(Tape 243)

STEVE: -- be out here sooner.

DWAYNE: Well, if there's anything I think I could say or do to, to help you come to that decision, I certainly would.

STEVE: Okay.

DWAYNE: I prefer to kind of go, to use a Socratic method --

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DWAYNE: -- and to help -- I, I'm -- your degree is in religion, is that correct?

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: I, I'm sure you're quite aware of the early gnostics and current agnosticism.

STEVE: I am.

DWAYNE: What are your thoughts are on agnosticism?

STEVE: Well, myself, it's not something for me. I understand how they came to the place they did. I see a logic in it. And I would do -- I would not judge or condemn those that have that kind of philosophy or view things in that manner but it's not for me. I have found something that has more answers more consistently. So, -- but, I've -- I have many friends right now, they're agnostics and I don't judge them. I really believe like in the Book of Romans that one day, you know, they're going to be people saved from all walks of life, even agnostics. It's just that the, the statements are made clear that we're judged according to what light came to us and what we did with that light. So, I've never been one to quickly judge another. I can't judge you, I can't judge the commanders. I don't, I don't know what their experience in life has been. I just know that there's a lot of responsibility on me for all that I have seen even -- and even though I don't -- I do not have the ability to mirror or reflect all that information to give it as it's been given to me. It's still, you know, I, I see it clearly in my mind but it's a near impossibility to give it to another in the manner that David can.

DWAYNE: You know, in, in my experience many people I think misunderstand or confuse, perhaps, agnosticism and atheism.

STEVE: Well, they do confuse it is right, many do,
DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Where you and I both know an agnostic is one that does not say there is no God but they just -- well, what do you have for proof that, you know, what it is and how the whole thing works and --

DWAYNE: You're absolutely right, it's an open question.

STEVE: It is.

DWAYNE: And you might -- back -- my training is pretty much in, in the sciences. So, I, I kind of look for empirical facts and --

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: -- as you know, it's, it's extremely difficult to provide empirical facts and I've even seen some actual physical events that people say, well, look, there is an example but there, there are other explanations. And it could be --

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: -- you know, it could be a biblical explanation but it could also be a purely physical one.

STEVE: Right, I agree with you. I've never -- even looking at the prophecies and I'm aware that certain ones seemingly have taken place but they're not -- there's never been any that are so detailed that it comes right down to a date, a minute, a second and, you know, consistently on through. So, it always leaves room for a lot of doubt. That's why I've said -- I told Rick one day, some days ago, that we were talking about some of these things and I says, I'm not adamant about anything. Because I believe today does not mean tomorrow I will. Tomorrow I might throw my hands up in disgust and say, I've had the course. That's it with this whole thing. And I -- in fact, there are many times I wonder is there a God, I question the book. And then like a couple of these guys ask me, well, what about David? Well, how much more him if I question the possibilities of either being a God or not.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: So, you know, like with David, it's been a lot of years of observation, a lot of hard pointed questions. There's been, there's been struggles, of course, and -- meaning with some of the information that we're looking at. But overall, I haven't found anything better or more solid yet. So, that's why I've always said I go by the weight of evidence.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.
STEVE: And that's the most I've ever been able to find in my life.

DWAYNE: Yeah. Well, yeah, these, these are tough questions. I guess one thing I always look at is -- and I guess it's pretty clear -- I put the, the current life -- I mean I address those issues now and try to do things every day so that if there is something later on I haven't done, you know, I mean I have to live the life today and take care of the secular things, the physical things. But I do nothing that -- or at least I try not to, let me say it that way --

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: -- that would put me in bad stead. You seem to, on the other hand, kind of live for the next life rather than this life. All right --

STEVE: But -- well, you -- you're right.

DWAYNE: -- or am I overstating that?

STEVE: Well, no -- well, I guess some ways you are because while I'm here, I've, I've got to, like everybody, fulfill Matthew 25 which talks about in the last days, there are sheep and goats and people will be saved by how they reacted to God by reacting to their fellow man.

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: So, what you're saying is, you know, if you don't understand anything else, if you don't understand the doctrine, it doesn't make sense, God will honestly judge people as they've judged what they've understood so, thereby, those people that have at least tried to be good to their fellow man and treated them as best they could as, as they would have men treat them. I mean that's always been the principle. It is really the principle of Christianity. So, even my day by day living has been where I have tried to help people no matter who they are. I've always had a great concern and love for people, I really have even though, you know, you've heard me or they've -- you -- I've -- there's been a lot of different emotions that have been recorded with me on the phone but the bottom line is I do -- I don't dislike anybody. I might at some time because of being tired, warn out or frustrated, say things but I always apologize. It's always been a trait of mine. But at the same time, I do hope for the best for everyone, I really do. If, if it were up to me and there is a God and there's some truth to that book, I would have everybody be saved in this whole world. I would not be apt to judge anyone quickly, not -- I mean anybody's that had to live in this world where there's death, dying, disease, the uncertainties of what today or tomorrow brings, I guess I would be very merciful and open to all but they --

DWAYNE: With --

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: -- with all the sincerity in your voice, Steve, I, I guess one question comes to mind:
when looking at your past life I think you and, you and Judy were, were married in Hawaii for 17 or 18 years before you came here?

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: And I guess, again, the, the fundamental question, how, how did -- in your view, how did you end up getting in the midst with what you were attempting to do which is find God and spiritualism and so forth? How did it end up that you got in the middle of a massive shootout with, with a number of people that have been killed? What's been from your -- well, how did that happen?

STEVE: Yeah --

DWAYNE: Did you ever ask your -- you know, you're going along saying, geez, how did I get myself in this kind of --

STEVE: Well, no, -- yeah, really, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: -- well, I mean I asked that the day it happened and, you know, frequently since, of course. And -- well, it originally started, you know, with -- I mean there, there never have been plans ever to ever harm or to go after anybody in this world, never.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Even though we've got a foe that is an avowed foe, that's Marc Breault who's now living in Australia. He's the man that actually introduced me to David.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: He was with him for 3-1/2 years. He, himself, has a master's degree in theology.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: He was -- for his age, he had a lot of sense at the time but he was very immature. He never had really any friends. He was an introvert. And all of a sudden he had readily -- he was readily accepted by a number of people because he had an ability to see and to explain fairly profound things from the Bible, more so than even myself. I have an ability to, as the Bible would say, evangelize, where he did not have that as a talent.

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: His talent was more to see the deeper things that might be in the writings of those that have proceeded and -- so, anyway, he's the one that introduced me but in the process -- when I finally came here, he's the one that brought up these things of suicide and all these other things. So, you know, I, I weigh all these things out. And then finally comes to the place where about -- I think it was a year and a half ago, it was a year and a half ago we met this guy Henry. And we've always looked for anything we can to make money where people can study here. And they don't have to work but while they're here, they can, you know, they can be supported with food and a place to live.

DWAYNE: Is that Philip Henry?
STEVE: Pardon?
DWAYNE: That was Philip Henry when you said --

STEVE: No, I can't, I can't remember his last name.

DWAYNE: Oh, Henry was his first name?
STEVE: Henry, yeah. But, anyway, with this guy we, we ran into him. I didn't at first. One of the other guys did. And he started talking about guns and none of us knew much about it. David had -- when he was younger but, you know, not much. But after a while when we started hearing the kind of prices that were being -- these things were sold for, what they were bought and sold for, I mean, of course, we became interested.

DWAYNE: So, that's how -- I was won -- you know, one thing leading up to it.

STEVE: Yeah, that's --

DWAYNE: Where did all the weapons come from? You (Indiscernible) got into it?

STEVE: That's how it began. That's how --

DWAYNE: For investment purposes or resale or just --

STEVE: Yeah, for resale. In fact, what -- see, what we noticed, I -- see, this had nothing to do with me 'cause I'm in the music part. I don't know anything about these things yet even. I don't know really how they work and operate. But they started, a couple of the guys -- Mike Schroeder was the main guy that started doing a lot of -- he was down at what we call "The Shop" or the -- oh, what do you call the place? Anyway, he would -- they -- he was doing a lot of buying and going to shows.

DWAYNE: But that's here around Waco?

STEVE: Yeah.
DWAYNE: I've heard one place call the Mag Bag mentioned.

STEVE: That's the place.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: That's the place. That's where they buy a --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- lot of things and --

DWAYNE: So, Mike Schroeder started buying a lot of things?

STEVE: Yeah, he's the one that put out a lot of the orders and tried to get things as cheap as possible. And they'd go sell any -- anything we -- they could, they try -- I mean once noticing these shows -- there must be other shows but no one's ever familiar with them but we tried a lot of different enterprises to, to make money --

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- where people could be involved working, using their talents and their means but it seems like, you know, no matter what, some, some things are seasonal, some things are this and that and so that seemed at least to be something to bring in some money. And they start even making vests and different things and tried -- you know, just what --
DWAYNE: Making vests?

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: Again for resale?

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: Let me -- why the -- if, if the guns were primarily purchased for investments or for resale, --

STEVE: Uh-huh.

DWAYNE: -- why all the ammunition?

STEVE: That -- well, what was -- apparently what I understand, from about a year ago, I think it was, they found out -- there were rumors through the different shows that they went to that there was going to be a really big jump, a huge jump, just like apparently there had been a couple of years ago. I think that these kind of guns -- what are they called? See I -- what are they called? Assault, I guess, assault weapons or something?

DWAYNE: Okay.

STEVE: I think there was a jump from something like to three to 800 or $1500, and then I think they came down. So, it would seem, then, if one could buy them at -- then they came down again so you could buy them, just like coins at a low price, hang on to them long enough. When they go up, you know, you could make a really good return on your money.

DWAYNE: Yeah. Well, I can see that in terms of perhaps the weapons as an investment if that's what you're talking about doing but I, I still don't understand why the purchase of so much ammunition 'cause the prices of ammunition don't fluctuate much at all.

STEVE: Well, we heard -- from what they told me, they -- I should say they did and I've heard that since being here now in the past month and a half. They told me that -- and there was -- they gave me -- there, there was a couple of names of people they were dealing with that kept on saying, watch and see this jump up. And I don't know where they got their information but it sounded like inside information. And they said there was going to be like 100 percent jump or something like that which, you know, that, that would be an awesome return. But if you had it, you know, you could sell it and so forth.

And I think Paul at the time -- I don't know if it was Paul or Mike, one of those guys, was trying to work on, I don't know, his license, I don't know what he was all working with but -- see, I don't really know a whole lot about that. I -- I've always been in the music end of this whole thing. And, you know, David's quite a musician so that's -- I know more about that. I don't know much about this other area at all.

DWAYNE: And I guess David's musical career has been on hold for quite some time?

STEVE: Well, no, not really because if you remember -- well, I don't know, I guess it wasn't you I was telling that but John -- there was a number of guys that we actually flew out here like November, October, November, and we were auditioning some really good talent, really good talent. But at the same time, there's always been two things; you can always hire the best musicians in the world, of course, --

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- but if they don't see to eye-to-eye with what our program is with the Bible, you know, we want to see some of that as in harmony with us and, of course, from there, you know, we'll see that according to the Bible the program goes. So, that's -- you know, it's like a person had to have some -- we -- we've almost taken secondary talent in lieu of someone that might be good as long as they were at least involved in -- and harmonized with where we were at.
DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Otherwise, you know, you get someone saying, well, let's money and they're out drinking, smoking, doing their own thing. And, and, of course, we're not into all that. Most musicians, of course, are very loose and trying to get all they can here and now and --

DWAYNE: Yeah. Okay. Well, that gives me some of the background that, that I hadn't heard before. I presume you've told -- a lot of the early people here, I think, have discussed it.

STEVE: I don't know if I even did. I don't think --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- really too many ever asked but --

DWAYNE: Okay.

STEVE: -- yeah, that's, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- that's basically what it was about. I remember even coming out here about a year ago, a year and a half ago, in the summertime, and when the person -- that man is -- yeah, Henry, or whatever his name was -- he was out here and it seemed like he wanted to sell everybody here anything. Obviously he was a salesperson, you know, wanting to make some money. And, and then we got to know him a little bit and he would pop in every now and then and -- but, basically, that's the way it began. At first there was no real interest.

But we also had -- we were doing a lot of other things like with landscape and trying to fix the cars and you name it, you know, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- I mean just about whatever needed to be -- where people can sit down and, and relax and study and ask questions and send them out again.

DWAYNE: Okay. All right. I have -- I'm looking at the, the cassettes for the CW-16 that Judy sent.

STEVE: Okay.

DWAYNE: And we're going to get those out there. I need to be, you know, to be sending them out there to get all the way, you know, to the Bradleys to get in there. But one question I've been, I've been asked to confirm. Do you remember our conversation yesterday where I think I tried to lay it out, we're, we're not trying to push David to go any quicker but the reason that the issue of the, the, the cartridges came up was Judy saying, look, if you can give me these ink cartridges for the, for the Casio, I, I can do the typing.

    STEVE: Uh-huh.

    DWAYNE: She said then that she had two half tapes, one she'd started to -- I mean ink cassette cartridges. Do you follow what I'm saying?

    STEVE: Okay.

    DWAYNE: Just like the ones we're sending in.

    STEVE: Right.

    DWAYNE: She said, we had one and somehow it got broken or stuck. We started on another one but then we fixed the first one. So, she implied to me that she had two half ones or she could be doing some typing. Do you know if she'd been doing any, any typing at all?

    STEVE: No, I'm sure she hasn't been because -- unless she's been type -- you know, I better not even say that. I didn't think she was.

    DWAYNE: Yeah.

    STEVE: But who knows if she started on some of those text.

    DWAYNE: Yeah.

    STEVE: That I'm not too sure because, you know, a lot -- I'm so busy. A lot of times she'll stop and do things like that for a while. By the time
I come back hours later, you know, she's already slowed down or doing something else.

DWAYNE: Yeah. Well, the reason I asked --

STEVE: But I could find out.

DWAYNE: The reason I ask is that, you know, it's, it's, it's pretty clear that if we're going -- the reason we're willing to send in those cassettes, you know, the typing cassettes, --

STEVE: Uh-hum.

DWAYNE: -- is to get the first manuscript typed and out.

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: That, that was --

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: I think you told me you overheard David confirming that he'd be willing to do that if we'd send in the cassette -- the cassettes, the typing cassettes that you requested.

STEVE: Yeah, I'm sure. I think he was talking to you, wasn't he?

DWAYNE: Yes, he was.

STEVE: Yeah, right.

DWAYNE: And then you got on and said, yes, I've heard him say that. And that's when --

STEVE: Right, I did.
DWAYNE: -- then Judy got on and --

STEVE: I heard him imply something like that.

DWAYNE: Yeah. She had talked about sending in a -- she wanted a lap top computer and I had to say, Judy, if the commanders won't send in batteries, they're not going to send in a lap top computer.

STEVE: Right, right.

DWAYNE: Things kinda went downhill from there. But I guess in coming back to that confirmation that, you know, they're asking me, now, look, you can't just send this in and have them say, well, no, we never agreed to send out the first manuscript when it's completed. That's your understanding and my understanding of the, the agreement.

STEVE: Well, that's what I heard myself, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- as you did. I, I didn't hear what you were saying but I did, of course, you know, standing near the phone, I did --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- hear what he said.

DWAYNE: Okay. I'm, I'm -- I know it's no skin off your teeth but that's -- that kind of a -- the pressure I'm under to say, look, if you're saying, Dwayne, that they've agreed to do that, we'll send it in. If, if that doesn't, you know, somebody will come and grab me by the --

STEVE: Well, if you'd want to hang on to it for just a little bit or find out what's going on first, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- that would be fine with me even.

DWAYNE: Well, you know, if, if we don't get it set up and ready to go and, you know, get, get it in before the evening tonight, --

STEVE: Exactly.

DWAYNE: -- you know, we don't want to be moving around at night.

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: So, it will be delayed until, until tomorrow. I'm just trying to do this -- anything to keep, to keep --

STEVE: I wish it wouldn't have happened earlier because now that it has, I don't know that he's doing a whole lot right now.

DWAYNE: But there still would be -- I mean he says -- he said he had finished writing the first manuscript. It would seem to me then -- STEVE: He did. I heard him -- and I did see -- I did see like 20 -- a stack -- I saw some, you know, a written, handwritten paper --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- pages of notebook, loose-leaf notebook type paper there.

DWAYNE: Yeah. It would seem like that then she could start typing on that and that you could be editing and -- or if, if you're going to do that and she could be typing. So, even if he's not writing much more now on the second seal, at least that one could be typed. Do you see the, the rationale?

STEVE: No, I know, I saw right from the beginning.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I'm -- I like you, of course, you know, right from the beginning when you see a project or something's that done or going to be done, you look at all the avenues, every aspect of it, and you go ahead and you do what you got to do to get it accomplished and --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: But, see, 6-1/2 years being involved in this group, it's never worked that way.

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: If a guy comes into this group and he's an awesome mainframe computer programmer or it's a doctor, an attorney or like myself, someone in the Bible, now you end up sweeping floors first or you end up seeing him do something totally opposite or contrary to what common sense and what you would see as the most obvious thing to do is and --

DWAYNE: Is that by happenstance or do you think there's --

STEVE: No, that's a lot of times purposely.

DWAYNE: Ah.

STEVE: Yeah, and, you know, it was --

DWAYNE: For, for what purpose?

STEVE: -- a very frustrating experience in the beginning but then as time goes on, you see that the God of the book has always worked with a -- I mean it's a -- if you read Jeremiah's account and Isaiah and all these guys, what a frustrating life they had.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: Seriously. I mean who would ever want to be a prophet? I mean I definitely would not want to be. Christians, almost 2 billion of them, think it would be some great thing to have visions of colored things of the future and seeing this and that, like being there and -- well, no one, not when such a responsibility is placed upon them to then try to relate in human language their experience and then they're never believed in the first place, especially because they're -- usually do not have degrees. They don't look right. They don't smell right. I mean when you go through the history of the Bible, you see it's always been that way, --

DWAYNE: You know, --

STEVE: -- man judging man by the outward appearance, not by what he has to say.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Go ahead.

DWAYNE: I'm trying to get this thing done.

John Cox yesterday --

STEVE: Okay.

DWAYNE: -- I think hit on -- it sounded like he caught David's attention when he -- when I think David said, you know, we have two legal secretaries in here. And John said, well, David, instead, instead of writing this out laboriously longhand yourself and have somebody type it, why not just dictate to these two legal secretaries? That sounds like their expertise. And --

STEVE: It is.

DWAYNE: And David --
STEVE: They're very good.

DWAYNE: -- and John called David and said, yeah, yeah, I -- it was like, you know, that that had suddenly come to him and it sounded like he would seriously consider it.

STEVE: Maybe sometimes it takes someone on the outside to --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- say something.

DWAYNE: But see, you know, David was saying, you know, he's not a writer but, obviously, he's an excellent speaker. And that way would be almost be a combination. I mean they could be taking it down and --

STEVE: Truly.

DWAYNE: -- and he could be doing what he does best which is orating or speaking.

STEVE: Did you see that poster, by the way, that we sent in?

DWAYNE: With Al Neice (Ph.)?

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: Yes.

STEVE: You did?

DWAYNE: We did, yeah, the --
STEVE: Okay.

DWAYNE: -- one that -- I forget the guy's name that -- who, who had painted it.

STEVE: Cliff.

DWAYNE: Yeah, Cliff.

STEVE: You ought to see some of the guitar -- maybe we'll send a guitar in one of these days.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: If you guys don't mind picking it up, you can check it over and take it in.

DWAYNE: Is he the one that painted on the guitars that we saw on the tape?

STEVE: Oh, yeah.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Oh, yeah.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: That's right, he did -- I forgot that we did film a few of the guitars.

DWAYNE: Yeah, you did film a few of the guitars on the tape. Some of the explanations, if you will, I, I didn't follow but --

STEVE: On the, on the -- this -- oh, I can't even think of it -- the poster, whatever, that was sent in, do you mean that?

DWAYNE: No, no, the one on Daniel's vision?
STEVE: Yeah, Daniel's --

DWAYNE: That one, that one, even he didn't like me could, could, you know, I know some parts of the Bible even though I may not be a, a --

STEVE: Were you ever aware of that particular chapter or what it was about before?

DWAYNE: Yes.

STEVE: Oh, you were, okay.

DWAYNE: Yeah. I mean but -- I mean I'm, I'm aware of the things. I just haven't dwelt on them like other people.

STEVE: Yeah, right.

DWAYNE: I -- I'll confess, I, I, I didn't know much about the, the one guitar that had the, the nude woman on it. I'm, I'm not sure --

STEVE: That's Psalm 45.

DWAYNE: Yeah. And there's also one where there was a cloud with, with a hand and someone with a, with a finger sticking out. Do you remember that one?

STEVE: Yes, I do.

DWAYNE: I, I can't remember anything in the Bible about something like that.

STEVE: Well, the whole Bible, actually, is written about that very thing, that subject matter. I could sit here right off the top of my head and start giving you chapter.
   DWAYNE:  Okay. All right.
   STEVE:  But I doubt that you're interested.
   But, no, they're really, all the prophecies --
   DWAYNE:  Well, I'm interested but, you know, I'm, I'm much more interested in, as I said, --
   STEVE:  I know.
   DWAYNE:  -- the secular things and, and --
   STEVE:  I, I realize --
   DWAYNE:  -- getting, getting people --
   STEVE:  That's a shame, Dwayne. I'm more interested in you doing all that you want forever more. I don't see --
   DWAYNE:  Yeah.
   STEVE:  -- why it should come to an end.
   DWAYNE:  Well, I just hope that, you know, if there's a judgment, he'll look at me and say, you did the best you could day by day.
   STEVE:  But he'll say, did you have ears?
The first step to salvation, all the Bible says, is hear and thy soul shall live because you can never give anything a valid judgment or a verdict unless you've really listened and evaluated.
   DWAYNE:  But, Steve, isn't belief based on faith?

STEVE: Not all.

DWAYNE: Okay.

STEVE: Only portionately.

DWAYNE: I mean if you don't have faith and you're looking for proof, you'll never find the proof.

STEVE: Can I ask you, do you believe in evolution? Which way would you -- creationism, evolution, where would you -- with all your science and your, your past upbringing, you'd probably tend to go toward evolution I would imagine.

DWAYNE: Through the Darwinism --

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: I think I would lean that way.

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: I mean you, you always get back down to the very beginning and whether it was a beginning somehow by divine intervention or really just --

STEVE: Right, like a deist, like Jefferson --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- and some of these men.

DWAYNE: Yeah. Whether it was some movement by a deist, a, a supreme being or whether it was just a chance combination of a few minuscule molecules and everything started from there. Either one is, --

STEVE: Yeah.

DWAYNE: -- is, is a, is a heck of --

STEVE: It's a --

DWAYNE: -- it's a heck of --

STEVE: -- belief or faith.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I mean that's, that's a --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- point for me, you know, no matter if you're looking at the one or the other, definitely faith is involved.

DWAYNE: Okay.

STEVE: But I find less faith needed --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- in creationism.

DWAYNE: Okay. This is -- maybe, maybe we could continue this later but --

STEVE: Okay.

DWAYNE: -- I'm concerned that darkness is going to come.

STEVE: All right.

DWAYNE: Are you interested -- I mean -- I guess I have to ask you, if we send in the cassettes, the, the, you know, the cassettes for the Casio, can we count on the agreement that we set up yesterday?

STEVE: I don't know now because of all that took place out front and all that.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I better talk to him --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- to see just what he's doing.

DWAYNE: Because he, you know, David and I had talked.

STEVE: I don't want you to go send those cassettes in -- the tape cassettes in --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- and --

DWAYNE: Yeah. And, and Henry just left some notes to me here that mentioned something about, about milk. So, what, you know, we're willing to try to get things along but.

STEVE: Well, Henry's the one that, I believe, originally suggested sending some milk in which was thoughtful of him.

DWAYNE: Well, --

STEVE: He asked me about the children and so forth and then he suggested milk. And I says, well, you know how children are. They always -- it's something they always like a lot. It's a big deal.

DWAYNE: Well, I think, you know, we, we could probably arrange that as, you know, since there's going to be something moved forward and delivered anyhow. But we gotta kinda get things set up now so we can get things moving.

STEVE: I realize. I realize.

DWAYNE: Are you interested in that and could you -- will you -- could you check with David and get right back to see --

STEVE: Okay. I'll get right back to you, okay?

DWAYNE: And, you know, I recognize --

STEVE: Give me about 10 minutes.

DWAYNE: I recognize he may be angry but unless --

STEVE: I don't know if he's angry. He's more --

DWAYNE: -- throw the babies out with the bath water here.

STEVE: No, I know, we're at such odds when it comes to where we're coming from, such, such extreme odds. I mean he's in the spiritual realm and you, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: -- of course, in the other. And he -- you want to actually do the best for us where we can get through this system fairly, I believe that. He's trying to keep a wrathful God who says he's going to do all that -- he'll fulfill every word of that book from Genesis to Revelation off of you and you don't believe it.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: So, it's like he, he more feels for you than he does -- oh, he's not happy about, you know, men that go out of their way doing things that are, to him and to myself, are contrary to the Constitution.

DWAYNE: Well, I understand that and --

STEVE: Well, like to me, I --

DWAYNE: Well, I would appreciate it if you checked with him because --

STEVE: I'll tell you the truth, the ATF to me is totally, even their existence, is unconstitutional, the very thing that they come in here checking for guns. They had no -- according to the way the original -- the way the Constitution was originally written, you and I know that it was written --

DWAYNE: Yeah.
STEVE: -- in a way where all people were to have equity with the government so it could not turn into some kind of tyrannical power --

DWAYNE: Okay, Steve, --

STEVE: -- over them.

DWAYNE: Steve, can, can we postpone that discussion --

STEVE: Oh, yeah, I just wanted to throw that in to see --

DWAYNE: -- I don't want -- I don't want everything to be set up and say, yeah, let's go and, and --

STEVE: Okay, okay. I'm heading up there. I'll call you right back.

DWAYNE: Will you check with --

STEVE: About ten minutes.

DWAYNE: Will you do me a favor?

STEVE: Yes.

DWAYNE: Remind him that it was -- we went over two or three times and I -- I'm counting on kind of him keeping his word and me keeping mine here but we'd like to get the go ahead and say, yes, it -- we'll send in the, the audio -- I mean the ink cassettes, that he will still honor his agreement that as soon as the first manuscript is typed, it will come
STEVE: Okay.
DWAYNE: Okay?
STEVE: I'll call you back.
DWAYNE: Okay.
STEVE: Okay, bye.
DWAYNE: And, and see --
STEVE: Yeah?
DWAYNE: -- if the kids are interested -- check with the moms about the milk or something.
STEVE: Okay. That will be just a few minutes.
DWAYNE: Okay.
STEVE: Okay, bye.

* * * *
STEVE: So that's the first thing he said to me and he said right now he's taking a break and at the same time he says he is continuing on with it. He is doing it. But now he's taking a break.
DWAYNE: Yeah. Okay. So, he is willing to continue with the agreement that if we send in the ink cartridges for the Casio, that as soon as Judy finishes typing the first manuscript, it will come out?

STEVE: Yeah.
DWAYNE: He confirmed that?

STEVE: Yes.

DWAYNE: Ah, okay, that's good. I'm glad to hear that.

STEVE: And then the question is, though, given the two -- I'm waiting for him to give it to her in the first place, though.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: That's the whole thing.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: And I think he's waiting to have it very clearly related to the second. I think that -- I think what he's trying to do is get the framework laid out very clear and concise --

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- where one flows into the other.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I think that's been the reason. And he -- apparently, now that he's -- I think he's at the end. He was at the end of the second, it sounded like.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh. Okay. Well, I guess I'm getting a bit of an unclear message here and I'm not --

STEVE: I am -- to, to be honest with you, --
DWAYNE: Okay.

STEVE: -- I am, myself.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: So, if you are, I can understand because I'm not clear.

DWAYNE: Yeah. I mean I know and we -- if you recall, I didn't say or say, all right, will you promise it will be out by six hours?

STEVE: No, you're right and that's one thing, you know, that's why when Rick says all that he does, saying we've lied, the only time that I could see that he had deduced that is from March 2nd, when we did not come out immediately.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Then the question being immediately.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: You know, like Clint was talking to David and Christ says in Revelation, I come quickly.

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: Two thousand years later, where is he? You know, so, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Anyway, --

DWAYNE: I understand. Well, that's why I mean -- just again to clear it up between you and I,
I'm not saying I'm trying to push him to get it done but --

STEVE: No, I, I, realize that.

DWAYNE: -- just to attach an agreement that these -- if the audio -- I mean if the print wheels go in, you know, the ink cartridges, --

STEVE: Right. It'll take, it'll take no time for the editing and the typing --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- of course. The time is in releasing it to me.

DWAYNE: Yeah. And that's, that's in -- undetermined right now?

STEVE: Yeah, exactly.

DWAYNE: I mean he may want to ponder on it for another --

STEVE: Exactly.

DWAYNE: -- two or three days or more than that.

STEVE: Right.

DWAYNE: Yeah. I think I might have a hard time explaining that -- well, not explaining that but just getting them to -- they, they, I think, may perceive that as, again, reneging on an agreement.
STEVE: Well, then we'll -- let's not make any agree -- let's --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- I'm not -- in fact, I'd rather not make any and you keep the cassettes and the milk and whatever because, you know, it has nothing to do with the milk and cassettes. We'll do it irregardless whether you send that in or not.

DWAYNE: Yeah, okay.

STEVE: I mean that's number one what he's saying.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: So, you know, he -- it's -- once
he's directed -- see, Dwayne, that's the whole thing.
He, he will do what he's gotta do.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: And even though your -- you people are trying to be helpful to get the thing going, that which is great and commendable but at the same time he'll still do it irregardless. So, I --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- but the whole thing is, you know,
I'm anxious to see the first -- I see a stack of papers he had there and I wanted to look at it and he's not even willing to let -- hand it to me yet.
DWAYNE: Oh, you've asked? Have you asked him?

STEVE: Yeah, I did.

DWAYNE: And he said, I'd rather you not look at it?

STEVE: He says, not yet, he said -- number one, he's -- a lot of times what he'll do is if he writes something out and he doesn't like his own handwriting and he says it's hard to read -- I haven't found it that hard to read -- he actually spells phonetically and --

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- I don't find it hard to read or understand at all.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: But, anyway, I guess he wants to tie it in to the second before handing it off --

DWAYNE: Uh-huh.

STEVE: -- even.

DWAYNE: You know, perhaps this idea of dictating may help him because I think that's -- that is his forte of, of, of, of bringing together the scriptures.

STEVE: Well, I mentioned that also. I mentioned that and he said he did respond in a positive manner to --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- yesterday to you about that.

DWAYNE: Yeah, well, actually to John Cox but that's all right.

STEVE: I meant meaning -- well, when I say you, I meant, you know, you people.

DWAYNE: Oh, yeah, you keep talking about the, the plural us.

STEVE: Yes.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: So, --

DWAYNE: Okay. So, what you're saying is you're not too interested in the, in the, the ink cassettes and the milk and stuff like that right now?

STEVE: Well, I mean they would take it, of course.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: But I, I don't want to use that as some measure where if they -- the commanders think it's some kind of thing with promise or with --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: -- tieing it into anything like that. You know, that, I don't care for that idea at all.
DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I'd rather, myself, the way I've always seen things -- I'm like that, that March 2nd, when one says they're going to do something, I, myself, like to do it then.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: I, you know, always have been that way. So,

DWAYNE: Yeah. That, that was a, a biggie there when --

STEVE: Well, it was hard for everybody here. DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: Believe me, it was hard for even himself but he's had -- dealt with this -- well, his God and they always -- they ask questions, well, what do they mean his God? Well, you know, I don't know God. That's the point. The only thing I know is a book and what it says about something I've never seen.

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: So, I mean -- well, that's why I basically said it that way. I -- you could say it's my God, too, if I believe in that God of the Bible which is revealed by him. So, --

DWAYNE: Yeah.

STEVE: But, anyway, so I don't know what --
DWAYNE: Well, you know, I --

STEVE: I think it would go a long way to showing that you definitely want to help us in getting it done.

DWAYNE: Well, I think maybe we're willing to make that gesture now. It --

STEVE: Okay.
