U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO & FIREARMS

TAPE #115

3/11/93 and 3/12/93
10:26 P.M. - 11:04 A.M.
(Tape 115)

JOHN: --it's handled. Go ahead.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hang on just a second.

JOHN: Go ahead.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

Oh, really. A couple more gallons of milk.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I have a request for you.

JOHN: (Laughter.) I think I just heard it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: A couple more gallons of milk?

JOHN: Uh-huh.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: You know the electricity's been going off and --

JOHN: Hey. The -- ours has been going off too.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah --

JOHN: We were sitting in the dark here.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. It has -- it doesn't stay off long actually, but, but --

JOHN: Hey, the electricity was on all night last night wasn't it?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

No, it went off -- yeah.

JOHN: Hey, Kathy.
KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

We were sitting in the dark for a few minutes. Yeah, tonight.

JOHN: Kathy.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

From the, from the storm.

UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: Oh, I see.

JOHN: Kathy.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: The electricity did not go off last night, did it?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No. I don't think so.

JOHN: It did not because we had a very --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well, I --

JOHN: We had a very good dialogue last night. The electricity will not go off tonight, because we've had a very good dialogue this evening. But --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well, that's good.

Well, not --

JOHN: -- I'm sure we, I'm sure we can probably work something out for the milk when you come out in the morning.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I, I'm not even saying that the electricity going off has affected the milk, okay? I'm just saying that if we could possibly get a couple more gallons --

JOHN: Well, you're in short supply, right.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- of milk it would be appreciated by the babies greatly.

JOHN: I bet they would. And, and I'm sure that when you come out in the morning the milk will go in in the morning.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. Also, two more things. If you can bring --

JOHN: You're throwing a lot of things at me now, aren't you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Please, I just found out David --

JOHN: Boy, Steve's, Steve's putting a list together there, isn't he.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I just found out David's on the front cover --

JOHN: Of?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Newsweek and Time.

JOHN: David's on the front cover of Newsweek and Time.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Maybe it's not the front cover, but there's an article in there.

JOHN: Um-hum.
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: So if you can drop those off when I come out as well. John already knows, I'm going to call at nine.

JOHN: Who? Who?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: John 1 -- 2.

JOHN: Oh, oh, okay. Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'm going to call at nine in the morning so probably shortly thereafter, as soon as he can get Brian over there basically after that.

JOHN: Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Because I have already got myself a little bit packed up --

JOHN: Good, good.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Got a couple -- in the wash.

JOHN: Let me ask you something. Let me ask you something. Do you have any medical problems that we should be aware of?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No.

JOHN: Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'm in perfect health.

JOHN: Boy, you're one of the few people I've ever heard ever say that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hey. I don't even catch colds.

JOHN: You don't?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No. Come on, I've got four kids.

JOHN: You don't have time to catch a cold.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Are you allowed to get sick when you have four kids?

JOHN: You don't have time for it, do you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No.

JOHN: But -- well, I wanted to make sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Brian was pretty sick when he came out.

JOHN: Yeah, he was. Yeah, he was. I saw, I saw a lot of the youngsters that came out.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. He was throwing up --

JOHN: Little Jamie --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- he was throwing up Monday night that he -- before he went out.

JOHN: Yeah. Saw little Jamie when he came out. Cute little guy, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Poor Jamie.

JOHN: Yeah.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: He's the same age as my oldest son.
JOHN: You got to squeeze them and love them, don't you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: Yeah. They need a lot of loving.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I like to smile at Jamie. I saw him once in the grocery store. I happened to be in town in the grocery store and Jamie goes to school, right? And I just, just glanced up and I see Jamie in his wheelchair and I'm like going, wow, I saw Jamie in town. And this lady's wheeling him by and a bunch of other kids and I just couldn't help but smile, you know --

JOHN: Sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- these kids are just out to adventure and see the world and it's really exciting for him. Just to hear the noise, you know, is so exciting for him.

JOHN: Well, hopefully Jamie will be reunited with Sheila before long too, huh? That'd be nice. His mom.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That, that'd be nice. He's, he's -- she's been worried about him because he's not in the pictures of the other kids. I'm sure he's being taken care of --

JOHN: Well, they have to get him some --
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: -- some special help, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: Some special love. I know. I've got a little god-daughter that has some similar problems and they need a lot of love.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It's just amazing that he's so small --

JOHN: Yeah, for his age.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And he's -- yeah, he's eleven. He's the same age as my oldest son.

JOHN: How does, how does he comprehend?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I think he's eleven.

JOHN: Mentally?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: As far as I -- I don't know too much about him, but I do know that he -- that sounds will either soothe him or frighten him.

JOHN: Yeah, yeah.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: He, I mean, if I get up close to him and just -- if he's crying or something, if I just get up close to him and talk to him or, you know, just show him my face, it soothes him greatly. Just to see that somebody's around.

JOHN: Oh, you bet. You bet.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: But, I mean --
JOHN: Well, I saw him when they brought him in here and he was with the ladies from Health and Human Services.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: He's real good with the ladies that --

JOHN: Hey, yeah, he is.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- take him to school and stuff.

JOHN: He breaks your heart, doesn't he?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. But I -- it's hard to understand --

JOHN: Are there any other questions I could answer for you? You know? Because I want you to, you know, I want it to be perfectly clear in your mind and of course, talk to Wayne and if there, if there are other questions, I'd certainly be happy --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well, will I be, will I be able to -- that's probably going to be difficult. See, what I'm trying to do is -- I, I'm a real picky person. I mean, I know anybody that's got a degree is going to be a good lawyer, okay? I realize that.

JOHN: Anybody that has a degree is going -- every lawyer has got a degree.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: A couple of degrees.
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I want a lawyer that's going to really understand where I'm coming from.

JOHN: Well --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Being a mother, know my sit -- I want somebody that's, that's got heart, too.

JOHN: Believe me --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Besides two degrees.

JOHN: There are, there are a lot of them out here --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: So --

JOHN: -- that are, that are interested in handling that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: So what I'm saying is, me not knowing them and me not knowing their backgrounds, I wouldn't know who would be best for my situation and whereas Wayne or Steve might.

JOHN: Well, how much education do you have?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I have two years of college.

JOHN: Well, you, you can assess people pretty well when they're sitting down talking to you, can't you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Do I have to, like, interview each of them?

JOHN: Oh, no, no. But I mean you can see if some guy's a used car salesman or somebody's looking out for your --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: -- best interest, right.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: And that's the key --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: But I can also --

JOHN: -- that's the key issue. Whether somebody is looking out for your best interest. And Wayne may be able to give you the name of an attorney to contact in town. Not necessarily a criminal lawyer, but an attorney to contact in town that he has trust and faith and confidence in who will recommend one to you.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. I can probably do that.

JOHN: You know, he, he is going to have his friends in town that he has practiced law with that would give you some good advice --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's a good idea.

JOHN: -- and that may be the best thing to do.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: All right. That's a good idea. I'll do that.

JOHN: You know, and -- because you've got to be comfortable with your lawyer, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. I, I've never had a lawyer. I've never been to court before. Well, actually I did have a lawyer in my divorce, but --

JOHN: But just to handle the paperwork.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. That was -- it was a woman and it was just totally all, you know, by the book stuff.

JOHN: Wow. I look forward to seeing you and I, and I know you look forward to seeing Brian and, and gettin back together.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. You tell them to have some cameras there waiting and you can send the pictures back here to these people to see how happy Brian was.

JOHN: Well, I'm sure the media will be there and I'm sure they'll be showing it on TV.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Oh, no. You mean I've got to comb my hair?

JOHN: Might be a good idea.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well --

JOHN: You've got plenty of time to get gussied up.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Don't worry. I already took -- JOHN: Between --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- I already cleaned up.

JOHN: Between now and the morning.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. I did that. I cleaned up.

JOHN: Let me, let me --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I even washed my hair.

JOHN: Let me mention something to you and, and -- we've had a lot of people call in here from all over about friends and relatives that are inside there.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Um-hum.

JOHN: And about their welfare and how they're doing and they're healthy and this, that, and the other thing. And, and if you know of anybody in there -- I, I've talked to Steve and given him the names of several that have called in and I -- and he's making arrangements. We've talked to a bunch of them already and he's making arrangements to talk to others, but if you know of someone that's in there that would like to get any message passed to a loved one, you just tell them to either get a hold of Steve or go pick up that phone that you're talking on because --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Every, everybody has -- yeah, pretty much that word's been passed around several days now.

JOHN: Good. Good. As long as they're aware of it, that somebody's at the end of the phone.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: See, there's a lot of people here, though, John, that don't want to get on --

JOHN: Are confused

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- the phone. No.

JOHN: I know.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Because, because they hear reports and it just, it just upsets you so much. You just don't want to even deal with the people out there.

JOHN: Well, see one of the problems is you, you look at TV in there. I'm sure you've seen the, the TV broadcasts and all of that stuff, right?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: And so much of what the media is saying is conjecture, speculation. They don't know.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No, they don't.

JOHN: They don't know. I mean, they'll know when everyone comes out and they hear some stories they'll know. But it's pure speculation on their part, you know, as to what's going on and the living conditions in there and this, that, and the other thing, so --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It --

JOHN: Take some of it with a grain of salt, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It, it's just a shame that the world doesn't know anything.

JOHN: Well, you can tell anybody you want how you were talked to by myself, by the other John, and you make up your mind whether you think we were being fair and reasonable and answered your questions or whatever --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Believe you me, John, in my prayers you are in my highest regard. And God's going to have --

JOHN: Well, thank you.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- God's going to have mercy on you. I know it.

JOHN: I hope He, I hope He does.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I know He will.

JOHN: Well --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: He knows --

JOHN: -- believe me, John, this John's --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- he knows your heart.

JOHN: -- not alone. There's a lot of people out here that all have the same contention that there's no animosity. We're trying to get this thing resolved as peacefully as possible because everybody will have their day in court. And, and it's -- you know, a lot of people may not like our judicial system, but it's the best one in the world and it's fair. So, we'll see. I look forward to seeing you in the morning, huh?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. I'll be ready. I'll call you about nine.

   JOHN: Is Steve there? Or you got him out scurrying around?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: I don't really know where he is right now.

   JOHN: Well, anybody else there?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: There's nobody here now. There's nobody here next to me.

   JOHN: They left you alone?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: Sherri's asleep.

   JOHN: You mean the Happy Birthday girl?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: Sherri had a birthday?

   JOHN: Yesterday.

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: Really?

   JOHN: Yeah. She didn't tell you?

   KATHERYN SCHROEDER: No, nobody -- we don't talk about things like that.

JOHN: You don't?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Nah.

JOHN: Well, she was -- no, no, no. I'm trying to think how old she was. Forty-three? That's why she didn't want to discuss it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's just about right.

JOHN: That's why she didn't want to discuss it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's probably right.

JOHN: They stop counting at 39.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hey, you know they told Steve -- Steve's age on the, on the --

JOHN: What, 48, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Steve's not 48.

JOHN: Well, that's what I heard on TV.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's what I heard on TV too, but he don't look 48. He can't be 48.

JOHN: He sure is.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: There's no way.

JOHN: Born in 1944.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Just no way the man is 48. You got to, you got to see him. I mean, I don't know personally, but, I mean, his wife has some gray hair --
JOHN: Hey, people would tell me there's no way I'm my age either. You're only as old as you feel.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I guess.

JOHN: Huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I guess. He, he says he's 24.

JOHN: Has he ever been known to lie?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: Well, that's a clue isn't it?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: You bet.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I think though the nose gets a little bit longer when he makes that statement --

JOHN: Just like Pinocchio.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: You're right. Well, listen. Nobody's there with you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: No. Everybody's gone -- Sherri's asleep.

JOHN: Well, if you, if you can find that rascal, he was supposed to get back on the phone when you were done.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Oh, you got my, my request, right?

JOHN:  I do.  Milk, Newsweek --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Newsweek and Time.

JOHN:  -- and Time.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  That's it.  And Brian.

JOHN:  You've got it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Okay.  All right.

JOHN:  So probably --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  I'll see if I can find him and have him call you back.  How's that?

JOHN:  Do that and probably the other John will be here in the morning.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Okay.

JOHN:  Okay?  You have a good night's sleep.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Thank you.

JOHN:  Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  You too.

JOHN:  Bye-bye.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Bye-bye.

(Connection broken.)

*   *   *   *   *

(Phone ringing.)

JOHN TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:  Here.  You can hang onto this.  I got the --

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  -- routine.
JOHN TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: -- We are working on -- hey, I've got it here. I know David's going to holler, somebody answer the phone --

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: They never explained why they didn't answer that whole series of --

(Connection never made.)

* * * * *

JOHN: Hello.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: John?

JOHN: Yes.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: This is Kathy again.

JOHN: How are you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Just thought I'd call you back and let you know that Steve is crashed.

JOHN: He has?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. He's been up a lot. He was talking to somebody about something and he just passed out. He's been snoring. So, David asked me to ask you to change the number of gallons of milk to six instead of two and make sure it's whole milk and I will definitely call you right after worship in the morning. Worship's from eight to nine.

JOHN: Uh-huh.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And, and I'll call you right after worship and start setting things up.

    JOHN:  Okay. The -- let me ask you something. We -- it's our impression that Oliver and Brad and Kevin are probably going to be coming out right after you come out.

    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Um-hum.
    JOHN:  Is that your impression also?
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  I'm not sure if right
after, but yeah. They're coming out.
    JOHN:  Okay. Okay.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  They --
    JOHN:  They may want to see how you're received and, and something like that.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Right. We are, we are hoping that if I come back to you after I go through the system you might let me use your phone there or whatever and call the camp back and let them know that everything went well with me, you know, for them to -- you know what I'm saying? To know -- to, to use for good rapport for further negotiations for more people to come out. You know what I'm saying?
    JOHN:  Uh-huh.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  So, I know that's totally up to y'all, but I'll talk to you about that when I come out.
JOHN: Well, we look forward to it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN: We really do.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'm getting, I'm getting --

JOHN: And I can't tell you that we have the Newsweek article or the Times article, but we're sending out for it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN: Because we haven't seen it.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. Well --

JOHN: And it may have just hit the stands.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. I have no idea.

Steve had told me that earlier and he may have heard it over the phone or somebody -- radio or somebody said something. I don't know.

JOHN: Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: If you can't get it first thing in the morning, well then maybe you can get it when the next person comes out or whatever, but --

JOHN: Hey, and we understand the, the interest of the milk.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. If you can't get the six for me, he said a few. He didn't give a number. Steve said, oh, well I guess he means two. He meant six.

JOHN: Well, there's pessimists and there's optimists, aren't there?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. Well, there's a lot of babies here and they can go through six gallons of milk pretty quick.

JOHN: Yeah.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And --

JOHN: Do you know whether any of the -- do you know anybody that's got any medical problems in there that we should be aware of. You know, and I know --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: There are in here --

JOHN: -- I know Judy's got the problem --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: -- because I've seen it on the video.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: You know, I've seen that and it didn't look good.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN: And, as a matter of fact, it looked like it was getting gangrenous.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It's getting pretty bad.
JOHN: And that's why -- if you have any way of talking to that woman at all, you don't want blood poisoning setting in on something like that and she'll not only lose her hand, she'll lose her arm, she can lose her life. If, if you know any woman that's got any influence over her -- and I'm sincere. It's not, it's not a number to me. It's not a body to me. It's somebody's life. If you can --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'll talk to her myself and --

JOHN: I know she's --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- because she is worried about it. She told me tonight that it's getting bigger. She is a little bit worried about it.

JOHN: Hey, it's not going to get any better is it? Not there. Because Steve, Steve has told me that -- I, I asked David tonight if he was taking any medication because there's a real problem that he can be confronted with known as septicemia and it's blood poisoning and it's what killed Jim Henson, the muppets?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Uh-huh.

JOHN: It killed him in 24 hours when the -- once the blood poisoning set in, so it's, it's a serious thing, but we don't need those problems and if anybody in there has any medical problems, hey, the hospitals are here.

    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Right.
    JOHN:  And, and they'll get the best, best care available.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Well, I'm sure that once everybody sees how it goes with me, you know, they'll be more apt to --
    JOHN:  That's good.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  -- make up their mind that the system is -- can be used.
    JOHN:  And if you, if you think there's anybody out there that wants to talk to us this evening --
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  I'll let them know.
    JOHN:  Can you hold on just one second?
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  I -- John --
    JOHN:  Can you hold on? Somebody's asking me a question.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Okay. Go ahead.
    JOHN:  Hold on.
    (Pause.)
    JOHN:  When you come out tomorrow --
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Yeah.
    JOHN:  -- what we would like to do, instead of just taking some flash pictures, we'd like to get a video tape of you and Brian that we can send back inside.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's, that's great.

JOHN: How would that be?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's wonderful.

JOHN: Would you have any objection to that?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That'd be wonderful.

JOHN: Okay. Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'm sure that my loved ones in here would love to see that.

JOHN: That's good. That's good. Well, listen if there are anybody -- anyone else you can think of that would like to talk to us, all they've got to do is go pick up that phone where you are --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. And I'll --

JOHN: -- and they can talk to us and talk to, talk to Judy.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'm going to talk to Judy. Yeah. I'll talk to her tonight.

JOHN: Will you? Because I'm serious about it. It did not look good. You got a -- you're a better judge of it than I am. You're there with her.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: She knows it doesn't look good, so I'll talk to her and see what she thinks.

JOHN: Hey, she'd like to be in a position to raise her kids and care for her kids too, wouldn't she?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Probably.

JOHN: Well --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hey --

JOHN: You don't want to do it with --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- we're mothers, you
know?

JOHN: You don't want to do it the hard way, without a hand, without an arm. Something like that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: True. Okay.

JOHN: Look out, look out for their best interest, huh?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. I'll talk to her and I'll see if there's anybody else that wants to talk to you. I'll tell them where the phone is.

JOHN: Just got to pick it up.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I tell them what the phone number is and everything.

JOHN: Okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. Thank you, John.

JOHN: See you.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: All right. Bye-bye.
JOHN:  Bye.

(Connection broken.)

(Voice crackling.)

(Phone ringing.)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  They may have started early.

JOHN:  Let's disconnect -- give it a second.

(Disconnected.)

(Dialing.)

(Phone ringing.)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  They may have started early because she's leaving early, which is a good sign.  It's a good sign.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2:  We've had to wake Steve up every morning.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  Yeah.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2:  So he's not there.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  No answer.

(Phone still ringing.)

JOHN:  I don't have any dial tone.

(Disconnected.)

(Phone ringing.)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1:  Could be prayers.  Yeah.
UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: Is this the wake-up call for Steve?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Night shift had the same problem last night.

JOHN: Okay.

(Phone still ringing.)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Day shift, right? We've never had this on day shift? I don't know. No answer -- usually it's answered by the third ring.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: We have had phone problems, though, but it's not a phone problem. There's nobody there or -- one or the other.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hello, this is Kathy.

JOHN DOLAN: Good morning, Kathy. Let me transfer you to the other phone here.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: How are you this morning?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Oh, I'm cold.

JOHN DOLAN: Cold and damp in there, I know.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It's very cold.

JOHN DOLAN: I know.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: My fingers are freezing. I've got to put my gloves back on now.

JOHN DOLAN: Are you all packed?
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yes, I am.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Okay. You ready to go out now?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well, I wanted to find out, you know, what you can set up with Brian? What time you want that out?

JOHN DOLAN: We're arranging to have him picked up this very, very instant as we speak.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: So he'll be here when you get here.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: Because it takes about, I guess, more than a few minutes to get from that location by van or -- to our location here at the hangar.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: But he'll be here when you're here.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: So it's all set.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I talked to you yesterday a little about this and I'd like to stress it one more time, because I think it's really important that we try as hard as possible to get a good rapport going so that others are confident.

    JOHN DOLAN: We want that.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I know you do.
    JOHN DOLAN: Very, very much.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER: My request, therefore, is that once I'm through the system, which -- I mean, it could happen all today.
    JOHN DOLAN: Um-hum.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER: It, it could be next week, but once I'm through which -- I mean, I don't think they're going to charge me or anything, I didn't do anything, but --
    JOHN DOLAN: I know that.
    KATHRYN SCHROEDER: If they hold me as a material witness or whatever and keep me in custody, then well that changes the matter, but if I get through and I'm out on bond or whatever, if I can set it up with Child Protective Services to see the rest of the kids and give them hugs from their parents and basically be able to then come back to where you are, I know that's probably a touchy situation, but if that's at all possible, to call back in here once again and tell the people here, look. The system wasn't so bad, you know, give them confidence.
    JOHN DOLAN: The system works, in other
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: Yes.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Give them confidence in the system that this is what happened to me. I have an arraignment date and I'm out on bond or whatever. If, of course, that does happen.

JOHN DOLAN: Yes.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And, and also to have already seen the children so that I can say to the mothers, you know, your kids are fine, you know. The court's working on getting them placed or whatever and I told them that you loved them. You know, basically just a call back, you know.

JOHN DOLAN: Well, hopefully the others will be out sooner, but I see absolutely no problem with doing that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. That would be, that would be really great.

JOHN DOLAN: Great. Great. I'm looking forward to seeing you also.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's, that's a lot of the reason that some of the people are feeling the way they do. I mean, you know, David aside, you know.

JOHN DOLAN: I know what you're saying.
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I mean we all love David, but --

JOHN DOLAN: I know what you're saying.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- this is our home, so it was, it was a really -- all those matters are taken into consideration.

JOHN DOLAN: I understand completely. Well, we're ready to run the vehicle up and, and pick you up and as we discussed yesterday with Steve, it'll be the same as the children's pickup, if that's okay with you?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. I don't think David's up yet and I wanted to ask him one question before I go.

JOHN DOLAN: He slept real late yesterday. He was really zonked out. He was --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: He was up last night giving --

JOHN DOLAN: Was he?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- Bible study pretty late.

JOHN DOLAN: Was he? Uh-huh.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. So I'm going to ask Steve if, if it would be all right to, to bother him or not and if he --
JOHN DOLAN: Well --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- maybe Steve can ask my question. I mean --

JOHN DOLAN: Maybe Steve could do it for you or -- is it urgent that, that you ask him now or I was going to say maybe you could ask him when you called in.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Well, you know, I mean me going out there, I'm also leaving David -- you
know.

JOHN DOLAN: I understand.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I would like to say good-bye.

JOHN DOLAN: I understand completely.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Oh, you do have the six gallons of whole milk, right?

JOHN DOLAN: Whole milk. No two percent
this time.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: No two percent. Whole milk.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And did you happen, did you happen to get Newsweek or Time?

JOHN DOLAN: We're working on that right
now. What happened here is, is -- you're not going to believe this, but they're all sold out. But we'll get them today. If, if we have to, we'll have them faxed in, you know what I mean? By Fax machine.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. And the other thing that probably we need to be asking for pretty soon is toilet paper.

JOHN DOLAN: I can understand that. Yes, we'll start working on that too.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: If you can start working on that one.

JOHN DOLAN: That's, that's no problem. I know the stores aren't sold out of that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: We can get that working. How do you -- okay. Is, is the pickup place then -- we'll use the same pickup place as the children.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: They didn't know. All of them were sold out but they're working on getting copies -- even if they have to fax them in.

JOHN DOLAN TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: It's working. She's talking to someone.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: What now?

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. The question I was going to ask -- do you have a suitcase or, or carry bag or -- KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. I've got a suitcase -- I mean, a little overnight bag.

JOHN DOLAN: A little overnight bag, okay.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And two of my children's bookbags.

JOHN DOLAN: That's fine.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I've got some things to give the kids --

JOHN DOLAN: Sure. Sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I heard -- somebody said on the radio -- somebody said they heard on the radio this morning that my kids are in South Dakota, or at least on their way back to South Dakota.

JOHN DOLAN: I didn't hear that report, but you know it's so --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Somebody just told me a little while ago.

JOHN DOLAN: Oh, okay. It's amazing. We've been hearing radio reports of all things, I mean, that are just totally not true. Some are partially true. It's, it's incredible. We get calls in from all over the country on what's going on. So --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah.

JOHN DOLAN: -- you know, you could -- and CPS, Child Protective Service, is doing home studies
now. I know that for a fact, so -- why -- one of the fellows just asked what was in the suitcase. So I guess besides the books there's just personal clothing and that stuff?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Personal clothing. I have a few cassette tapes for my children --

JOHN DOLAN: Fine.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- of, you know, stories and stuff.

JOHN DOLAN: Sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And, you know, personal articles, you know. Shampoo and stuff.

JOHN DOLAN: Fine, fine.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Clothing, the, the two bookbags carry basically school books, because I was home schooling my children.

JOHN DOLAN: Right. Right.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: So I -- I don't know why I can't. I just want to get them, at least if they, if they're not -- well, whatever. Anyway, that's beside the point.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Basically that's it, you know. A couple of toys that I threw in for the kids.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. I'd like to get the, the vehicle started up there if you're ready to go. I know you need to say good-bye --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Am I, am I supposed to walk down or can somebody take -- drive me down? Or what?

JOHN DOLAN: The -- you mean somebody drive down -- I'd just prefer that you'd walk out and just walk down the road and to where the kids were picked up, if that's okay with you. I know it's a little rainy, but --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Is it raining?

JOHN DOLAN: It was before. I don't have a window here. I can't see anything. I can't see anything. Well, let me, let me -- one, one -- they have a question here so let me find out --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: -- if I can get the question for you.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: He wants me to walk down to the gate.

(Pause.)

JOHN DOLAN: Are you able to carry everything yourself?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I think so.

JOHN DOLAN: You can, okay.
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: That's, that's why I asked.

JOHN DOLAN: Fine.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: But, I mean, I could put one of the bookbags on my back and --

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. I think that would be -- might be better.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- and the overnight bag on my shoulder and then I can carry the other bookbag.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Okay. I think that might be better.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Like I said. I'm a healthy person.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Then we can get -- whenever you want to start walking down the road, just if you want to do it now, we can do it now. If you need --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: What time is it now?

JOHN DOLAN: It's a little bit -- it's 9:40. It's coming up to 10:00, so --

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Why don't we say I'm, I'm going to walk out -- hang on before I make the decision.

JOHN DOLAN: Sure. Sure.

(Pause.)
KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. Why don't we say I'm going to walk out the door 10:00.

JOHN DOLAN: At 10:00 a.m. sharp.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yeah. Give me 20 minutes to --

JOHN DOLAN: Sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: -- at least pass on a message to David if I can't actually talk to him --

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Now, just as an insight, the agents are going to be very gentle, so you know, please be assured that there's nothing, you know, along those lines that's, that's going to happen. They're going to be extremely gentle and just follow their directions and they'll be very explicit what they want you to do.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And Brian's going to be waiting and you got a video tape to, to tape it, right?

JOHN DOLAN: Yes, we do. In fact, it's set up on a tripod. I saw it myself.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: It's in the corner of the room.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: And yes, it's all ready to go.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: All right. Great.
JOHN DOLAN: So, great. Great.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I shall see you probably then in a half an hour or so.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. We'll leave it this way, that you'll depart at exactly at 10:00 a.m.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: 10:00 a.m.

JOHN DOLAN: How's that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Yep.

JOHN DOLAN: And what -- I've got about 9:40 now.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I --

JOHN DOLAN: Now, would it be possible to put Steve on the phone when you're leaving?

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hang, hang on a second.

JOHN DOLAN: Sure.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I have -- shoot, I have 9:45 now.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Is, is this John Cox?

JOHN DOLAN: No. This is John Dolan.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON: No. Dolan. I -- he wants to talk to you when I'm done.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. Steve said fine and I'm going to go see if I can get a last word into JOHN DOLAN: Sounds great and we'll look for you to depart at 10:00 a.m.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: And I got 15 minutes.

JOHN DOLAN: Right.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Thank you.

JOHN DOLAN: Look forward to seeing you.

JOHN DOLAN: Bye-bye.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: -- bull.

JOHN DOLAN: Good morning, Steve. Let me switch over. One second.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: All right.

JOHN DOLAN: How are you this morning?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Very cold.

JOHN DOLAN: Boy, that rain was unbelievable last night.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: It's definitely not Hawaii over here.

JOHN DOLAN: (Laughter.)

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yeah. So I guess we've got it pretty much worked out for Kathy and we're, we're trying to get the others worked out here too now.

JOHN DOLAN: That's great. That's really great. Who else is intending to come out?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: There's going to be another four for sure.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Those are the folks we spoke about yesterday?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right. I don't know if we -- if I mentioned there's going to be Rita Riddle also.

JOHN DOLAN: Rita Riddle.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: That would be another one that is going that I don't think I mentioned.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Excellent. So that would be Oliver, Brad, Kevin, and Rita?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yes.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: And of course I will be talking with quite a few yet today, so let's see. I guess that's -- let's see, what else is there? Yeah -- any, anything there that you wanted to say or --

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Yeah.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: Definitely we -- if you -- the power's working okay, isn't it?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yeah.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. The place -- my hotel actually flickered last night. I said, holy cow. I mean, I thought the lights were going out in my place.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: But, we'd like to, like to have the people watch the press conference tonight. I really think it's going to be interesting today.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: Because with the exception of a few individuals and I stress few individuals against whom serious charges, you know, are going to be pending, all other adults are going to be treated as material witnesses.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: All right.

JOHN DOLAN: So that's a really -- a big plus. And then follow --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: It is.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. And then following the crime scene investigation at the compound, all individuals who are not held for trial will be allowed to return to the compound.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: So I think that's a big factor, because I'm sure there's a lot of people who don't have any other place to go.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Well, that's true.
JOHN DOLAN: So they'll be allowed to return.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: And you know whatever the modifications they want, you know, get some windows or, or -- on the windows.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: That's great.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Well --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: It really is.

JOHN DOLAN: You know, we've -- we started something, you and I a few days ago and this is just -- the momentum is continuing, so --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Good.

JOHN DOLAN: -- that's good. It's really good.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Good.

JOHN DOLAN: And I appreciate all your efforts in there. It's been, it's been tough. I know that.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Let's see. So what, what time do you have there, John?

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. My watch may be a little bit, little bit fast --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: -- or a little bit slow, rather, but I'm looking around 9:46, 47. I think Kathy was going to come out some, some -- exactly at 10:00 a.m. according to her watch.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right. Right.

JOHN DOLAN: So we're probably looking at ten minutes. And then when she comes out and then, then we'll, you know, we'll work on all the other stuff and get that done.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right. Actually what I'm going to do is try to work out who's going next now and --

JOHN DOLAN: That'll be fine.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Apparently they want to go one by one. At first I was going, I was going to try to get them all to go at the same time, but I guess they wanted to see how she did and, I mean, not that they aren't -- I mean, they're coming for sure by the way.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Who, who is -- who do we think will be next?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I think the next one -- I think it's going to be Oliver.

JOHN DOLAN: Oliver?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yeah.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Very good.
STEVE SCHNEIDER: He's the one that expressed -- when I was talking with them, one of the first ones that I, I talked to that I thought might want to be going and so I think, yeah, he'll be coming next.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Great. Great. And I think the fact that, you know, some people do not have a place, or for that matter, a lot of funds. The fact that they can return there afterward and have a place to stay and so on, you know, might be, might be a good thing.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: And it's, you know, I think it's a humanitarian thing too. That they have some place --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Well, it definitely would be.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Yeah. So that's all arranged, that's been cleared, and that's a guarantee and so on and so forth. So --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Apparently somebody had been watching the news or something last night and it was spoken of that, I guess, David was on -- was in Time and Newsweek. Do you know anything --

JOHN DOLAN: Yes, yes. You know, this is amazing, but we sent, we sent a couple of fellows out this morning to the -- one of these like --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: They're all sold out.

JOHN DOLAN: It's all sold out already. So what we're going to do is we're going to call back east and have them facsimile copies out.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I see.

JOHN DOLAN: Facsimile copies. So it won't be as clear. You know how those Fax copies are, but the -- but you can read the whole thing.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: So we're working on doing that right now.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I see. Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: So, yeah. We'll definitely -- those will be definitely here today. They'll be in this morning, so that'll be -- we'll get that done.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I mean it's more -- in fact, David, he don't even care, but it's a couple of people are curious and they -- there's no question it won't be good. In the first place, I don't -- he has no interest in it, it doesn't seem at all.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Well, you know, yeah. You know the press. I don't think it's going to be praiseworthy.
STEVE SCHNEIDER: Oh yeah. Well, no, of course not. Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: Great.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Is there anything else that we can do right now?

JOHN DOLAN: Nope. We got -- everything is, is just, is just great and I'm looking forward to seeing Kathy and then we're going to have Kathy and Brian together here at the hangar.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Good.

JOHN DOLAN: And then we're going to have Kathy call you back.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Good job.

JOHN DOLAN: Great. Great.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right now, I'll be battling the cold along with trying to do some more talking, but --

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: -- this place definitely is miserably cold.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Now, probably if it's okay, if you could come on the phone when she's going out.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Oh, okay.

JOHN DOLAN: That might be a good coordination. You and I could keep --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. I'll do that for sure then.

JOHN DOLAN: Great.

STEVE SCHNEIDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

Yeah.

JOHN DOLAN: I'll talk --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Just a minute.

JOHN DOLAN: Sure.

STEVE SCHNEIDER TO UNIDENTIFIED PERSON:

Yeah, right. They're going to go faxing it -- right. They're going to have it. They're going to have the facsimile of it. Yes?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Oh, David I just -- he's talking to me. He says he would like it, if it's at all possible -- in fact, he'd like to have original copies.

JOHN DOLAN: Original.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yeah.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Of the Time and Newsweek.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Okay. I will -- I'll do my absolute utmost.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: If we have to get them driven down, we'll get the originals driven down from somewhere.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: All right.

JOHN DOLAN: But we'll, we'll get that.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: All right.

JOHN DOLAN: Absolutely.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Thanks.

JOHN DOLAN: Well, let's work on -- what we'll work on doing is we'll get the faxes in first and then we'll get the originals following that, if, if that's a start.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: But, yeah, we'll absolutely get the originals.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: All right.

JOHN DOLAN: Definitely.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. I'll call you back as soon as she's ready. I'll go see if she's got everything together here and make sure she's out at ten.

JOHN DOLAN: Great, Steve. Thanks so much.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yeah. I'll be calling you right back.

JOHN DOLAN: Talk to you right back.

JOHN DOLAN: Bye-bye.

* * * *

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: What time is it?

(Dial tone.)

JOHN DOLAN: Hello.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Hello. This is Kathy.

JOHN DOLAN: Hi, Kathy. Let me switch over. One second.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.

JOHN DOLAN: Hi.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I just got to let you know I'm running around. I'm trying to get out the door, but I'm just not ready. I've got to give everybody one last kiss goodbye.

JOHN DOLAN: Just take a deep breath and give everybody one last kiss goodbye.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay. I just don't want you to think I'm, I'm messing up. Okay?

JOHN DOLAN: You're not.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: I'll be out as soon as I finish.

JOHN DOLAN: I know that.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER: Okay.
JOHN DOLAN:  Have Steve give me -- do you -- just give me a rough idea, because we do have to have the vehicle on standby to pick you up.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  What time is it?
JOHN DOLAN:  It's ten -- about ten after ten.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Oh, my gosh, already?
JOHN DOLAN:  Already.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  By 10:30 definitely.

JOHN DOLAN:  Okay. All righty.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Okay.

JOHN DOLAN:  Okay. Talk to you.

KATHRYN SCHROEDER:  Bye-bye.

JOHN DOLAN:  Bye-bye.

(Connection broken.)

*   *   *   *   *

JOHN DOLAN:  Yeah, Steve. Let me switch over.

STEVE SCHNEIDER:  Okay.

JOHN DOLAN:  How you doing?

STEVE SCHNEIDER:  Not too bad.

JOHN DOLAN:  Good.

STEVE SCHNEIDER:  She's about ready to go out here. Is there going to be the press conference now or --
JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. They're still going through with that.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I wanted to -- let's see.

I'm going to send her out. Is there any way I can go watch it though?

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Just send her out and go watch it.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. We got, we got a problem that has nothing to do with you guys. It's -- we've been listening to a radio station, AM 1190.

JOHN DOLAN: 1190.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Some woman called in and acts like she's part of us. Has an eight-year-old daughter here that she gave 180,000 and we're preparing for Armageddon, and we're waiting for the Lord Jes-- I mean -- no -- it's no truth.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. I know that.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Nothing -- we didn't even know such a thing at first.

JOHN DOLAN: I know that. Like you said, there's, there's all this --

STEVE SCHNEIDER: But, but can we -- when she gets out, can she make at least one phone call and you stay right there. All she needs to do is call that man and say we have no -- we don't know who that person was. We disavow what the person had to say. Can you allow her to do that?

   JOHN DOLAN: Okay. Who, who do you want to call? Just, just give me --

   STEVE SCHNEIDER: Well, Kathy Schroeder, when she gets out there. Just have her call, I think it's, it's 1190 --

   JOHN DOLAN: Uh-huh.

   STEVE SCHNEIDER: -- and it's this Ron whatever his name is. I don't know.

   JOHN DOLAN: On 1190?

   STEVE SCHNEIDER: Yes. And she -- he's got some woman on there that is acting like she's in here, she's crying. I mean, it's incredible. It's almost believable.

   JOHN DOLAN: Okay. We'll, we'll check, but yeah, let's get Kathy out. We'll check on that.

   STEVE SCHNEIDER: Well, no. I mean, no. But make sure that she can call and --

   JOHN DOLAN: I'll tell you what. If, if, if we -- okay. We, personally, will call over here. We'll have, we'll have the guys, the special agents, call and tell him that.

   STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. Say they from that compound called us and said they had heard that report and they disavow, disavow this person.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. 1190 AM. And the DJs name?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I believe it's Ron Engle -- Engleman.

JOHN DOLAN: Engleman.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Right.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay. We'll get that done.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay?

JOHN DOLAN: Sure.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. Real good.

JOHN DOLAN: Okay.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: She's going to be heading out here.

JOHN DOLAN: Heading out right now.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Where's, where's the -- is there a carrier out there yet or they tell me there isn't or --

JOHN DOLAN: A carrier? How do you mean?

STEVE SCHNEIDER: I mean, she's going to the gate or --

JOHN DOLAN: As soon as she comes out they'll start the carrier.
STEVE SCHNEIDER: Oh, I see. So she just waits at the gate then.

JOHN DOLAN: Yeah. Just have her go out now.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay. Real good.

JOHN DOLAN: Great, Steve.

STEVE SCHNEIDER: Okay, bye.

JOHN DOLAN: Thank you. Bye.

(Connection broken.)

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: He wants to go watch the press conference.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: They want to watch -- they're watching this.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Is she coming down now?

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: Okay. We need a -- rep that somebody's got to call that guy and say that the compound is disavowing --

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #1: Let's, let's --

UNIDENTIFIED MALE SPEAKER #2: Recommend press, press officer call station and say --

(End of Tape #115)
