: We don't want to see people hurt, people, people injured. Anything else you want me to discuss with somebody for you?

    OLIVER: No, I've said about everything I want to say.

    JOHN: Well, listen, you take care of yourself, huh?

    OLIVER: Same to you, buddy.

    JOHN: Okay.

    OLIVER: Okay.

    JOHN: I'll see you when you come out.

    OLIVER: All right.

    JOHN: All right.

    OLIVER: I'll see you too.

    JOHN: Okay.

    JOHN: Bye-bye.

    OLIVER: I think he got kind of tired of talking.

    "* * * * *"

    OLIVER: Hello? Hello?

    JOHN: Hello.
OLIVER: Yes.

JOHN: Who's this?

OLIVER: This is Oliver.

JOHN: Hey, you hung up on me, pal. Is, is David still there, or is Steve there?

OLIVER: Sure, you want to speak to him?

JOHN: Either one.

OLIVER: Yeah. I'm sorry about that, I didn't think you wanted to speak to anyone.

JOHN: Well, I'm not --

OLIVER: He's right here.

JOHN: I'm not ready to go to bed yet.

   * * * * *

JOHN: Hey.

DAVID: I'm sorry. John?

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: Yeah, it was the phone again, they moved it and stuff and --

JOHN: If you look at it it goes bonkers, huh?

DAVID: It's, it's weird. It's the lines for some reason, I don't know what it is.

JOHN: Yeah. How are you feeling?

DAVID: Anyway --

JOHN: How are you feeling?
DAVID: What have you, what have you found out so far, talking with certain people?

JOHN: You got some good folks in there, huh?

DAVID: Well, I, I like to think that I've chosen the best around the world.

JOHN: Well, I, I got a good lecture from Sherri. I, I know she was proud of herself.

DAVID: Well, I don't, know, Sherri --

JOHN: She's a, she's a good person.

DAVID: Sherri's the kind of girl who'd do anything for a person.

JOHN: She got kind of pumped up.

DAVID: Well, now.

JOHN: Huh?

DAVID: Well, now.

JOHN: Hey.

DAVID: It's an eventful event these days, you know.

JOHN: Yeah, I know, I know.

DAVID: Little Ali --

JOHN: A lot of people, a lot of people are under a lot of stress, huh?

DAVID: Little Ali, I have to --

JOHN: He's just a little guy?
DAVID: No, he's a pretty big guy, he's into martial arts and all that.

JOHN: Yeah, uh-huh.

DAVID: He, he was wanting to jump out there and whomp one of your ATF agents.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But he's, we have to keep him kind of under control a bit, 'cause he's, he's got, holds a lot of grudges, and we have to kind of watch him.

JOHN: Well, he sounded fine on the phone.

DAVID: He's --

JOHN: You know, and --

DAVID: He's the kind of character I have to tell him, you know, exhibitioning that makes yourself no better than the others. You know.

JOHN: How are you feeling?

DAVID: Oh, I feel pretty good.

JOHN: You getting around a little more?

DAVID: Well, you know, it's very, it's minimal, you know. If I, if I walk say --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: You know, if I walk say 30, 40 yards and walk back, it's like I ran a 100-yard dash. I mean, it's -- the old body, you know, it's, it's gone through a dramatic experience.
JOHN: Yeah. I listened to kind of an interesting tape this evening. It was, I guess your call to 911 last Sunday.

DAVID: Well, what does it say? Was it my call or was it, it was Steve's and Wayne, I guess.

JOHN: I think it was, I think -- no, it was yours, because there was an early call from Wayne, and I listened to that one, and then, then there was your call on there.

DAVID: Is that that guy named Lynch?

JOHN: It could have been, yeah.

DAVID: Yeah, Larry, Harry Lynch, something like that?

JOHN: There were --

DAVID: Yeah.

JOHN: There were a couple of people. There was, Lynch answered the phone and then someone else was on the phone also.

DAVID: Yeah.

JOHN: And it sounded like just a terrible, terrible situation, huh?

DAVID: Oh, it was.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: What can you do?

JOHN: But you sounded, you sounded pretty healthy at that point.

    DAVID: I wasn't shot yet.
    JOHN: Oh, really?
    DAVID: Really.
    JOHN: God, I was wondering how in the world somebody that had gone through what you had gone through could sound that way.
    DAVID: No, that was, they --
    JOHN: That was early on?
    DAVID: When that conversation was taking place --
    JOHN: Early on?
    DAVID: Yeah. When Steve --
    JOHN: Yeah.
    DAVID: When Lynch was called -- when was it I talked to him? (Unidentified male voice in background not discernible.) Yeah, I remember talking to, or you ran and gave the phone to me and I talked to somebody real quick? (Unidentified male voice in background not discernible.) Okay, and then that's when I left. Then afterwards I got shot.
    JOHN: Yeah, I heard that, and I said man, how could, how could he have been shot. And in a lot of excruciating pain, so it obviously happened first, huh?
DAVID: Yeah. I would -- like I said, I'd show you some pictures, but you, you boneheads, you always, okay, sure we'll have some pictures. Now send out some kids.

JOHN: Well, I'm waiting to see the pictures. You know that. I, I told you last night when you said you were gonna send them out that I'd welcome them. Send them on out. Listen, Steve said that -- excuse me. It's not the company. Steve said that you're going to have a, a service tomorrow between 10 and 11, huh?

DAVID: No. The, the worship, the daily is between 8 and 9.

JOHN: Pardon me?

DAVID: Between 8 and 9 and 2 and 3. That's the daily.

JOHN: Oh, no, I don't mean prayer. I mean a service outside.

DAVID: Oh, right, the burial.

JOHN: Yeah, yeah, between 10 and 11.

DAVID: Yeah.

JOHN: Yeah, okay. I just wanted to make sure everything was squared away, that there aren't any time changes. And, and you could do me a big favor if, if one of you would call in the morning and, and talk to somebody in here about, before you go out.

DAVID: You know, it really, it really blows me away that you guys have such a rotten attitude on this.

JOHN: I don't think we do.

DAVID: You know, if -- I wish I'd had some hindsight and seen exactly how really --

JOHN: Some what?

DAVID: -- really cynical you guys really are.

JOHN: Some what?

DAVID: It might have been my, in my, in my -- I wish I had some hindsight, you know, to where I could have actually seen, you know, how really cynical you guys really are. You know, while you're, while your wounded and dead are laying around here, you're so interested and all that. And then, you know, while we find, when we find our people, you know, then all of a sudden you just don't give a damn.

JOHN: Well, we are, we do care and we told you that --

DAVID: Oh, yeah, your conditions are very stupid, too.

JOHN: -- how, how it could be worked out. And hey, you've chosen it --
DAVID: It's gonna, it's gonna, it's gonna be worked out.

JOHN: You, you've chosen to do something else and that's fine.

DAVID: Like I say, you're gonna be, you're gonna be punished. You know, you're gonna be punished. Your reasoning, your controlled oratation (sic), you know, your discernment (Phonetic) unconcernment (sic) for the situation. You're a cold heart. You know, you're just a freezer, you know what I'm saying? Like I said, you know, you remind me of, like my dad, my stepdad. All talk, you know, like, it's like someone puts their quarter in a slot --

JOHN: Hey, you didn't say he was such a --

DAVID: -- you know, and you operate.

JOHN: You didn't say he was such a bad guy, though.

DAVID: Oh, I told you. I said we never really knew him.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: Well?

JOHN: Well, that doesn't mean he was bad, huh?

DAVID: Oh, yeah he was bad. He was a gangster.
JOHN: He finally, he finally came around, didn't he?

DAVID: But, but one of your, but one of your, one of your assistants, one of your assistants let him go because you all liked each other.

JOHN: Let, let me ask you something. I want to --

DAVID: That's what I was gonna teach you.

JOHN: I want to, I want to get some, some details as to what you all intend to do, you know, between 9 and 10 tomorrow with Peter, so, and, and exactly where so I can let our, our folks know.

DAVID: Hey, they'll --

JOHN: You'll be right out across from the flag pole there?

DAVID: Yeah, they'll know. They'll see us.

JOHN: Well, just, just don't, just don't go indiscriminately wondering out some place, huh? Do you understand what I'm saying?

DAVID: Yeah, I hear what you're saying.

JOHN: And, and somebody, we've got to have communications and we got to maintain communications.

DAVID: I communicated with that. I told you what I was gonna do.

JOHN: But I don't want any surprises tomorrow, somebody come bouncing out of there. I want somebody to communicate before it happens and if people are going to carrying shovels, I want to know if people are carrying shovels.

DAVID: So what are you gonna, what, are you gonna try to shoot somebody, is that what you're gonna do?

JOHN: Of course not. Of course not. But we want to be reasonable and we want to be sensible about this, huh? Other, otherwise --

DAVID: Hey, listen.

JOHN: -- I wouldn't be talking to you, would I.

DAVID: Listen. Listen. I wouldn't be talking to you if I wasn't trying to give you guys a half a chance. Bringing that many law enforcement agencies, three helicopters, two trucks with the gooseneck trailers loaded down with ATF agents is not very sensible in my book. And if it's in your book, I think you better throw your book away.

JOHN: What, what's done is done, huh?

DAVID: Yeah. And I think someone's gonna pay.

JOHN: I can't turn that around. You can't turn it around.
DAVID: Somebody's gonna -- oh, yeah, well, we'll see. Someone's gonna pay.

JOHN: I can't turn it around and you can't turn it around. You know, and all we can try to do is communicate and try to use some common sense, huh?

DAVID: Common --

JOHN: And try to --

DAVID: Common sense?

JOHN: -- try to work this thing out peacefully.

DAVID: Common sense? No.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: Boy, I think you need to get a dictionary and before you talk, you need to go and reference all the words you're fixing to use. Common sense.

JOHN: Remember what apparently the --

DAVID: Hey, where's the milk?

JOHN: Huh?

DAVID: Where's the milk?

JOHN: What, what did we say?

DAVID: What did we say before?

JOHN: What did we say before when?

DAVID: So, you're, you're gonna keep lying to us and like I say, it's gonna come down to the draw.

   JOHN: No, it isn't. It's all gonna work out fine. But remember, you agreed that no one was gonna exit the building with a weapon. And that there would be communications before anybody exited any buildings, right? Just live up to that, huh?

   DAVID: Yeah, we told you --

   JOHN: I don't want anything to happen, you don't want anything to happen either.

   DAVID: Well, the news wants something to happen. The news wants to see some firecrackers.

   JOHN: Well, why do people go to the Indianapolis 500?

   DAVID: Why do they go see movies all the time?

   JOHN: Sure.

   DAVID: Terminator and Destroyer and all that kind of stuff. They like it. They dig it.

   JOHN: Huh.

   DAVID: This is the way, this is the way your country is.

   JOHN: What, what were you watching on the tube tonight? Huh?

   DAVID: What did you watch?

   JOHN: No, I said what were you watching tonight.

    DAVID: Nothing, only --
    JOHN: You --
    DAVID: I only have, I don't have an antenna, I only got one channel.
    JOHN: You don't have an antenna?
    DAVID: No.
    JOHN: I thought you had a big dish over there.
    DAVID: It doesn't work. You all shot it up.
    JOHN: No.
    DAVID: You did.
    JOHN: Not really. Huh?
    DAVID: You did.
    JOHN: You're kidding me.
    DAVID: I told you that --
    JOHN: You only have one channel?
    DAVID: We got one TV.
    JOHN: Well, you must have some videotapes
you can watch, huh?
    DAVID: The VCR was shot up too. Now, we got a VCR, but it's not hooked up to this TV.
    JOHN: Uh-huh.
    DAVID: They hooked it up to the other TV, which doesn't have an antenna which was connected to the satellite, and the T -- and the videotape you brought, it was, it was blank.

JOHN: Well, hey, before, before anybody does any moving around tomorrow, please give somebody a call here, huh?

DAVID: Want a Bible study?

JOHN: I don't know if I'm ready for one tonight. I may let you have a good night's sleep --

DAVID: Well, you --

JOHN: -- we get into a lot of -- I had a Bible study talking to Sylvia.

DAVID: Sylvia?

JOHN: I don't mean Sylvia, Sherri.

DAVID: Sherri?

JOHN: Sherri. Boy, she was pumped up, huh?

DAVID: Oh, boy, she was a, she was a hard person in the beginning, though.

JOHN: You're kidding.

DAVID: Oh, a lot of these people were.

JOHN: That's hard to believe.

DAVID: That's why I keep talking with you.

JOHN: She -- (Laughs.)

DAVID: Maybe, maybe you might see the light.
JOHN: She didn't say, she didn't seem to think it was too difficult to grasp.

DAVID: Oh, in the beginning they were, you know, they already had their beliefs and things like that, and you know, yeah, they didn't mind hearing about Jesus, but, you know, what, "What are you trying to say?" they kept saying. "What's your point? What's your point? What are you trying to say?" So you know, I had to work real slow with them.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: Most people don't realize there's a New Testament that revolves around Christ, the sanctuary and truth that's supposed to come in the latter days.

JOHN: What, what do you think the intentions are tomorrow? You just gonna go across and have a little, a little service there?

DAVID: Got to go dig --

JOHN: Are you going to be able to make it? Are you going to be able to get across there?

DAVID: No, I'm not going to be able to get across.

JOHN: You're not? You don't feel that well, huh?

DAVID: Well, I mean, that's a big, pretty big step there, you know, stepping off on the front there.

JOHN: I don't know, I, you know, I haven't been there. I haven't seen it. I just don't know what's over there. All I've seen is a picture and, and I know that there's a building there and there's a flag pole and what, a walkway or something. Or no walkway?

DAVID: No, there's a walkway in the front, yeah.

JOHN: Yeah. And I, I didn't know how difficult it would be. And, but I understand that Steve says they were just going to go across the road there and, from the flag pole and, and have their ser- - burial service there. And I'm sure you'll have a service inside before, I guess, huh? That you can participate in.

DAVID: Man, you guys are really funny.

JOHN: Why? We're funny, yeah, I know. The five kids?

DAVID: Yeah, I'm looking right at you right now.

JOHN: I know. You think. How long do you think this is take tomorrow?

DAVID: I don't know.
JOHN: About an hour?

DAVID: Oh, it may take an hour to dig the hole.

JOHN: I mean, do you intend to send a couple of people out early to do that and then have the service afterwards?

DAVID: Yeah, probably.

JOHN: Okay.

DAVID: Be sure and tell his mom and dad, though.

JOHN: You bet. You bet. Does he have any relatives in there at all?

DAVID: Yeah.

JOHN: I mean, that are still inside there?

DAVID: Oh, yeah.

JOHN: Okay.

DAVID: Yeah, he's got, he's got about, let's see, one, two, three, four, four relatives.

JOHN: Have anybody else that you have to handle the same way?

DAVID: Nope.

JOHN: That's good. I'm glad to hear that, because there was some concern that there was, you know, and I'm glad to hear that you don't.

DAVID: Well, when you all said, when they were saying we had 14 or 15 wounded, you all was asking the kids, the kids were probably repeating what was said about the ATF agents over the TV.

JOHN: It could be.

DAVID: Over the radio.

JOHN: It could be.

DAVID: So it blew me away, I thought man, for kids that are so unstable that don't know anything, boy, you all -- (Laughs.) Oh, boy.

JOHN: Hey, they're good kids. They've been through a lot, though.

DAVID: Oh, we know they're good kids.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: They're the best in the world. They've had the best training.

JOHN: And they've been through a traumatic experience, you know, and, and it was tough on all of them, I'm sure, you know, as it was on, on the adults. They don't expect to go through something like that either, do they?

DAVID: Well, like Ali was telling you about war all through the scriptures. Like, well, like I say, you don't believe, why should I waste our time.

JOHN: I enjoy listening though, sometimes. Just not into -- I don't like to get into a debate like with Sherri. And then Sherri wanted to, she wanted to get kind of offensive there. It's not my style.

DAVID: Where did you learn your, where did -- did you go to Jesuit's College also?

JOHN: (Laughs.) Why? No, I didn't.

DAVID: You didn't.

JOHN: No. Where did you get your --

JOHN: I was Augustinian-trained.

JOHN: What's that?

DAVID: That's an order of priests.

JOHN: I see. How many other guys out there of those, of those five kids, how many of them were also Augustinian-trained?

JOHN: Well, I don't, I don't know what their religious backgrounds are. I, I have no idea.

DAVID: Oh, so, so most of them so far is Catholic, the one I've talked to.

JOHN: Is that, is that a good trait or a bad trait, huh?

DAVID: Well, it depends. Depends on how much you know about it. If you don't know that much about it, yeah, we can have grace. If you know a lot about it, we're dead-set enemies, aren't we.

JOHN: Well, I don't think we are, are we.
DAVID: Yeah, I think so.

JOHN: I think we both want to resolve this thing the same way, don't we.

DAVID: Well --

JOHN: Peacefully.

DAVID: Some say peace, and yet their hearts are full of war, you know how the scriptures go.

JOHN: Well, you know how my heart is. I've tried to explain it many times. I haven't, I haven't talked in riddles and I haven't talked in, in any other manner.

DAVID: Well, let's call it parables. You know, Christ spake in parables so that the wicked, you know, wouldn't understand him. Of course the simple, the childlike, those who, that opens their heart and mind, they understand what's being said. It's funny how God does things like that. Catch the wicked in their pride, bring down all their arrogancy and pride. Final warnings, none heeded. Then executive judgement. Got an investigative, judicial, --

JOHN: And a legislative.

DAVID: -- and an executive. Yeah, God's got a system like that.

JOHN: He does, doesn't He?

DAVID: Yeah. He sends the truth into the world. When you hear it, you investigate it. If you don't, then you're being judged. And then all of a sudden the penalties God pronounces the ungodly who reject His truth will be executed.

JOHN: Yeah.

DAVID: And the rewards that God has pronounced for the righteous who have listened will be executed. Anyway, I guess I'll let you get some sleep.

JOHN: Let me ask you a couple, couple things that we, that we kicked around earlier today, huh?

DAVID: Sure, go ahead.

JOHN: The, I -- first of all, I appreciate your putting those people on the line with me, I really do.

DAVID: Well, that's their right. That's their God-given and American right.

JOHN: Well, I know some were probably reluctant to do it and maybe you give them a little prodding.

DAVID: Well, there's freedom -- well, I keep telling them, I say, you know, there's nothing that's gonna harm them.

JOHN: No.
DAVID: It's their freedom of speech.

JOHN: You sound tired.

DAVID: Oh, a little.

JOHN: You got a good night's sleep last night.

DAVID: No, I didn't.

JOHN: How come?

DAVID: Remember I'm praying for you.

JOHN: (Laughs.) God, I guess you were up all night, huh?

DAVID: All the time.

JOHN: But I, I want to thank you for, for having those people talk to us, and --

DAVID: Got to also remember, I lost over three pints of blood, too.

JOHN: Yeah, but you sure sounded --

DAVID: I'm a strong person --

JOHN: You sounded chipper two nights ago.

JOHN: Well, it comes and goes, it comes and goes. Depends on what time you catch me.

JOHN: You really sounded good.

DAVID: Well, I appreciate that.

JOHN: You know, you were, you were on a roll and, and I really hope, you know, that you get some rest and get some soup and other things in you.
DAVID: Got to build some blood back up.

JOHN: You bet. Build up your strength, 'cause I want to be there waiting for you when you come walking out.

DAVID: Okey-doke.

JOHN: There's, there's a couple of people that I didn't get to talk to, and --

DAVID: Which people is that?

JOHN: It was Wayne Martin's wife, I guess, Sheila.

DAVID: Uh-huh.

JOHN: The Fatta's, Paul Fatta, Kalani Fatta.

DAVID: Uh-huh.

JOHN: And Perry Jones, who was Rachel's -- I think she said her dad.

DAVID: Oh, boy, she's teed at you.

JOHN: Why?

DAVID: Why?

JOHN: I thought Rachel and I had a, had a nice talk and that --

DAVID: You are --

JOHN: -- and we had a nice chat with the kids.

DAVID: He's an older man.
JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: Anyway, we'll work that out tomorrow.

JOHN: Let me ask you two things. Then we'll call it a night, huh? Okay?

DAVID: Okay, two more things, go ahead.

JOHN: 'Cause you sure sound tired.

DAVID: Well, go ahead.

JOHN: How are we gonna resolve this thing? That's one. What are you gonna tell me now? That's one.

DAVID: I've already told you.

JOHN: When you get the word?

DAVID: When you get the word I'll come out.

JOHN: No, when you get the word, right?

DAVID: When I get the word --

JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: -- I'll be out.

JOHN: You got any ideas how close we're getting? Whether things are getting better or that things aren't getting better.

DAVID: Well, I mean, sh-- the things are not gonna get any better or any worse.

JOHN: Huh? Well, yeah, some things will get better.
DAVID: (Laughs.)

JOHN: I hope.

DAVID: Oh, boy.

JOHN: I hope you get better, huh?

DAVID: Yeah, I want to get better.

JOHN: Just don't laugh too much, now, don't sneeze, don't cough.

DAVID: Yeah, well, it's not, it's not --

JOHN: Don't look at, don't look at those five kids.

DAVID: Oh, boy, that really -- I enjoyed every, every pain when I laughed on that one.

JOHN: (Laughs.) I bet you did, huh? And, and I, I was asked to ask you that at the press conference tomorrow, you know, they have these daily press conferences. Usually I'm sleeping, so I don't get to see the press conferences. But I was asked as to whether or not you wanted to be addressed as the Lamb, as David, as Christ, or as the Lord.

DAVID: My name is David Koresh.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: And that's what you need to call me by.

JOHN: Okay.

DAVID: Because you don't know if I'm the Lamb or Christ.

JOHN: Well, I know what you told me.

DAVID: Or the Lord. Well, it's like this.

JOHN: You told me, what, at least five times.

DAVID: I showed you something and you were looking at it.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

DAVID: But you refused to see. so I'm going to show you something --

JOHN: Well, I'm trying.

DAVID: I'm going to show you something in the future where you will not be able to deny.

JOHN: Okay.

DAVID: Okay?

JOHN: You would like to be continued to be addressed as David.

DAVID: That's what people should know me as, David Koresh.

JOHN: Okay.

DAVID: My name. It's my legal name.

JOHN: Listen, you have a good night's rest, huh?

DAVID: Okey-doke.

JOHN: And take care of yourself. And maybe in the morning, I can talk to Perry if he's not upset, to Sheila, to Paul, and Kalani.

   DAVID: Okey-doke.
   JOHN: Okay.
   DAVID: Lylatov.
   JOHN: Shalom.
   DAVID: Bye.

   (A brief conversation ensued between negotiator and another federal employee who called in and was directed to use another telephone line.)
