RE: October 20 conference call

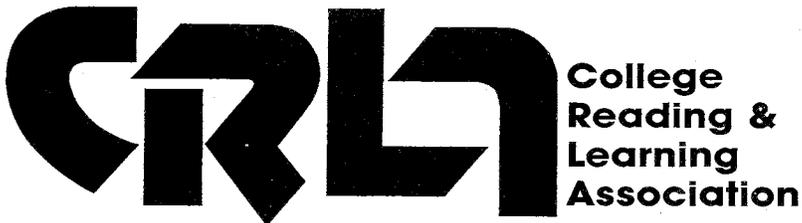

The focus of this call will be a discussion on professional organization liaisons - what are our expectations; benefit to CRLA; interassociation council concept (feasible?, realistic?).

We'll also discuss the idea of other associations wanting to affiliate with CRLA - what does this really mean/what is our definition of affiliation? What are the benefits of affiliation (discounted joint membership, journal sharing, etc.)? What are the requirements?

Gladys and I still haven't connected; hopefully, that will happen sometime this week so I should have detailed information on the interassociation council concept for this call.

We'll also take a few minutes to share updates, like who our new officers are (Becky Patterson moved the election response date up from November 1 to October 10, so I will be notifying the candidates of the outcome October 13 or 14), latest with NADE and the 1995 conference, and any other items each of you may have.

I look forward to our time together on the 20th. Until then, take care.
