Baseball Schedule.

Several Hot Games Are in Sight, and the Fans Next Get Busy.

On next Monday, March 24, Normal invades San Antonio, tackling the West Texas cadets, who have won three clean victories, having beaten San Antonio High, Peacocks' and Marshall. On the same day Coronal and Academy lock horns on the local diamond in their first clash. The following Monday Normal goes against Coronal; then on April 7 we meet the Baptists again, and it will be a battle royal to win back our laurels lost in the first game. Academy went mighty well against the Austin league team, and the brackets that tie the Baptists will have to show the real baseball stuff.

Coach Robinson has been driving his hopefuls mighty hard, and they have been picking up lately in a surprising way, especially in the batting department. The coach is more than pleased with the hitting of his players. So Mr. Houston, the far-famed twirler for the West Texas cadets, is due to receive his drubbing when our Macks, Johnnies and the rest of them hit the former's town next Monday.

Other games scheduled so far, besides those mentioned, are with Austin Academy here on April 14, and West Texas here on April 19. The Normal spirit will cost you little, will benefit the school and help the team.

The new candidates for places on the team are Caffey and Farber. Caffey, especially, is acquiring goods form as an infielder, and will strengthen the fence around second and short a great deal. Farber, also, seems pretty sure of making good at first, provided he can pick up a little in fielding and hitting.

The following will compose the San Antonio invading squad next Monday: Robinson, coach; Dobson and Vest, catchers; Harrell (captain) and Hearne, pitchers; Farber, 1st base; D. Coers, 2d base; Truett, 3d base; Caffey, short stop; McCooey, L. Coers and Sweeney, feeders; Lilly and Tillery, substitutes.

A Few Observations Regarding Her Various Duties.

The teacher is a person who teaches things to people when they are young. Teacher comes to school at 8:30 o'clock and when she has gotten enough children for a mess in her room she teaches them reading, writing, geography, grammar, arithmetic, music, drawing, cooking, board sawing, crocheting, deep breathing, bird calls, scientific eating, patriotism, plain and fancy bathing, forestry, civics, and other sciences too numerous to mention. When school is out she stays behind with five or six of her worst scholars and tries to save the state a job of reforming them later on. After that she carries her home to make her, feed her, dress her, and catch a hearty supper before going back to attend a lecture by an important specialist on the history of tribal law in Patagonia which the superintendent thinks may be useful in her school work some day.

A great many teachers roam the country preying on school teachers and some of them are very cruel, talking to them so long that the poor things have to sit up till morning when they get home, to get there daily test papers corrected. School teachers' salaries range from $30 a month up, but not far enough up to make them dizzy. With her salary the teacher must dress nicely, buy herself things for her work the city or county is to poor to get, go to thirty lectures and concerts, buy helpful books on pedagogy, pay her way to district, county and state institutes, and enjoy herself during a three month's vacation. In addition, a teacher is supposed to board away vast sums of money, so when she becomes too nerverous and cross to teach at about the age of 50, she can retire and live happily ever after on her income. Teachers earn their salaries, as well as their vacation.

Sun Antonio High vs. Normal on High School Grounds at 4:30 p. m.

Every Normalite who attended the football game between San Antonio High and Normal last fall will remember how extremely glad they were that Normal won the game. And you had better come to be here to-day, for it looked before the last minute of play that the San Antonio lads had the best of the Normal boys.

There is going to be another game played this afternoon at the same place and by the same teams—except it will be a game of baseball—and it behoves every Normal enthusiast to be out with their rooting clothes on. Normal has a first class team, but it must have the support of the student body at large or it is not going to be able to make us feel proud of it. Remember that school spirit is half the game, and you should be out to play your part. Who wouldn't do his best, knowing that more than five hundred fellow students were watching him and betting on him?

Remember the date, place and time—today on the High School grounds beginning at 4:30.

The Young Women's Christian Association met last Thursday evening. We were very sorry that it was impossible for our secretary to be with us. The time was spent very profitably in a discussion of our rest room. Then we talked about our new cabinet officers. Misses Johns and Perring sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," in a beautiful and impressive manner. To the new girls who have just entered the Normal, we extend a cordial invitation to them to come and meet with us. We extend the same invitation to any girl who has not yet learned what the Association really is.

Hurry up and get that yell in which is to get school spirit aroused for the coming debate.

Miss Myrtle Carruth was notified last week of the serious illness of her mother, and immediately left for her home. She will be missed by a host of friends and the Star will miss her contributions. We trust that she will be with us again soon.

For the benefit of the Senior who seemed to be so interested in the Senior play this year, and for others who are interested, the Star is glad to announce that the play is again assured for this year. The characters are being selected and preparations have begun under the guidance of Mr. Thomas. Future references will appear in these columns.

ENTERTAINMENT.

On March 29th, the Germanisches Gesellschaft will give an entertainment (the German play to be given by the Junior class included) in the Auditorium. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Remember, also, that there will be no charge.

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," is a very wise and true quotation. There is nothing on earth that will assist a young man in his love affairs as a classy hair cut. The Buckhorn Barber Shop, back of the Citizens Bank, is the place to get one.

THE RANDOM SHOT.

I shot an arrow into the air, It fell in the distance, I knew not where; Till a neighbor said it killed his calf, And I had to pay him $6 1-2.

I bought some poison to slay some rats, And a neighbor swore it killed his rats, And rather than argue across the fence I paid him $4 and 50 cents.

One night I set sailing a toy balloon, And hoped it would soar till it reached the moon; But the candle fell on a farmer's straw, And he said I must settle or go to law.

And that is the way with the random shot; It never hits in the proper spot; And the joke you tell that you think is smart, May leave a wound in some fellow's heart.---Ex.

One of the daintiest luncheons served by the domestic science girls was the one given by Misses Simon and Alspa. The color scheme of violet was charmingly carried out in the table decorations and the courses. The place cards were the work of an artist, and could not be surpassed in their originality and beauty. They contained the following menu:

- Fruit soup, fried chicken, o-collaged cabbage, baked potatoes, spinach, olives, rolls, salad with mayonnaise, pineapple ice, cake and coffee.

The above was faultlessly served by Miss Simon, and the guests went away feeling that they never had a more enjoyable time or eaten a more delicious meal.

Domestic Science in Germany.

The requirements of the domestic science schools of Germany are interesting as compared with the methods of similar schools in this country.

The student must bring a certificate of good character from the police or a clergyman, also a health certificate from a physician. If desired, someone from the school will meet her at the station, on her arrival and she went: "You ought to have seen Mr. Marshall when he called to see Dolly the other night," remarked Johnny to his sister's young man, who was taking tea with the family. "I tell you, he looked fine, a-sittin' alongside of her with his arm". "Johnny!!" gasped his sister, her face the color of a boiled lobster.

"Well! so he did," insisted Johnny. "He had his arm".

"John!!" screamed the mother frantically.

"Why!!" said the boy. "I was--" John," said the father sternly, "save the pan.

And Johnny left crying as he went: "I was only going to say he had his army clothes on."

Post Cards at The Fair

While in Fort Worth on business last week, Mr. Beard found it necessary to send a telegram to another man of the Pedagogue editorial staff. However, for unexplained reasons he got things mixed and sent the telegram to the wrong party. It would be a blessing to humanity if all of our state had prohibition.

A Cincinnati business house had sold a bill of goods to a new customer in the interior of Kentucky who was not rated by Dunn or Bradstreet. The goods went C.O.D. and a typewritten letter advising the country merchant that the goods had been sent, was then mailed to him. This the country merchant acknowledged in the following letter, in which he makes some highly original objections to the methods of the commission house.

"Gentlemen—I want you to understand that I ain't no damn fool when I borrt that Bill from that read headed agent of yores from cincinnati to git that order. I thot he was lying and I borrt all my goods from the jersey and he told me he sold the jersey and I would tell me just like he sold the Jersey now you writes me a print ect letter and sez if I send you the munny you will send me the goods. I reckon you will, most enny durn fool ud do that. I would not mit a Bit send in the munny ann risk gettin' the stuff but when I reckolleck how you an your agent done me I refuse to do it if you would of treated me right and rit me letters in rittin and not of sent me that newspaper printed letter like I was a dam fool and could not read riting I would a took the goods and pade the cash."

I don't want no more of yore printed letters I wont stan sich from no house I am fifty-six yeers old the last of next com in janiwary and the first man has got to put my bck on the groun yit.
